I.M. LATE

All ADAG deadlines are on A Saturday, and I start publishing on Sunday, unfortunately, last Sunday I had to attend a Union meeting where we had to vote on whether we would accept our new contract, also the Cylinder on my machine needs to be repaired, plus trying to bring EPGIART and THE LOST ONE up to date. So I will after this issue be able to get back on the three weeks deadline.

HIGH LIVER

I haven't received the rules for this game, so rather than wait once more, and until Mr Shagrin ever decides to publish again, I am cancelling this game.

CONSTANTINOPLE : Russia has violated the treaty of non-aggression and mutual assistance. Sevastopol was to remain demilitarized. Accordingly, the Turkish Government has issued directives to its field commanders to initiate any measures necessary to protect the Empire from Attack by Russia. The War with the Empire will continue. It is hoped that the Tsarina and her Advisors will use it to their advantage to withdraw their forces from Sevastopol and to abide by the Treaty.
