ROME: Dear Fernet German player; Obviously you know nothing about my sexual exploits (???) which are legendary (what). After all, I conquered half of Europe, and you didn't. How do you suppose I did this incredible thing?. Well, from bordello to harem, from seraglio to whore-house, from...but, well, I hate to go on and make you feel so inferior. Somebody may yet be cherry, but not I, O Foolish one; Maybe it has something to do with a measurement of a mere four millimeters, (Thats an 1/8 inch per millimeter). Have you tried stretching exercises?. Or running it through a wringer/?.

JAMUL- It is not so much the length, but the way it is done. A rubber balloon may be stretched to six feet, but it is still a rubber balloon. A wise man once stated. "When bragging about one's sexual capacity, one should not look in a mirror, for glass has that tendency to make things seem much larger than they really are.

GENEVA: The International Commission for the proper conduct of Diplomacy today issued a statement severely critical of the French Government.

"Whereas the object of Diplomacy is the control of Europe, whereas the adoption of an inferior object biases the conduct of the game, whereas such an inferior object--the equal division of Europe--has been adopted and proclaimed by the frog Government. Therefore ~~for~~ the Frog Government deserves extreme censure if it proceeds along this thoroughly nasty course.

EDINBURGH: England lands in England, Blimey.

PARIS: Sigh! the enemies of France are so ineffectual in the conduct of thier part of the war that they are left with nothing better to do than to utter obscenities, and to mouth disparaging opinions about the physical attributes of the leaders of France. This writer concedes that such is in the tradition of wargaming & in particular of Diplomacy; But please Gentlemen-of-the-opposition at least make some concessions to originality in language, to maintaining interest in the "Mud-slinging". As France is currently winning the War, her leaders will refrain from indulging in such nefarious activities. Should her fortunes change for the worse I am confident that Paris will ring with an ingeniously constructed set of "tasteful comments" about the peculiar attributes of the opposition.

expression) pig-headedness has chosen to interpret our anguished concern for Miss Loren as a measure of repression. Depress an Italian? Give him the Grapes, and the things and he is content. Depression indeed.

ITALY:—A highly placed source in the Italian Government who was present at the docking of the H.M.S. Esperant here was quoted as saying "What kind of barbarous treatment would you expect from a people who not too many years ago were still painting their body's blue?" The state of Miss Loren's health is a matter of grave concern to a great many government officials. Another spokesman described Sophia's physical condition as, "A lamentable misuse of one of the World's natural wonders." As Miss Loren's stretcher was wheeled off the dock toward a well-deserved rest in Cortina, she whimpered a barely audible, "A Stallion. Mama Mio, he was a stallion."

PARIS: Miss Cardinal's and Miss Loren's appointments only point out the idiocy of the present Italian Government. Our Government has strained for years to keep the National Treasures home (Mama Mia what Treasures). Thusly accomplishing two purposes. 1). The fact that we can enjoy these treasures (like Twiggy) and 2). We avoid the present Italian plight of all its neighbors trying to get to the source of these treasures (Yes, Yes.)

Chula Vista: Sorry about Twiggy, should have been Bardot.

Thus come to end another issue, the knights of peace and Bull s--- have laid down their arms and sort the quest of the Holy Grail. Until again they set forth upon the land, to begin anew, new Conquests.
