Issue#23

JULY 1991

What's happening.....

Things are going rather smoothly considering how little that Randy helped me out. Numbers are being issued with regularity, and I've kept up being able to issue all requests with 24 hours of receiving them. I am especially thankful to all of the people that helped me out by sending me information, it's impossible to list all of them here, but a big THANK YOU to all of you.

There are still some problems, mainly due to lack of information from Randy. For example, I got a letter the other day asking why I hadn't sent an individual his Alpha & Omegas since he had subbed to it when Randy was MNC. Well, it's real simple; I never got any mailing list, list of subbers, list of traders, etc. Therefore, it's impossible for me to know who to send this to! I keep expanding my mailing list every time I find out about another person who runs variant games, but it will take time for me to discover everybody, if I ever really do. I really would appreciate publishers to keep puttin out the word that I am active, and I am publishing. Every little bit helps.

The state of the treasury.....

This has improved since last issue thanks to some of you who were very generous. It's still not in the black, but hopefully it will get there if donations keep rolling in. I've put in a request for PDORA money, but I don't know if they will come through or not. I hope so as I'm still sending out a fair amount of mail, and we all know what postage costs today. I've also sent out a number of free issues of A&O to people who said that they paid Randy for them. I probably will never see the treasury money from Randy, so I'll never know what the status of many of these people really is.

Actual balance after A&O #22	-$54.04 in the red contributions since then	+$56.51
expenses since then	-$11.01
This issue(approximate)	-$15.00
current balance	-$23.54 in the red

Not as bad as last time!

A special thanks to the following who contributed funds.

John Caruso, Mike Lowrey, Fred Davis, Jim Burgess, Fred Hyatt, Douglas Kent, Melinda Holley, and John Galt.

This issue is smaller, and I'd like to keep it that way. I actually spent more than 75¢ for printing and mailing the last two, so at that sub rate I lost money. This issue is more in line with what I think an average issue will be.

Subs are 75¢ per issue in the USA. $1.50 an issue elsewhere. Back issues of most numbers are available in photocopy form at 75¢ each.

This was something else that Randy never told me. What blocks of the numbers go overseas, etc. Because of that, I mistakenly issued some 1989 numbers with a block that I shouldn't have.

A-AZ North America

BA-FZ British Isles

Ga-GZ Germanic Europe

HA-HZ North America

IA-IZ Iberia (Spain & Portugal)

JA-JZ North America

KA-KZ North America

LA-LZ Francophone Europe

SA-SZ Scandinavia

XA-ZZ Australia  Done by themselves due to a dispute with Randy

All other blocks are unassigned at this time. I want to thank ANDY BATE of England for all of his help in this matter!
