Well, I finally got my economics essay done. I must say, it's not much fun doing those $%@@?!#&&%¢ things. (DH)

Q. What is black and white, weighs about an ounce, is more dangerous than the plague and read all over?

A. Arrakis.

Subs to Arrakis are one penny per page plus postage. Game openings: Antigoni Isles-Leeder, Fisher, Ronald, Shea, Hayward, and Acheson are signed up, just one more needed! Maps and rules are enclosed for those who have signed up for the game. Game fee for Antigoni Isles is $2.00 plus a sub. Map and rules are available to anyone who is interested. Anonymous Diplomacy, same as last time, five signed up for the game, two more needed. Game fee for anonymous is a sub or trade only. I was also thinking of a seven provinces game, similar to John Leeder's seven nations game. I already have interested parties from Alta, N.S. and N.W.T. Send all the loose cash etc. to David Head, he keeps the books ((and blows all the cash!)) Arrakis is an AVP ((A Vile Publication)) owned 100% by Morning Star Publications (MSP), which is a subsidiary of Head-ston Unlimited. Head-ston is a Company that finds most of its business in the hole. Head-ston is owned and operated by those two brilliant, but modest entrepreneurs,

First off, here is a letter from Laurence Gillespie on SPI.

...I am adamantly opposed to any Canadians supporting that ripoff operation, particularly those so unpatriotic enough to spend the $6.00 surcharge necessary to get S&T. I have spoken to at least a dozen major wargamers, both American and Canadian, about this, and not one has ever been able to come up with an answer to the question, "Why the $6.00 extra?"! This includes some people who work at SPI. Ask Joel Klein, I think he's the one that manages their shipping department, and see if he can give you one good reason why Canucks have to pay the $6.00 extra. I'm sure you can read a postage meter, and it is quite obvious that the maximum cost of postage per issue is 50¢! Assuming a ten per cent difference in Canadian/USA third class mailing rates and you get 30¢!

((DH here, I'm not sure, but I would think that there would be no difference in US third class rates, whether they were mailed to location in Canada or the US. Canadian third class rates are the same to both Canada and the USA. The surcharge on Canadian subs is now $3.00 per year, but this is still considerably more than other magazines that I get from the US. If postage was a major factor in the difference between a Canadian and US sub, why does the Western Stanl (Stamp) Collector charge the same for both a US and a Canadian sub, when they have 20 more mailings a year than SPI? The postage argument just is not valid.))

Even if SPI found a way to mail S&T to their US subscribers for absolutely nothing there would still be three dollars above and beyond the total mailing cost. And it is nowhere near that, of course. I am also informed that using UPS saves S&T 2¢ per issue. As UPS does not extend its services to Canada, there's 12¢, combined with the 30¢ postage differential and you get $5.58 (($2.58)) sheer ripoff. Sheer Ripoff! Outrageous in fact. What's worst of all, is the absolutely CRAPPY level of service. Issues of S&T (when I received them) took an average of 3½ months to get here! Two issues took in excess of six!! Which means that any news or special offers in the zine are hopelessly outdated. I could vaguely understand some twit paying through the nose if they sent the issues air mail or something, but when it is obvious that they don't give a darn about giving their Canadian readers service at any price, what is the use. I could tell you tales that would twirl your turban about the horrendous muddle SPI made of my game orders. I ordered about $35.00 worth of stuff and none of it ever got to me less than five months transit period! What really gets my goat is the page after page of sheer BULLSHIT they cram into S&T telling you how much they "care" about their customers. Worst of all, is the sheer amount of prejudice involved. To the best of my knowledge, Americans NEVER have trouble with their orders, all of which get their in under four weeks. No, as far as I am concerned, SPI and S&T are the biggest ripoff artists around, and if by pressing a button I could destroy them all, I'd gladly do it. ((DH here again, I would suggest that any Canadians interested in SPI products write Herb Barents 1142 S. 96th St. RR4 Zeeland, MI 49464 USA He charges 50¢ extra for mailing etc for Canadian orders, but when you consider that you can buy an $8.00 game for $6.00 you are still saving $3.50; as an $8.00 game costs a Canadian $10.00 from SPI. And if you can get a coupon from his zine Boast, you are even farther ahead. Herb also sells products from all the major wargame companies.))

I got the results of the Gemignani Awards the other day. I was a little disappointed to see that I placed 5th in the Least Reliable Ally award. Estimating from the results, it looks like about 40 people sent in ballots this year. Results: Seven Most Infamous Persons in the Hobby- Gordon Anderson-36, John Beshara-24, Rodney Walker-19, Edi Birsan-18, Robert Sacks-18 (Awards Teller, is technically ineligible to win an award), Lenard Lakofka-17, John Boardman-16, Lewis Pulsipher-16.

Next year there will be a vote for a new name for the awards (a contest rather) as a few protested about the name of the awards. Additional categories next year: Financial Irresponsibility Procedures, and possibly a Crazy Eddie Award? The awards will be run in Europe next year for the first time. Nominations etc for next years awards are due to Robert Sacks, 4861 Broadway 5-V NY, NY 10034 by January 31, 1977.

Now the games.

Anschuetz resigned, so would Walter Blank please take over France

The following is from Cal White...When Mike resigned you should have delayed the game in order to inform the players. My moves were designed to work in cooperation with Austrian moves. Not knowing that Austria was undergoing a switch in command, these moves failed. I had no time to write Wayne and ask him to make the originally expected moves it fucked me up royally. You made a bad judgement call. I resign.I don't think your excuse for resigning has much validity Cal. It is the policy of many GMs to not delay the season in order for a replacement to be brought in. I quote from the house rules..."Resigning players are requested to help the GM and the replacement player in making a smooth transition." Mike should have sent in fall orders with his resignation, to prevent an NMR, but he couldn't get any in, because of his move.
I have no sympathy for you Cal, and can only say that I'm a little disappointed with your actions.I'll need a new Italian, so would James Hymas take over the role
I won't call for a standby for Russia, because John has been away lately.

A little filler:

The latest issue of Everything had some rather interesting records compiled by Russell Fox. The longest game to a win, was 1969CF, which ended in 1929!
The longest game to a draw (1967A) lasted until 1926. The record for survival by 7 countries is 1911 in 1972Y. 1974CW fell short of that mark.
Did you know, that there are about 100 dippy pubbers around the world? Doug
