Press:

London, 1 April 1901:

Count Rudolf Tippinwitz, formerly of Austria, announced today that all hopes for peace in Austria were extinguished with his expulsion from that country. He now intends to operate through the English foreign secretary and colonial offices.

Edinburgh, 24 April 1901:

A message was received today from HMS Irrevocable. Admiral Horatio Hornblowhard in conspiracy with Sir Baldwin Billyclub, in charge of the army and the key to the House of Parliament men's room, announced the departure of the official mountain climbing tour of Norway. In order to prove their peaceful intentions, the men heartily sang Norwegian folk songs.
