ALPHA

ALPHA is a new 'zine appearing on the Diplomacy scene. It is published by David Hunt, 217 E. Front St., Adrian, Michigan 49221. The subscription rate is 8 issues for $1.50. The main attraction of this 'zine is the fact that it is primarily interested in novices -- only those who have played in four or less postal games may enter (the fee is a reasonable $3). This is the second 'zine I know of that offers novice games only -- the other being Len Lakofka's NEOPHYTE. A promised section that should be really interesting is the "DIPLOPOLITICS" feature, giving discussion of the current feuds and other goodies that make the whole Diplomacy world confusing to the novice. Good luck, David!

SECOND NEW GAME BEGINS!!

The second new game, R-8, has been filled. Again, this was limited to newcomers to Postal Diplomacy to provide a more equal and balanced game. The experienced players will be put in their own game.

The players' preferences are reproduced below, with the country received indicated by a capital letter:

|        |               |
|--------|---------------|
| Bent   | e t I g f a g |
| DeBerg | A e f g i r t |

| Horton | E f g t r a i |
| Hunt   | F r e i g t a |

Not a bad result, five first choices, one second and one third. The players with their addresses are:

NEW GAME FILLED!

The new game, R-7, has been filled. I juggled some of the players around so that all players will have about the same amount of experience, that is, several experienced players were put into R-8 so that this game would be more of a novice game.

The players follow with their preference lists, the country they received is indicated by a capital letter:

|          |               |
|----------|---------------|
| Osmanson | F i e g a r t |
| Medlin   | e r f t I g a |
| Carroll  | R a i g t f e |
| O'Neil   | E t f g i r a |
| Ortiz    | f r G a i e t |
| Ayres    | r e t f i g A |
| Lipson   | T a g r i e f |

There were several ties, the country assignments for those were determined by a random method. In all, four first choices, one third, one fifth, and one last.

Russia: John C. Carroll, 26 Nafus Street, Pittston, Pennsylvania 18640.
France: William H. Osmanson, 1015 Union Street, Morris, Illinois 60450.
Italy: Charles T. Medlin, 1800 Alta Vista, Vista, California 92085 [after June 5: St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minnesota 55057.]
England: John O'Neil, 3287 Campbell Drive, Bronx, New York 10465.
Germany: Carlos Ortiz, Ave. San Patricia 651, Caparra Heights, R.P., Puerto Rico 00920.
Austria: David Ayres, 2214 E. 3rd, Spokane, Washington 99202.
Turkey: Major Elliot S. Lipson, Rocky Mountain Arsenal, Denver, Colorado 80240.

"Spring 1901" moves will be due 26 June 1972, to Christopher Schleicher, 5122 W. Carmen Ave., Chicago, Illinois 60630. Telephone (312) 545-5938.

Rules will be those of the 1971 Games Research Rulebook, with amendments of a minor nature to allow for postal play -- these will be printed shortly.

ATLANTIS HOUSERULES

for DIPLOMACY

1. Unless otherwise specified, the rules of Diplomacy and the rules of ATLANTIS will be used in all games.
2. Countries will be assigned by player preference, with each player sending in a list of the countries in order of his preference. Wherever possible, the player's first choice will be used. In the event of a tie, a random choice will be made to determine first choice.
3. Unordered units will stand. If dislodged, they will be disbanded instead of retreated. Players may refuse to retreat and have their unit disbanded instead of retreated. Two or more units retreated to the same space will be disbanded. Retreats cannot be convoyed.
4. Failure to submit removal orders will result in the removal of units as determined by the Gamesmaster.
5. There are two move seasons ("Spring" and "Fall") and one adjustment season ("Winter") for builds and removals. Moves must be submitted by noon of the deadline date announced; preferably by mail, although phone orders will be accepted by the Gamesmaster only. The Gamesmaster accepts no responsibility for a player's inability to reach him by phone.
6. Substitute moves will not be used. However, a player who does not submit moves for two consecutive seasons or who frequently misses moves may be replaced.
7. Players may designate a substitute to replace them temporarily or permanently, with the consent of the Gamesmaster.
8. Standard abbreviations:

|                              |                              |
|------------------------------|------------------------------|
| Nth -- North Sea             | Nwy -- Norway                |
| NAf -- North Africa          | Nwg -- Norwegian Sea         |
| Eas -- Eastern Mediterranean | Wes -- Western Mediterranean |
| NAt -- North Atlantic        | StP -- St. Petersburg        |
9. The only rule not followed by ATLANTIS is Miller's Rule. That is, a dislodged unit may give support, if the dislodging attack came from the space into which the unit was giving support. This conflicts with Section X, page 6, of the 1971 Rulebook. Copies of the 1971 Rulebook may be obtained from Games Research Inc., 48 Wareham Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02118 for $1.00 each.
