

BARAD-DUR 36

The latest installment of a biweekly magazine of postal DIPLOMACY edited and published by Jack L. Chalker, 5111 Liberty Heights Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland, 21207, USA (301-367-0685). Available in trade for YOUR postal magazine, to players, or at the 10/$1.00 rate. NO NEW GAMES ARE FORMING, NOR WILL THEY BE FOR MONTHS. December 17, '66.

wishing you and yours
the happiest of holidays
(PS. CHALKER'S IN THE GUARD!)

Well -- it finally happened. The 135th Air Commando Group of the Maryland Air National Guard called and asked me if I'd be interested in joining the unit and becoming its press information office. Note -- that's office, not officer. A one-man publicity bureau. However, there was one small formality -- 4 months in Texas early next year. Subject to the TAC doctor's final O.K., I'm in.

I doubt if it'll satisfy Charles Reinsel, but I'm in.

Why did I do it? Well, for one thing the job's the same in war or peace -- and you can't hardly get no better nohow. Second, the priority rating for the unit is 22, which means they have to call up better than 80% of the ANG units in the country before they call this one. Third, it frees me from threat of drafting -- and those ulcerous unclassified summers. And, lastly, it allows this history teacher to move over to teaching "uncritical" ~~XXXX~~ history rather than "critical" English which bores me.

The 4 months will probably start February 26 and end July 2. That means that I will miss 9 issues of BARAD-DUR March 3, 17, 31; Apr. 14, 28; May 12, 26; June 9, 23; and, for insurance, possibly July 7. My training is 6 weeks with the Air Force Reserve at Lackland AFB in San Antonio, then 12 weeks of "school" for AF PR men in Amarillo.

So, if anyone out there is willing to do 10 issues of BARAD-DUR, by all means let me know. This will probably be games X, F, G, and J only -- although you never know about B.... I'd like the games and the magazine to be run as an entity, if possible, so that there will be no inconvenience or interruption. I might add that B-D goes to only 29 people, so the job's not that gigantic. Anyone? Just In Case?

By the way -- this Guard thing does not affect the BALTICONFERENCE scheduled for Feb 10-12 at the Emerson Hotel, Baltimore. I'll be there. And it also allows me to declare, with some assurance, that Baltimore is definitely rebidding in 1969 for the 1970 World Science Fiction Convention.

NEW MAGAZINE: EURALIA, Jim Sanders, Rm. 3K4, 601 W. 110th St., N.Y., NY, 10025; probably 10/31. And Jerry Jacks is found: He simply never moved. His address is on page 2, in the "J" roster.

GB-1967-J

J

GB-1967-J is now filled, probably the last GB game until next summer unless Bounds feels like one. This game will probably be played under 2 different GMs -- since I'll be away a while -- but it will start and end under me, and will be played under my system, explained previously. Newcomers with questions are welcome to submit them. Ditto old-timers. All of the people below asked to be in "J." All requests were written on a list in the order received. I made a few scribbled notes elsewhere, and now can't find the list. If memory serves, the list below is correct. However, if anyone below does NOT now want to be in "J," please write immediately and I'll notify the stand-by. Base game fee is $4.00 per game. However, for players on the game roster in current Games Bureau games (i.e. 1965 A, B, C; 1966 D, XF, G, & H) the fee is reduced to $2.00. The reduced fee also applies at all times to winners of GB games. However, the $4/$2 rate is for first class surface mail only. You should add $1.00 to your $4 or $2 (depending) if you want air mail service -- $5 or $3. The next issue (#37) will be "winter, 1900" and will involve no play. The issue after, BARAD-DUR 38, will contain Spring, 1901 move orders. Game fees and Spring, 1901 move orders must be in my hands on or before 10 P.M. Friday, January 13, 1967. The first set of completed orders in to me is the set that will be used. No revisions. Failure to pay or submit moves will result in instantaneous replacement.

Newer players note that Huff has won 1 game (GB-1966-E, the shortest postal game in Postal history according to John Boardman), has played in every BARAD-DUR game and in an infinite number of games in other magazines. James Latimer is another veteran, aiming to play 30 games at once. Jerry Jacks is no stranger to Postal, and is a veteran of a great many games. Hal Naus is a noted Gamesmaster and Diplomacy veteran. Gene Prosnitz is a veteran across-the-board man, but has been playing Postal only since the start of GB-1966-G a few weeks ago. Tom Griffin is also new, and a friend of Gene's. According to my records, Tom is in one other game -- EURALIA -- but that hasn't started as yet, either. Paul Leitch is new to me. So -- DIPLOMACY PERIOD STARTS RIGHT NOW. GOOD LUCK. Oh, yes -- countries wound up being selected at random, by drawing from a hat. If you're really unhappy, send in a protest in 7 days. If 2 folks write, I'll switch you in the next issue. Otherwise -- you're stuck with it. Sorry. JLC

So -- FALL, 1911 MOVE ORDERS ARE DUE IN ON FRIDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1966, at 10 PM EST. I won't be at home Friday evening, so don't call.
ALL THREE PLAYERS ARE SERIOUSLY AND SINCERELY REQUESTED TO SUBMIT THEIR WINTER BUILDS WITH THEIR FALL MOVES. Send 3 (or, in Rick's case, 4) BUILDS IN THE ORDER IN WHICH YOU'D PREFER THE BUILDS TO BE MADE.
I want to do this because if Russia takes 2 it wins this winter. If Turkey takes 3 it wins this Winter. Let's speed it up and save me paper...? Thanks.

X XF-CTD- Lome, Togo, Sept. 12 (KA): An expeditionary force from F Christiamborg, led by Brigadier Axel Haarfager and consisting of 2 regiments of Kalmar African Rifles, routed a large force of natives who were laying waste the German colonial capital. Unsupplied and isolated German troops have been unable to quell the riots.

Brooks to Huff & Levinson: Gee, fellas, I'm sorry but Jack has had it in for me since I gave him all that static over C game. Now he is misprinting my moves to make it look like I'm attacking my two most loved allies. Ain't it something how low people can be? ((Yes)).

Ankara: The Sultan Simple said at the news of the Russian invasion, "Well, it's their game! They'll lose it for sure now."

France to Scandinavia: We suggest you look to the rear before Russia waltzes in on your oh so tempting home supply bases.

France to Turkey: We warned you about Russia but you wouldn't listen! To Barbary: Thanks (I hope). The integrity of your army in exile on Sardinia will be assured. To England: If Scandinavia attacks you can be sure of French support. Better for Scandinavia to join the alliance against Russia. To Russia: Boo!

=====This takes some explaining. Tripoli was dislodged last time and I admit an error in judgment. I always said
I could be talked out of something if your argument was better than mine.
Of course, Huff should be in the Ion-not press the point. Turkey is having her problems and I don't think anyone could yell. I hope that the Tripolitanian Question will get a lot of discussion, though. I think it's possible on a kosher board.

DEADLINE FOR THESE BUILDS AND REMOVALS (AND COMPLAINTS) IS FRIDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1966, AT 10 PM EST. Don't call -- everyone on the left side of the page above will be at Jay Haldeman's place for the WSFA party that night, more likely than not.

PROPAGANDA (abridged severely)

France to Italy: Corsica is French, not Italian! We suggest you take the fleet stationed there & go fight Russia before he walks over all of us.

ITALY: BUILDS FLEET VENICE

FRANCE: BUILDS FLEET BREST

AUSTRIA: BUILDS ARMY BUDAPEST, BUILDS ARMY VIENNA

ENGLAND: BUILDS FLEET LIVERPOOL

TURKEY: BUILDS FLEET CONSTANTINOPLE

GERMANY: BUILDS ARMY MUNICH
BUILDS FLEET KIEL
BUILDS ARMY BERLIN

RUSSIA: BUILDS ARMY MOSCOW

The following is currently the positions on the board:

ITALY: Armies Rome, Tyrolia; Fleets Tunis, Venice.

FRANCE: Armies Burgundy, Portugal; Fleets Mid-Atlantic, Brest.

AUSTRIA: Armies Rumania, Serbia, Budapest, Vienna; Fleet Trieste.

ENGLAND: Armies -- or, rather, Army Norway; Fleets North Sea, English Channel, and Liverpool.

TURKEY: Armies Armenia, Ankara, Bulgaria; Fleets Constantinople, Ankara.

GERMANY: Armies Munich, Berlin, Denmark, Belgium; Fleets Holland, Kiel.

RUSSIA: Armies Warsaw, Moscow, Ukraina; Fleets Sweden, Sevastopol.

Greece and Spain remain unclaimed. Huff was cheated one when I ordered his build last time. I'm so used to German players moving through Holland instead of staying there that I left it out by force of habit. He built 3 anyway.

DEADLINE FOR SPRING, 1902 MOVE ORDERS IS FRIDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1966, AT 10 PM EST. I will not be at home for phone moves on the 30th. BARAD-DUR, however, will be in the mail by the nation-wide 5 PM pickup on New Year's Day -- which makes this the last issue of the year. As a reward, after the December 30 moves you need not submit any more until next year....

PROPAGANDA

Salzburg, Tyrolia, Free Austria: Admiral Von Gregorovic, until recently the commander of the Austro-Hungarian navy, arrived here to take command of the Austrian Navy-in-exile (three fishing boats on the Danube). Said the admiral: "The blunders of my former commander in chief, in countermanding my plan to move the Trieste fleet to the Adriatic, and in allowing the Italian navy to reinforce Venice, are intolerable. I am a realist; I have joined the Austrian government in exile so I can wind up on the winning side."

Constantinople: "Infidels beware!" proclaimed the Ottoman Emperor, Achmed ben Machiavelli. "The conversion of all Europe to Islam is imminent. The bishops of France, Austria, and Germany, The Pope, and the Archbishop of Canterbury shall be dealt with in a manner fitting their crimes. As for the Metropolitan of Moscow, a special fate shall be his...Heh, heh."
