The Batyville Gazette Openings:

1. Regular Dip (several wanted)
2. The variant Anarchy Dip (Jim Lewis, Tony Dousette, Bill Scharf, Jason Wilke, Adrian Tymes, two more needed). ONLY TWO (2) NEEDED!!!!!!
2. The variant Invasion Dip (Rules in Batyville issue #50, or on request)
4. The Batyville variant Power Dip (The same as Dracula which just ended, except with different players there might be different abilities chosen).

San Diego Gaming events. (Call me for more info if you are interested.) 1st, 2nd and 4th Saturdays

AnarchyDiplomacy: Round(s) 1: Each player Submits a request for one home supply center. Each unique request is granted. Requests continue among the rest until each player has established one home supply center. Diplomatic communication is advisable. Round(s) 2: Same as round 1 for the selection of a second home supply center. Round(s) 3: Same as round 1 for the selection of a third home supply center. Round 4: Each player submits a list of 3 names for the country. (Selections will be by GM with preferences given to unique first letters.) Winter 1900 builds of 1 army, one fleet, and one choice of player (three armies if the country's home supply centers are all land locked).

PowerDiplomacy: For each build, the builder specifies one of seven enhanced abilities to endow the new unit. The seven abilities are chosen from a list of nine unit powers per votes by the players at the beginning of the game. The nine powers are (double attack, double move, double support, double hold, jumper, amphibious, arial support, hypnotism, rocketry). Detailed rules if anyone is interested.

HELP! In the Capital Radio game, I will need default orders for Turkey. Brad Wilson has not submitted any orders. Perhaps Tony Dousette would be interested in submitting default Turkish orders in Capital Radio?

Orders were received from these e-mail addresses this season:

Eric Young	eyoung@cln.etc.bc.ca
Jason Wilke	wilkejas@mibml.ruf.uni-freiburg.de
Peter Palumbo	PalumboPJ@aol.com (or lamthewife@aol.com ???)
Marc Hight	mahight@mailbox.syr.edu
Mike McCabe	Diplomike@aol.com
Adrian Tymes	71044.2164@compuserve.com
Jim Lewis	CENTREGRAF@aol.com
Mike Gonsalves	Mikegon59@aol.com

I received two nibbles on my offer of a free e-mail game. anyone else?

Soylent Green PRESS:

Batyville: Proposal, E-I-R Concession Failed. New PROPOSAL: A-T Concession. Votes, next time. A "No vote" = a "NO" vote.

Russia -> Austria: Thank you! In fact I WAS trying to do my best, and a long time ago I DID pick 'your' (Turkey's) side. And then I was stabbed. My position might not be terrific, but I do not think it is due to waffling on my part. Have fun.

Russia -> England: You, sir, have earned my support.

Dateline St. Petersburg: Rumors of hordes of barbarians attacking Moscow have now been confirmed. Resettled Turks, unhappy with their government and anxious to start new enlightened lives under the hockey power of Russia have risen against the Sultan. Chants of "There is no ice in An-ka-ra" were heard as several Turkish officials were lynched.

Turkey -> Germany: Excellent defense my industrious colleague. We will continue to fight on against the Eng scourge.

Turkey -> Italy: I see the Italian fleets need some stiffening by English seamen. No matter. We will still take the Med, flank Iberia, and attack the English in their very homes.

Turkey -> Russia: I do recognize that it is not an efficient use of forces when I have to use 3 armies (with another en route) to keep 2 of yours at bay. But I can seal you off that way, so that by 1911, I'll no longer worry about that flank.

Turkey -> England: Too bad. You had several targets and chose the wrong one. We plan on giving you fewer tartets in the future. Do I understand that Italy, Russia, and England are ready to concede to Austria, Germany, and Turkey?

England -> Austria: Now what do we do? We wait while I rotate a few units to rescue Italy. Then we'll see what happens.

Austria -> England: What are those things you might have up your sleeve. Are they before my eyes?

Austria -> Italy: Which are the critical spots now? Who gets to keep them?

Austria -> Russia: You seem to think that Jason is a very trustworthy fellow. Like all of us he does what suits his cause the most. He is using you to hold dots away from us. Once you have ceased fulfilling that function you will be history.

Austria -> Turkey: We had better stop making mistakes, they might take advantage of one of them.

Capital Radio PRESS:

Batyville: This time, the orders for Richard Weiss took 3 days to get to me, as measured by the Guam postmark.

Batyville: Chuck Rathfelder (England) has not submitted orders again. He has been replaced by Adrian Tymes. Thank you Adrian. I also would like to thank Tony and Jason, both of whom submitted default orders. Would you two like to do the same for Turkey?

Austria -> Italy: I have replaced the previous Austrian government and I have a new set of policies. Perhaps you would like to rephrase your last press item? A Wuss I am not.

Austria -> Russia: You can either leave Budapest and Vienna under your own power or we can carry you out afterwards, your choice.

KEDI - WRLD: We are under new management, and shall soon conduct a test of the EBS system.

KEDI - KITTY: If possible, I'd prefer we talk from a distance.

KBEL - (BROADCAST): And now a specail request: "Just who am I supposed to attack, again?" by the hot new alternative group, "Amnesiac English Generals".

KSTP - (BROADCAST): We now resume "Russian Reconquestia", already in progress.

KEDI - WRLD: This concludes this test of the Emergency Broadcast System. If this had been an actual emergency, what we just transmitted would have made sense.

Germany -> World & GM: Perhaps if you give Ralph your e-mail address, we might have communication in this game?

Batyville: On page 1, I listed all players, both games, submitting e-mail orders this season, with their e-mail addresses. Tony, if he takes over Turkey, also has an e-mail address.

KITY -> KANK: Would a warship over there, to guarantee you get BUL, be welcomed, or too scary?

KITY -> WEDI: Car WEDI, where are you?

KITY -> KKK/SS: You and the WAR peoples scheming together, eh. Very interesting ... Sargent Schultz.

KITY -> WAUS: Strange sinecure you have there. Ibid the question to the Turk, to you.
