

Zzzzz...zzz...snurf...mumble...gurp...
gurgle...huh?...Oh, is it that time again?
I'm late? Oh, well, you can't win 'em all.
This is BESEROVIA, kids, home of 1973IK, the stlckY Game. It goes free to the players, who have to take it, and 10¢ a copy (sent in fleets of 2 or more) to anybody foolish enough to want it. This is Pandemonium Publication #573, edited and published by Rod Walker, 4069 Jackdaw St., San Diego CA 92103.

2 Dec 74

AND, AS ANOTHER STALEMATE VOTE FADES SLOWLY INTO THE SUNSET....

Winter 1905: In the position lists below, builds are marked * and disbandments are ~~slashed~~. In Autumn 1905, England ordered A Mos R-StP.

AUSTRIA (Scott): A Vie*, A Tri, A Trl, A Gal, A Sil, A Bul, F Ion (7).

ENGLAND (Kelly): A StP, A Lvn, F Bar, F Bal, F Nth, F Wes, ~~F Eng~~, A Mun
(8).

FRANCE (Brooks): A Par*, F Mid, F Tus, F Naf, F Lyo, F Tun, A Nwy, A Mar
(8).

GERMANY (McKeon): A Kie*, A War, A Ber, A Pru (4).

ITALY (Blank): F Tyn, F Nap, A ~~Veh~~, A Pie (3).

RUSSIA (Vagts): A Sev*, A Mos, A Ukr, F Con (4), (1 short).

SPRING 1906 ORDERS are due Monday, 6 January 1975. There is no sense taking orders over the holidays. For one thing, people have other things to do; for another, the mails are so tangled that it is not entirely advisable to set a deadline less than 4 weeks away.

ABOUT THAT STALEMATE: The vote failed, 4 in favor and 2 against. Now, it would appear that until the game progresses some, there is no sense in holding another vote. I see no sense in cluttering things up with a vote every season, yet. Therefore, if there is another call for a draw vote, we will take it after 1906 is completed.

TENTATIVE Spring 1906 ORDERS are on hand from Austria, France, Italy, and Russia. You guys may change them, of course.