The name "Irksome" has been put out to pasture for a while; when I publish a real zine again, I may bring it back. We'll see. For now, IRK will be a short subzine that appears once in a while in Marc Peters' zine SO I LIED. I'm upset because the machine ate up my first master for this page. It was a sad sight. It really was.
Since BHOMA(V3) is supposed to be a warehouse zine, I better shut up and print a game or something.

83Krn16 BLOWUP WARIANT SET UP AFTER SPRING 1902 CALL IT BAADER-MEINHOF

This is an orphan from MANIFEST DESTINY (rip). Since MDV-3 is a real boring name, from now on it will be named after those two famous German terrorists, Baader and Meinhof (also rip). I'll set it up again here; I made one mistake before, Italy has a F TUN instead of F tys. Also, Paula Dodge resigns (for reasons listed in Mensa 18 inside)...would MIKE EHLI please take over (1715 Cottonwood, Springfield OR 97477).
I'll move the deadline for FALL 1902 and new bombs to JULY 25. The positions...

I have Spring orders from everyone but France and Italy; I don't want a four week delay before Spring so I will mail you the Spring 1910 turn as soon as I get those orders, hopefully by JULY 25. All draws failed; G by 3-1, GUITAR by 1-3, all else by 2-2. Nothing new is proposed. Press is on the next side.

NEBRASKA PRESS--WILL IT LOOK BETTER WHEN I TYPE WITHOUT CORRECTION FLUID??

RUS-THE WALL: See what you did? Now I've got a build and no place to put it. Wait a minute, that's not quite right. I've got something and no place to put it, though. Guess it will be wasted. Like The Wall.

MARK-EVANS: You have changed your trusty ways to that of a greedy, selfish Mad-lad-- I'm proud of you! Unfortunately, your tactics hurt me--so stop being a big jerk and take your share in the draw.

RUS-ENG: Wrong-o. Nothing of Frueh's is the truth.

THE WALL-BOWEN: And while I'm insulting Martin on his pathetic press, I'd like to say that yours is no better. Perhaps even worse, thought that would be quite a feat.

MOSCOW: Huggy, the great true bear, announces his new position as executive director of the MadLad Defamation League. Membership invitations are being printed. Repeat after Huggy: It's OK not to be a MadLad.

ROCKVILLE: Born in the USA, Died in England.((Beware the Ides of Jersey??))

RUS-GER: Huggy Bear offal? Ambrosia to the likes of you.

RUS-FRA: Persebear? You mean obearcome.

ENGLAND-GERMANY: Well, do you think you could take maybe one more of my centers this year? Better get triple support to do it, though. You never know about these tricky Englishmen.

RUS-AUS: No wonder you look up to me. Someone who's 40 light years below the bottomless pit of depravity looks up to everyone.

ROCKVILLE: I was a bit disappointed by the latest Bruce album. Some great stuff, yes, but it seems like something is missing. Only four starts for this one. Still, to be "disappointed" by a **** album isn't really fair, is it? ((Then again, will Bruce be reading this? I'll give it *****--it combines the best of The River and Nebraska, and it's the tightest album he's done yet. This record is upbeat, Bruce is laughing again. I like it.))

FRANCE-RUSSIA: Are you ready to come in MoSecond on the numbers like MoHart? Where's the primary beef?

MOS-PAR: I do hope you were a good boy this winter?

PAR-WARSAB: War, having been declared on the intruder on the Marseilles dot, we welcome you to Burgundy and its rich wines, we surrender to you our English dots, and we trust you have built the new Army Warsaw for a bitter 3-way fight to the finish.

MOS-PAR: You should have heard the things they were saying about you at Mad-con! They said "Don't trust Lousy, he'll go for the win, stab him, stab him." Ah, but one must consider the source. ((Should this have been to VIE??))

GM: We also have a news article about one John Hanson, a Swede who signed the Declaration of Independence. Unfortunately, my blood is Norsk, and there's no love lost between the Norwegians and Swedes, just many jokes told. Excuse, while I go to check whether he signed with an "X"...

Now I'm stuck with some space....our move went fairly smoothly. We're in a place twice as big as before (that is, it's the size of two Volkswagens...). If you're familiar with Minneapolis, you'll recognize the address as being close to the Institute of Technology. We'll have to take my word for it.

of Keith's zine ((Manifest Destiny)) plus my sudden and abrupt transfer to Manassas apologies to all my game friends and put me on standby in September of this year.

Please publish this letter...

ENG-FRA:

Well come on then, I'd ~~like~~ to wind down a few games, but I'm not going to hand it to you. Let's see some sweat.

FRA-ENG: Don't flatter yourself, one look at Kiel and you can see how far I've gone for a truce with Germany, as for an Italian truce, even if I didn't have one you(d be no threat. I'm just playing it safe.

DENMARK-SESLER: What good is this game without you to hate??

MOSCOW: "Me schitzoid!" screamed Tsar Ronaldovitch when reading the press of Western nations baffled by his combinations of attacks and supports. "Who is it who doesn't write to me. Is it me who doesn't write me? My brother in France wants Germany, England, AND Italy and can't write a polite note asking for little favours! Yes, I could have helped him eliminate Germany and cut Austria down another centre, but why? What does he offer me? I don't know. He doesn't say!" And with that the Tsar fell to the floor screaming in rage and frustration.

DENMARK-PARIS: Nuts!

VIENNA: As Jeff Ellis accepted the position of supreme commander, the rest of Europe winced. No one knew of who he was, or what his ambitions were for Austria. He was quoted saying a few days back, "This country shall once again be united once and for all. No more idle military units. No more Austrian cities taken by alien forces, such as Trieste and Italy. We shall triumph over all obstacles, and take us to the top!"

GERMANY-FRANCE: I made peace with no one!! How do you think I got in this deplorable position?

ENG-GM: How many Mensa people are left in this one? It's hard to tell them apart...
((Actually, there are 4. I'll let you guess which ones...))

COA: Kevin Tighe, PO Box 103829, Anchorage AK 99510.

Maybe no one else ~~is~~ paying any attention, but not only are the Twins above .500, they're within a game of first place. It's kind of wierd, checking the scores to see how Chicago and California are doing, counting the games ahead instead of games back, and actually looking forward to a 4 game series with Detroit.

PRESS

BERLIN-PARIS: C'mon Terry! Let up alittle bit. We can still be friends, if you would just pick up pen and paper and write sometime.

TUR-WORLD: We be lucky. One gone and no MadLad as a replacement. Maybe 32768 games is as high as they go.

GER-RUS: Gunboat? This game? Nah. I mean, I've had to receive maybe 1 letter a year in this game, and that's from you.

TUR-RUS: Everybody gets a Con, but me. MadCon. Dallas. PeeriCon PudgeCon. And you have my Con. I want my Con. Gimme back my Con.

ICELAND-DACHA IN SWITZERLAND: The least you could do is make up some better Carl Russell criticism than the last relase. I mean, GET IMAGINATIVE. Carl has so many traits that sure you could think of something better...

Hey, it looks like this is another short one. That's fine with me for now, but someday we may even hit the 3 page barrier. The final IRK ended up being a weaker whimper than even I had planned, but you know how it goes.

The next Dipcon will be in Seattle. That's fine with me...it's the one site we have a chance of getting to next summer. Terry tells me that it's especially cheap to take the train through Canada to Vancouver. As for this summer, we won't be in Wichita for Pudgecon, I'm afraid. Frauke's brother and a friend will be in town for all of August, and we'll all be up north the last two weeks of the month. The date on PudgeCon is Labor Day weekend; you can write to Bob Olsen, 6818 Winterberry Cr, Wichita KS 67226.

As for our long term plans, Frauke and I had thought of moving to Germany. Last winter we ~~had~~ had nearly decided on it. But we've changed our minds. We won't be moving out of south Minneapolis for a while, not to mention the USA. We may visit Germany for a couple months next spring, but that's about it.

And so it goes...
