EUROPE'S POWERS GIRD FOR BATTLE

CLIFFHOME--The final roll call has been met. The Seven are joined. Now is the critical hour in Spiderdom's plan to keep these bipeds down. If we can keep the European powers at each other's throats long enough, we will stifle the political, economic, and thus scientific growth of these bipedal challenges to our supremacy of this galactic sector. We must succeed; we must make the Galaxy safe for Arachnids!

EMBASSY BEAT

WASHINGTON--President Bryan remarked to reporters "The World has entered a dangerous new age now the US and the European Great Powers have all changed administrations almost simultaneously." He also assured us that Americans had nothing to fear from European quarrels.

CLASSIFIEDS

WANTED: A few good men or women to be alternates for this struggle. Pay is zero, but the satisfaction can be immense. Apply within.

BORIS SPEAKS!

Only six applicants met the 19 Sep deadline. There were four who "promised" applications but failed to deliver on time. Tonight one of the four, through a spokesman, gave his preference list, so Let the Game begin!

As might be expected, there were three "First Choice" bids for both England and Turkey. The mighty Ms Nar resolved the conflicts with a roll of the dice. When the dust finally settled, three of you got your first choice, two got their second, one his fifth, and the former Lord Devon his last.

A gentle reminder concerning the game fee is in order. The fee is one first class stamp per season to cover postage. How you want to do it is up to you. You may:

- 1) send me a stamp every turn
- 2) send me a book of stamps as required
- 3) send money to cover the postage
- 4) pick up your copy of Boris personally and save the stamp

REMEMBER: No stampee, no playee. An easy way to go NMR. 'Nuff said.

Boris is indeed looking for alternates. If you have some out of town friends who might like to join in, have them drop me a line. Alternates get this august journal free while they either submit press or orders should a player go NMR. Note that under the attached Press Rules, their press would have to be limited to neutral countries and the Classifieds.

Speaking of the Press Rules, they're the same as last time. In case you've forgotten, another set is enclosed.

I would like to thank Don "Count von" Patrick for giving me a copy of a public domain DIP GM adjudication program. I managed to use it to double-check the Fall 1910 move of the last game. Its use resulted in all those write-in changes in the "Troop Movement" section. The program is written in Apple Pascal for those of you who might want to acquire a copy. Its use this game will raise the already high caliber of this journal to unprecedented heights. Now if I can only mount it on my hard disk without having to reformat it. Sigh.

Yes, there will be Super-Sudsy bombs and Press Excellence Awards again so sharpen your wits and your pencils. Dust off your dictionaries. Learn to type. Prepare to do literary battle with ally and foe alike!

PRESS RULES

- 1) All players are encouraged to provide at least one piece of "Press" per issue. Doing so both contributes to the "flavor" of the game and provides a ready means of imprinting a personal stamp on the proceedings. It can also prove to be a valuable tool in conducting diplomacy or pulling off a master deception.
- 2) The "Press" can be of three types:
  - a) "Official Statements" of governments and their agencies.
  - b) "Clippings" from newspapers and journals of the day.
  - c) "Personals", where anything (within reason) goes.
- 3) Only the player may make "official statements" for his government. In addition, a player is assumed to control all the newspapers and journals in the territories he controls and in the colonies, dominions, etc., of his starting country. EXCEPTION: A player may contribute articles from the "Underground press" originating in occupied home territories. In addition, the players, alternates, and the Game Master may contribute clippings from neutral countries. "Anonymous" sources in an unfriendly country may also be permissible at the GM's discretion.
- 4) To sum up, only White Propaganda is allowed in the Official Statement section, both White and Grey are allowed in the "clippings" section, and White, Grey, and Black are allowed in the Personals section.
- 5) The GM reserves the right to reject or edit articles of questionable taste.

PRESS HINTS

- 2) Feel free to creatively alter history if it suits your purpose.
- 3) DEFINITIONS:

Propaganda: Any information, ideas, doctrine, or special appeals in support of national objectives, designed to influence the opinions, emotions, attitudes, or behavior of any specified group in order to benefit the sponsor either directly or indirectly.

White Propaganda: Propaganda disseminated and acknowledged by the sponsor or by an accredited agency thereof.

Grey Propaganda: Propaganda that does not specifically identify any source.

Black Propaganda: Propaganda which purports to emanate from a source other than the true one.

RUSSIA INVADES GERMANY!

CLIFFHANGER--Our machinations have meshed perfectly. We soon will have all of Europe at war with itself. Our glorious Chief Bug's policy of "keepin' 'em divided" would seem to be working perfectly again. The crisis we fomented has already sent the uncommitted powers scurrying for a greater economic base to support their expansionist plans. Only the Tsar had the chutzpah to actually invade a neighboring major power. This may well take the heat off King Wayne if, as the Tsar hints, there is a Franco-German alliance aimed towards perfidious Albion. In the East, nobody knows who's stabbing whom yet, although the Russian southern flank may be no match for Turkish revanchism.

EMBASSY BEAT

BERLIN: The Imperial Representative to the Foreign Office, Viscount Ronald Fisher, has announced negotiations with the governments of England, Italy and Russia for the preservation of peace on the continent.

CONSTANTINOPLE: The Turkish nation moved this Spring to liberate the people of BUL. The Sultan's troops were greeted by huge welcoming crowds, (who were quickly disarmed!). In other matters, the Sultan blasted the warlike moves on France and Italy in the western Med.

LONDON: "Grand Fleet Sails" The 1st and 4th Battle Squadrons under the command of Admiral Sir J.R. Jellicoe aboard the Trop D'Az sailed under exercise orders. "This is only a training maneuver for our Navy," Adm Sir Jellicoe was quoted as saying, "and will shake down some new cruisers as well as the refitted battleships."

ST PETERSBURG: Tsar Hudsonov released this official statement at the Winter Palace:

We wish to affirm the desire of the Russian people to have and maintain peaceful and productive relationships with all peoples. Further, we sincerely wish all nations moderate success in their diplomatic endeavors. We are striving to open further lines of communication with all members of the continent. We have received communications from representatives of the new German Kaiser's Reich which state in part, "Our government is interested in a few territories (sic) to the north, and our concern has been expressed over your northern fleet. Even at this early date I (the Imperial Representative) am prepared to offer assurances of ~~no~~ aggressive (sic) moves towards Russian occupied territories (sic) from ... the German ... government. In return your pledge that the fleet will remain in STP... As a gesture of good faith Germany will de-militarize its western front."

We accept German assurances of no aggressive moves in principle but are alarmed at how German non-aggression manifests itself. First, we also have interest in the well being of the Scandinavian people but fail to see how unilateral German interest is to their benefit. Second, as to the disposition of our northern fleet, the purpose of a fleet is to sail, not remain in port. Third, as to Russian occupied territories: there are no Russian occupied territories, only Russian people and Russian lands. Unlike the territories of Alsace-Lorraine, Schleswig-Holstein, and Silesia that Germany wrested from France, Denmark, and Austria-Hungary and now occupy. Fourth, we applaud German attempts to bring stability to Europe by demilitarizing. However, we were unaware that tensions on the German western front, with France, was apparently (until just recently) on the brink of military confrontation. We note the German communication said nothing about the German eastern front with Russia and Austria-Hungary.

Therefore, I have ordered the mobilization of the Russian military and have begun actions to preserve our sphere of influence. However, this action is not without recourse and we do solicit the attention of Germany and all nations to come to a mutually beneficial solution.

VIENNA: Count Donald Louis von Patrick, newly appointed Minister of Foreign Affairs, announced today he plans an official inspection tour of the Far East to increase the understanding between the people of the Austro-Hungarian and Asian empires. Key on the list will be stops in Tokyo, Seoul, Manila, and Honolulu. When asked about the trip to the obscure backwater on the Asian mainland, the Minister replied, "I foresee a day when great forces will clash over this piece of real estate. Besides, Christmas is coming, and I hear the bargains in clothes and brass are not to be missed."

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

ATHENEE KRONIKLE--"Commercial Shipping Attacked in ION": Several merchant ships were attacked yesterday while traversing ION while using the international sea lanes. Attacks came in the form of small boats armed with catapults. Swarms of the boats surrounded merchant vessels, firing projectiles which burst into flames upon contact. It is believed the contents of the projectiles are a form of "Greek fire" made famous during the Middle Ages by the Byzantine Navy.

The boat attacks are attributed to a recent militant Islamic revival centered in the city of Tunis. A religious zealot who claims to be the "Mahdi", the missing twelfth caliph of the line of Ali, returned to Earth. The Mahdi has launched a jihad to make the Mediterranean Sea an Islamic lake and to sweep it clean of infidel shipping.

Military analysts are surprised at the technology displayed by the Mahdi's navy. Unconfirmed reports attribute the appearance of Greek fire to recent aid the Mahdi received from the Emperor of China. However, tactical prowess displayed by the Mahdi's followers are not up to the standards required by this weapon. So far, all the ships that have been attacked were of iron and steel construction resulting in the need to repaint several hulls but no sunk shipping. However, the Mahdi's followers did manage to set some of their own wooden ships afire which promptly burnt to the waterlines.

KLENDATHU KLARTON--Sky Marshal Morrison's tin-plated, power-assisted troopers have fled in total disarray, leaving seven of their number for our exobiologists to vivisection. Total Anachnid victory!

LA PRENZA (Valencia, Spain)--Greek shipping magnate Archimedes Quassis, vacationing here at La Costa del Sol, requested Spanish aid to secure sea lanes off the coast of TUR. Specifically, Mr Quassia requested the Spanish Navy reflag his merchant ships and supply gunboat escort through ION. The Secretary of the Navy assured Mr Quassia that Spain would do all it can; however, most of the Spanish Navy is sunk, damaged, or impressed into American service after last year's disasters in Cuba and the Philippines.

LONDON DAILY NEWS--The Navy has announced a refit and upgrade program on several of the older battleships and cruisers. Although the Foreign Office says that we are not readying the fleet for war, this seems likely due to the mobilization of the German, Austrian and Russian armies. We hope that England will not be drawn into this but we see the need for a strong Navy to protect our shipping.

THE MULLAH WRAPPER (Teheran, Persia)--"Sultan Forms Dance Academy": Following the expulsion of hundreds of belly dancers from the cities in the grip of religious fanaticism, Sultan Gleason (from the old Turkoman glāy'-soop, meaning: Giver of pain and delight) has created a reception center near the Porte to provide shelter for these cultural refugees. The action is meant to preserve the dying art of belly dancing. Once again, the skills of such notable dancers as Abdo Bakr and Fatima Yulir, which once graced the temples of Karnak and Luxor, can be seen.

MUNICH DAILY PRESS--The Ministry of Defence announced today that the High Seas Fleet will set sail for a "show the flag" visit to the Scandinavian countries to show the Kaiser's support for their governments in these trying times.

NEW YORK TIMES--"Maritime Insurance Rates Increase": Lloyd's of London recently announced an increase of insurance rates for those vessels transiting the Mediterranean. Recent pirate activity off the Barbary Coast is cited as the reason.

SAN FRANCISCO EXAMINER--"Earthquake Center Begins Operations": Pacific University opened the doors of its Seismology Center for earthquake predictions today. The Center was created to study earthquake activity in hopes of someday predicting earthquakes. Sensitive instruments can record shock waves radiating from earthquakes anywhere in the world. Already some activity has been noted. Dr Donald Dewey, director of the Center stated, "We have picked up readings of a major event that was centered somewhere in Siberia. The magnitude of that event rivals the earthquake that struck San Francisco. It is strange that this would have occurred there since the rock structure in Siberia is very stable and one would not expect to see such activity there. I don't know what to make of it. Further, we have no confirmation of this from Russia."

SEATTLE POST--"High Levels of Smoke and Dust Contaminants in Atmosphere": The colorful sunsets we have recently been treated to are the results of large amounts of smoke and dust in the atmosphere. Volcanic activity or large forest fires are the usual causes for such high levels of contaminants. The actual source of this activity is not yet known, however, Siberia is the most likely location due to prevailing winds.

La Stampa (Milan)--"Lord Devon Returns": In a time of national conflict and world war, Italy finally has reason to celebrate. Lord Devon, who established his name as a key leader in Garibaldi's Red Shirts during the reunification of Italy, has come home to Rome today as a national hero. Lord Devon returns to Italy to marry King Vittorio-Emmanuelle III's oldest daughter and accept the position of Admiral of the Royal Navy. The King first offered the position of Admiral after Lord Devon lead Italy to a unified nation, but before he could accept he had to return to his homeland England leaving behind his love. He now returns in hope that his marriage can bring his England and Italy together in this time of conflict, and to help Italy against the Ottoman hordes. The King gave his blessing freely to the marriage, but asked that Lord Devon would give up his right to the throne of Italy for political reasons. Pope Leo XIII will perform the wedding in what should prove to be one of Italy's greatest celebrations in history. The people of Italy will rest easier with Admiral Devon defending Italy by sea.

BORIS SPEAKS!

Before y'all get uppitty about spelling, I will make this disclaimer now: I will normally try to correct any gross misspellings in the Embassy Beat and Press Review sections. Variations for British spellings and, perhaps, spoken accents will be allowed. I will occasionally get fed up with being a 3rd grade teacher and print all of the above as they are submitted. However, in the Classifieds, I prints it likes you spells it (or as I decipher you spells it). 'Nuff said. If unsure of a spelling, please consult a dictionary. If you want something deliberately misspell, let me know. After all, it could be a coded message to your agents. It's bad enough I have fat fingers...

PRUSSIA OCCUPIED!

MURKWOOD--The Russian steamroller has smashed its way into eastern Germany and now threatens the Kaiser's capital. The Russian Navy, however, has shown itself to be impotent. Worse yet, the Tsar faces the possibility of an English invasion of his capital, while Germany is under no immediate danger unless England and/or France join the fray. The rest of the moves were fairly routine--save the Turkish support for the failed Russian occupation of RUM and the British annexation of HOL. Indeed, British policy towards their Germanic cousins will determine the balance of power in the West, and Lord Devoni, the British expatriate, holds the scales in the East.

EMBASSY BEAT

MUNICH--(Ministry of Foreign Affairs) "Kaiser Decries Russian Army": In a speech today the Kaiser called for public condemnation of the Russian occupation of the German territory of SIL. "All peace-loving governments of Europe should make a great cry of anguish over this threat to national stability and this threat of bloodshed to satisfy the Czar's lust for power and land not belonging to him." The Kaiser added after the speech, "This may explain a lot of the noise the Communists, agitating around European capitals with anti-Czar agitation." Pressed for an official governmental response to the Russian move, the Kaiser declined comment, but when asked repeatedly, finally answered, "If the army is still on German soil, if our current negotiations are not fruitful, by the first of the new year, this Russian occupation, to me, will be an act of war and I will recommend the government take appropriate actions then." The Kaiser also refused comment on reported French, Austrian, and Turkish military moves and refused to equate the German fleet visiting DEN with the Russian army in SIL.

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

ATHENEE KRONIKLE: "French Slave Trade Uncovered" A small French steamer was siezed by the Italian government at the port of Tunis today. The steamer was carrying twenty Turkish Belly Dancers with forged passports. The ship's captain admitted that the women were to be turned over to a confederate at Marseille, to be taken to the Brothel of Paris. The women all in their early twenties will be sent to Rome awaiting word from Turkey as to their eventual relocation.

LONDON TIMES: "English Fleet makes Port Call in Amsterdam" The 1st Squadron of the Grand Fleet was forced to make an unscheduled stop in Amsterdam this week.

Three of the older battleships suffered breakdown during their manuevers in the North Sea along the Dutch coast. They were towed to the port of Amsterdam as the closest friendly port to effect repair.

This proves the need to modernize the fleet at the soonest possible time to protect the English seas and our interests in other friendly countries.

EUROPE MOBILIZES!

MINAS MORGUL--Taking advantage of the dismal winter weather, the Great powers busily mobilized their reserve forces and laid down plans and supplies for a long conflict. They shan't be disappointed. Perhaps the only surprise amongst the builds was the construction of the Austrian 2nd Fleet. The move implies a healthy respect for Turkish (and perhaps Italian?) naval potential and either opportunism based on the unlikelihood of Russian armies intervening in defense of Turkey while engaged with German troops or indeed some sort of Russo-Austrian neutrality pact. Meanwhile the French double fleet build should be causing ulcers in both London and Rome.

EMBASSY BEAT

BERLIN--In a speech today the Kaiser announced a call-to-arms in the port city of Kiel. The formation of Army Group North, slated as a guard unit to free units of the existing armies for other duties, is in direct reaction to the "Russian forces now moving over German soil". The Kaiser continued: "Russian dreams of conquest are a threat to all of Europe and demand equivalent actions be taken by the civilized nations to prevent a new wave of barbarism from returning the Dark Ages to the continent."

The High Seas Fleet has been recalled to waters closer to home in view of the mounting crisis in the East. The Kaiser also noted that the Swedish government rebuffed the advance of the Russian fleet in the same time frame and said envoys were being dispatched to all the Scandinavian countries as well as the major European Powers to promote German interests and try to preserve peace on the continent.

STOCKHOLM--Bad seamanship and weather protected the neutrality of Sweden from the two invading navies from Russia and the German occupation fleet based in DEN.

The Russian fleet was forced by an early freeze to withdraw its fleet back to Tallinn or risk ripping out their hulls in the thick ice. The German fleet followed some strategically misplaced channel markers. This caused its transports to run aground while trying to enter the port cities of Malmo and Helsingborg. Expert defending gun fire forced the rest back.

King Oscar II restated Sweden's neutrality and has asked for an apology from both Germany and Russia. The possibility of aid from England was also discussed by the King. Rationing of vital supplies was also enacted to insure the national survival.

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

THE SOBER CELT (Dublin underground press): Observers from the Emerald Isle are dismayed by the general mayhem in Europe. One can but wonder if the English and French concerted moves into the Low Countries are really to aid Germany or to crush that nation against the Russian hordes. However, we can but applaud the awesome power of Austria-Hungary and Italy forming a solid wall against the Godless Turks and the unholy alliance with the Russian Tsar.

Local News--Riots nearly resulted today when the British imposed a two farthing tax on each quart of whisky purchased and a penny tax on each whisky drink. The tax was supposedly for the war chest but was quickly rescinded until further studies could be made of the feasibility of collecting the tax. Many Irishmen indicated they would construct their own stills before paying the tax.

WASHINGTON POST--Taking some time from his hunting expedition in Montana, President Roosevelt had some comments for reporters concerning the situation in Europe. "I don't know what this Kaiser fellow is in such a huff about. After all, his Prussian ancestors stole SIL from the Austrians the same way 153 years ago, not to mention half of KIE from Denmark not 36 years ago. Then there's Alsace-Lorraine, ceded by the French 30 years ago. It seems the German Emperor doesn't like the shoe being on the other foot."

ASSAULT ON TURKEY BEGINS!

CLIFFHOME--The massive eastern thrust of forces of the Austro-Italian Entente has thrown Turkish forces into disarray. With aid from the Tsar unlikely, the Porte can only look to Paris, whose fleets in WES and LYD pose a very proximate threat to Rome. The French, however, have their own problems with the appearance of a British fleet in ENG and the precarious position of the Kaiser, La Belle France's best shield against the dreaded Russian steamroller.

EMBASSY BEAT

BERLIN--Germany Declares War "A state of war exists between Imperial Germany and the barbaric horde invading from the East. As this is a threat to all civilized nations, I call on the rest of Europe to rise in arms and help kick these modern Vandals back to the cold wastes of their origin." ...Released by the Office of Foreign Affairs from a private address of the Kaiser.

LONDON--The English government has determined that the French build of two fleets is excessive. We believe the French are planning an invasion of England.

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

VOLKES' ZEITUNG (Bern, Switzerland)--Danish Resistance Movement Forms A popular liberation movement has arisen in occupied Denmark. The Danish Resistance is being supported by a local populace that is more and more estranged by German occupation policy. The most recent complaint is, Danish dairy products are being suppressed so surplus German dairy products can find a market. This policy spells D-I-S-A-S-T-E-R for the Danish economy which relies heavily on export dairy goods. This resentment manifests itself in the new slogan adopted by the Danish Resistance, "Eat cheese or die!" More enterprising Danes favored a less strident slogan designed to attract tourism to offset declining dairy sales, "Come smell our dairy air."

TSAR ABDICATES!!

MURKWOOD--Citing the need to live in a more salubrious climate, Tsar Robert has abdicated the Russian Throne in favor of his cousin Paul, the Archduke of Moscow. Rumors that the Russian invasion of Eastern Germany was really an attempt to drive down real estate values in Central Europe seem now to be well-grounded as ex-Tsar Robert is retiring to Luxemburg.

The political situation is becoming clearer now as it appears an Anglo-French alliance is operating in the West, modified by a probative Franco-German non-aggression pact. The East has an Austro-Italian alliance aimed at Turkey, while Russia and Germany butt heads with each other in Central Europe. A Franco-Turkish alliance may also be in place; if not, it surely will be shortly.

EMBASSY BEAT

BERLIN--In a public speech today the Kaiser denounced Russia in the strongest terms and vowed the German armies would "Repell the barbaric invaders and reclaim all occupied Germanic lands." Talk of the High Seas Fleet sailing for SIP started after hints of eastward movement of the scout cruisers during the speech started rumors in the enthusiastic audience. (sic)

KREHLIN (Moskva)--It's been reported that Tsar Pavel IV (lately the Archduke of Moscow) was informed of his ascension to the throne late last week, days before the christening of his cousin. Tsar Pavel made his first official appearance as Head of State at the christening of his cousin Travis Smith whose father is a diplomatic envoy from London. Reportedly Tsar Pavel was heard to say, "What an auspicious beginning for my reign; another blood lie has been formed to the King of England!"

LONDON--The King and his government have made a temporary nine week move to Southampton to increase our understanding of world events. They are expected back 15 May (if London is still under English control!)

ST PETERSBURG (Ministry of Defence)--The Minister of Defence issued a statement today explaining the erratic movement of Russian units. He said, "There was a period of one week where the unit commanders had no direction. They therefore struck out on their own. With the firm hand of Tsar Pavel IV now at the helm, the units will once again be brought under control."

WASHINGTON--President Roosevelt has viewed with alarm European sabre-rattling and now the (admittedly justified) German Declaration of War against Russia. "This bodes ill for the World when a petty civil war among the clans of Europe threatens to inflame the entire globe with the ravages of War. Believe me, fellow citizens, it won't be long before a clever propagandist on one side or the other incites (or bribes) enough members of Congress to self-righteous anger and a Declaration of War is passed. Forbid it Almighty God."

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

LONDON TIMES: The English government conceded today that a grave error in judgement was made in our dealing with our friends the French. The fleet will be directed out of ENG and defuse a possible overreaction of our southern friends. An official apology will be sent to the government of France.

NEUER ZUERCHER ZEITUNG: Persistent semi-official leaks from the Porte claim that the Turkish Army in BUL was not destroyed as reported but was secretly withdrawn to Mecca to attend the 1157th Annual All-Islam Domino Tournament, leaving only a thin covering force. It was this that the Austrian marines smashed. The Army was withdrawn since that Army boasts 12,692 of the 15,000 ranked players and team members in the Islamic world. A national treasure indeed!

NOVAE VREMIA--Amidst great pomp and joy, Tsar Pavel IV has ascended the throne and assumed the title "Tsar Autocrat of All the Russias and Eastern Germany".

BOOS AND KUDDS

BORIS SPEAKS!

Welcome to Mark Doyle, our new alternate, recruited at CoastCon '88 in Bilowki, MS. Mark is stationed at Scott AFB, IL where Maj Bob (Tsar) Hudson was recently posted.

As mentioned in our headline, Bob Hudson has PCS'd (that means "been transferred" for our non-military types) to Germany. Since mail to Europe is notoriously slow through the AFPO/FPD system, Bob has transferred Russia to that old Cossack, Paul Saunders. They both happened to be here a couple of weeks ago so the transition was fairly orderly.

As you well know, the postage rates have gone up, so too has the game fee. Your present status is (assuming no further rate increases):

Temporary address change: As mentioned in the emergency postcard and implied by his Press, England has a temporary address until 15 May 88. It is: SMSgt Wayne Morrison, PSC#3 Box 9929, Gunter AFB, AL 36114; no phone number available (he's sharing a public phone booth with umpteen other guys and gals).

This issue represents a new first in my postal GM'ing--four players were technically NMR. My usual barrage of collect long distance phone calls covered the situation, but I'm open to suggestions on either how I might lower the delinquency rate and/or raise the Press submission rate. All letters will be appreciated.

InCider magazine is running a contest for the most creative forms of desktop publishing using Apple-based equipment. Roxis certainly qualifies. I would appreciate it if y'all will make an especial effort to submit Press in the next two issues so I can submit a copy of this minizine for consideration. Thanks.

Thought for the Season: The victories of Diplomacy are won by a series of microscopic advantages; a judicious suggestion here, an opportune civility there, a wise concession at one moment and a farsighted persistence at another; of sleepless tact, immovable calmness and patience that no folly, no provocation, no blunder can shake. --Lord Salisbury

WINTER DOLDRUMS CONTINUE

MINAS MORGUL--So what is there to say? Germany and Italy are in big trouble, and Turkey only slightly less so. Should Count von Patrick and the new Tsar hammer out their differences Islam will be expunged from the face of Europe. Only England can derail the French juggernaut headed toward Rome. Germany can only hope for a rapprochement with the carnivorous Tsar to pull her bacon out of the fire.

EMBASSY BEAT

BERLIN--The Kaiser is sending a new envoy to Russia. He deplores British treachery.

COPENHAGEN--In a lightning move today the English Royal Marines threw out the German invaders. England has offered both military and economic aid to the Danes with preferred treatment given to the Danish Dairy Industry. The English need more milk for their tea.

LONDON--Under heavy fog conditions the combined efforts of three fleets and the English 1st Army successfully repelled German intentions to occupy SWE and cut off the German army from its supply base in DEN. DEN is now free to sell its dairy products anywhere at their own price.

Germany is now running back to its own borders and hopefully has learned to not be so aggressive to its neighbors. "England is now the Peace Keeper of Europe and all aggression will be severely dealt with," stated the King from Southampton today.

The fleets and armies will protect the North countries until the warfare to the south ceases.

VATICAN CITY--The Pontiff has sent a request to the French Ambassador to seek peace with Italy. (However, anything which slows the growth of the Ottoman Empire will be well appreciated.)

BOOS AND KUDOS

The Madame Bolduc Award for Press Excellence goes this season to England for the Copenhagen article.

This season's recipient of a Ms Nar Super-Sudsy bomb is Sultan Ali C.J. for keeping his address confidential. Communication should be vital to Diplomats.

BORIS SPEAKS!

The latest issue of The Avalon Hill General (Vol 24, #3) is largely dedicated to Diplomacy, especially the postal hobby. It should not be missed.

Address correction: Tsar Paul's PO Box # is 6535, not 6235 as our last published roster indicated. Abject apologies, Sahib. Please make the appropriate correction on your rosters.

Address Changes: By the time y'all get this King Wayne will be back at his Langley AFB address, his TOY to Alabama over. Also, Lord Devoni will be back at 201 Devon Ct, FWB, FL 32548, (904)-862-6075. Sultan Ali C.J. is also back from Tallahassee for the summer but has not deigned to reveal his address. His phone number is (904)-651-2897 which I'm sure will be of more practical use since few of you seem to actually use the mails for your correspondence.

Birthday greetings to King Wayne on 6 Jun.

FRENCH PRESIDENT RESIGNS! :

CLIFFHOME--Events in Europe have taken a bizarre turn with the sudden resignation of the French President and the assumption of power by M. Wilson. The French assault on Italy, however, goes on apace, blunting the sharp edge of the developing Lepanto attack. The new fear evidently prefers solid defense to the slashing, albeit risky, offensives of his predecessor. Meanwhile Albion quietly consolidates her holdings and waits the proper moment.

EMBASSY BEAT

BERLIN--The Kaiser today announced the beginnings of a treaty of non-aggression between Germany and Russia. "Our envoy to Moscow has reported new understandings to end all hostilities between our nations and I have a good feeling that we will come to agreements leading to peace in the eastern provinces. The most recent non-aggressive moves by the Russian armies on German soil and the relaxations of tensions between the armies gives us hope that further confrontations can be avoided and a basis for peaceful relations established." In answer to questions the Kaiser ignored those relating to the English invasion of DEN, but did comment that the commander of the routed Northern Army had been arrested and returned to Berlin and issued a new call to arms to replace the lost corps. There were no comments in the statement that no trouble occurred in DEN until the Army replaced the High Seas Fleet there.

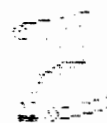

LONDON--In order to quell the madness on the continent, the King has ordered more infantry to occupy the Low Countries. The 2nd Expeditionary Corps has been sent to HOL to insure that the suspected mass of armies moving north and east can be held back.

It is with deep regret that we must move into Germany in order to see the end of this conflict.

MUNICH--The Foreign Office and the Defense Ministry announced an "arrangement" that will grant one English army safe conduct through German territories. Rumors abound that this army will invade France, invade Italy, or help the Austrians against Russia, or all three. The German Minister hinted they were for scouting for hunting lodges in forested regions for R&R of the officer corps.

PARIS--Unable to refuse the repeated entreaties of his close personal friend, Paul Gauguin, President David Scharnhorst resigned his office today in order to emigrate to Tahiti. Gauguin's health is reportedly failing and wishes to bequeath his legacy of fine art, beautiful women, and fun in the sun to his dearest friend. As justification for his sudden and unexpected departure, the President said, "I'm afraid Europe is, like, totally doomed."

PARIS--Returning from exile in French Equatorial Africa, Bonapartist William Wilson has overthrown the Third Republic. He has strong support from the peasants and has gained the support of the military by promising more support for the war against Italy.

In a speech today, Wilson pledged more attention to domestic affairs. In regards to foreign affairs, he pledged to conquer Italy. "They deserve it," he exclaimed and the cheers of the crowd left no doubt that they were behind him 110%! Wilson also vowed to bring the Pope back to Avignon, "where he belongs."

Wilson called for peace among all nations (except Italy, of course) and for more colonialism in Africa, but assured everyone it had nothing to do with his financial interests in the area.

Wilson also invited the King of England to Paris for talks on increased trade of Danish cheese and French wine.

WASHINGTON--A high administration source, who prefers to remain anonymous, has revealed that the White House was jolted by the resignation of H. Scharnhorst and the sudden overthrow of the Third Republic. The President briefly considered sending an expeditionary force to France to restore the Republic, but was dissuaded by cooler heads and the sheer logistical nightmare of such a proposal. Nonetheless, the War and Navy departments have been ordered to create a "Rapid Deployment Force" for use in developing emergencies.

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

BOSTON GLOBE--The British Parliament enacted the Whiskey Tax Act. Of particular note was the exclusion of Scottish whiskey from the tax. One must wonder why the government of the English monarch would say that the tax was an absolute necessity for funding the military while excluding a large portion of the economy. Obviously, the Irish are again being oppressed by the English.

ICELANDIC CHRONICLE--Alec Guinness has remarked that the whiskey tax is a cowardly plot to ruin the Irish people and the economy. He further stated that the Act will do more to harm the Irish economy than the potato famine. Guinness announced that henceforth, he will produce a line of beer called Guinness Extra and shutdown his whiskey operations.

AUSTRIAN FLEET SMASHED!

PURKWOOD--In what is wrongly being called the Second Battle of Lepanto (that historic struggle took place just to the west of the Corinthian isthmus, not to the east as did this one) Turkish naval forces trapped and destroyed the Austrian 1st Fleet and regained control of AEG and its vital access routes to CON. It may prove to be only a temporary setback to the Hapsburgs as they inexplicably were able to maintain the army in SEE, forcing the isolation of the Tsar's F RLA. Meantime in the West, France has recognized the threat posed to her by England and is wheeling her forces to face perfidious Albion, allowing Italy to regain TUN. England has evidently reduced the Kaiser to the size she wants him, and is now nibbling at la Belle France. Prospects for an Anglo-Austrian stalemate have improved greatly.

EMBASSY BEAT

BERLIN--The Kaiser announced a series of Army maneuvers to take place throughout the country. "These training exercises will stress small units acting independently and is not to be seen as a threat to any other nation. Our armies are primarily concerned with German defence and we desire peaceful relations with all our neighbors."

In other announcements, the High Seas Fleet will remain on training exercises in BAL for the time being, with shore leave in BER for the upcoming holidays.

HUE, FRENCH INDO-CHINA--The military commander here announced the repulse of a British force that crossed from Burma into Northwest Laos. The British were turned away with heavy losses at Luang Prabang, and the French forces continued to inflict casualties as they pursued them to the border. The British were apparently trying to capture the extensive rubber plantations there.

NAPLES--The Royal Italian Navy has been called back from AEG in hopes to save the people of TUN. The fleet had to drop its prior obligation of escort duty to all merchant ships through AEG. In doing such, we hope that Turkish-backed terrorists don't destroy all merchant trading in the area. The pullback of the Navy was called for by the Pope in hope to stop the senseless murders of thousands of innocent people. Italy regrets having to abandon the merchants to the sharks of Turkey. We only hope some good can happen from this move.

PARIS--The Emperor said he was "flabbergasted" at the report from Indo-China. "If confirmed," he stated, "he would have no alternative but to declare war."

PARIS--(from a speech by the Emperor) "I today announce my intention to cease all hostilities with Italy...I was duped into continuing the war by a traitorous adviser implanted by Austria. I was flabbergasted, to say the least, and immediately sent him on safari -- permanently. I feel Franco-Austrian relations are in grave trouble...and have received no explanation from the Count of the Ambassador."

ROME--Lord Devere has announced today that a state of war has existed between France and Italy since the invasion of the protectorate state of TIR. This attack was first thought to be a move to control Mediterranean merchant shippings but reports of mass killings of the men, women, and children of Paris has shown France's real intention, the complete destruction of all the nations of Europe. The direct threats made to the Pope and Rome are just the beginning. If France is allowed to continue without resistance, all of Europe will not be safe. The Italian Nation will stop at nothing to protect herself from France and pledges to seek the complete destruction of the French warlords. The Italian government urges the nations of Europe to support our cause before all is lost.

VIENNA--The new Ministry for Environmental Affairs announced its first product ban. Citing excessive suds content which threatens the Austrian water supply, the government banned "Ms Nar (R) Super-Sudsy Bombs (TM)", a rather famous brand of detergent. It had become a popular juvenile sport for youngsters to pile these overpriced sudsing great boxes. It is rumored that a foreign government officials have been subjected to the product. No other brand of detergent is known to cause so much suds upon contact with water. In addition to the fear of long-term environmental damage, abuses by some of the writing staff was also cited.

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

IN WALTON DEAR PULLET WRAP-PEE--The Lawfirm of Deaton, Deaton & Deaton announced today that it would file suit against the Austrian Ministry for Environmental Affairs in an effort to block its banning of Super-Sudsy Bombs (TM), a detergent manufactured by Ms Nar Inc, a division of Highly One Enterprises. J. Cheever Longhoke, spokesman for the lawfirm stated emphatically, "That's the most ridiculous thing I ever heard. Our Bombs don't foam fountains, people do!"

Count von Patrick (alias Peerless Software, the Texas Leprechaun, etc) recently visited these sultry shores, and left a maven for Bor # and HS Nar to hook themselves on. It may work. FEAR SCUTTLES SOUTHERN FLEET
MIRAS HORSHU -- Crippling financial and logistical problems, Tsar Pavel has ordered the Southern Fleet scuttled and its men to report to Murmansk via caravan from Balas to Ashkhan, and then by railway north. Meanwhile the French 1st fleet was forced into rocks by Germans in the storm tossed TYN (iron lung at sea, I'd wager). The English have christened their 6th fleet, and Austria has mobilized another army of reservists. Expect the British to put the hurt on France come Spring and Italy to renew her crusade against Islam. Austria will strive to expel the invading Russian army.

EMBASSY BEAT

BERLIN--In a speech today the Kaiser denied that German troops have invaded France but instead a small number of very small units accidentally crossed the frontier and were escorted back to German territories by French authorities. "Germany has no intention of invading anyone, and naturally we should scare no one."

GENEVA--An unidentified ambassador today made public a secret meeting that took place here between Italian and Turkish officials. He condemned the meetings, stating that a treaty between the two countries could alter the Balkan situation "for the worst."

PARIS--The French government labelled "silly" the explanation for the Austrian army trapped in SEV. The French ambassador in St. Petersburg was told that the Tsar did not want the Austrian army staying because "they are telling us use the beaches."

VIENNA--The Ministry of Justice formally disbanded all members of the law firm of Neelan, Beaton & Cieslem after they were arrested in a major bust by the Austrian Bureau of Investigation for hoarding. The law firm rose to prominence recently when they were selected by the Mc Ner Corporation to handle their suit against the Austrian Ministry for Environmental Affairs after their super product, Super-Soddy Bombs (TM) was banned for excessive soda content. In a midnight raid, a warehouse full of the popular card game Naval War was impounded. Naval War, Austria's most popular card game, has been in short supply for months. What few copies can be found are demanded premium prices.

ZURICH--Information from a reliable source today turned some new light on the reported English invasion of Laos. One of the captured defectors reported that he was a paid mercenary of a French agent to artificially drive up the price of raw rubber by destroying a few trees and leave false information that the English were invading French Indo-China.

The expert French force repelled the attack and grouped the cartel from achieving their objective. A full investigation is under way within the French government concerning a procurement of rubber for the Army to see if there is a connection.

ALYON FOUNDER--The Front government today was shaken by the arrest last night of three members of the French Department of War. They were indicted today for conspiracy to defraud the government.

The charges stem from their alleged plot to drive up the price of rubber by staging a fictitious invasion of French Indochina. The three were found to have invested in large stocks of rubber stored in Harbours which were offered for sale to the government through a fourth party when news of the "invasion" was announced.

Conviction on the charges will bring 20 years in French Guiana at hard labor.

COUP IN TURKEY! RIOTS IN ITALY!

MURKWOOD--The East is beginning to crumble under Austria's pressure. There is a new government in Turkey, and there may soon be another one in Italy. Meanwhile a Franco-Russo-German entente is emerging and beginning to slow down the English juggernaut, but is it too little, too late? The Russians are the weak link here.

EMBASSY BEAT

ISTAMBUL--In a nearly bloodless coup, General Mark Doyle Ali Ben-Arond has taken control of the Turkish government. His first official acts were to declare martial law and to order all fleets to dock at the nearest port. He also called for calm during the upcoming crisis.

METZ--Advance elements of the France 3rd Army have captured Herr Oberst Braun and Ms Pontiff of the Munich Travel Agency, Ruhr River Branch. The two are guilty of organizing unauthorized and sarcastic tours of Paris and the French Riviera. Reported to be in Koblenz, 3rd Army General Achille-Claude Debussy immediately recognized that Koblenz is not even on the Ruhr. Scout parties located the office in Essen and captured the two criminals. The officer who led the raid, Lieutenant Midi D'un Faune, said they were captured "easier than a couple of sleeping animals." They are now enroute to Paris where Braun is likely to be emasculated and shot, while Pontiff will be impaled. The Ministry of Tourism stated: "Let this be a lesson to all fly-by-night travel agencies. You will be located and punished."

PARIS--Competencee, a new French company, has been formed. Its main source of income will be to provide contract personnel to fill foreign political and military posts. Corporate president Geet D'Jowbdun said in a press conference that his company will concentrate its advertising in Turkey and Russia.

STARDATE 2347.6--The Starship Enterprise with a skeleton crew due to scheduled leaves on planet Antares III is headed to Starbase 14 due to an emergency message received by the Federation command at the starbase.

Upon explanation of the received communique, the crew has been sent by Starfleet command to determine the cause of the distress message and to take whatever action is deemed necessary to remedy the situation.

Mr Spark, the science officer (and general nice guy), by using his photon sensors has determined that the distress message, due to the profound red shift, has determined that the message emanated from the planet Earth around October 16, 1904 AD, about the area of the Ottoman Empire.

By Mr Spark's calculations: By attaining an orbit about Sol in an eccentric apogeeic orbit with an eccentricity of 2.341 and by attaining the critical warp speed of 12.2 upon the point of closest proximity to Sol, we would initiate the time travel scenario and would indeed put us into the correct time frame.

After beaming down to the Earth in timely garb, and seeing the present military and diplomatic maneuvers being exacted on the Turkish people by their military and political adversaries, we decided to beam the entire Turkish population to a basically uninhabited area of that time called southern California.

Upon the successful completion of our mission, we reenacted the reverse time travel conditions and returned to our own time frame.

VIENNA--The Ministry for Foreign Affairs declared it will no longer honor combined seasons. "We've adjusted our calendar once to fit the whim of Pope Gregory; we shan't be pushed further to meet the simplistic demands of some self-appointed adjudicist." A crowd estimated at nearly ten thousand marched outside the Summer palace earlier this week. Chanting "Down with the PAULists! End MEGlomania!" the outbursts reflected rumors that the Paulists were behind the decision. There has been almost universal demand from all sectors of the Empire for a restoration of the unique Summer and Fall seasons. Fallout from an earlier decision that Summer and Fall would be combined into a single season (of approximately half the length which both seasons would have lasted if independently) has been widespread. Especially hard hit was the military, which found troop withdrawals in total disarray as the uniform-of-the-season could not be specified. The protest in the capital was sparked by rumors that a possible Winter/Spring combination was being considered.

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

LAJES LIGHT HEART--Reports have reached this remote island of notorious underworld gangs in Ireland organizing the illegal Irish whiskey stills into a massive distribution system. These "gansters" produce and transport illegal whiskey to hidden backroom pubs to avoid the British Whiskey Tax. Many law enforcement officers have been reportedly accepting payoffs to avoid arresting these felons. The British government has censored all comments but seems unable to place enough forces in Ireland to quell the gansters with the current war problems. This tax rebellion could mean the wrenching of Britains attention from the continent to its own shores.

MORE RIOTS IN TURKEY!

MINAS MORGUL--What is becoming an annual rite of spring, the Turkish people are again up in arms (or is it just partying-hearty?). The reasons differ from region to region, food fights in ANK, the annual bath and orgy in SMY, and anti-American demonstrations in CON over some rumor that Americans eat Turks for dinner once a year. Meanwhile King Wayne has retaken DEN; Germany may have mistimed his stab, although the move to TRL augurs badly for the Count and Lord Devoni. Devoni's forces are beginning a blitz of France, anticipating British assistance. It remains to be seen whether the attack will have to be pulled back to defend against the Kaiser's rogue army. Austria seems about to lower the boom on Russia and perhaps the partying animals as well. The next few seasons could well be critical.

EMBASSY BEAT

AUSTIN--The Texas Leprechaun Bulletin Board System is pleased to announce after four and a half years as a T-Net system, it has switched software to Proline. The Leprechaun, node name "Pro-Lep," is now accessible through the national networks (UUCP, ARPA, etc.). Mail to can now be sent to Don Patrick with this E-Mail address: "dlp@pro-lep.cts.com"

MARSEILLES--The French Ministry of Friendly Relations announced the completion of a non-aggression pact with Italy. This was accomplished despite a nasty scene on the first day of the conference.

Reportedly, the Austria-Hungarian Consul bluffed his way into the meeting, grabbed bottles of wine from a nearby wine trolley, and began hurling them at the Italian delegation while screaming, "Big noses! Big noses!" before French security manhandled him from the room. He was immediately turned over to The Ministry of Silly Disturbances for questioning.

Later, a Silly spokesman displayed a personal letter to the Austrian Consul from Count von Patrick himself ordering the Consul to break up the conference in a silly manner. The Count said he did not want to provoke Italy into war but simply "shake them up a little" to remind them there is "no length" Austria will not go to ensure Italy "remains a puppet, papist pseudo-power unknowingly serving Austria." The Minister of Analysis said that Austria is concerned that an attack on her western front would hinder her plan of world dominance.

Despite the political turmoil in Italy, a Friendly spokesman expressed hope that Italy will abide by the pact even if a new government comes to power.

OCCUPIED SEVASTOPOL--A bitter attack by Russian forces against liberated Sevastopol was thwarted by a massive circumlocation of Austrian forces. Now solidified into a solid front, Imperial forces are moving north to firmly establish a buffer zone between Austria, Turkey, and Russia. "Much has been said about Russian needs for a warm water port, but no more than lip service has ever been given to the need for Austrian and Turkish access to the ski slopes of the Urals," said Count Loveboat, owner of a chain of travel agencies throughout Hungary.

VIENNA--Officials here announced the opening of the Armenian Airlift, a daring overland and overwater baloon convoy of emergency food, medical, and arms supplies to the peoples of Armenia. "We never expected this war against godless Turkism to expose such suffering! Oh, the humanity!" said Baron Pendrovsky, commander of the Austrian expeditionary force.

BORIS SPEAKS!

This issue of Boris is coming to you later than usual for two reasons. First, I was assured by Germany on Saturday night (19th) that both his orders and copious press were in the mail on time. Second, I had no orders from Turkey, nor any good way to reach him without a phone number. I had hoped their missives were delayed by an early onrush of holiday mail and would arrive early this week. Alas, they didn't. This delay caused the deadline to be pushed back until 19 Dec, and since Ms Nar and I don't know yet whether we'll be here or there over the holidays, don't expect the next issue to be until after the New Year (but rejoice if it's before). If you don't have your orders to me when I return (given that we leave), you will be NMR, no ifs, ands, or buts. 'Nuff said.

ALTERNATE ALERT: Turkey has again NMR'd giving y'all a shot at getting into the game. If Ali Mark again fails to submit orders, C.J. Gleason, as the original Turkey, has first dibs if he wants the position. Otherwise, it's the usual random draw of alternates. If perchance no alternate applies, the Turkey will be Civil Disorder come Fall and the F AEG will have been destroyed rather than retreated.

COUP IN TURKEY! KAISER SACKS VIENNA!

CLIFFHOME--An obscure Colonel has assassinated Turkish military strongman General Mark Doyle Ali Ben-Arond and has siezed control of the staggering Ottoman Empire, but the intervention was not soon enough to prevent the Austrians from capturing CON. Count von Patrick is in a quandary here, as the Austrian military was under secret orders to strip the ancient city of all its priceless works of art and ship them to Vienna. Unfortunately, the German Kaiser is in VIE personally supervising the looting of its priceless works of art. Both Russia and Turkey are on the ropes and can only pray that Germany and perhaps Italy can distract the Austrian juggernaut long enough so that they can consolidate their defenses. Meanwhile not much is happening in the West, although Italy is threatening to break through the Gibraltar stalemate line and penetrate into the Atlantic.

EMBASSY BEAT

KIEL--"NAVAGITOR RECALLED": Three zepplins have been dispatched to recall Vice Admiral Von Stupp to explain the recent actions of the High Seas Fleet. Reliable sorces say the Fleet was dispatched to SWE to engage the British Fleet there. However the British fleet from SWE arrived in DEN, routeing the few defenders left on land and last reports from the High Seas Fleet indicate its ships are sepperated and mostly lost in SKA. Von Stupp is the grandson of the legendary cabaret entertainer Lilly who left for the American West in the late 1800's and found fame in Mel Brooks' movies.

VIENNA--The Ministry for Foreign Affairs has demanded the immediate withdrawal of German troops from TRL and a full explanation of this unprecedented and unprovoked action. ## MORE ITALIAN RIOTS

MURKWOOD--An ill-advised wartime tax on vino has the Italian populace up in arms and calling for Lord Devoni's reproductive organs. The armed forces have refused to fight without their daily ration of wine. Meanwhile Col Rezzarday's forces are doomed to fall to a coordinated Austrian thrust on SMY, crushing the last resistance of the once mighty Ottoman Empire. Austria looks to have the forces to deflect the Kaiser's too-little, too-late attempt. Russia should last into 1907. While the Western Powers are still mixing it up, the East is indeed Red and Austria could well win in 1909. This must be prevented at all costs.

EMBASSY BEAT

BUDAPEST--The Foreign Ministry announced that a formal state of war exists between the Empire of Austria-Hungary and the Germany of the Kaiser. Streams of refugees heading for Budapest were quickly enlisted into the newly-formed 8th Austrian Corps. As part of the War Times Economic Sanctions Act, it is no longer legal to buy, own, or sell anything made by German companies. Many refugees found themselves on foot as inflamed mobs set fire to their Peoples Carriages (TM), a heretofore popular German-made but inexpensive, beetle-shaped, two-horse carriage. Bakers were seen throwing freshly-made German chocolate cakes into the streets while the people cheered. Brew-meisters threatened to go on strike, but cooler heads prevailed and, to the new war tune of "Drink, Drink, Drink Tyrolian" the people now toast to the total defeat of Germany. Side by side with acts of panic were acts of great heroism. Just prior to the German invasion, elite palace guards successfully removed the reels of cables which enable his imperial majesty to maintain constant communication with his field generals from the comfort of his personal carriage.

TURKEY ELIMINATED!

MINAS MORGUL--The East is Red. The last token Turkish resistance has been crushed, and the Russians are desperately trying to defend their capital. Lord Devoni's government has smashed the Fascist-inspired postal strike and can now communicate with its troops. England and France appear to have reconciled their differences, and this cannot be good news for Italy and Germany. The question of the moment is this: Has Austria yet attained a critical mass of forces and become unstoppable? This would be a cruel blow to the Chief Bug's Master Plan. It must be prevented at all costs.

EMBASSY BEAT

AEGEAN--(wireless from the Austrian warship NES Sean)--A twenty-one cannon salute to victory heralded the total success of the Austrian war effort as Austrian armies crushed the final Turkish forces in SMY. In a two-pronged attack from CON and ARM, Austrian forces routed the final defending Turkish fleet to put an end to the Ottoman Empire.

BUDAPEST--Emperor Franz-Joseph is dead. The Emperor died in his sleep at Laxenburg Castle where he was born in 1830. The Emperor, who was 76, refused to leave despite the German invasion. His example inspired Austrian forces in their counter attack from GAL. The Emperor's death may mean the end of 624 years of Habsburg rule. Archduke Franz Ferdinand is missing and presumed killed in the battle for IRL. The Archduke was the nephew of the Emperor, and designated heir to the throne of Austria-Hungary. The Emperor's grandnephew, Karl, next-in-line, had been in Trieste, but fled to Hungary in advance of the German retreat. Karl's whereabouts are unknown. He has no issue.

LONDON--This morning the Foreign Office announced that England had come to terms with France and was withdrawing First Army and the Invasion Fleet. A spokesman for the Foreign Office made the following comments: "We now have freedom of the high seas and in our coastal waters. France has agreed to our unrestricted use of this lifeline and in return we will buy more French goods, keep our army off French soil and cooperate in preserving Peace in Europe."

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

FASCES (Dovia, Italia)--We have instituted this underground newspaper to comment upon the terrible incompetents in Rome, especially Lord Devoni, and his pansy generals. He seems dedicated to destroying Italy and its proud and warlike heritage. Not only that, but we believe him to be a Austrian sympathizer. A high placed official recently informed us of a conversation with him which Devoni, amid much whining over their eminent destruction of Italy, began praising Austria, saying, "Gee, if I could only be like Count von Patrick. All that acreage over which to go for long walks. Now that's an empire!"

Our position calls for a new, powerful government to be installed that will stand up to the dastardly Austrian before it is too late.

Austria-Hungary should be relegated to the Roman province it once was. In a normal country we would expect to be shut down within hours, but a strong police state is not one of Devoni's priorities; he would rather visit and learn the "culture" of Iberians and North Africans. It makes us sick. We call for the new government to institute such a state and shut us down immediately.

EUROPE UNITING TO OPPOSE AUSTRIA

CLIFFHOME--The West has evidently come to its collective senses and called off (maybe "postponed" would be a better term) its internecine struggles. Russia seems not to have been cut into the deal and should fall prev to the English vulture in the Fall. The Kaiser's rogue army is still carrying on a scorched earth policy that is unlikely to endear it to the next province it occupies. Italy seems to smell blood and is joining in also, probably due to French extortion. The next year or two will be critical. If the alliance can hold up, Austria might well be foiled, but if anyone succumbs to ungentlemanly greed, the whole thing could unravel.

EMBASSY BEAT

BERLIN--"England Sees the Light": The Kaiser today promoted Admiral von Stupp to his personal staff after his secret negotiations with the English (while the High Seas Fleet was supposedly lost in SKA) have brought England into the fray to prevent Austrian domination of the continent. "The foolish conflict between Germany and England is ended and we will both strive to prevent a new Austrian fueled Dark Age from overtaking the remaining free countries of Europe." As a result the High Seas Fleet has been ordered to BAL enroute to STF.

BUDAPEST--Fierce fighting continues along the empire's borders as Austrian troops return from their Turkish and Russian campaigns to join the home guards in repulsing the German invasion. Speaking at the commissioning ceremony for officers of the newly formed Austrian 7th Army, the foreign minister and acting head of government, Count von Patrick, noted that although much has been done to pacify the East, some of the greatest challenges lie ahead. "Western Europe is in turmoil, and armies of the traitorous German still pose a threat. But now they have to face the full force of Austrian resolve."

Roster Corrections: Note that the address given in last issue's roster for Lord Devoni's PO Box is correct, not the one given in this section. Emperor Wilson's phone number should be (601)-896-3297.
Please annotate last month's roster accordingly.

COASTCON '89 will be held 7-9 Apr at the Biloxi, MS Civic Auditorium.
Boris, Ms Nar, and the Tsar and Tsarina will attend (and, no doubt, will Emperor Wilson). Ms Nar expects to successfully defend her

RUSSIA ELIMINATED! ITALY NEXT?

MURKWOOD--King Wayne's forces have finally finished off his cousin's final fleet and have entered the starving capital bearing tons of relief food to placate the populace. Duke von Patrick has annihilated the rogue German army in his rear, but again has had his capital sacked. Meanwhile the announced Western Triple Alliance (somewhat too little, too late) seems only to be interested in carving up what's left of Italy and extorting territorial concessions from its former senior partner, England.

EMBASSY BEAT

BERLIN--The Kaiser today announced a new united Europe campaign to counter the expanding Austrian Empire. "With England coming to the aid of France and Germany this Dark Empire shall not prevail."

BUCHAREST--Hundreds of people lined the roads with torches as the Kaiser's Southern Army marched into RUM after clashing with Austrian troops to the west. The temporary commandant indicated their ultimate destination was BLA.

BUDAPEST--The Austro-Hungarian Government announced that Donald, newly invested Duke of Lippizan and former Foreign Minister, has been officially elevated to the post of Prime Minister. The Duke had been performing the duties of Prime Minister, as well as of Foreign Minister, since the post was vacated after the death of Emperor Franz Joseph and the death or disappearance of the only two heirs to the Hapsburg throne. The Duke has appointed Count von Aehrenthal head of the Foreign Ministry, a position the Count held before under Emperor Franz Joseph, but had resigned shortly before the Emperor's death because of ill health. The appointment is seen as merely an honor for the ailing Count while the search for a qualified successor goes on.

LONDON--It was announced today that the government of Russia has capitulated in STP. A combined Army and Naval Force defeated the last Russian fleet and captured St Petersburg intact. The First Admiral's Office released the following statement: "The rogue fleet in STP had ceased to be an effective fighting force against the Austrian Empire and had started raiding NWY and snipping (sic) at our Navy. This was not the thing to do. We stopped them." The government is now looking at a way to set up a new government in Russia and bring the Russian people up from uneducated serfs to worthwhile citizens in the STP area.

LONDON--In a move to reduce the fear of a war with France, Germany, and Austria, the occupation forces in HOL and BEL were withdrawn in order to fight Cossacks and defuse and other intentions of a land grab. STP will be occupied by only naval forces in order to also reduce Austrian fear of an English northern invasion. However, England will continue a strong defensive posture, let no nation attempt to interfere with English freedom of the seas!

TRIESTE--Overzealous border guards, responding in knee-jerk fashion to an aborted Italian attack, left their posts and rushed headlong into Venice. The shocked Venetians, equally shocked for their part, offered no resistance. The unexpected skirmish violates an Austrian-Italian treaty that goes back to 1900.

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

NEUE ZUERCHER ZEITUNG "Underground Vienna"--This reporter attended Count von Patrick's investiture this past Wednesday and can only say that it was a ball. Such a beautiful service at Votive Church, but by the closing procession this reporter was anxious to have some very lovely fun. The Count was smartly attired in a black and red tunic accentuated with gold, tight black pants officer's pants, and a shiny sword that hung gracefully at his (well formed) mid thigh. At the ball, after the Count's obligatory receiving of dignitaries and dances, the Count went to his large study adjoining the ballroom. I do not have to tell you that the fun had just started. All of us temporarily excused ourselves from our female companions to talk some "diplomacy." I can only say that the Count has not lost his skill, and look forward to the next ball. ---Max Fondolemeister

Boris seems to have skipped a year a couple of issues ago. This is actually Fall 1907, not 1908 as previously indicated.

COASTCON was again a series of triumphs for devotees of this journal. Boris himself won the abbreviated Diplomacy tournament over such luminaries as the Tsar and Sid Kuhn, while the Tsar and Sid trashed all comers at Axis and Allies. Ms Nar wimped out and failed to defend her Naval War title. And speaking of wimping out, Emperor Wilson failed to make an appearance, much less put his reputation on the line in the DIP tourney. No official Rail Baron tourney was staged, so Boris remains MS State Champion.

BUDAPEST--The Royal Austrian Confectioner unveiled a new creation this week in celebration of the great victories over the Ottoman Empire and German renegades. Dubbed the Blue Half Moon, it is basically a cross between a croissant and strudel. Denizens of this fair city seem partial to enjoying it with coffee in the morning, and with a little white wine at supper.

LONDON--The British War Department under Lord Kitchen made the following statement today. "Due to the total lack of communication from the Austrian government, the English government has had no option but to go into a higher DEFENSIVE posture. With the concurrence of the newly elected Russian government-in-exile, additional troops from England have occupied the Baltic Coast states. The state of affairs will continue until communications have been re-established. We are not looking for hostilities with Austria but will not allow ourselves to be unprepared."

KING ABDICATES! TSAR NOW REIGNS!

CLIFFHOME--In a surprise move sure to turn the face of Europe topsy-turvy, King Wayne of Britain has resigned his throne in favor of the now landless Tsar Paul. Meanwhile two more German armies have pulled their now famous disappearing trick.

EMBASSY BEAT

BERLIN--"Kaiser Deplores Destruction of Army Group South: Calls for War with Austria" In a speech today the Kaiser denounced Austria for the massacre of the "German Rogue Army" in the Baltic States near SER. "It was a rogue army, acting neither under control of or on orders of the German military command but they were still Germans! This atrocity will not go unanswered!"

Unconfermed reports that the Balkin gypsies ambushed the Southern Army after Jewish merchants sold them bad provisions and defective ammo before passing through dense woods towards SER have been denighed by local authorities. Rampant rumors concerning the fighting have united the German people into a war-frenzy and army camps throughout Germany have experienced a surge in new enlistments.

BERLIN--The Kaiser today released the following statement:
"The whole of Europe has turned against the Austrian Tyrant and his Italian lackeys and victory will prevale with the rightist, light must overcome the darkness threatening our contenent."

BUDAPEST--Speaking with reporters briefly regarding recent English pronouncements, Prime Minister Patrick issued a warning to the English Government to withdraw its forces from Eastern Europe. "We did not liberate WAR just to see it fall into English hands. Our alliance with Italy and devotion to the Holy See make this crusade a gilt-edged priority. Someday a Polish pope may live in Rome, and by God I swear he'll not be English!!!"

LONDON--A communication failure has been blamed for the abortive occupation of the northern Russian territories. The atmospheric disturbances are unusual for this time of year and its source could not be determined. One of our leading scientists, Lord Marconi, states that an unsuspected source of radio interference is the cause but lacked the equipment to detect its source. Other methods of communication will be utilised until the interference is eliminated.

LONDON--Communications have finally been re-established with Austria. Frank and honest discussion is taking place with possible troop withdrawals as part of the agenda. Failure of these talks with the Austrian government give us call for great concern and the possibility of open warfare between our nations is one of the most prominent. It will take more than luck to keep the peace between the two empires.

Our hopes go with the negotiators of our future.

WINDSOR CASTLE--The first official act of the new English Tsar is to call for a vote for concession to Austria.

WAR OVER: AUSTRIANS RIOT!

MURKWOOD--Delegates from the five remaining European Great Powers met in Washington yesterday to formally cease hostilities. By a 5-0 vote all of Duke Patrick's demands were met, and Austria-Hungary is now the Master of Europe and most of the world. Having won the war, Duke Donald must now win the peace. Considering the mentality of the Austrian Police State, this is not likely and we can expect periodic rebellions and assassinations in an Austria dominated Europe--expect and foment. Meanwhile, back in Vienna the victory celebrations got out of hand as frenzied mobs chanting "We're Number 1!", "We are A-H!", and "Ara stop the snow!" tore down the goalposts at the city football stadium. Already young men are refusing to show up for induction into the now superfluous Austrian army and recruiting quotas could not be made. Our plans may have been foiled, but sufficient tensions remain that we can still obtain our objective of a divided Terra.

BORIS SPEAKS!

Thought for the Season: It ain't over 'til the fat lady sings...and here she comes now.

The concession vote was 4 ayes and one abstention, making it 5-0 for the concession. Congratulations, Don!

There will be one more issue of Boris. Players are invited to submit postgame comments, complaints, or whatever. Boris is considering starting another game soon, so also indicate whether you'd be interested in playing again. Once again I invite your comments on whether this 'zine should be expanded to include multiple games of Diplomacy or perhaps other games like Civilization, Titan, Magic Realm, or what have you.

THE SILENCE IS DEAFENING

MINAS MORGUL--The response to last issue's call for end of game statements/evaluations/congratulations has been underwhelming. The only press received was Austria's tardy Winter orders and a hurried phone call from the Tsar. Rather than wait any longer, let's wrap up Boris II so we can get on with Boris III.

EMBASSY BEAT

BUDAPEST--The Imperial Conclave of Austro-Hungarian Noblemen (ICAHN), meeting in formal session, has declared Donald, Duke of Lippizan and current Prime Minister, to be Archduke. Pledges of loyalty were signed by all present. Included in the citation were references to his unification of the Austrian and Ottoman Empires, conquest of the Grand Duchy of Sevastopol, occupation of Moscow, liberation of Warsaw, and the great purge of German renegades and restoration of the Austro-Germanic border.

LONDON--As all soldiers do, that return from the war, so has the Tsar. The Tsar wishes to formally announce that the Tsarina is with child. It is His Highness's highest hope that the expected Tsarevich will carry on the struggle against Austria.
