THE

13 FOR LUCK

BRUTUS BULLETIN

ET TU, BRUTE

((Eric is getting married early next month, if you haven't guessed...)) J.M.

OUR FIRST RESIGNATION:

LETTER FROM DAVE GRABAR

"John: I've been playing postal diplomacy since 1969. This is the only game I have ever found a reason to resign for. I disagree totally with your rule for a vote for separate season.

I have the right to see what is built and negotiate before moves. I had to know if I was stabbed. You took away a very vital right. You are wrong in this particular instant."

((With all due respect, no, I am not wrong. YOU are wrong to wait until the fourth or fifth year of a game to decide that you cannot live with the houserules. This was not any whim or arbitrary GM fiat; every game, all the time, works under the set of rules you got at start. If you believed that majority vote did not allow you the room you felt you needed, you should not have signed up. Were you a newcomer to the hobby, I would have more sympathy with your position (although I would not abandon something as fundamental as the pace of my games in any case); but as you have close to a decade of postal experience under your belt, there is really no excuse to come along and say that you just can't bring yourself to make a decision or write some conditional orders for yourself. Others do, why not you?

A player has all the "rights" to negotiate, ponder, dawdle, goof up, miss, and resign here just as anywhere else; you just have to do it faster. I did not take AWAY your right to drag things out: rather, you volunteered to give UP that right by signing up for a game whose prime selling point was—and—is its fast pace. I respect your right to throw in the towel, and appreciate your notice, at least. I do not, however, believe you have a leg to stand on in saying you are being wronged.))

((My thanks to Bill Newell, Jr., for his prompt acceptance of what is now a real dog of a position.))

*****

****

፠፠፠ጛ

****

36566

****

The BRUTUS BULLETIN is a newsletter of postal Diplomacy brought to you at just about the same time every other week by John Michalski, 913 NE 6 St., Moore, OK 73160. There are no game openings. BB is available until 12-1-78 for $2, after which time it will go to a $/#-of-issues rate like the rest, probably 12/$3. BB is dedicated to running three games fast and cheap, the way the GM wishes they ALL were in this hobby; nothing more is promised. However, since I also like filler, I run almost everything under the sun that will fit under the old 14¢ 2-oz limit, soon to be 16¢ I suppose. Press is wide open except in KN, where black press is out. Letters, cartoons, jokes, insults, praise, attacks, and the like are all welcome, in order to keep this from being "just another Dipzine". Anything you see that interests you should be sent in, since it is likely that someone else will also be interested in it—and, barring that, someone else may get all in a huff about it and complain, which is also fine and dandy with me. I'll publish whatever I can get.

DIPLOMACY is copyrighted by Avalon Hill, in case you didn't know; they got it from Alan Calhamer, who in turn was produced by RUR, someone reported in a Dipzine seen recently. I cannot affirm or deny that, however.

If you read ROD WALKER's letter in last issue, see Craig REGES' rebuttal in this one.

This issue's cover is dedicated to Eric Kirchner, if you can't make out the faint typing at the top of the cover. Apologies are also extended to Alan Rowland who so hates this pink paper. Me too, anymore, but it's about all that is readily available (i.e., free).

GAME PAGE of sorts....

77 KN 77 KS

Both these games will be mailed to players separately, right after the deadline. (Did you notice that this BB is early?) I'm mailing this issue now in order to get under the rate increase, and to save myself having to lick 40 2¢ stamps which I don't have and may not be able to get. (They're in acutely short supply). Since these envelopes are ready, I'll send the issues out now with what I have. Players will get individual sheets after the deadline passes, and ALL SUBSCRIBERS will get to see the games in full NEXT issue when I'll print BOTH seasons for EACH game. (Player ropies will include press)

1977KS:Dave Grabar has resigned as France. The position is assumed by W.C. Newell, Jr.
12734 Eleventh Ave
Seattle, WA 98177

HAPSBURGS AND HOHENZOLLERNS DIG IN FOR SIEGE. LIMEYS ABANDON ARCTIC ARMY FOR FLEET.

WINTER, 1902 Austria r A Gal-VIE; England r A Nwy OTB, builds F LON; Russia builds A MOS; Turkey builds A CON

SPRING, 1903

AUSTRIA (LUKOW): A VIE S A Bud; A BUD S A Ser; A Ser S A Bud/d/r Tri, Otb; F ALB S A Gre; A GRE S A Ser

ENGLAND (HUESTON): F POR-Spase; F ENG-Bel; F Nth-DEN; F Lon-NTH

FRANCE (HUNT): F Spase-MAO; F BRE S F Spase-MAO; F PIC-Eng; A GAS-Spa; A BEL-Bur

GERMANY (CHRISTOPHER): F KIE S A Ber; A BER H; A Hol-Ruh; A BUR S A Hol-Ruh

ITALY (KIRCHNER): F TYN S F Ion; F ION S AUST F Alb-Gre/NSO; A SIL-Ber; A MUN S A Sil-Ber A BOH S A Mun;

RUSSIA (KASSEL): F Swe-BAL; F Nwy-SWE; F BLA S TURK A Con-Bul; A RUM S TURK A Bul-Ser; A Mos-WAR; A War-PRU; A CAL-Bud

TURKEY (WORKMAN): F EAS-Ion; F AEG-Gre; A Bul-SER; A Con-BUL

COA: See Italian press. Thanks to Bob SERGEANT for submitting standby orders for Germany

DEADLINE for Fall, 1903, will be my mail received here Monday,

JUNE 5, 1978.

Italian Press:

POPE ABDICATES! (Temporarily) BREAKS CELEBACY VOW! CRISIS SHAKES THEOLOGICAL WORLD!

To All 78AX Heads of State: I will be rather out of touch from 1 June-17June while getting married and performing assorted revelries after I graduate from this place (finally). I'll be picking up mail on 10 June at 894 Birchwood Lane, Schenectady, NY 12309 if you need to write. June 17 I'll be back at the normal address. Don't bother hoping that I'll NMR--I won't. No coup d'etat while I'm gone, please!

Other Press

Austria-Turkey announce that negotiations are to open soon for a peaceful settlement to their border disputes.

Russia continues to supply military aid to Turkey while the Austrians are left defense-less!

URF DURFAL 30, Greg Costikyan, 1675 York Avenue, NYC 10028, 8/$2. This issue contained his response to Ben Grossman's letter, book reviews, a good history article on Kievan Rus, plus "The Mimeograph as a Symbol of Revolutionary Sexuality", games, letters, and a one-page item from Robert Sacks asking for $3 from folks interested in variants to play along with him as he goes through the motions of creating another hobby organization. These creations never get anywhere, but folks like Sacks enjoy drawing up the "constitutions", organization charts, charters, by-laws; holding elections, and shuffling all sorts of paper. Robert Sacks will head HEW some day, mark my words. This was the most interesting issue of UD I've seen (3 now).

FIRE & MOVEMENT #11, P O Box 820, La Puente, CA 91747, bimonthly, $8/year. F&M is pushing hard for the title of best independent (or otherwise) wargame zine. This issue featured coverage of SPIs DELVE ON STALINGRAD and Jedco's FORTRESS EUROPA, plus much more. Also, Friedrich Helfferich will be assuming the editorship. Fred has had a lot of excellent articles in it, and has a proven track record from running many-years-long PBM 'Barbarossa' (variant) games, covered in his former BARBAROSSA BULLETIN. I'm sure he'll do a great job at the helm.

AGAINST THE ODDS #3, Craig Reges, 16 W 761 White Pines Rd, Bensenville, IL 60106, triweekly. This issue has the start of the Rowland-Gibson 2-man grudge game described here earlier. Italy is in CD, Rowland has A-E-G, Gibson has F-R-T. Looks to be a major confrontation in Scandanavia; Ber-War bounced over Sil; fun, fun, fun. Victory criteria is "At the end of five years, if Curt ((Gibson)) is ahead or even, the game will be declared a draw. Otherwise, the winner will take home $5" (If you've got that down pat, explain it to me...). Here's their press:

"Gibsonia: Ain't this the troikatzmeow!
Oh what fun
It is to ride
In a three horse open sleigh!
(No stabber in this game, or rather the stabber has lost his dagger, poor fellow.)

Rowland Land: It ought to be fun in this game seeing what can be done to the senile old man. The Gods had better watch over you and you need a horoscope to figure out what to do. You old fart. "

Also included in the issue is an article by "Ufologist Gibson" that would be a humor article by anyone else; Gibson, though, is probably serious. Write Craig for a sample.

LIES, DECEIT, & NEFARIOUS SCHEMES Jerry H Jones, 1854 Wagner St, Pasadena, Cal 91107. This issue featured a play article for novices; "The Diplomacy Widew's Revenge" by his wife Pat, the best article of this issue; and loads of press. Also, he's attempting to set up an Invitational Demo Game. If you can convince him you're good, write for an invitation. (Jerry, what's a 'Quarnt'?) The one black mark against the issue was that my score of "2" on the last page's trivia quiz should be 2½, for even though "Konrad Baumeister" didn't regularly play the "legs" on Peter Gunn as I said, Jerry acknowledged that he did stand in for the left one on occa sion. And, if the tipsy St Bernanrd wasn't Alan Rowland, who WAS it?

Speaking of Alan Rowland, WARMONGER 29 came out as an eleven-sheet anniversary issue, replete with a survey questionaire. Just when I thought BBl2 would stand alone as the heftiest tome of blatherings in Dippydom.... Alan will be at 52 Eighth Avenue, Westwood, NJ 07675 for the summer. 'Monger is still 10/$2 for a short while yet.

4971 41 307H

Dear John,

I feel that I must write to comment on som e of the things that were printed in BB #12. This is going to be a long letter so you may edit it or print it all or whatever you wish.

010 the 120% This paragraph I insist you print. I am very disappointed that you printed Rod Walker's letter dealing with his suspicions of Bernie Oaklyn without some concrete investigation. When I got my copy of Rod's letter, which was around March 20. it was addressed on the letterhead to "Conrad von Metzke, Walt Buchanan, Cal White, Doug Beyerlein, Bob Hartwig, Craig Reges, Chuck Doehrer, maybe others" and I immediately looked into it before publishing it. I apparently received it because of the fact that I plugged La Guerre in ATO and in the same issue said that Buddy Tretick was coming to Fred Davis' FTF Dip game for M's (Mensans) and that Rod Walker, Hearing of this, is not showing up even though he RSVP'ed. This was intended to be a slight dig at Ron and was intended as a jokeonly. Fred Davis, however, wrote almost immediately and wanted to know how I had known Tretick was coming since I put out my zine on Feb. 25 and the FTF was not till the 26th. Then, about a month later, Rod's letter arrived. The Baltimote area meeting he is speaking about is the one that was held at Davis' house. Anyway, that is how I got into this.

I am not going to say that Tretick was a lout or someone who just got bad publicity and was really not that bad (as Bernie believes.) I talked to Bernie for 20 minutes on May 6, and asked him what he thought of Rod's letter which I had sent him a copy of. He told me that he was so tired of hearing about the whole business and also had just gotten out of the hospital, so he had not had any time to answer but over the phone he went into a lot of detail that I will not go into here. Suffice it to say that if any doubt of Bernie's reliability still exists, I suggest you write Don Horton, 16 Jordan Ct., Sacramento, Ca., 95826 and ask him what he thinks. Don publishs Claw and Fang (his 90th issue is just out) and has 24 games running, many of them through guest GMs. One of these was Bernie and in C & F 90, almost a full page is devoted to a variant submitted by Tretick and advertising La Guerre and asking you to send to Bernie for information on subbing to this zine. Some people don't like C&F, but nobody that I've ever heard of has ever knocked it for sloppy GMing, of which I have seen zero, none, zip, nix. Bernie has proved himself a thoroughly reliable GM in C&F. Bernie is also in 1978AH in ATO with me GMing, and he is never late, and the orders are as clear as possibly can be. Also, he has submitted two pages of typed contingincy orders, that are in both the shorthand form (e.g. F Ank-Con) and also in the longhand form (e.g. Fleet Ankara-Constinanople (Lee Kendter eat you heart out!! cr) . This is not the mark of someone who takes his Diplomacy lightly!! I can only conclude from this that the chances of any of BB's readers getting stuck, as you put it, is small. And that ends Springs, Md., 20904.) Please be sure to print at least the above, John. Please be sure that however dissatisfied I am with your printing Rodsletter, I am more than disappointed in Cal White and am sending him a copy of this. On to other matters: the letter about the WWII Books from Ronald Mazurkiewicz was interesting. I am a real 1914-1945 history buff, and even started to get a degree as a double major in this very subject. I got about half way before time pressure on my main degree overwhelmed it and forced me to quit. I can't say that I agree with a lot of what is reported and I am made skeptical of the whole thing when you start talking about Rommel being a "complete fool." If so, instead of the Desert Fox, wouldn't the Allies have called him the Desert Klutz?? And Germany lost WWII not because of traitors as because a nation of 60 millions, with limited industrial output cannot fight and defeat a national alliance of 500 million with the almost unlimited resources of the United States behind it. Germany just outdid itself on beating opponents, but only so long can you defeat numbers, even with superior equipment.

this diatribe. (Bernie is, by the way, now at 13412 Brackley Terrace, Silver

Next, let's get to the real substantive way in which you run the games in your zine. I do not vote to outlaw black press in 1977KS. I do not care what others may say, black press must have some value. Remember, even if you don't believe it, it seems that Austria claims he was fooled by the black press and is just about out for the count, in large part because of black press. I Think that outside contributions, though, should be labeled as such, as I don't want to see anybody in a game of mine beaten by somebody not even in the game! I want to do it myself. In addition, I agree with john that the press in KS has been in general so good that I have never really enjoyed a game so much. (Of course, the fact that I'm beating up on everyone doesn't hurt the enjoyment factor either.)

Lee Kendter: Well, now he is finding it difficult to keep up with the games deadlines. I can only suggest that you write immediately when you get the moves. Remember, that if you are handicapped by the speed of the game, so is everybody else. I have my moves sent in the very day I receive the issue with the press in it, so I can answer it, and sometimes I send in two sets of orders(as this time.) As to phones, I have never phoned anybody in this game and I seem to be doing alright. I find that if you send a letter immediately, and your ally sends one back right away, you STILL have time to get orders in on time. Spend an extra 9¢ to send in that initial postcard and your life will be much simpler. Right now, the only thing I can think of is that I've got to wait another 14 days till the fall moves come out, dammit, and I want to see how that game S coming along. Often, this isn't going as fast as I like! And I can't see where conditionals are all that hard to deal with either most times. Try and follow the advise given at the end of 1977 KS in BB#12. I will have to agree that a major error in BB would be perhaps devastating to the game but I hope that if this occurs, John will postpone the season. And nobody is immune to mistakes, not even me. Ahem. I can sympathixe with the fact that BB is run a lot different than most Dipznies, and that it does take some getting used to. I guess I am just adaptable. I, too, am sorry if Lee doesn't enjoy the game as much as he might, and I hope you learn to like it because it doesn't seem too likely to change. The one complaint, that of all the press that I submitted being placed into the issue in one solid block, so you did not have black press anyway, since you looked at what was sandwiched around it, has been solved and I'm satisfied. Bitch a little! It never hurts.

And: If you're insulted by swastikas on the cover of issues, Mark Berch, keep in mind that the swastika was around before the Nazis, and that I have a book of poetry, for instance, with a swastika on the cover. The book was printed in 1910!

I must also comment on the comments of Bill Newell on his having difficulty getting pubbers to respond to his requests. This is a problem that is hopefully already in the process of being solved. If not by the project that Jerry Jones is setting up, then at least soon. Thank you for bringing this up. I may try to set something up of this nature myself as part of the IDA. The IDA had a novice chairman (it was Alan Rowland) but he gave it up because the then officers would not give him money for even expenses, and he could not afford it, so he dropped it, and no one has picked it up. I'll let you know if anything comes up. Personally, if you asked me for a sample of ATO, you would have one in the mail from me by the next day, hint, hint.

And that is that and I won't write another letter of this sort again soon. Comments solicited, and I'm sure they will arrive. Thanks.

((If they arrive here, I'll run them. ** OK, let's start with the Walker letter. It was run here for 3 reasons: Rod Walker's name, EVERYTHING as its source, and the serious nature of the charges. I wasn't around either, and wouldn't recognize Rod Walker if I sat on him, but I recognize the name as a biggee/oldec in the hobby who merits being listened to. EV, as you said, is a publisher's zine really, and as such is more or less a "news service"-type source for the whole hobby. We'll likely see more of this. I will try to present as many sides as become available.

Ron Mazurkiewicz and I are also history fanatics for that era, despite our directions and intensities having gone down different paths over the last few years or so (like 5-10..). Still, I have to lean more his way than yours on this, despite the surface logic you present. El Alamein at the least would seem to have burned out more than the DAK; the withdrawl to Tunisia was, just off a map alone, more than a retreat, it was a resignation from war in North Africa, brought about, I believe, as much by a moral collapse as the military one. The latter was real enough, of course; but the DAK had come back strong from THEM often enough in the past. never the same again, despite a minor comeback in France waiting for D-Day. But next, a more important issue. The 'traitors' business sounds ominously like the stab-in-the-back BS bandied about after VWI as an excuse to same face for the beaten military, doesn't it? That's what made me a little leary at first myself. However, the Big Battallions argument, while easily convincing by its sheer simplicity, has been shot to bits all too often for me to be able to fall back on it. Without the Enigma break, how would the U-boat war have been affected? Without that spy in the German embassy in Tokyo, would the Soviet Far Eastern armies have been released? Indeed, were it not for Nazi arrogance and brazen brutality towards everyone living south and east of Herrenvolk' Silesia, I fully believe the USSR would have fallen apart as Hitler expected. Not as fast (he guessed six weeks), but as surely. (Read the pro-Russian Alexander Werth's accounts of Moscow life in Nov, 41. Wasn't it he who has the chapter called "'The Germans are in Kaluga Street'"?). Werth or Alan Clark, as I recall, are the ones who quoted some Soviet official at the time (late 41) as saying that "even if Gorky and Baku are lost, we will fight on. Only if the Urals are lost will the Soviet Union begin to break apart". I agree. On the other hand, if Soviet citizens resisted Stalin the way they did the Nazis, helping their "liberators" half as strongly as they fought them in fact, a crossing of the mid-Volga is not at all that unlikely. Even if the Nazi's lied and had no intention of staying 'liberator' one minute after Hitler's "Ural frontier" became established! The Soviets would likely have been beaten by then anyhow, just as were the French after the Dunkirk calamity still before the Seine. As it was, the people had no choice, since the Commissar at least claimed superiority due to his GUN rather than his blond hair. If the USSR collapsed, our one salvation would have been the A bomb. And if, come 1950 or so, we did win out in the end with that, the grisly cost in Europeana would likely have left US as hated by the liberated survivors as were the occupation forces destroyed. And, maybe they'd be right.))

TONY WATSON (201 Minnesota St., Las Vegas, NV 89107)

Really! You're hardly a gentleman, printing that letter mistakes and all. Have you no compassion? Well, I hope you realize that this automatically cuts you from the list of people who receive 2AM letters. If it gets worse, well, I may have to do something even more drastic---like embargo STAR WARS cards!

Everyone, brothers and girlfriends and such, are all upset since I seized all the STAR WARS cards to start my collection. (This too is all your fault). I've got them hidden in a box in my desk, all neatly organized. *Sigh* Why I ever started this... Anyway, I have some new ones to trade. Send me a list of what you need. (Have you found anyone else collecting them?)

Thanks for the nice plug. I'll return the favor. I've been delayed with RURI, a lot of moves are coming in late. I hope I can get this damned thing out before finals. Speaking of which.....

((Oh, no! Anything but a card embargo! I still need almost two dozen! 'Card 193, where are you?'))

DAVE DITTER

(COA to 563 Maple Avenue, Fontana, CA 92335)

I just got BB #12 (damn good one!) and Lee Kendter Jrs letter immediately caught my eye. My own personal response to his viewpoints would be much the same as yours. I entered BB (probably the first!) because John promised two week deadlines. The added attraction of the zine being inexpensive is an afterthought for me. I would gladly pay hard cash for a fast, reliable 2-wk deadline game, like John runs.

When I first met Jerry Jones and found out he was interested in wargames, I sold him completely on Diplomacy. When he expressed his desire to run a zine and asked for suggestions, I told him the games are No.1. If you do nothing else, get those games out fast without delays. Jerry does this very well. To my knowledge only John Michalski & Jim Bumpas do equally as well. For my money BB is among the elite of dipzines and I've probably subscribed to thirty or forty.

Once I begin to slow my games for sure three issues will always be on my list: BRUTUS BULLETIN, LIBERTERREAN, and LIES, DECEIT, & NEFARIOUS SCHEMES.

As long as my mind is racing along I'll just say that I'm all for John's no-phone-call policy. However, when mistakes are apparent BB does allow phone calls.

Keep 'em coming hot and heavy, John.

((Thanks)) ((Dave was the first subscriber, matter of fact.))

Galen's getting better- there's hope!!

ERIC KIRCHNER ((Try 894 Birchwood Lane Schenectedy, NY 12309))
I have about 80 trillion comments to make on BB#12.

First of all, you just earned a ten on John Leeder's poll. I don't know how you manage to put together a zine that is big, prompt, funny, intelligent and cheap all at once. Anyway, it sure made my day better. I read it instead of cramming the last like hours for my last undergraduate final, ever! You better not even think about printing this first section, ((You should have said so before I typed this far! ())) because it will look like either I'm blowing (uh...brownnosing) the GM or you paid me to pat your back or something. But BB is utterly fantastic, seriously. Now for some nice, logical, printable comments from my rather musky mind (I've already written 6 hours of essays today--3 of which were on Politics of W Europe). (A real course, not Dippy). ((Send them to me if you get them back!()))
First, a limerick: No, I'll spare you. I vote a resounding "no" on the ban, however.

As for military history and revisionist theory, etc., ho-hum. Actually I'm interested, but I act like I'm not, because so many people around here are and I'd rather be different. I'm not neurotic, so I can handle legal-size paper. Fold it in half and it fits in the file. Next problem.

As for Rick Kassel's comments on press being non-useful...so what? Diplomacy isn't useful, it's fun! I vote against Black Press because that isn't fun, for me. But the rest is fine--deciding what to believe is allpart of the enjoyment. If you had caught me sneaking into SEV in 77CW, I would have enjoyed my press roasting as much as anyone.

I always thought Buddy Tretick was just a made-up fictional (yes, that's redundant) all-purpose hobby bad guy. The Alfred E Neuman of Diplomacy. Glad to find out the true story.

I was pretty interested in the various political comments on bombs, etc. You're right, the US doesn't think about fighting, really fighting a nuclear war. After all, its not pleasant. Thus no seri ous thoughts of civil defense and overpressure limits and other details.

I have to disagree on your estimetes on the political distribution of Dippy players. Yes, theres a lot of college types (do I count, I wonder? I wonder if I'm in the real WORLD, much less a real college) but there's also a lot of Nazi freaks, military history buffs (cough), and those who really fantasize that they're actually leading a country at war. All these things are indicators of rightism, I'd have to say. So how 'bout 45% right, 30% left, and I agree on the 25% politically sterile. ((coutd))

I'm a bit disappointed that you displayed some signs of conservative paranoia, talking about Liberal "power centers", and knocking the media. Have you read TIME lately? They are getting downright reactionary in places!

On the 2-week/Lee Kendter issue: I like the rush and uncertainty. Diplomacy is much better when its unexpected. Add me to the standby list, will you?

I agree, Greg Costikyan is rational on neutron bombs. But are cars Fascist???

Now, I will take all the "credit" for sending in the Chemical Analysis of Women.

I am willing to defend it as "totally innocuous", at least to anyone who can think without getting caught up in the needless overemotion of "they're insulting someone based on sex! That's arbitrary! Awful! etc.! " Yes, it plays on women's stereotypes. Eating, jewelry, highly emotional, and all of the above. So what. There is no need to take offense at that, for it is obviously untrue and intended only to poke fun and not as an insult. My fiance certainly wasn't insulted—she sent it to me! Being upset at that piece of humor is taking a good idea way too far. "Slander on the basis of sex, race, religion, nasal hair, and fingernail biting is unreasonable and needs to be squelched" is a good idea. "Anything that mentions differences, possible differences or even impossible differences between sexes, races, religions is bad and ought to be squelched" is taking a good idea too far.

Take that, Gloria Steinem. I retire, undefeated.

((OK, I've been defeated on the limerick vote. Go ahead and sent them in. On the political distribution, you give 45% to the right by adding in all the "Nazi freaks" and assorted wierdos, etc.; do you think there are so many in Dippy world?

So TIME is getting reactionary? More likely they've stayed the same and the leftward slide has made them LOOK more rightist. No, I haven't read it lately. I used to read Newsweek cover to cover darn near, but now I skip them all. TIME & NEWSWEEK are about the same: both good "centrist" zines in so far as they will give some mention to the OTHER side of things, but Time leans left and Newsweek right. Or did. I'm so reactionary : in a lot of things these days that I'd rather not read such...just makes me mad. On the other hand, so did the latest CD that I threw out in disgust (after copying Bureaucratic Blunders). This was a horror issue about abortions. I despise that type of "journalism". There may be times that atrocities need to be exposed, but to use that type of thing just to persuade people on an issue... There ought to be better arguments than buckets of gore. But I digress. I really cannot say that I could objectively DISagree with the liberal inclination of the media: just too many people in it make no bones about their own bias. I for one think it does show. But that's a judgement call.

BILL NEWELL Jr (12734 NW 11th Ave, Seattle, WA 98177)

Don't play innocent with me. It is common knowledge that the real reason you put out a 40-page BB was to grab first place on Leeder's zine poll. As punishment for such chicanery I am voting your zine THIRD behind Runestone and TMG. Try it again and I'll drop you to fourth behind CLAW & FANG.

- 4) I've often used limericks to show Off insults and put-downs I know; John Michalski says please Let's stamp out this disease, But this writer soundly votes NO!
- 5) What happened to the neat mastheads for the games??
- 7) So I can't count.
- 6) The name of the Prime employee mentioned in the story last issue is Scott Moreland. (Scotsman from Land of the More; get it?)

- 8) I already used up #7 explaining the absence of number 6. So I continue with
- 9) I hope you won't take Mr. Kassel's suggestion and ban press from outsiders. I'm sorry he didn't like my release. I couldn't in good conscience make it very explicit, as this is a family magazine. If he wants to he can always crumple up the press pages and stick them up the nearest available orifice. (You may proof that.)
- 10) A brief update on my zine survey. Costikyan is off the list, having finally sent me a copy of Urf Durfal #30 (excellent!). I did see Mirassou's letter in BB, but that was well after I had sent in my request. Since I would hope for at least a note saying "Thanks for your inquiry, but I'm not publishing for a while. Sorry." he remains on the list. Earlier this month I mailed out seven more requests, all to relatively new pubbers. We'll see what happens. (I just subbed to LD&NS, and anxiously await a response from Jerry Jones about the novice zine.)
- 11) As for Ben Grossman's "flower-child" assessment of the neutron bomb, I agree with you. Greg Costikyan echoes my sentiments when he says "Further, I would urge that top priority be given to the development of defenses (emphasis added) against nuclear weapons..." I am going to table discussion of your other points until I can assemble some press clippings illustrating public opinion on the Trident base and how its supporters are defending it in print. You are in for a surprise.
- 12) Lee Kendter Jr. asks for reader comments, so here's mine. As long as we have humans adjudicating Diplomacy games, we are going to have human errors, even from the best. It can't be avoided. Anyone who expects perfection from a GM is dreaming. Good grief, the game is almost 20 years old, and the Rulebook still fails to clarify certain situations. And the designer is still active in the hobby! When I start my zine (a year away, I think) it will be with computerized adjudications and I still won't guarantee against errors! From what I've seen you've done an excellent job You've made phone calls and sent out mailings to clarify really minor errors that any player with half a brain should figure out for himself.

Here's an example: Bob Lipton has gone to a 4-week deadline. In one of his games (1977 KK) there was an adjudication error that overlooked the annihilation of a unit and awarded a center to the wrong country. Such an error is major and requires immediate correction. In this case the error was obvious to anyone taking the trouble to set up the position on the board, although a reader scanning the moves might not have noticed it.

* temporary control of (it was in the Spring)

Now the player who was due the extra center was/is my ally.

Naturally you would expect him to be the first person to report the error.

But he did not do so: I know he looked at the adjudications because I received a letter from him shortly before the subsequent deadline saying "Ones, our plan didn't work. Oh well, let's try this..." when in fact our plan did work. I had agreed to it only because it was a sure thing. I finally noticed the error a few days before the deadline when I made out my own orders. Thus Bob was informed of the error by me the day before the deadline. And all this after Pob gives the players an extra week between deadlines.

The game had to be delayed four weeks in order to notify all the other players about the error. Who's fault was it? Bob's, for misadjudicating? I think not. He would have been more than willing to compensate for his mistake by spending the xtra postage on a subzine mailing to notify the players of the error, if only someone had taken the trouble to tell him about it. It was the players fault, for being too lazy to take the trouble to check the adjudications as soon as they receive the zine. I consider myself just as guilty as the others.

(Bill Newell, conclusion) (whow).

The point is this: most errors are trivial. Even the major ones can be easily caught by players if they will stop assuming that the GM is God and start double-checking the moves. So-called "cloaked" errors, which are impossible for some or all players to detect, are actually quite rare. You'd be unlucky to run into such more than, say, once in five games. As witnessed by the above example, most GMs have their hands tied due to most players' refusal to cooperate in the error-checking process. I stress the word most, as Mr. Kendter can undoubtedly throw out a half-dozen exceptions out of his playing experience; I will not attempt to deny these, the fact that they are exceptions. Let's stop bitching at the GMs until we as players get our own act together and do some cooperating.

((Thanks for writing. Otherwise this would have been a short issue. ))

CAL WHITE (BNC) I did notice the title change, but thought the idea for a cover was too good to pass up. I hope it gave you some deserved publicity as ... well. Zines as much fun to read as BB are rare, believe me.

Will you be at DipCon? I enjoy meeting strange people.

((I wouldn't disappoint you, I'll bet, but no, I won't be there this year. I've driven to Milwaukee & Minneapolis, and shared a drive with another to Baltimore and Pittsburgh from here, but have never gone west, and probably won't for some time.

I'm glad you got the point of that cover. A review did scare up an inquiry from Randolph Smyth. I appreciate the publicity, as it would be nice if the name of BB were at least somewhat recognizable in the hobby. I can't get it by opening seventeen that's for sure!)) games,

*****

****

****

How about some filler?

(Cut and post) (Preferably, anonymously)

When god created man, the body argued over who The brain said it should be boss, because should be boss.

The stomach said it should be boss, because it The eyes said they should be boss, because they digests all the food and keeps the body healthy. take the hody where it wants to yo

The legs said they should be boss, because they controls the body.

The rectum then applied for the job. The other organs of the body laughed. So it closed up.

nide the body.

In a few days the brain became fogyy, the legs wobbled, stomach was ill, the eyes watered and couldn't see.

The moral of this is that to he boss, you do not need a brain, just an ass.

Ġ

VARIOUS NOTES

The LAS VEGAS weather description surprised me. Sounds a lot like here, except we don't get into the teens as a rule. Who would have guessed that about Oklahoma.....

ALAN ROWLAND complained about the bland weather reports in a recent review, among other items. I have to disagree. I encouraged them because I at least am INterested in what things are like elsewhere, although it may well seem dull to some. Can't help that. I figure this zine can be for ME to enjoy just as much as anyone else, if not more. (The black press alone....)

Anyone know of any TREKKIE zines? Maybe I'd get a better response by advertising in one of them for needed STAR WARS cards to complete my & others' coll ections.

LAST ISSUE was mailed to non-players Thursday morning; Players copies went out Wednesday morning, before I was sure of the weight. If there's never another like #12, fine here: do you know what that darn thing cost?

DAVE DITTER MAY WIN in the running for funniest survey entry. In answer to question 7, "type of Dip player you are", he checked "P-Poor", "Novice", and "other", adding "Completely honest & inexperienced". I recalled that when I noticed a) He was at or near the top of the ratings in a recent LIBERTEREAN, and b) the latest LIES, DECEIT, & NEFARIOUS SCHEMES lists him as one of the top players sought for the LD&NS Invitational Demo Game. Hmmmm.

THIS ISSUE MAY contain a flyer I got from a right-wing outfit in Bellvue, WA.; it isn't what I wanted, but it's close. It will be the last page, if included. Tear it off and use it as junk mail filler when & if you get an appeal from Bella Abzug's campaigners like Galen Workman mentioned...or include it inside one of those Sunday paper insurance company inserts. Or, even use it for what it was intended for. If nothing else, it should provoke Mark Berch to write to me again...

ALGER HISS WAS GUILTY was the title of an article in a recent TIME, reprinted in the last CONSERVATIVE DIGEST. One reader sent the page in without comment, I presuem as a suggested filler item for here. While I won't be running it, I appreciate the interest taken to send it in.

SURVEY RESULTS will be in next issue if not this one. About two dozen of them came in.

PLAYBOY this month has an item about that Universal Life Church operation mentioned in these pages earlier. The rest of the issue was a disappointment. Nancy Drew didn't come out as well as I would have hoped, and the interview with former CIA chief Colby also fell short. Usually their interviews are a high point, PLAYBOY being an "open and unabashed" forum rather like WARMONGER is to Dippydom (i.e., gross), but the interviewer would fit more appropriately on the staff of NATIONAL ENQUIRER or the like than PLAYBOY. The questions were nothing but mindless sensationalism-seeking. The sick old women who thrive on ENQUIRER or the folks who eat up Jack-Anderson-syle of irresponsible charge-flinging might admire it, but I found it pathetic. It wasn't at all worthy of them.

CLAW & FANG 90 is out recently with some good articles on play inside. The list of authors reads like my player list in 77KN in these pages, for some odd reason....

Bureaucratic Blunders

In Tennessee, girl basketball teams play on a half court with six-member teams. HEW, however, says this is sexist and will cut off federal school funds unless girl basketball teams start playing by boy basketball rules.

A Los Angeles homosexual group called the Gay Community Services has received more than $640,000 in CETA funds from the U.S. Labor Department to provide, among other things, "education about gay life-styles and gay people's problems." And the Gay Alliance of Rochester got $34,000 this year to provide speakers at local campuses to inform people about homosexuality.

Dollars and Sense

The New Jersey Medicaid program has paid for the sex change operations of two men, at a cost of $7,000. The payment included the charge for hormone treatments in preparation for the sex change operations.

Labor Dept. spokesman Robert Cuccia has warned employers doing at least $2500 worth of business with the federal government—now about a quarter of a million firms—they must take "affirmative action" to find, hire and promote alcoholics and drug abusers—including those who have not been rehabilitated— "just as they are expected to hire blacks, Hispanics, and other minorities."

Franklin Fraze

The Consumer Product Safety Commission has decided that car batteries are "household items" and therefore must be given appropriate safety labels—to wit, that the consumer must not drink water from the battery. The cost of these labels: $5 million per year.

In preparation for a visit by President Carter's son Chip to the Oakland School System this past spring, Secret Service officers ordered removed from the bulletin board of the administration building several caricatures of Jimmy Carter and his peanuts, drawn by Oakland school kids. The drawings were considered "possibly offensive."

Dan Jacobson

$93,000 in federal money is being spent this year to teach Navajo Indians to be medicine men. Since 1969, when the program began, one medicine man has been graduated from the program. Richard Lopez, project officer for the Navajo Mental Health Program, which received the grant, says, "The purpose of the program is to not let medicine men die out," but Bureau of Indian Affairs official Frank Harkwick says, "You can't teach a Navajo to be a medicine man in the classroom because Navajos think their culture should be taught at home." This year there are six medicine men teaching 12 students, and all are getting tax money.

Roger Cook

The National Science Foundation is spending another $50,000 to study how the songs of North American white-crowned sparrows affect their mates' sexual development.

NSF said the project is testing theories that birds' songs hasten the development of their sex glands and that song dialects result in selective mating. "The project will examine the role of song dialects in relation to the parameters (measures) that affect population biology."

Harold B. Johnson

District Court Judge Carl Rubin in Dayton, Ohio, has prohibited the Ohio High School Athletic Association from enforcing its rule prohibiting coed contact sports teams. Under the court decisions, girls must be permitted to try out for football, basketball and wrestling and cannot be denied places on the teams because of their sex. Judge Rubin declared unconstitutional the federal regulation that permits separate teams for each sex in contact sports.

Eagle Forum

The Charleston, W. Va., Guthrie Mental Health Center has a staff of 82 full-time employees and only 38 patients. Clinical director Dr. Kenneth L. Clark admitted the facility has not been used to its "greatest extent" since the state took it over from the Air Force in 1969.

Robert W. Fletcher

The Department of Transportation reveals that the last 4,200 miles of the Interstate Highway System are about to be completed at a cost of $40.6 billion. The cost averages out at $1,830.81 per foot. They must be using gold to pave the streets.

Pas Herber

Welfare checks are being sent to prisoners in New York City jails at a yearly cost of $270,000; one inmate received $1300 worth of checks in eight months. Some of the checks made out to the prisoners were sent to their mothers under the program of aid to dependent children. None of the mothers who received a check notified the city government of the error.

		en navêra de s Britania				Dygiginiylessini o resorran maansi vaakkii bili kilosoori maansi ka
•		Far EXCEEDS REQUIREMENTS		MEETS MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS	NEEDS SOME IMPROVEMENTS	DOES NOT MEET MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS
	QUALITY	Leaps tall buildings with a single bound.	Needs running start to lead over tall buildings?	Can only leap short byilde medium one with no spires	Crashes into building when attempting to leap over it.	Cannot recognize buildings at all.
Ċ	EFFICIENCY	Is faster than a speed- ing bullet.	Is as fast as a speed- ing bullet.	Not quite as fast as a speeding bullet.	Would you believe a slow bullet?	Wounds self with bullet when attempt- ing to shoot
Company of the second s	INITIATIVE	Is stronger than a locomotive.	Is stronger than a bull elephant.	ls stronger than a bull.	Shoots the bull.	Smells like a bull.
A CONTRACTOR OF THE PERSON NAMED IN COLUMN TWO IS NOT THE PERSON NAMED IN THE PE	ADAPTABILITY	Walks on water constantly.	Walks on water in emergencies.	Washes with water.	Drinks water.	Passes water in emergencies.
	COMMUNICATION	Talks with God.	Talks to the angles.	Talks to himself.	Argues with himself.	Loses the arguement.

These are raw results except where otherwise noted, such as average-figures or other totals or 'conclusions' are given. Twentythree have returned so far, or about 75%. That's outstanding for a mail survey, which is usually lucky to get 40%, or especially for a Dipzine survey, where any result over four responses is a landslide. Some totals may come to more than 23, since mapy questions were checked in more than one box by each individual. Responses are listed at random and do not correlate in order, question to question.

2. Age: 18-24: ten 25-34:9

3. Folks are originally from: NY, NY, MD("The only state whose state flag is a "true" flag), IL, KY, MIN, CA, MA, CA, IL, NCH, DC, CA, WA, IL, MIH, ONT, CA, 1 "High as a kite"

4.In school:ten Grad & Gone:six Gone but not grad: five NOYB:one

5. Cars and gas prices: ((I asked this out of curiosity, and to get a feel of the spectrum of individuals, insofar as cars reflect personality)) Don't drive: 5, one adding "and never will. Cars are Fascist!". Cars: 77 Toyota Celica, 78 Fairmont, 68 Mustang fastback "very nice", 68 Ford, 72 Mazda RX2, 71 Chev Caprice, 67 Datsun,69 Olds, 70 Materick, "who cares", 71 Opel, 72 Mercury, 67 Olds, 54 Jeep, 76 Gremlin. One respondent also used a pickup truck parttime, but as I've come to despise PUs after dedging ignorant cowboys in them here in Oklahoma for six years, I won't list it.

6. Sex M:19 Yes:4 AC/DC 2 (One added: "electrician") Other responses: "Not at the moment",

"I assume you want all that apply", and "often"
7. Type of player you are: Expert:six Darn Good: eight Average: six Below average: two P-Poor: three Brilliant: four Modest: four Grognard: three Vet: eight Novice: four Liar: four Stabber: five Stabbee: six NOYB: four No Response: one

Other responses: "Avid press writer", "All of the above", "Nice guy", "Completely honest & inexperienced", "Fanatic", "Note that in ((over a dozen)) games I have never lost a center, nor have I made more than 3 retreats in all ((XX))games. Not bad at all" ((this last player, whose exact #s were censored for secrecy, HAS had a retreat in a BB game, at least. Chalk up another unique feature for this zine!)), "unlucky". 8. When do you read BB: As soon as I get it:ten Same day: ten First chance I get: two Sooner or later: one Whenever I'm on the john: one Love it: five Other responses: "Depends", "Whenever I'm in the mood, normally sooner", "The paper serves a dual purpose for me in the john!", "Use legal length paper again, John, and I'll"

9. How many people read your BB: "1", four responses; "2", one; "1-7", two responses; "5", one response. 'Just me', nineteen Postman: one Family/frat bros three Other responses: "Sometimes I take it to school and pass it around the lounge", "friends", "Good articles like Dead-on-the-job-but-still-standing I post at work", "I only sub to yours and ((XXX))'s, and I'm dropping his when my game is finished, ...so, yours". "Roommates and friends", "several perverts, etc."

10. Favorite zines: BB:fifteen MIXUMAXU GAZETTE: eight RUNESTONE:six CLAW & FANG: nine, one of whom added "for reading, not playing". DIPLOMACY DIGEST, DIPLOMACY WORLD, three each. DRAGON & the LAMB; LIES, DECEIT, & NEFARIOUS SCHEMES; and SLOBINPOLIT ZHURNAL, two each. Others receiving one mention: BOAST, COMMAND, BATOCHE, RURITANIA, DAS GROPESTLL, WARMONGER, EREN & REEFER, NINTH CIRCLE, LIBERTEREAN, POITESME, COSTAGUANA, URF DURFAL, DER FLIEGENDE HOLLANDER, AGAINST THE ODDS, BUSHWACKER. Other responses: "Mine, you fool!" ((counts as a vote for Mixumaxu Gazette)), "none, really" .

((Those of you getting few might consider trying at least the more popular ones above.

They must have SOMEthing going for them))

11. Black press: Yes, ten, one adding "provided it is labelled as such" ((!)) No: eight Don't care, four No opinion, three What is it, two "No response", three

continued

Gas prices showed about 55t around CA-NV; GOT WA; GOT in upper Midwest (IL-Mich); 544, NJ; and $104 in Argentia, Newfoundland (Canada)
Its about 574 here, 104 higher along the luterstate. J. M. 12. Individual features vote; averages first, then raw scores so you can see the spread and concentrations: Bureaucratic Blunders, 7.15; Letters, 6.90; John's Notes/General BS, 7.47; Reprinted articles, 5.74; Press, 7.00; Black Press, 4.24; Nonsense filler, 6.15; John's articles, 6.35; Other responses: "Berch's letters: vital" ((Guess who wrote that?)) "Whatever; I've enjoyed all of it", "Sum total is better: 9" "cannot assess" "I just read the rest to fill my time. I enjoy the letters" "10 for the big city epic" "Stay away from gun control, it's boring" "Staple: 10" "Games: 10" "Games: -7" "Cartoons 6" "commercial plugs, 5" "other zine plugs, 8"

Bureaucratic blunders: 9 7 10 5 8 05 5 /0 /0 /0 7 7 7 7 7 /0 /0 3 "/-10" (counted as 4 5)

Letters: 78 44 7 8 7 /0 8 9 /0 8 -2 9 6 9 2 5 /0 7 7 8 8 /0 9 /0 6

Reprinted articles: -6 0 77 4 78 8 75 3 "/-10" 8 6 8 75 5 9

Press: "1, but mine is 10" (counted as 5), 89887 10 4 7 10 75253510 75

Black press: 10 0 8 "100,000" (=10) 18 "Boo-hiss" (=0) 51 10 0 207 1 10 77

"3-13" (counted as

Nonsense filler: 9556 "1-10" 5 2 10 9 8 3 10 10 7 0 9 7 4 6 3

John's articles: 78588781086"-5"(0)59755"5-9"(=7)680

Closing: "gratefully yours" one; "Up yours", three; "No response", eight; Others: "(None of the above)", two; "Diplomatically"; "Chima"; "Sincerely", five

Other added comments: "Appreciate the extra work you do. Hope you can keep it up! ((Me, too, thanks. I really wish I had time to do more, like put BB out in some order, and list a "Has:..." detail of units with each season, but time doesn't permit. Glad you like it, tho)) "Legal size sucks" "You and your damn xerox; do you realize how lucky you are?" ((Only slightly. I've heard horror stories about those purple ink machines, but have never seen one up close, and don't really understand how they work. Not eager to learn, really. I'd fold before I'd get into that: just too much mess. //Author puts out a purple-ink zine.)) "I truly enjoy your zine--honest" ((Thanks. I kind of like putting it out, and enjoy reading old ones myself. Modest as I am.)) "Except for ((game we're in)) I find you as a dedicated publisher, ON TIME, and interesting" ((Wow. What more could I ask? I appreciate that)). "Whee"((?)) "I will" "The letters column is the best part of any Dipzine, honest, John, and should be maintained at all costs. It's what makes MMG and RUMESTONE so popular. I think you may have to expand your circulation, however, if there is to be any chance of your entering volatile debates of the kind they sometimes contain" ((I have of late gone to 42 copies just for trades, complimentaries, and expansion possibilities. I'm about at what appears to be a plateau, however, of individual subscriber interest without more games. I consider myself very fortunate indeed to get the response I do with such a relatively small base, though. I prefer to read about secession and the like in RUNESTONE, however, than to have any such local topics! Debates are most interesting at a distance. Witness the Swedes reaction to the Vietnam war...)) "Neurse Schivosk" ((?)) "This is really unfair to you since I recall only the trip to Texas bit. As I am not likely to go there, I was more or less bored! ((Since you gave me a 7 anyhow, I really look forward to your response the day I write something that interests you!!))"Incidentally, altho I disagree with the views in CD, I often enjoy reading the material" ((We too, sometimes)) Liked Pinochio carteen ((Good.)) "I think that things such as the ad for the Capt & Tennille are really stupid, along with other things of this nature."((I guess you don't see too many of the "personal-zines" and the like. I think it's from them that I got the feel that anything that catches my eye, for whatever transitory reason, is fair game for filler in BB.))

Articles of Mar issued by Charles 1 1629

The Inspector General must have a horse allowed him and some soldiers to attend him and all the rest commanded to obey and assist, or else the Service will suffer; for he is but one man and must correct many and therefore he cannot be beloved.

And he must be riding from one Garrison to another to see the soldiers do no outrage nor scath the country.

Extract from Clodes
Alilitary and Alartial Law

I'LL SHOW THEM WHO'S BOSS.

P STARVE A FEEDING

Sponsored by the Center for the Defense of Free Enterprise 1601 114th S.E., Suite 178, Bellevue, Washington 98004

Please answer these urgent questions today and return this sheet with your contribution form in the enclosed envelope.

THE ROLE OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT
Do you favor a government take over of the gas     and oil industry?
YÉS □ NO □ UNDECIDED □
2. Do you want to see a national medical/dental program run by the government?
YES □ NO □ UNDECIDED □
3. Do you think our nation's economic problems would be better solved through the free enterprise system than by government?
YES □ NO □ UNDECIDED □
RESTRICTIVE REGULATIONS
4. Do you support President Carter's efforts to establish a Consumer Protection Agency with vast powers to regulate business and consumers?
YES D NO D UNDECIDED D

5. Do you feel that government administrators should restrict airline competition by establishing routes

YES

NO

UNDECIDED

HIGH TAXES

deficits are a principal cause of inflation?  YES □ NO □ UNDECIDED □
7. Do you feel that you have to deprive yourself in anyway because of the burden of personal and business taxes?
YES □ NO □ UNDECIDED □
FEDERAL BUREAUCRATS
8. Do you think that there should be a national moratorium on the hiring of bureaucrats?  YES  NO UNDECIDED  U
9. Do you feel that many bureaucrats are out to gouge the public to pay for programs that are both unnecessary and unwanted?  YES  NO UNDECIDED
Please use this space to let us know what project, programs, etc. you would like to see the Center for the Defense of Free Enterprise engaged in.

6. Do you believe that continued U.S. Federal Budget

Center for the Defense of Free Enterprise

Each year you p	ag about 45% of your reneme to longs state and federal government in	taxes. Every drillar you earn from January through
June goes to lead the	bureaucrats
And what do you	get? More takes and more regulations. Stiffing regulations and laxes	that drive prices up
And government	regulations often make more people poor. The minimum wage for ex-	ample puts young people and minorines out of work.
After all, would you rat	her he employed at $2.25 an frout on unemployed at $2 65 an hour?
	about these problems and many others. We believe tot more in the answer. Free people working trigether.
freely can accomplish	more than millions of lederal hurgaginals telling you.
what to do with your	life and setting prices?

The free enterprise system built the prosperity are have today. The government huneaucrats didn't achieve the prospects. People in a fre marketplace did
We believe that America must return to the live enterprise sestem no

We believe that America must reterritize more event, rows scens when the Centre in the Debreue of here discovers and were working to lower feases, elemented unspections, and working to lower feases, elemented unspections and instruction programs to educate people, on the lower interprets sestion.

If you we even complained about high bases, high micross oursioning the programs of the definition of the desired in Legislation control of the control of the desired in the control of the instruction. It has been also the desired in the mixture in the instruction.

to restore the free enterprise system.
Join our drive to cut the bloat out of government. And help starve a feeding hureautrat

I'm used of the but regulations I'm tired of his help starse a feeding but
E Please send me box I can help	more information on
Li his about rime deductifile committee of birreaucter $	Enclosed is my tax o help starte a feeding
Name
Address
Cita
State	Zip
Occupation School
Center for the Defense 1601-114th S.L. Suite I Bellevie, WA 98004

Dear Congressman Cunningham:

I also want to help starve a feeding bureaucrat! For too long they have taxed my hard earned money to finance a government which is too large and too powerful.

$15	$25	$50	$100
$500 _	$1,000	Othe	er
-CDFE)	yable to Center	for Defense	of Free Enterprise
□ E-slassed is	abaalı fan $10	M Diagge at	and the second in the (name college d	or university) c	ampus news	ace your ad in the spaper and let me
	or university) c	ampus news

The Center for the Defense of Free Enterprise is a 501(c) (3) taxexempt educational foundation. Contributions can be received from individuals, corporations, foundations, associations and partnerships.

______ State _____ Zip __