

CLAW & FANG

Number 115
June 10, 1980

Published monthly by Don Horton, 16 Jordan Court, Sacramento, CA 95826 Tel: (916) 333-4848. Subscription rate is 6 issues for $2.50. More than 6 issues 40¢ each. Less than 6, 45¢ each. NO SUBSCRIPTION ACCEPTED PAST ISSUE #124. NO GAME OPENINGS.

(This month's dedication by Van Handel.) I'd like to nominate Ron Brown, the Swinging Sultan, for 'Fang of the Month' in recognition of his brilliant, devastating campaign in Russia in 1980AC.

STABBERHAPPY by David Loewenstern

'Twas hithere¹, and the slafty² ring
Did plot and backbite in the post;
All mimsy^{2½} was the Dual King;
A mome³ letter made him mighost.⁴

"Beware the Stabberwop, my friend.
The blade that cuts, the tongues that irk!
Beware the ceivous⁵ Frog, defend
From cruel and crafty Turk!"

He took his blodled⁶ blade in hand;
Much to the manxome* foe he writ.
No answer came, and again the same,
So wrote he, "Come out, twit!"

And when the Sec-and-Eff was sent
The Stabberwop, with blade of brass
Did bounce Tyrol -- the Key was meant,
And e'en his press was crass!

Oh-one! Oh-two! And through and through
The slithe⁷ armics went snicker-snack!*

He took it all, by oh-four Fall,
And his ally wrote back:

"And hast thou slain the Stabberwop?
And thou wert not cut by his dirk?
O frabjous* day! Callooh!* Callay!*
Now let's attack the Turk!"

'Twas hithere, and the slafty ring
Did plot and backbite in the post;
All mimsy was the Dual King
A mome letter made him mighost.

1. hithere=Winter 1900.
when players write letters
which start, "Hi there!
I'm Would you like
some sort of alliance?"
2. slafty = sly + crafty.
- 2½. mimsy* = unhappy
3. mome* = grave
4. mighost = (de)mi (=half)
+ ghost (=spirit). To nearly despair.
5. ceivous (hence, deceive)
= untrustworthy.
6. blodled = blood(y) +
le (repetitive ending)
= many-times bloodied.
7. slithe (from slithy*)
= smooth and active.

All words created by Carroll are marked with an *.

Answer to Dave White's problem: The Cat's Meow.

Jeremiah was his first cat, is missing a hind leg and is black and orange striped. Fred was number 2, is missing a front paw and is black and white. Number 3 was Clawed who is missing half a tail and is grey and black striped. Harvey is spotted black and orange and has a bent tail. All persons who correctly solved the problem will have their names sent to Dave White and can expect a little three-legged bundle at their doorsteps soon.

MUTTERINGS

Zine Reviews by David D. Perlmutter

Hello, dear travellers in the macabre. Yet once more you "tread the briary pastures of the dead" (thank you Robert Graves) with little old me. Perhaps I should take a few moments to enlighten you Perlmutter Groupies on just what I am. Below I have prepared a bio-file of myself. Read and learn.

NAME: David Dimitri Perlmutter.

AGE: 17.

GENETICS FOR EYE COLOR: Heterozygos for brown eyes. One blue gene.

GENETICS FOR HAIR COLOR: Heterozygos for brown hair. One blue gene.

FAMILY HISTORY: (A) PATERNAL. Grandfather arrived in America from Brest-Livosk in 1917. He married and had four children, all blond, blue-eyed. Grandfather was Talmudic scholar. Father is 53 and a professor with full tenure at the Wharton School of U of Penn. He is also advisor to many European, Latin American, and Asian Governments. He is presently murmuring something about going to Tahiti to paint.

(B) MATERNAL. Mother, Foulie Psadidas is a direct descendent of the George Washington of Greece, General Kolokotronis. Mother's father was a war hero in World War I and won the Crois de Guerre for outstanding heroism when he single handedly without mechanical aids such as binoculars, silenced a whole battery of German and Bulgarian cannons with his tiny battery. During Second World War family spent four years under German occupation. Mother is Greek Orthodox Christian.

RECENT FAMILY HISTORY: Father was teaching as a yong psychologist at the Menninger clinic. Mother was a student. Aldous Huxley, author of Brave New World, visited the clinic and introduced the two. Love and love etc. In 1962 little David aka Messiah was born in Lausanne, Switzerland. Delivering doctor whacked him on the butt and then called him "Le doux psalmiste", (the deep thinker). Then he circumcised little David.

HOBBIES: Diplomacy, sex, creative writing, sex, working for the Republican party, sex, armed robbery, muffediving, Diplomacy.

GOALS: To rule the world!

CONCLUSIONS: Kill him fast.

Well now you know what I am. Aren't you just a wee bit jealous. Now for some more mundane stuff like...

REREVIEWS (Quick ones).

Egnog: Sub. Konrad will not fold. He will give your money's worth in reading and gamesmastering. Don't ever write a letter to him for publishing. I think he will dig through libraries to prove you wrong.

Cheesecake: If you want to play a game sub now and fast. It is great for that. If you want something to read, think twice. Sometimes it gets a bit wharehouseish.

The Hoax: DO NOT SUB! John has proven to very unreliable he has not as yet printed one issue of the 'zine although he's up to #47.

Now a real review....

THE BRUTUS BULLENTIN, published by John Mih-holl-skee (pronounced Michalski or some polock thing) every couple of days from Rt. 10, Box 526 Q, Moore, OK 73165. Sub 4$ for 10 issues. Some openings.

If you do not get this baby, you are not living the real life. To see another BB in my mailbox is my idea of heaven. Let us suppose you had a cheap handy xerox machine and no sense of decency, then you would do what John does. He has the liveliest letters in the hobby. Every issue you will see letterwise...John Kelley "He's a friend of mine...F___ him...", Curtis Gibson "Those young punks...", Bob Osuch "I am not GAY, I swear it...", Scott Harley "As Wordsworth said...Indubitably...", David Perlmutter "No, John, you don't see my point, I....", and John himself "I think the real problem is those Eastern Liberals.." Now, throw in the most disgusting little-old-lady-out-raging press anywhere and you have BB.

(continued on page 3)

Some other envious publishers have like Konrad Baumcoister stated that people throwing verbal filth and excrement at each other are in some way dirty. I disagree. I suspect John does trully print everything you send him. Well, so what? If we were to throw everyone out of the hobby who was not a good writer and player, Jack Masters and I would be the only people left. I think all the "little" people who have no writing talent should be allowed to express themselves.

One thing that does irk me about John is the imposition of his political views on us. He does not bore us with long sermons but rather sneaks in little comments. His pet peeve is Eastern Liberals, but try criticizing the Catholic church, too, and see how he reacts. I swear I could write him about Mt. St. Helens and he'd blame liberals for it. But what else can one expect from Moore, OK (that's the phoney I.D. capital of the world in case you older guys didn't notice it). All kidding aside, John is great, you are great and, as an arab would say, God is great. Sub.

Perlmutter Rating: (I give up on this one.)

Well, that's it for this week, folks. One thing I did not mention in my bio-profile was that I have a "shining;" or in scientific terms, telepathic powers. In fact, with a simple bit of concentration, I can read your mind. Don't believe me, eh? OK, here goes.OK,uh..Vern Schaller is doing a term paper on Medieval Open Field Farming and its affect on the Height of Church Steeples...um...Gary Coughlan is reading a book on the History of The Postal Service...uh..uh..Bruce Schlickbernd is kicking a dog...and good ole' Don Horton is, is is..yech..that's disgusting, leave her alone, Don...

A few last words, remember when I said that I was planning to betray my allies in the variant I was playing in Emhain Macha? They believed me. I'm dead. And last, but not least, as I predicted, Vern Schaller has started publishing Dreadnought. End.

1978HK

GM: Rod Walker, 1273 Crest Dr., Encinitas, CA 92024

First of all, here are the Russian orders that got left out last season:
A Swe-Lvn C by F Dot, A Hol-Kie, A Ruh-Mun, A War-Mos S by A StP, A Sil-Gal, A Mos-Ukr.
Summer 1908: Game delayed.

1. Last season was Spring 1908, not 1909; sorry.
2. Austria's order A Bud-Gal obviously failed; can't dislodge one's own unit, after all.
3. Various factors compel this game's continuation. Viable plans seem to exist for breaking the draw situation...and in any event, we are going to have a new Italian player, so all bets have to be off at least for the moment.
4. I have orders on file for two players only, but have heard from others.
5. I did not hear from the Italian stand-by. He is requested now to take permanent possession of Italy; Rick Price has resigned owing to lack of time to pursue the game. In the event he does not submit orders, the stand-by player for Italy will be: Ken Baker, 16250 Brookford Dr., Houston, Texas 77059.
6. It is my intent to play this game out at least through the end of 1909 and to see what happens. We'll see then if a draw might still be imminent or whether there's life in this old girl yet. I will say that every player I heard from is against stopping at this point. I also understand that one player intended not to vote on the draw deliberately. If that is true, it's a very silly and childish reaction. Effective immediately, add to HR 29 the following: "If a game is ended through a vote, any player who failed to vote is considered to have been dropped from the game, and his position will be shown in civil disorder in the GM's report to the Boardman Number Custodian. Any vote other than 'yes' or 'no' will be considered failure to vote." Under this provision, if the GM declares a draw and a unanimous "yes" vote were required to continue the game, a player who failed to vote would be counted in civil disorder and not eligible to share in the draw. I hope that is ample inducement for players to meet their responsibilities.

DEADLINE FOR FALL 1908 ORDERS is Saturday, 5 July 1980.

6/7/80

page 4

Ah, what is so rare as a day in June? How about a decent joke within the pages of

POIGNARD 11 -- GMed, typed, and generally slaved over by David Loewenstern, 12002 Audubon Ave., Philadelphia, PA 19116
phone 215-676-3492

1979CX: FRENCH REFUSE EVEN TO SEND SHIP TO SEA THIS TIME! JAPANESE RIASON DECRARE WAR, RAUNCH FREET AND RAND FORCE AGAINST VRADIVOSTOK. AUSTRIAN EMPIRE TAKES LEAD FROM RUSSIA. BERLINERS FREED, BUT MUNICHERS SEE RED.

Summer 1905: G.: Asil-r-mun; R.: Fber-r-pru.

Fall 1905:

A.(Jim Cassity, 7): Arum-h, FgreS R.Faeg-ion, Falb-adr, AtriSAven, AvenSAtyl, AtylSAboh-mun. Owns: A., gre, ser, bul, ven, RUM, MUN=9B2.

E.(Scott Copeland, 4): Firi-mat, FengC Awal-nwy, Fnwy-bar.

Owns: E., nwy = 4 even.

F.(Jerry White, 5): ApieS/o I.Aapu-ven, AburS/o &ApicS/o E.Feng-bel, Fmat-bre/u, Fbre-U. Owns: F., por, spa = 5 B1 (1a).

G.(Paul Sallabedra, 6): FbalS &AmunS/cdr(kie, ruh, otb) Fber-h, Abel-h, FnthC &Fswes E.Awal-nwy. Owns: kie, mun, hol, bel, swe, den, BER =6 even or build 1 if Amun-r-otb.

I.(Clark Reynolds, 4): Arom-tus, Aapu-rom, FionS/cdr(tun, tyn, nap, apu, alb, otb) Fsmys-eme. Owns: rom, nap, tun, smys =3R1, or even if Fion-r-otb.

R.(Gary Howe, 8): Faeg-ion, AarmsSFcon-smys, AsilS A.Aboh-mun, Fpru-ber/b, AwarSasil, Afin-stp/b, Alva-stp/b. Owns: R., rum, T., ber =7R1.

/=fails, a=annihilated, b=bounces, c=cut, d=dislodged, o=no such order, u=no such unit, r=retreats, B=builds, R=removes, U=unordered(holds)

*++PRESS+++

((FRENCH PROPAGANDA)): SURA CV:

Let not man be intoxicated with power or material resources: they cannot defeat the purpose of GOD. So Abraha Ashram (GERMANY) found to his cost. His sacrilegious attack on the holy Fane of God (FRANCE) brought about His own undoing ((If you consider that last clause slightly improbable or irreverent, blame Jerry. I did not capitalize the 'H' in 'His sacrilegious attack;' Jerry did. I just print 'em as I see 'em.)); what seemed but frail Destroyed his mighty hosts in a day!!

FIL or THE ELEPHANT:

1. Seest thou not How thy Lord dealt With the Companions of the Elephant?
2. Did He not make Their treacherous plan go astray?
3. And He sent against them Flights of Birds,
4. Striking them with stones of baked clay.
5. Then did He make them Like an empty field of stalks and straw, (of which the corn) Has been eaten up. ((again, I'm not responsible for the capitalization))

COPENHAGEN CRIER ((GERMAN PRESS)): It has been reported from our correspondents in France that there have been massive layoffs of workers in the shipbuilding industry recently. Apparently the vast majority of workers in the docks were Irish refugees whom the French government enlisted in their war against their mutual enemy.

Unfortunately for the French fleet, the Irish workers added a few Gaelic touches to the Gallic designs which resulted in a remarkably unseaworthy design. The Irishmen seem to have thought that the air intake vents were best located on the bow, so they cut the vents into the stem only 6 feet above the waterline. It's not too hard to understand why the French fleets keep sinking when steaming into battle; they simply become rather waterlogged.

TOKYO EXPRESS ((GERMAN PRESS)) -- Honorabre Announcement -- His [pg 5]
Imperial Majesty, Iwo Kantashita, has now declared war on the continental barbarians commonly known as Russians. This has become necessary because of fragrant violations of Japanese sovereignty. Emperor Kantashita has asked the civilized countries of Europe to join his crusade.
DEUTSCHLAND DAILY DIARY -- A press release from German High Command today states that Japan has declared unconditional war on Russia. It is not sure at this time whether the Japs are doing so because of Russian territorial incursions into the Japanese sphere of influence or because the Russians are a bunch of unwashed peasants and smell up any enclosed space. This office will keep you advised of any further clarifications on this matter.

((ITALIAN RELEASE)): Italy's foreign minister, Gilberto de la Dumbo, today announced that the Imperial Generalissimo, Count Spahgetini, had been sent to the navy's drydocks in Naples to straighten out kinks in that service's communication links. The count was discovered sheepishly sweeping the ships' gangplanks. When queried by reporters concerning his questionable behavior, the Count countered that he thought he had been instructed to prepare for a foreign visit.

MOS-ROM: Some must die in order that others may live.

MOS-~~ROM~~, er BER: Your nerve is appalling. Your threats are empty.
St. Pete indeed! I'll take that bet on which one of us lasts the longest. Name your stakes. By the way, don't look now but you're surrounded.

ENGLAND to FRANCE: Go ahead, build it back; I'll just have to sink it again!

ENGLAND to ITALY: Hold on just a little bit longer, I'll be there as soon as I can.

ENGLAND to FRANCE: I could not, with a clear conscience, stab Germany.
Besides, Austria-Russia would profit more than either you or I.

((KIBBITZER PRESS FROM DANIEL LOEWENSTERN)):

MILKSOP to The Elephant (Headed):

Birds and Stones may break Ger's bones

But eating will never hurt him.

MILKSOP to DEUTSCHLAND: From here it looks like the Japs attacked the Russians because they stink. How do you take that? ((with a grain of salt))

MILKSOP to ENGLAND: Who or what (and in this game I mean what) should Italy hold on to? Also, why do you want to put French fleets in a kitchen part good only for rinsing dishes?

PHILADELPHIA -- ANNOUNCEMENTS FROM THE GM:

1. Ambiguous and miswritten orders will no longer be accepted. The abbreviation 'nor' will be considered illegible. Thus:

a. the order F~~swe~~-nor will fail.

b. the order F~~nor~~-nor will make the GM rather peeved.

c. the order (F~~matC~~)&F~~norC~~&F~~norC~~&F~~norS~~anor-nor will result in the GM going berserk and stabbing, flaying, quartering, shooting, boiling (in oil), cremating, and burying the offender. We will take no chances.

If you do not know any good, unambiguous abbreviations, ask and I will send you some.

2. Thanks are due to Paul Goodrich for the standby orders for Italy.

3. If three of you ask for a separation of seasons, you will get one.

4. I would appreciate comments/criticism about the GM system used in POIGNARD. Kibbitzers are welcome, but I would especially like some of the players to comment. If enough of ^{you} tell me that you'd prefer that I use some more traditional system, I will do so.

5. Bribes should be sent in unmarked bills. I also accept cars, free trips to Europe, jewel-encrusted daggers, solid gold Diplomacy sets, etc.

6. THERE IS NO ANNOUNCEMENT NUMBER SIX.

7. orders for Au'05, W'05, and S'06 are due 7/7/80 at 12 noon.

June 1, 1980
A rural cottage near Tottingham-on-Mews

Dear Mr. Horton:

Being, as you know, a long time Claw & Fang subscriber, it is my pleasure to contribute to your Demonstration Game analysis by famous writers. I admit to being at somewhat of a disadvantage since I shall be unable to utilize the characters previously developed by my colleagues. While I have been using more human characters in each of my successive books--virtually none in Watership Down, one in Sharduk, and several in The Plague Dogs--I still feel more comfortable with non-human characters. And after all, this is Claw and Fang. Enclosed you will find a tape cassette of my effort, for your transcription. Please excuse the interruptions by my beloved wife. She is a wonderful woman, but sometimes fails to understand the creative process.

Sincerely,

/s/ Richard Adams

ANALYSIS OF DEMONSTRATION GAME 1979CT

Chapter 10: Rommler, Wolf of War by Richard Adams

Pinknose the fieldmouse leaped and pulled and twisted in a vain attempt to escape from between the rugged grey-brown paws of the wolf. Before long, however, Rommler tired of the game and gulped down the shrieking little morsel in one laconic motion, for he wished to be alone. Alone to enjoy the serenity of his East Prussian holdings, lands held by his father and earlier ancestors since the grey dawn times of winter that had no end. Today, though, as he opened his nostrils to test the air he realized he was not to be alone--for a powerful intruder trespassed on his birthright.

"Wuuurggh...Wuuurggh," the sound rumbled low in his throat, and in truth to human ears would have been all but inaudible. But to another of his kind the message was unmistakable--,"Stay away! I choose to be alone. Come closer and there will be trouble."

Another wolf brazenly entered his clearing, Mikhae, a huge cream and tan she-wolf from the vast forests of the east. She stood a full head taller than the stocky Rommler, and with raised hackles and slavering jaws was a fearsome sight indeed. She cocked her tail upwards and to the right, twisted clockwise at a 45° angle, the tip facing left. In the language of wolfkind she was saying, "I claim the lands from the hemlock forest to the river, from the village to the castle. Buzz off twerp."

Rommler spoke his reply in the more civilized language of the west, "Bow-wow, Arf-arf, ruff-ruff," meaning "stay away from my hemlock groves, sister, or you'll be sorry."

[Richard? Tea is on, Richard. Wash up and come down to tea.]

"Wuuurggh...Wuuurggh...Grrrrrr..."]

The larger wolf continued her advance. "Growwwki, Gshshshshshska, Wuggghitz," she snarled. She had picked up her heavy Slavonic accent during her puppyhood in the Pripyet marshes.

"Grrrrr, Grrrrrr," was all Rommler could think of to say, as they circled closer and closer. He awaited his chance to get a clear shot at her tender throat. Then he sprang....

[Richard! I shouldn't have to come up here and get you, you know. Do you realize what... AUGGGHHH!! Got off me, you bloody fool! Oh God no, not again. I can't go on like this, Richard. First there was that awards presentation--and when it came to your turn to present an award they put the spotlight on you and you went into "tharn", or whatever the hell you call it, and we had to carry you out to the car. Then there was the publisher's banquet and you bit off part of J. P. Donleavy's ear because he picked up your fork by mistake. I shan't take this much longer. I do wish you would take to writing normal novels about people, like that nice Mr. LeCarre' does. Anyway, your tea is ready.]

(continued next page)

[The wrap-up on the next page is of 1978FA.]

Rommel grasped as much skin as he could between his jaws, but failed to connect on more than empty scruff. The larger wolf sank her teeth deeply into his shoulder, and the flaming pain seared up the side of his neck, burning into the back of his skull. Knowing he was beaten, he rolled over on his back submissively, then skulked away with his tail between his legs. For now, his ancestral lands would belong to the great white wolf of the east. For now.....

End of Chapter Ten

WRAP-

SUPPLY CENTERS:

	01	02	03	04	05	06	07	08
AUSTRIA	5	4	2	0	-
ENGLAND	4	4	3	2	1	1	1	1
FRANCE	5	6	7	8*	9	10	12	14 draw
GERMANY	5	5	5	6	4	2	2	0
ITALY	4	5	6	8	9	11	12	16 draw
RUSSIA	6	6	7	7	8	8	4	3
TURKEY	4	4	4	3	3	2	3*	0

THE PLAYERS:

GM: Konrad Baumcister. AUS: Jim Peach (out FO4).
 GER: James McCall (drop SO2), Steve Greenberg (res FO4), David Loewenstern (out FO8).
 ENG: Gary Behnen (drop WO1), Mike McMillie (drop SO5), C.D. FRA: Mike Willemsen (draw FO8).
 ITA: John Zipper (draw FO8). RUS: Ralph Doty (res FO5), Eric Ozog.
 TUR: Arthur Roth (out FO3).

STATEMENTS: (JOHN ZIPPER -- ITALY) I had planned to stab France on the last move but decided to not go against an ally who had worked well with me. (Even though he tried very hard to get Russia to stab me.) The stab of Russia after our pinch of Austria-Turkey came at a player change. I was going to hit Russia before I knew the change was coming. It was not a stab aimed at the new player.

General notes: This was my first postal game of Diplomacy, so I am very pleased to be an Italy in the draw. Sad note is the tainted victory due to NMR of Austria at a critical point.

(MIKE WILLEMSSEN -- FRANCE) Although France and Italy drew this game, there was never a Franco-Italian alliance, and neither ever supported the other's moves. As France, I was unable to find a reliable ally, but numerous missed moves, changes in command, and changes in policy by England, Germany, and Russia left them unable to resist effectively the steady French advance north and east. Italy advanced with equal speed through the Balkans, and the draw became inevitable; since Italy could take the Russian inland centers but not those bordering the northern seas, the result would be an equal 17-17 division of centers.

(KONRAD BAUMEISTER -- GM) An interesting game from start to finish, unfortunately marred by a lot of player changes. The Italian-French alliance held throughout the whole game, and did as well as it did not because of its inherent strength so much as because of the inability of its enemies to stay together long enough to fight it off. The first Russian player played a good game, as did the Austrian, who was unluckily ganged up upon by all surrounding him, and was the first elimination. The Turk was boxed in early and never had much of a chance to play the game; late orders did him in in the end. All in all, after 1905 there was never much doubt about the outcome of the game, all organized resistance ended, though Germany and Turkey individually fought on. The question of whether or not it would be possible for either France or Italy could win dragged the game on, but eventually it became clear that neither would be able to get more than 17 without the consent of his partner, and the draw was voted in. Congratulations to all players, and thanks for an interesting game to GM.

GE: Eric Verheiden; 200. S. Azusa Ave., #2; Azusa, CA 91702
 Phone: (213) 334-3149 (see below)

1979 CT Claw & Fang Demo Invitational

Winter 1904 Frigid Weather Brings Conflict to Halt

- England (Palter): No Change. Has A Yor, F Hel, F Nth, F Den (4)
- France (Reese): Build F Bre. Has F Bre, F Nwg, F Eng, A Hol, A Mun, A Kie, A Ruh, F Spa sc (8)
- Germany (Vagts*): No change. Has A Ber, F Por (2)
- Italy (Ditter): Build A Ven, F Rom. Has A Ven, F Rom, A Bud, A Vie, A Ser, A Tyo, F Cre, F Ion, F Aeg (9)
- Russia (Cusack): No change. Has F Bar, A Nwy, A Swe, F Ska, A Boh, A Gal, A Bul, F Bla, A Smy, A Arm (10)
 (Aut '04: A Bud & Gal)
- Turkey (Harley): No change. Has F Con (1)

Spring 1905 orders are due on 7 July 1980. Spring orders are on file for all positions except Germany. Don Bingle did not submit orders again, nor could he be reached by phone. The German position is therefore taken over by Arn Vagts, address below.

The GI now has an answering device on his telephone, so he can be reached when he is out, which is increasingly frequently.

Player addresses

- Scott Palter; c/o Bucci Imports, Rm. 100; 123 Grove St.; Cedarhurst, NY 11516
- Peter Reese; 6108 Juneberry Ct., Alexandria, VA 22310
- Arnold Vagts; 3713 S. Parton St.; Santa Ana, CA 92707
- Don Ditter; P. O. Box 325; Grand Chenier, LA 70643
- Fair Cusack; 1620 42nd St., S.W.; Calgary, Alberta T3C 1Z5 CANADA
- Scott Harley; 12632 Swidler Place; Santa Ana, CA 92705

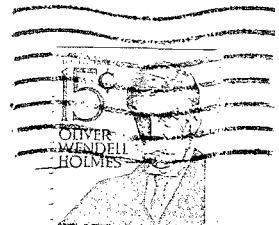

Press

Berlin: The new German leader invites contacts from any and all participants regarding matters of mutual interest.

1978IZ has ended in a three-way draw in Fall 1907 between England (Gary Schmidt), Germany (Tom McMillon), and Turkey (Ben Zablocki). Get those statements in.

Any slafy Diplomacy players out there?

See page 1 of
 CLAW & FANG #115 sent your way by Don Horton
 16 Jordan Ct.
 Sacramento, CA 95826

If the number on your address label is 115 or less you get no more C&Fs unless I get more $$$ to feed the mimeo.

Scott Harley
 12632 Swidler Pl
 Santa Ana, CA 92705