The Russian and Austrian Retreats and Winter builds and removals are due 6:15 PM May 11.

Lilliput Links: Poor, poor, Germany. Russia is indeed moving around as Turkey is beating the hell out of him. It looks as if a French English alliance is in the process of forming. Austria is really having an interesting slugfest with the Pope. Turkey can expect further gains; the odds are up to 2 to 3 on him stabbig Von Metzke.

Paris: Duke has finally decided to cease the cold war with Aggressor Homeland. All French agents previously stationed there are now safely (and happily) on clean, French, soil again. "The Reason for the Aggressor Homeland pull out", Duke reported, "is that we have accomplished our case of restoring France to the free cultural nation it was before the existence of Aggressor Control. Any such further dealing with the "nation" would now be an Aggressive motion on the part of the French government - ridiculously protective as France will no longer concern itself with whether the rest of Europe is corrupted by such an organization. As a passing remark, Duke was heard to mutter, "Lets the Tyr s deal with it."

AGGRESSOR HOMELAND: Methinks Duke had better worry ab ut the corrupt influence of Turkey on the rest of Europe.

CIRCLE TRIGON TEN PAGE TWO

Berlin: The moves by the Russians to assault the German homeland will meet its proper conclusion in the extermination of the uncivilized Russian army to be replaced by the proper influence in the area, Turkey. Let this be a warning to the French, Germany will resist the invasion of the Ruhr with powerful allies if it is not vacated now. Your best possible ally is dying in Rome as did your previous clown suffer in Sevastopol.

AGGRESSOR HOMELAND: Okay, so he vacated it. Happy?

Rome: Will all heathens please leave Venice.

AGGRESSOR CONTROL: And just when they settled in too.

WARSAW: Russia trusts Turkey implicitly.

Istanbul: Turkey formally apologises to the noble Lord Norman of England in regard to the caustic remarks about his government. Our government has decided that St Petersburg is within the English sphere of influence and will support any attack on the City.

Winter Builds due 6:15 PM May 11th.

LONDON: No Aggressor agents anywhere ub England reports MI-5. The head of MI-5 states "Everyone knows rats can't win."

AGGRESSOR CONTROL: Does that mean you are pulling out?

BERLIN: The Kaiser announced today that any further aggressive action by France will be considered an act of war.

Constantinople: Greece a "rightful Austrian gain"? Let us consider this. The Greeks aren't going to be too pleased to hear that. After all, the Austrians have been known to shell the capital cities of subjugated nations. To Austria, we propose to determine the fate of Greece the fair, and noble way--- give it to us!

JAMAICA: Yep, sho' did write that. Who wrote that Athens release?

VATICAN CITY: Pope Priapus I, while taking a rare break from his marathon orgy, made a public statement regarding the Austrian Peace (?) statement. "Since when," stated the Pope, while being pawed by a voluptuous blonde, "does nay nation have the right to assume they may rightfully take over another country." While having his %#$%# caressed by two of his favorite subjects the Pope further stated, "Aristotle Omn potent, himself, sent me a wire from Athens asking for help to keep out the Austrian invaders." The Pope, just prior to submitting to his baser instincts said, "I may be losing my mind from too much ver indulgence but I sure am having fun."

OXNARD" What would my "shrink" have to say about this garbage?

OXNARD to AGGRESSOR HOMELAND: What the hell is this crap of your remarks being longer than my press release. That's downright unfair. If it happens again, you'll be sorry and thats a promise.

(High in the Albanian Mountains): 132 members of the 2nd jassenary regiment of the Turkish First Army were today freed from the chains that bound them to a hugh 147 foot dart!! Most were quite glassy eyed and suffering sever withdrawl effects. When questioned they confessed they weere an experimental testing group flying the new Turkish aero-craft the Joel-1. All members and craft were returned to Turkey via launching by tree power. Emporer blank was informed of the attempted landings in Bulgaria by the experimental team and promptly replied that as they were only about 200 miles off that they should receive two points for a fair attempt. He then ordered the Austrian weapons makers to make him such a dart and challenged Klein to a contest.

(Budapest Zoo): The Russian 4238½ Grenadiers today attacked the Polar Bear section of the Budapest Zoo, claiming it to be the North Pole and the bears to be prisoners of the Russian empire. A savage seal counter attack sent the attackers running for refuge in the skunk cage where even the deals wouldn't attack nor th e Zoo keepers attempt to enter. A message was sent to the Russian Czar today asking him to please pick up this wayawrd regiment.

(Athens((?))) Aus rian forces recieved a heros welcome today as they sailed into Athens. As a gift the Austrian fleet commander received carhe of a political prisoner who was the only Greek to oppose Austrian occupation.

AGGRESSOR CONTROL-ATHENS: Oh?

A-Russian release will be delayed until the Winter issue since this is the last stencil in the house and the stores are closed now. Sorry John, but it keeps well.
