72 FJ Winter 06 sunken turkish fleet reappears.

In the Fall adjudications two mistakes crept in. The Turkish Fleet WEs can retreat to Tunis and does rather than be annihilated. The French move Apu-Ion blocks the Turkish move Aeg-Ion which should be underlined. That retreat means only France has a build, which is A Marsailles.

VIENNA: Under orders of the Emperor the 4-Star Pizzaria chain has lost its operating rights in Austria and her conquered provinces. The above action was announced late this afternoon after evidence confiscated in an early morning raid on the chain proved that the Vienna pizzaria is indeed the headquarters of Aggressor Homeland and its underground narcotics operation in Austria. At the cost of 17 Vienna police officers the Emperor obtained the books of the organization which showed that heavy dealings through out the Empire were with the affiliation of Zorba Bear as district administrator for Budapest and whole of Russia. Also taken were several kilos of heroin already marked with their destinations and routes of delivery. Taken captive after the 20 minutes fire fight was "Specs" Caniglia who admitted to the August "meatball incident". Big Tony was reported to have gotten away as Vicente "Dhoes" Reali charged the police with only a pizza knife after injecting some of the heroin.

SPRING 07 MOVES DUE March 15th

72AM PROCEDURES RESOLVED, WINTER MOVES PROCEED.

Andy Stiedl writes: Since I never recieved word to the contrary, I assume we are playing according to the same rules Tretick used. Accordingly the following situation exists: If one unit is attacked by two and has attacked the moving unit, the attack= goes through. However, if it attacks the supporting unit, it cuts the support and then defends one on one against the moving unit. Thus the attack fails. I can not find a recent case in point to support this argument. However if I am correct you will note that A Ukr-War cuts A War Sup A Stp-Mos and A Mos-Lvn cuts A Lvn S A Stp-Mos then bounces back to defend one on one against Stp. The attack can not succeed but for some reason you said it does. Also based on the same principle A Vie-Tyr cuts a Tyr S A Tri-Vie then comes back to stop Tri. Therefore Tri does not get into Vie and Bud Does not get into Tri.

There is more but that is the germane part to the adjudications. RESPONSE: I haven't the faintest idea if we are following Treticks rules. This game was moved over his protests and since we don't and didn't trade I was not favoered with his house rules. However the game is designated 72AM and I would rule by the 71 rulebook which states: (X GUTTING SUPPORT) If a unit ordered to support in a gievn space is attack from a spave different from the one into which it is giving support, or is dislodged by an attack from any space, including the one into which it is giving support, then its support is cut." The effect of this is that a unit may not cut support against otself unless it dislodges the supporting unat, which was not true in any of the Russian attacks. Thus each of the supports was valid and the orders succeeded. If Buddy would have ruled= differently it would be not a modification of the rulebook but a disregarding of it. No house rule in violation of THE rulebook will be used in games orphaned into BROBDINGNAG. For this reason the moves as adjudicated stand. Winter adjustments are as below:

ENGLAND: Build A Edi

RUSSIA: R A Vie-Bud, R A Gal-kum, R A Mos-Sev, Remove A Tri

SPRING 19112 moves due 6:15 MARCH 15th Press below and next page,

SEVASTOPOL: It is too bad our St Petersburg poet doesn't possess the talents of the great Aleksandr Solshenitsyn. This leads me to believe he is not a Russian. Horors! Limeys in St Pete.

CALAIS: " Drink Puppy Drank" I never heard of. "Gary Owen" and "The British Grenadiers" are both great songs- they deserve dirty lyrics. Wish I knew some.

Paris: Fie, fickle pen! Erroneous ecriture !
Transcriptous treachery, I say begone!
Trouble me not, nor rape my virgin page
with the foul dork of error.

Dredge not the depths of my mistaken brain,
Fishing forth fallacies far fetched from fact;
Andy, not David is the Czar who soon
Will cringe in abject terror.

Forward the British ranks! Besmite the Tartar!
French fleets with Turksih blood the seas will spatter!
England and France the hethen hordes will shatter
Or ere this game is e'er o'er.

St Pete: Muscovy delenda est!
Quoth the Latin scholar
In 1972 AM
For which I paid five dollars.

I've set up the board- My God! Look out!
My cat from her perch she leapeth.
Scattering armies to and fro-
On the board she has chosen to sleepeth.

St Pete: Lets have no more of this here ripping off my dateline now, hear?

St Pete: The most satisfying thing about this game is the realization (none too subtle) that others read my press also.

72 DB Fall 1908 ONLY ONE POWER ACTIVE! BALANCE OF POWER LOST???

NOTE FOR ALL GAMES:

This issue will be a little late becaue (1) I have had a bad cold and been in bed the last few days (2) my parents were up to visit this weekend (3) I have no ten cent stamps in the house and (4) I haven't felt like getting it out. I would like to guarantee it wont happen again but I cant. In fact as these games wrap up I may fold the thing. However my mood could change by the time we have a game finished.

HELP PLEASE: In getting this ready to mail I just noticed I dont have Andy Stedls address. Will one of the other players please send it postbhaste so I can send his copy to him. Thanks much.
