

CIRCLE TRIGON-PROEDINGNAG is published every third Friday by Bob Ward 8665 Florin Road # 176, Sacramento CA. It is the oldest Diploamcy magazine in Sacramento, proving once again that even old wine trusn eventually to vinegar. This issue is rbought to you in the middle to studying for Law School exams. Check all games extra close for errors. We luckily for my typing and unluckily for your reading have very little press this side out. Get with it, people.

LONDON: The King of England, King Hen I has just orderd one of the finest spider monkeys in the London Zoo to be sent to the Budapest Zoo as a gift to the Austria-Hungarian ruler, along with a turkish towel that was captured in the Battle of Finland. This is the way I feel best describes my feelings to the alliance of the two countries. Turkey will soon make a mockery of the Austria-Hungarians, by building Turkish towel plants throughout the Austria-Hungarian territory.

AGGRESSION HOMELAND: Circle Trigon Carriers today submitted the low bid to transport the spider monkey from the London to the Budapest Zoo. As one of the few firms doing business with both camps the firm could guarantee delivery. In their news Circle Trigon Industries announced an order for towel making machinery to be delivered to Rumania. The order was placed in Ankara.

There is not enough room on the page left to start the account of a new game so lets use the space constructively. If you dont subscribe to Diplomacy World you should. It is available from Walt Buchanan RR 3 Lebanon IN 46052 for $3.00 per year with a one dollar disocunt on request to I.D.A. members.

72AM: FORCES RETRUN TO THE FRAY MORE OR LESS MINUS RUSSIA

I still have not heard from Andy Steidl, nor have I been sent his address. Since one of the players can supply it I must conclude that there was no communication with him. I have his tentative moves for this season on file. Following this season Russia will be played by an anonymous neutral player until I can contact Andy. Since one of you were writing to him it should not change anything if I dont furnish his (the neutral players) address. This is a much less than perfect solution but I cant think of a better one.

Fall 1908 moves due 6:15 May 3rd. Since Rush just got the position I am almost sure he will resp nd next season. The other two are not suitable for substitution, though I expect Dorchak to return to the fray in any case.

Well, that wraps up another issue. If you want more reading material, write some of it. Until next time-----PLOT!
