O.K., Here it is, several announcements;

1. Sorry I'm late, but it does happen to all of us at times.
2. The due dates for all but Acquire is: November 17, 1990.
3. I am turning over Downfall At the Mouth to Jason and will let him run it in 'Entropy' or by flyer. It runs even later than I do, and it will free up my deadlines somewhat.
4. No new openings at present.

See you all next time!!!

Nestor, determined Communist leader of the Worker's World Democratic Republic wishes "Continued success and prosperity to the loyal Katriska Doll Maker's Union members of local chapter 242B".

Union Member - Ivan Freesus - was very proud of the success made by the party leaders this year in weeding out non-union supporters, such as the wicked and decadent Ludmilla Patina and her cohorts. Although the price of cleansing was heavy, ~~Benny~~, Satin is expected to recover quickly.

- England to France: I will do whatever you like.
- Turkey to France: Watch out for Italy's F Tyn/Ion. Also, his A Tri will probably march through Ven to Pic, etc. You were always the junior partner in this "F/I/A". You could lose Spain in short order. Where's Italy's next expansion route once I'm gone? Get together with Germany.
- Russia to England: From your last comment, I assume you cross game. Too bad. I never play with cross gamers a second time, even if we had a good alliance in the first.
- Turkey to France: Neither of them gets Ankara.
- France to Italy: My orders on the Continent are purely defensive in nature. One must do what one can to maintain the balance of power.
- France to England: Of course, that doesn't apply to the British Isles.
- Turkey to Germany: Thanks for your concern in last season's press. I wish you were playing Russia... We could have swept the board with an R/T.
- France to Turkey: Hang in there! You've been a good correspondent, and that is much appreciated.
- Russia to Germany: This Russian weather is terrible. Think I'll drop by and visit a while, O.K? ((I guess you should've called first.))
- England to Italy: Now what do you do? Go west or North?
- Arkangle: Russian construction yards are working three shifts trying to outfit the new fleet prior to the coming winter's freeze. While it does not look promising, there is hope that things can be finished in time for the fleet to sail with the Spring 1907 thaw.
