NUMBER 4

An irregular newsletter of Diplemsa, the Postal Diplomacy SIG of American Mensa, Ltd.

1. The By-laws have been approved and are now in effect.
2. Joe Antesiak, the Election Commissioner, reports that only the following nominations have been received for permanent officers:

FOR CHAIRMAN: Fred C. Davis, Jr.

FOR COMMITTEEMAN: Don Herten

It follows that it's a little bit hard to hold an election when we don't even have enough candidates to equal the number of vacancies. Under the By-laws, we're supposed to have two Committeemen.

We would like to request some more nominations. Someone? Anyone? We need at least one more willing victim to serve as Committeeman. Then, Mr. Antesiak could at least announce to the world that we had some official and permanent officers. And if we get a couple more nominees, we can run a bona-fide election ("Glerieski, Zero!").

So, please nominate your best friend (or worst enemy) for a job, or, nominate yourself. That's legal. Send your letters and postcards to: Joe Antesiak, 422 East Ave., LaGrange, Ill. 60525.

The important thing is that we present to American Mensa proof that we're an operating SIG, with democratically elected officers. And so, be democratic! That is a direct order from Headquarters.

3. We've received another good plug in the July/August issue of the MENSA BULLETIN, which I only received a week ago. We'll see if it pulls in any new members.
4. Scott Hightower, 3118 Lamar Dr., Lexington, Ky. 40502, is still signing up players for the next Diplemsa SIG game (Game #5). I don't know his game fee, but enclose $2.00 anyway if you're signing up, to hold your position.
5. In the first Mensa game, 1974M, an interesting thing is happening. The actual dues-paying M's are being beaten by the "Hi-Q's". If you don't already subscribe to CLAW & FANG, write to Don Herten at 16 Jordan Ct., Sacramento, Calif. 95826, and watch the merriment.
