ALL GAMES

The Players -- As published in DIPLOPHOBIA #4 and amended in #'s 5-9, with addenda and corrigenda as follows:

Dobson, Michael -- Add CC.
Hoheisel, R. Wayne -- CoA -- 1426 21st St., N.W., Wash., D.C., 20037 (483-3797).
Huff, Alan -- Add CC.
Latimer, Jim -- Add CC.
Lebling, Dave -- Add CC.
Muhlhauser, Fritz -- Add CC.
Munroe, James L. -- CoA -- 630 W. Duarte Rd. (71), Monrovia, Cal., 91016.
Prosnitz, Gene -- Add CC.

Replacement Players -- PFC: Dobson; PHC: Latimer; PIC: Latimer; PJC: Latimer; PKC: Latimer; PLC: Latimer; PME: Shagrin. We also have a stand-by replacement player for PGD. Stand-by replacement players are urgently needed for games PAA, PBA, PCA, PDB, PEA, PNC, and POC. Stand-by moves are needed this time from Latimer (PHC, GER, for Sanders; PJC, GER, for Vaughn); from Shagrin (PME, ENG, Brooks); and from any one who is interested (PEA, FRA, Molenaar). Oops! Alexander, would you like to be listed on the roster as stand-by replacement player for PNC? As for the voting concerning the retention of the current replacement rule, it now stands at 4-4 (with Gemignani voting "AYE", and Carey voting "NAY"). This is last call for votes on this question, people -- final voting deadline is April 26. After that, you'll be stuck with whatever decision is made. It would appear you don't care, so....

The Gamesmaster -- For all games, Don Miller, 12315 Judson Road, Wheaton, Md., 20906 (Phone 301-933-5417; call only after 7:30 & before 11:00 p.m., on weekdays except Fri).

The "House-Rules" -- As published in DIPLOPHOBIA #1, and amended in #'s 4-6. See also DIPLOMANIA 14/15.

New Game -- Game PPC ("Regular Game #9") has just been opened ($3 if this is your first game in any Games Bureau Diplomacy 'zine; $2 otherwise; additional $1.25 for 10-issue DIPLOMANIA sub is optional, but strongly advised). So far, one person (Jack Greene, Jr.) on roster. Game PQC ("Regular Game #10") will follow.

Miscellaneous -- Players desiring air-mail delivery of DIPLOPHOBIA are reminded it is 50¢ extra per game for first two games in each 'zine; free after that. Paul Leitch -- refer to page 5, Diplomacy Rule-Book, for answer to your question: "Occupation of a supply center by a Great Power occurs when one of its units is located in that supply center immediately after a Fall move, complete with retreats, if any, has been played." (Underlining mine.) To the person who asked the question -- yes, publishing propaganda (but not writing orders) in someone else's name is perfectly legal. See DIPLOMANIA #16. And people -- please keep the propaganda clean -- we have a lady in our midst, remember? New SUPERCAL games now open: ANARCHY III (19 more players still needed); HYPERSPACE II (still one more needed; Dan Alderson?); THE FOUNDATION GAME (THE FOUNDATION VS THE GALAXY); SUPERECONOMIC DIPLOMACY; SIMULATION DIPLOMACY II; GAME OF INSURRECTION. FANTASIA and DIPSOMANIA closed to new games.

Propaganda --

Ankara (Oct. 3, 1908) -- The Sultan is pleased that Italy has accepted the offer of truce while the German menace remains. "Our two great countries," said the Sultan, "although different in race, philosophy and religion, can and must work together to halt the threat of German domination." England is reminded that people who play with losers also end up as losers.

Berlin -- Europe for the Europeans!

Paris -- Looks like 1870 again...Down with von Schlieffen!

Deadline for AUTUMN, 1908 retreat and WINTER, 1908 build/removal -- Noon, Wed. April 26.

Propaganda --

Rome -- So what's so great about Apulia?

Venice -- The Russian troops will never think to look for us there, that's what!

Vienna -- How can the Italians expect aid against Russia when they themselves occupy our western lands? We will be glad to see this cruel war end, and realize that even a concerted effort by the West cannot stop the Slavs. --Franz Joseph.

Deadline for FALL, 1907 moves and propaganda (there were no retreats) -- Noon, Wed. April 26.

PCA ("Variant-Regular Diplomacy Game #3")

The Players, Rules and Board -- See DIPLOPHOBIA #'s 1, 2, and 8.

Propaganda --

Berlin -- Aaaarghh!

Paris -- In revenge for the Italian invasion, France is going to flood the wine market with fake Italian wine.

Rome -- We realize that we may be making moves contrary to what was first shown to Turkey, but the present moves in no way break any agreements or treaties. We just want to play it safe against the Hungarians and Serbs.

St. Petersburg -- The Czar swore today to fight forever against the invading Turks. "We'll retreat to the Ural Mountains, where we can live and fight as free men for the rest of our lives."

Deadline for AUTUMN, 1906 retreat and WINTER, 1906 builds/removals -- Noon, Wed., April 26.

Propaganda --

Vienna -- We hope sincerely that France has moved its new fleet to Spain. Italian fishermen are protected by Austrian dreadnaughts. The C.E.F. recognizes French rights in the north; ours are to be respected in the south. The sick man of Europe is dying fast and is not at all sociable. Good luck against the Celts.

Yorkshire -- 10...9...8...7...

Error in issue #9 -- A-H Pos. at end of W04: change "Nap" to "Ion".

Deadline for SUMMER, 1905 retreat and FALL, 1905 moves -- Noon, Wed. April 26.

TUR (Lebling) -- A Arm-Con; F Bla (C) A Arm-Con; F Aeg-Bul(SC) (F Aeg is dislodged and must retreat).

Propaganda --

England -- Italy: You should know a dupe and a stupe.

Paris -- Is it a flaw in my personality that I cannot play France? Gnash, I couldn't even conquer England!

Rome -- Those stupid, rusting Frenchmen; they'll never learn.

Vienna -- Germany: "Though this government appreciates your government's request for peace and its attempts to bring it about, there are certain members of the army who are in complete control of those armies who must be punished first."

Deadline for SUMMER, 1904 retreat and FALL, 1904 moves -- Noon, Wed., April 26.

PGD ("3x3 Team Game with Wild-Card Player I")

The Players, Rules and Board -- See DIPLOPHOBIA #'s 1-5, 7, and 8.

Propaganda --

Ankara -- Rome: What do you do for laughs?

Radio Free Batavia -- The Governor-General of the Netherlands East Indies today thanked the King of England, President of France, and the Czar of Russia for their punitive actions against Germany. The Governor-General went on to say, "We all hope, in the name of freedom, that this action is ended quickly and successfully. But we warn any power, that the Netherlands must not and will not be subjugated by any foreign power." The Governor-General finally mentioned, "The Dutch Army of Liberation will fight alongside of our French allies."

Leeuwarden, Netherlands -- The II Corps of the DAL began landing operations here early this morning. Only light resistance was met. Thousands of Dutchmen cheered, celebrated, and helped unload at the beachhead. General Van Heutz expects to join up with the French somewhere near Zwolle.

Washington, D.C. -- Reports from our consulate in the Hague tell of near anarchy as the Germans leave the area. Dutch Freedom fighters everywhere are harassing the leaving Germans. Dead and dying lie everywhere.

No source given -- France: In winter PFC, somebody said, "Don't trust Huff." What do you have to say for yourself?

Deadline for AUTUMN, 1903 retreats and WINTER, 1903 builds/removals -- Noon, Wed., April 26.

Propaganda --

Ankara -- "Russians having declared war upon Turkey," Sultan Al Cohol declared today, "we seek PEACE with Austria, and a PIECE of Russia."

Ankara -- from Minister of Misinformation Ikan Givu A. Definite Maybe the following press release was given to the Foreign Press: "We seek the warmest ties with Italy since it seems we have a (very) common Enemy -- Austria. Or are those two armies in Tyrolia and Trieste just admiring the view?"

Ankara -- Austria: Well, frankly, there isn't a lot of difference between Greece and Bulgaria, and we're willing to trade, but it was a lot easier to get to Constantinople for the weekend when we had Bulgaria. Wouldn't you just as soon trade back, and go after a certain mutual enemy together?

Bucharest -- Sorry about that, Nicky.

London -- I'm sorry, Germany, but I hope this season's moves make up for it. Down with France and Russia.

Rome (October 25, 1903) -- King Luciano I, recently recovered from a bout with diarrhea, today warned the Austro-Hungarians against taking Venice. "It seems that the canals of Venice have overflowed as a result of malfunctioning camodes and a strike by the plumbers' union. If your troops now stationed in Trieste should deem to occupy the Venetian (as of now) swamps, they are advised to bring plumbers with them. However, this will constitute an act of war and the Italian government will react accordingly by concentrating all our military might on the Austrian front." The King was asked if his government would declare war before or after the present plumbing problem is remedied, but the King only broke out in an ear-to-ear grin, gave a sly chuckle, and refused to answer.

St. Petersburg -- Reports emanating from here report that the Czar has been all but dethroned. While retaining only nominal power, the Czar will be kept as a figure-head.

The nation is now led by a cabinet of prominent Russians, but it is expected that one man will soon emerge as ruler of Russia. One of the favorites in this race is the Czar's former confidant and secretary of foreign relations.

The reason for this sudden coup is the Czar's recent mental breakdown; while on a visit to the Black Sea, he suddenly became inexplicably hysterical, but recovered the next day. About two weeks later, while touring the province of St. Petersburg, he caught sight of the Barents Sea, and ever since has been suffering under the delusion that he is drowning.

St. Petersburg -- In an official statement, the cabinet that now rules Russia said Prince Ruprecht was nothing but a trouble-maker, and if it wasn't for the Czar's influence, he would have been deported long ago; the Prince has been deported back to Germany. "Also," the paper went on to say, "England's and Russia's accordances have always outnumbered their differences. It would be in the best interests of all if the growing German ogre were thwarted before all Europe is under heel."

Vienna -- Remember, Sultan, you said it was all right.

Deadline for AUTUMN, 1903 retreats and WINTER, 1903 builds/removals -- Noon, Wed., April 26.

PJC ("Regular Diplomacy Game #4")

The Players, Rules and Board -- See DIPLOPHOBIA #4.

AUTUMN, 1902 retreats -- A-H (Huff): No orders rec'd; GM removes retreating A Ser from board; RUS (Munroe): F Nwy (R) Swe.

WINTER, 1902 builds/removals -- A-H (Huff): None, as retreating unit was destroyed; ENG (Francis): (R) F EnC; FRA (Lebling): (B) F Bre; TUR (Bryant): (B) A Smy.

Positions at end of WINTER, 1902 -- A-H: A's Vie, Bud, Tri; F Gre (4); ENG: A Fin; F's NtS, Nwg, Nwy (4); FRA: A's Bur, Par, Pic, Bel; F's Bre, Mid (6); GER (Vaughn): A's Ruh, Mun, Kie, Den; F Hol (5); ITA (Smythe): A's Syr, Ven; F's Ion, EMe (4); RUS: A's Rum, Gal, Mos; F's Sev, StP(NC), Swe (6); TUR: A's Bul, Ser, Smy; F's Aeg, Con (5).

Propaganda --

Paris -- The English have been forgiven for their attack on Brittany, but a repetition of it will mean war.

Rome -- His Holiness Pope Emmanuel was informed today that the Ottoman, with their usual bad taste, implied that His Holiness was inflicted with a "most odious social disease." With a yawn, Pope Emmanuel responded, "I'm very surprised that the Ottoman, who are very knowledgeable about such things, would make such an obvious error. But they did sink the Michelangelo Buonarroti, didn't they?"

Venice -- The city is in an uproar. Rumors from Serbia report that the Austrians were decisively defeated by the Ottoman forces. People are crying, "How can Italy hope to accomplish the destruction of the Moslems if she is burdened with allies who have nothing better to do than be defeated by lowly Turks?"

Tunis -- French citizens in Tunisia wish to clear the record insofar as "Italian atrocities" are concerned. The Italians have done little more in Tunisia than mop up old Roman ruins (and Ottoman ones, too). Turkish lies will not be heeded by the West.

Deadline for SPRING, 1903 moves and propaganda -- Noon, Wed., April 26.

Propaganda --

CONSTANTINOPLE BULLETIN -- Whooze afraid of the big bad Gamesmaster?

England -- We wish no repeats of 1066, but we call upon Henry V's spirit to again lead his people to victory as he did at Harfleur, Crecy, and Agincourt (that is, if the French fleet in the Channel means what we think it means).

England -- France: That's not too friendly.

Galiccia -- The MOSCOW DIPLOMATIC MAGAZINE OF DIPLOMACY (MDMD) has reported that the Czar welcomes the support and friendship of their Latin brothers of southern Europe. It was necessary for the Czar to decapitate one of his ministers, when the rabid dog (who was most likely an Austrian spy) declared that the position of attention in the Italian army was feet together and arms held over the head. His major problem is that this idea is gaining more and more support from the people. One man (reliable sources said his name was Icerensky) threatened to revolt in March of 1917 if the Czar didn't yield to the people on the Italian problem. The Czar, however, is not worried because he was told that Icerensky was so unsure of himself that he had already put a downpayment on a drycleaning store in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Greece -- What happened to the war???

SWISS PEASANTS JOURNAL -- The Anti-GM Society is taking a poll of persons who want the GM to face the dangers of war like all you poor warlike nations. So, speak up. Send requests for membership to DIPLOPHOBIA as propaganda.

Vatican City -- Due to the unprovoked attacks on Italy, the nation protecting the Pope, by the Austro-Hungarian infidels, I, Jubal MCCVI, Pope of the Christian nation, hereby officially excommunicate the entire nation of Austria-Hungary, and expressly forbid other nations to treat with her under pain of the same punishment. (Does that satisfy you, England?) This has been a special message from the Pope, courtesy of the RELIGIOUS NETWORK, the network with the heart as cold as gold...

Vatican City (Official) -- Third special assistant to Cardinal Baseballa (in charge of English stupidity) announced today that (quote) "England has not yet denied the statement that the fool the British have as King is actually a Catholic."

Propaganda --

Berlin -- The Berlin Association of Life-Long Salvation has reported that the populace is saying "Are they kidding?" after hearing of the French proposals.

London -- Paris: This was mailed April 1st, and you're the April Fool!

London -- Friend: You know what to do.

London -- St. Petersburg: Stay out of Germany!

London -- The Foundation, a radical-right pressure group, released this public statement today: "We are at war with France; England has always been at war with France." All ten of its members were last seen running through Picadilly Circus while being pursued by Bobbies who had raided the eating establishment which is the front room of its headquarters on health charges.

Deadline for FALL, 1901 moves (no SUM retreats) -- Noon, April 26, 1967 (Wed.)

POC ("Regular Diplomacy Game #8")

The Players -- A-H: Tommy Lee Ogle (address on page 1); ENG: James Latimer, III (Merrimack College, Austin Centre, Room 223, N. Andover, Mass., 01845; ph. 689-9412); FRA: Michael Dobson (214 Lafayette St., Decatur, Ala., 35601); GER: Alan Huff (7603 Wells Blvd., Adelphi, Md., 20783; ph. 422-3559); ITA: Gene Prosnitz (200 Clinton St., Brooklyn, N.Y., 11201); RUS: Dave Lebling (3 Rollins Ct., Rockville, Md., 20852; ph. 427-4718); TUR: Fritz Muhlhauser, III (5918 3rd St. South, Arlington, Va., 22204; ph. 671-0074). All players owe game-fees of $2.00 each except new player, Ogle, who owes first-game fee of $3.00. All fees must be paid NLT than April 26.

The Rules and Board -- The board is the standard 7-nation Regular Diplomacy board. The rules are the same as in the rule-book sold with the board and pieces by Games Research, Inc. (48 Wareham St., Boston, Mass., 02118) (a complete set, rules, pieces, and board, is $7.50; rulebook alone is $1.00; paper conference maps are 100 for $3), with interpretations as noted in DIPLOMANIA 14/15 (to be pulled together and published separately with DIPLOMANIA 17), with one exception: "To achieve victory, a player must have 18 units on the board at the completion of a Winter season; it is not enough to merely own 18 supply centers, or to merely have a majority of the units actually on the board." See DIPLOMANIA 14/15 for a discussion of this "victory criterion" rule. Also, see DIPLOPHOBIA #1 (and the revision to be published in DIPLOMANIA 17) for a rundown on the DIPLOMANIA "House-Rules". DIPLOMANIA 14/15 is available from GM for 35¢; DIPLOMANIA subscription (10 issues) is $1.25, from GM.

Deadline for WINTER, 1900 propaganda and game-fees -- Noon, Wednesday, April 26.
