ALL GAMES

The Players -- A complete roster appeared in DIPLOPHOBIA #12, which changes in #'s 14 and 15. Additional changes are as follows:

Hoheisel, R. Wayne (CoA) -- 502d Admin Co., 2d AD, Ft. Hood, Texas, 76546.
Naus, Harold (CoA) -- 681 I St., Space B-11, Chula Vista, Cal., 92010.
Smythe, John -- Delete entire entry; out of game PJC.

Replacement Players -- Positions are open or possibly open in games PIC, PJC, PLC, and PSC. Interested persons see inside under appropriate game for more info.

The Gamesmaster -- For all games, Don Miller, 12315 Judson Rd., Wheaton, Md., 20906 (ph. 301-933-5417; call only between 8 and 11 p.m. EST on weekdays except Fri.).

The "House-Rules" -- As published in DIPLOMANIA #18. Read these carefully!!

New Games -- Houghton, Maloney, and Budd have paid up so far for PTC (Regular Game #13); asking to play but not yet paying fee ($2 if already playing in game in Games Bureau Diplomacy Division magazine; $3 if not) are David Halle; Stephen Hueston, Margaret Gemignani, Monte Zelazny, Bob Reiter (and brother), Dann McConnell, Sid Cochran, and David Olive. The first four persons (whether on this list or not) who send in their game-fee will be in PTC; the next seven will be in PUC (Regular game #14). Openings still exist in HYPERSPACE II (#2), INSURRECTION, KRIEGSPIEL DIPLOMACY, and HYPERECONOMIC DIPLOMACY -- remember, to be counted as "on roster", you must pay your game-fee. Other variants will be announced soon. There is still an opening for one 5-man team in SIMULATION DIPLOMACY ($2 per team). Openings also still exist in the carbon-copy, 2-weeks-between-deadlines, Regular game (fee $3).

Miscellaneous -- Error in game PLC in DPLBA #15: under FALL, 1903 moves, opp. TUR, underline "A Arm-Sev". ##### Dobson and Gordon: your moves arrived on Nov. 9, the day after the deadline, and so were not used. Send them in earlier next time. Remember, if you players will send in "General Orders" IAW H-R #27, the result will not be so disastrous if you should happen to miss a move. Ogle, Lebling, Stokely, Uhr, Reiter, Glavic, Gemignani -- your moves just made it; you'd be well-advised to send them in a day earlier next time; the mails are not noted for dependability. ##### DIPLOMANIA #19 will be out soon (10 issues for $1.50). ##### PSC: Propaganda (Cont. from page 10) -- No source given: England: Ok, so Norway is yours. So! If you panic, I'll send peaceful demonstrators and then you will really have your troubles. NSG: To the World: Let it be known that alliance-breaking or alliance-honoring will be evident this season either by the screams of sinking sailors or by loud roars over filled steins. Deadline for WINTER, 1901 builds/removals: Noon, Wed., Nov. 29. ##### PNC (additional Propaganda) -- Paris -- Berlin: Must it be to the death?

DIPLOPHOBIA is published approx. once a month, and is free to all participants in games being played therein. Non-participants may receive DPBA via 1st-class mail for $1 for 10 issues (with discount to Regular Members of Games Bureau); same rates apply to back issues, when available. See GM re trades. Address code: A-T, player in corresponding game; W, Subscriber; X, last issue, unless...; Y, Trade; Z, Sample. DLM

Paris -- Rome: The French Government does not wish a war with the people of Italy but would like to warn the Italian Government that if its fleet is not returned to "eastern waters" by Spring, measures necessary to protect the security of the French nation and provinces will be taken. Let the Italian Government be warned that with the collapse of Turkey, Austria-Hungary will seek new lands. Certainly Italy must be counted as "eligible" as a possibility for Austrian expansion.

The Supreme Headquarters; Isle of Wight (Official Statement) -- We request that Germany reconsider its position; the conquest of England by Russia can ONLY RESULT IN THE DEFEAT OF GERMANY. Germany! Are you next?

Propaganda --

London -- Presumably the French vessels sighted in the Channel are merely on maneuvers. It would seem rather foolhardy to provoke a war against His Britannic Majesty.

No Source Given -- Lebling, you're a mini-fink.

Italy -- France: Cool it or I shall smite you mighty blows about the head.

St. Pete -- Vienna: Onward, Comrade!

St. Pete -- London: Neutrality with England is desired by the Czar and his government. "A StP-Nwy" was not intended to succeed, but merely taken as a precautionary maneuver. A reply is awaited in St. Petersburg.

No source given -- Lebling, I don't think you're trustworthy. I want a guarantee this time.

Propaganda --

Constantinople -- It is hoped that future "black" propaganda purporting to be from this nation will cease.

Germany -- Russia: Come on, gang, let's have a pity party for poor little old Al, AHHHHH. What's the matter, Al, you aren't winning? I'm not against you in all of our games because I haven't had a chance yet in S.E.D. I don't need help to stomp a puny, backward, retarded, spastic, evil, corrupt, and pathetic country like yours! I don't hate you (too much), it's just that I find you repulsive. All you other players, and GM too, what have you noted?

Germany -- England: I hope you did what I asked you, or else things will look bad.

Germany -- France: If you want war just provoke me, because I don't.

Germany -- Austria-Hungary: Sorry I couldn't support your mountain climbers to Galacia this turn.

Russia -- Ah, gee! Why does everyone pick on me! ЭsobЭ I'm beginning to feel unloved. Et tu, Muhl? Attack Germany anyway. It's always fun.

No source given -- At a recent meeting of the United Slobs, it was indicated that perhaps German leaders wanted Blue Coats on their borders. It was hoped that blood would not spill as a result of that affrontry (English blood, that is), and that peaceful withdrawal could take place immediately. If not, then perhaps the French would get mad -- then, who knows?

Propaganda --

Germany's reply to England's note to Russia -- I hope I am not quite as stupid as you make the Kaiser out to be. To turn my back on two potentially dangerous enemies like yourself and France, and to engage in a frivolous campaign in East Europe and Central Europe is completely lacking in logic.

Germany -- Turkey: I hope you're combining with Italy against A-H.

Paris -- All of France is in jubilation with regard to the spectacular bloodless annexations of Portugal, Spain, and Belgium. This was made possible by the foreign policy of Monsieur Delcassé. When asked how he had pulled it off, Delcassé replied, "France has loyal alliances with Italy, England, and Germany. But where do we go now? THE MASSES WILL SOON BE DEMANDING MORE."

Rome -- Berlin: The Italian Government would like to propose an offensive alliance against the Austrians. Best wishes are sent to the Kaiser.

Rome -- Paris: The Italian Government proclaims its neutrality in any conflict between the two Rhineland powers and would at this time like to extend its best wishes to the French Government. May there always be peace between the peoples of France and Italy.
