

DIPPY

the DIPLOMACY (the game created by Allan Calhauer but now owned & marketed by the Avalon-Hill Corp) supplement to the Sunday Western Star-Post-Free Press, Vol 10, No 17, November 28, 1982

DIPPY is published by the Great Western Publishing Co & Whalebone Corset Works, Unc, a.k.a. Jim Benes, 417 S Stough St, Hinsdale, Ill 60521. Game fee is $5 plus a continuing subscription at the rate of 3 issues per dollar...

DIPPY Game #20, the Solidarnosc, 1982AO, Fall, 1904:

Austria-Hungary (Phil Sem): A BOH-vie; a alb-TRI; A BUD sup a albetri; A SER sup a alb-tri CONTROLS: bud, tri, vie, ser --4--No change.

England (Ken Iverson): ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ A N AFR-tun; a swe-FIN; a hol-KIEL; f nth-NWY; f eng ch-NTH; f kiel-BAL; F DEN sup f kiel-bal; F HEL sup a hol-kiel CONTROLS: lvp, lon, edi, nwy, swe, den, kiel, hol --8--No change.

France (Dwayne Shreve): A BEL sup a ruhr; A RUHR sup a bur-mun; A PIC sup a bel; a bur-MUN; a mar-PIE; F MID H

CONTROLS: bre, mar, par, spa, por, x bel, mun --7--Add one unit.

Germany (Paul Stark): a mun h/DISLODGED, must retreat to sil or oth; F BER H

CONTROLS: ber --1--Minus one unit

Italy (Paul Goodrich): f ion-tun/DISLODGED, must retreat to tyrr, nap, apu, alb, g med, or oth; A TYRO-vie; F ADR sup a ven-tri; A VEN-tri CONTROLS: nap, rome, ven, tun --4--No change.

Russia (Dean Fenton): NMR(2) A MOS H; A GAL H; A UKR H

CONTROLS: mos, stp, war --3--No change.

Turkey (Russ Rusnak): A BUL sup f gre; F GRE sup f aeg-ion; f aeg-ION; A ARM sup a sev; A SEV sup f black-rum; f black-RUM

CONTROLS: ank, con, smy, bul, rum, gre, sev --7--Add one unit

Standby: Jack Frost should submit standby orders for Russia; Ronald Kelly DEADLINE for Winter 1904/Spring 1905 (you voted 2-1 to combine seasons) is mail delivery of December 15, 1982

Press:

VIENNA--An old man awoke here in the early morning, covered amidst much rubble and debris. "Oh, what's this?" he said. "Where am I? The last thing I remember, I was helping with the coconuts."

"You there!" a voice boomed. "We need more nuts; get to cracking!"

"Yes gladly kind sir," said the old man. "But first, could you please pardon one so great as I for asking what the Turkish pigs have been doing lately?"

"TURKISH PIGS!?" yelled the soldier in amazement as he put more rocks in his knap sack. "We have been fighting Italians for the last season!"

"Oh my! Oh no!" the old man said, holding his head with his hands. "Not again! I threw out all my Italian insults just last winter!"

"Do not despair," said the soldier. "There will soon, hopefully, be peace amongst our lards. We will bond to fight the common enemy!"

"Yes!" said the old man. "We will have solidarity amongst our brothers!"

DIPPY Game #21, the Bratbury, 1982CL, Fall, 1903:

Austria-hungary (Dean Fenton): NMR(2): a ser h/DISLODGED, must retreat to alb or oth; a bud h/DISLODGED, destroyed; F TRI H

CONTROLS: tri --1--must remove one unit

England (Jack Frost): f nth-NWY; F EDI-nth; F STP NC sup f nth-nwy; F NWG sup f nth-nwy

CONTROLS: lvp, lon, edi, stp, nwy --5--Add one unit

France (Russ Rusnak): F TYER sup Italian f ion; a gas-BUR; A BEL sup a gas-bur; F ENG CH sup a bel; A MUN sup a gas-bur; F MID H

CONTROLS: ~~XXXX~~ mar, bre, par, bel, por, spa, mun --7--Add one unit

Germany (Tony Auxier): F HOL-nth; A RUHR-bel; a kiel-BER; a den-KIEL

CONTROLS: ber, kiel, aen, hol --4--No change.

M O R E

DIPPY, page 2, Game 21 continued

Italy (John McArdle): a nap-~~VEN~~; F ION con a nap-ven; F ADR con a nap-ven; a tyro-VIE

CONTROLS: nap, rome, ven, tun, vie --5--Add one unit

Russia (Doug Durham): a ukr-RUM; a war-SIL; A CAL sup Turkish a rum-bud; F SEV sup a ukr-rum; F SWE sup f rwy; f rwy h/DISLOGED, must retreat to bar, skag, or oth

CONTROLS: mos, sev, war, swe, rum --5--Must remove one unit

Turkey (Hob Sergeant): a gre-SER; a rum-BUD; f eag-CRE; F E MED-ion; A BUL sup a gre-ser

CONTROLS: ank, con, smy, gre, bul, ser, bud --7--Add 2 units

Standby: John Stewart should submit standby orders for Austria-Hungary; Ronald Kelly

DEADLINE for Winter 1903/Spring 1904 combined order is mail delivery of December 15, 1982

Press:

BERLIN, ROME--Is your decision to puppet for France based on your grasp of the game, or do you have something personal against the rest of us?

DIPPY Game #22, the Levy still is in need of three players

- 1) Dave Kleiman
- 2) Fred Senn
- 3) Randall L Senn (NEED A COUNTRY PREFERENCE LIST)
- 4) John Stewart

5-7) ??? Sign up now! Game fee is $5 plus a continuing sub to this rag at the rate of $XX/XX 3 issues per dollar...

Na shledanou,

Oscar Twiddle,
Gamesmaster

92024
 ENCLINTS, Calif
 1273 Coast Dr
 Arcadia, CA
 Rod Walker

NOVAK TO STAR AGAIN

by Osgood Z Beard,
STAR Culture Guy

STAR notable Mary Novak smells the crowd and hears the roar of the greaspoint once again as her theater group puts on the famous play "Harvey" for the next two Thursdays and Fridays. That's Dec 2 and 3, 9 and 10 at the Daley Community College, 7600 S Pulaski. Curtain time is 8 p.m. and tickets cost $3 for adults and $2 for students and seniors.

"Harvey" as you may or may not know, is about a 6 foot tall, invisible Easter bunny. He's somewhat like the Emmett who haunts Hinsdale, but at least Emmett can be seen.

We're not quite sure what role Ms Novak has in "Harvey," perhaps the table role??? But STAR readers may want to attend this charitable performance. If nothing else, it will give the critics among you more grist for your poison pen mills...

TBA THANKSGIVING TURKEY AWARDS

by Bluto Myberg

The following are the winners of this year's TBA TBA awards. The trophy is an eight inch lead statue of Dave "the Turk" Eanet standing next to a North American kosher gobbler. You decide which is which.

The first award is given to Lockport's ~~xxxxx~~ illegitimate son, Jack Frost. (See "TBA" page 2)

Aunt Tilly's Bedside Companion...

QUOTABLE: Janet Sted, in the wake of last week's wine-tasting/wine education course taught by Dmiter Dmitroff: "I felt so civilized, especially after I learned to hold my glass low on the stem..."

KALDENAR: Ron Gorski holds a TBA-a-thon on Friday, Nov 26 beginning at noon and running until...???

Call Ron at 325-4512 if you get this in time and wish to attend... December 3 is the 8th birthday of Tipsword Goodpup Wiley-Benes...

KVIZ: Answer: 2 apples. Question: How many animals of each species did Moses take aboard the Ark with him?

FIVE YEARS AGO IN THE STAR:

—Although news of the event was somewhat delayed, two months to be precise, the STAR reported on the wedding of North Riverside cop Jim Jandak. Highlights included he and eight friends opening the bar at the Oak Brook Executive Golf Course at 10 a.m. on the morning of the ceremony, and getting 9 holes in before tying the knot. Afterwards, as the happy couple came down the church stairs, a fellow NR cop handcuffed them and issued Jandak a ticket for stupidity...

—Nineteen people got together for a sumptuous feast at the Parthenon Restaurant "in Chicago's fabulous Greektown." The handsome Greek waiter was noted for his ability to hold six orders on one arm while simultaneously setting them ablaze. Strangely, nobody suffered third degree burns, or at least they didn't feel it because of the Roditys or Ouzo. Anyway, a good time was had by all...

—Gary Boob ripped the local media sportscasters, characteristically not having a good thing to say about any of them...

—in sprotz, Augusta scored 158 points in beating Mohawk by 54, but still trailed the Magicians by  $\frac{1}{2}$  game in the Roundtable Conference of the TBA...

BULLETIN

It is with great sadness that we must inform you of the death Thanksgiving morning of Grandma Havlicek. She died at 6:30 a.m. at MacNeal Memorial Hospital in Berwyn following a long battle with leukemia. She was 80. Funeral arrangements are incomplete as we go to press.

Jarmila Havlicek was born in Prague, then an outpost of the Austro-Hungarian Empire in July of 1902. She emigrated with her parents to this country 2 years later, and a picture of her at that age can be found at the Wiley-Benes home.

Grandma, as she was known to just about everyone in her later years (she fit the mold well of the stereotypical sweet, jolly Grandmother) was one of a brood of children. It was she, whom the doctors said, would never live to adulthood. Grandma outlived all of her siblings as well as those doctors.

At public school in Chicago, the teachers Americanized her name, calling her "Emily," and that name too stuck with her through all her life.

Her father, Anton Podlipsky, was a journalist for the Czech language daily newspaper in Chicago, and he reportedly was a personal friend of T G Masaryk, (See "GRANDMA," page 2) the former University of Chicago professor who became the "Father of the Czechoslovak Republic" when it was founded after World War I. Pedlipsky was an educated man, and although Grandma was unable to attend school beyond the 7th grade, her father chose her as a companion when he attended the opera, which he did frequently, and his words to her, that she should never be afraid of reading anything, still are being echoed down to the current generations.

GRANDMA (continued from page one)

Jaromila Havlicek took that married name when as a young girl she married another Czech immigrant, Theodore. Together, they weathered the Great Depression, saved for and purchased a house in Cicero, and raised two children, Margaret and Theodore. Grandpa Havlicek worked as a set-up man in a door-and-window factory, and though never rich, the family did manage, and more importantly, always were close and happy. Grandpa used to take Grandma to look at the skyscrapers going up in downtown Chicago during the Daley years and proudly proclaim that his handiwork was part of the window-and-door work of those buildings.

Grandpa died in 1968, and Grandma lived on, finally succumbing this week to the leukemia she had been fighting for six years. To the last, she was a model patient, accepting her afflictions, and cheerily joking with her family, friends, and even her nurses.

The many STAR readers who knew her, we're sure, can realize the magnitude of her loss to this family. To those who really didn't know her, we can only say that had they, they would have recognized her as a truly great lady.

---

TBA (continued from page one)

Jack gets his for replaying the Alliance-Whitehorse game due to a change in foul-shooting rules. Jack lost the first game, which didn't count, by one point. He lost the replay by 26.

Our second "Turk" award goes to Bolingbrook Bluebeard owner Bill "Water Closet" Wright. He earned it by protesting the Nevada-Mohawk sweetheart trade less than one month after his sweetheart deal with Hinsdale.

Alan Peters gets "Turk" #3 for having lost more games than Hinsdale at this point.

"Turk Four" winner is Scott "Slonhilda" Slonim for thinking Ed "the Monster" Tyler was good just because he played well against the Haufnauts of Hinsdale.

Our fifth and final "Turk" goes to Gail "Lovechunk" Gorski. After all, she did marry Ron.

PETERS' GAFFE EARNS WRATH OF TBA AND
"LIFETIME" JOB FOR HIMSELF

by Rabbit Waters

DENVER, COLO., No 8--The 1982-83 TBA campaign will not be fondly remembered in Nevada. Desert Rider boss Alan Peters, blindly tapping his cane through the chamber of horrors known as a winless season, has had a trade challenged, and is now facing the ultimate embarrassment of having a rule he himself proposed, backfire.

A year ago, Peters proposed that the TBA adopt the NBA rule for foul shots, that is, no bonus shots at all. Well, various times this season, when asked, Peters has said that "one free throw for all common fouls, whether in the penalty situation or not," incorrectly, it turns out, and "two foul shots for any foul on any goal attempted from the floor."

When summoned to Commissioner Benes' office at the Brown Palace Hotel here, Peters pushed by a crowd of reporters camped outside Benes' office. The Rider owner, resplendent in Lone Ranger costume and mask and shiny riding boots, was ushered in. Minutes later, reporters heard shouts and thumpings and this kept up for some time. Then a silence followed. Peters then faced reporters, saying, "I made a mistake." As the klieg lights blinded his eyes, Peters forced himself to say "and the Commissioner, by his good graces, has appointed me Chairman of the TBA rule committee."

THE TBA TODAY

Standing of the Clubs

ROUNDTABLE	FRONTIER	SKYLINE
Mhk 3-2	Aug 5-1	Whse 7-1
Bgk 4-3	JH 5-1	Nap 5-2
Pesh 2-3	Cvl 4-2	MG 3-6
All 1-5	Nev 0-7	Hins 0-6