the Diplomacy (Allan Calhoun's game) supplement
of the Sunday Western Star-Post-Free Press,
Vol 2, No 11, August 25, 1974

Sometimes Reliable...Always Regular...a Good Laxative...

Well, for those of you who wished to meet us at CITEK 74 let us apologize. We didn't make it to the convention. Chalk that up to all the things one has to do prior to getting married. Those of you who are should know. Those that aren't will get to know. Maybe next year.

Press:

HINSDALE--One of our players asks if winter orders and ~~spring orders~~ fall orders can be combined. We frown upon this because we find that with more work to do with each issue, the more likely we are to make mistakes. However, if a majority of the players desires combined fall/winter seasons, so be it. Let us know how you feel.

Okay, folks, we have finished one game, and we're now opening another. We figure that another of our games will be ending soon, and we'll therefore achieve what we set out to do, i.e. cut the magazine down to four games total...this one probably won't get started until after that aforesaid game ends, anyway. May we present: DIPPY Game #6, the Andrea (named after Jim Bones' one true love)

- 1) Joel Klein-owes $3 on game fee
- 2) Greg Dority-owes $1 on game fee
- 3) Jerry King-owes $5 on game fee
- 4) Ron Kelly-if he chooses to take it, it's his free
- 5-7) ???

AND WE'D LIKE A COUNTRY
PREFERENCE LIST FROM YOU ALL

DIPPY game fee is $5 plus a sub x to the STAR--$1 for 7 issues for the Sunday STAR which contains DIPPY, or $1 for the weekly STAR, 9 issues, some of which contain DIPPY. For further information or to sign up, contact Jim Bones, 16W450 Honeysuckle #112, Hinsdale, Illinois 60521.

Peace,
