

JIPPI

the Diplomacy (Allan Calhauer's game) supplement of the Sunday Western Star-Post-Free press,
Vol 8, No 1, January 13, 1980

DIPPY is published by the Great Western Publishing Co & Whalebone Corset Works, Inc, a.k.a. Jim Bones, 417 S Stough St, Hinsdale, Ill 60521.
Game fee is $5 plus a continuing subscription at 5 issues per dollar.

WE MURST that you all had a joyous holiday season, and we wish all of you the best in 1980...

TODAY, January 13th, Sunday, Eric Ozog and Dwayne Shrove are holding an organizational meeting for a loosely knit Chicago area face-to-face Diplomacy organization. 11 am at Ozog's, 1526 N Lawler in Chicago.
A face-to-face game will follow. If you're interested, we hope you received this publication in time to attend...

DIPPY Game #13, the Groeno, 1978CQ, Spring, 1910!

France (Bob Sergeant): F EUG C4 sup f nth; F MTH H; a bur-MAR; a par-BUR; f war-LYO; f w mod-TUN; f tun-ION; f tus-ROE; F TYRR sup f tis-nono; f ion-NAP; a ven-tri/DISLODGED, must retreat to pic.tus, or oth

Germany (Steve McLendon): a sev-ARM; a mos-SEV; A UKR sup a rum;
A RUE sup a tri-sor; a tri-SER; a gal-BUD; A VIE sup a gal.bud;
A TUR sup French a ven-tri; a mun-BOH; a kiel-MUN; a ber-SIL;
F HEL-nth; F SKA sup f hel-nth; A NWY H

Italy (Bonnie Oaklyn): f rome sup French f ion-nap/DISLODGED, destroyed; F ADR sup a apu-ven; a apu-VEN

Russia (Roscoe Phenren): MER(1); A ANK H

Turkey (Dwayne Shreve): a bud-tri/DISLODGED, destroyed; A ALB sup a bud-tri; f aor-GRE; a con-BUL; a sor sup a bud-tri/DISLODGED, destroyed

Standby: Frost, Kelly

DEADLINE for Fall, 1910 orders is mail delivery of January 30, 1980

Press:

NAPLES--"Bernie! Bernie! Is it true what I hear?"

"What's that, Dwayne?"

"Did Jim Bones really put us into another game, you playing Austria, and me playing England?"

"Oh! Yes! He sure did! (ED NOTE: This is a total fabrication, to have no game openings at this time) What a bummer!"

"Why is that so bad; after all, we have proven that we know how to work together!"

"The real problem here is that Bones assigned Michalski, Sergeant, Frost, Boardman, and Kelly to play the other five countries!"

"Hoy, man! That's heavy!"

"Really? But it is only a disguise coverup of the real problem!"

"Which real problem?"

"The problem that Sergeant and Michalski now face, in DIPPY 13, not being able to stand up against each other--you know, being afraid that the other will take them out of the game unless each walks the chalk line!"

"Yes! But who ever saw two ostrichs square off against each other anyway?"

"Two ostrichs with their heads buried in the sand!"

"I see what you mean!"

ROE--I remember my early days, plenty of food and lots of pure air.
With all of my brothers and sisters around me, close at hand, and all of the other children playing about, things were secure.

During our pre-adolescent years, our family did a lot of travelling, but our main vehicle of travel sometimes split our family up. Today, there is only me and one brother, the others having perished from sight.

It was realtime once again, and we waited patiently for our server to arrive and grace our table with roast Cornish hen, and salted turkey, with some Russian sauce thrown in for good measure.

But our meal was never to arrive, and, in fact, we had seen our last meal already. For out of the dark corner of my eye I saw, "no! it wasn't!" Yes, it was! It is! Here comes Bob sergeant with all of his pollutant artificial cleaners to clean out his garbage can." And, I suddenly realized why we live in the excrement of our very souls. "Gee, bob!" I cried, on bended knee. "Please don't do that!" But, bob did not listen, as he never does. "Bob! You know that life as a nago is bad enough without you putting all of that crap on me! Aw! Bob! don't do" (Swish!!!)

HISDALE--Don't you just hate people who talk in exclamation points? It reminds one of a squeaky little high-pitched whiny brat, doesn't it?

CONSTANTINOPLE--The Sultan angrily denied that he was an Oaklynist front. Appropriately spitting watermelon seeds and running his fingers through his nappy hair, he yelled "To-suh!" We's dent be no niggah fo' nobody!"

TURKEY TO ITALY--Ah f'got what you wanted me to do, massah.

TURKEY TO GERMANY--I vote for a Franco-German draw and if unsuccessful, propose a nowone.

FITSDALE--Okay, how about a Franco-German draw? A unanimous vote is needed. If you're silent, then count your vote as an acquiescence. Please vote with your fall orders.

DIPPIY Game ~~XIX~~ #14, the Banks, 1978HU, Spring, 1908:

Austria-Hungary (Bob Sergeant): A HER-kiol; A PRU-bor; A BOH sup Russian a mun; a tyro-PIE; a von-TUS; a tri-VEV; A CRE H; A BUL H; ~~xxx~~ f apu-ION; f ion-TYRR

England (Jack Frost): F POR-spa sc

France (Dwayne Shrevo): F SPA SC sup English f por-mid

Germany (Richard Goldberg): f ion-EIG CH; f mwg-N ATL; f nth-HEL; F DEN sup a kiel; F BAL-bor; A RUHR sup a bur-mun; A KIEL sup a bur-mun; A BUR-mun

Italy (John C Robinson): A MAR H; f tyrr-W MED; a rwo-MAP

Russia (Ronald Kelly): F BOT sup a swe; a arm-SEV; F AEG sup Austrian f apu-ion; A SWE sup a huy; A MEN sup Austrian a bor-kiol; A NWY sup a swe; a sev-MOS

Standby: Cheek

DEADLINE for Fall, 1908 orders is mail delivery of January 30, 1980

Press:

ROME--Italian Intelligence Agents have been reading the want-ads recently and came upon this tidbit in the St. Petersburg Gazette, "Man with shoe sizes of 10 (left foot) and 11 (right foot) wishes to meet man with same size feet, but with size 10 (right foot) and 11 (left foot), with idea of trading shoes. Call Czar, anytime."

FRANCE TO ENGLAND--You see, the way I figure it is, if I can trust you on little things, maybe, just maybe, I can trust you on bigger things, especially once we are grabbing Europe.

DIPPIY Game #15, the Mikulas, 1979F, Spring, 1906:

England (Michael McGreavy): f eng ch-INTH; F ENG sup f ska-mwy; f ska-MWY; ~~xx~~ A SWE sup f ska-mwy; f bal-BOT; a pic-BUR; f w mod-TYRR; a mun-KIEL; a boh-LUN; F POR-spa sc; f gas-MID

DIPPY, Page 3, Game 15

France (Robert Check): AFR(1): A PAR H; A WAR H; F SPA SC H

Italy (Ronald Kelly): a sil-BER; a rono sup a von/DISLODGED, must retreat to tus or stb; F TUN sup English f wod-tyrr; a von sup a rono/DISLODGED, must retreat to tus, sic, tvro, or stb

Russia (Doug Casper): f nwy h/DISLODGED, must retreat to bar, stp nc, or stb; a stp-FIN; a mos-LVN; a sov-NOS; A WAR sup a gal-sil; a gal-SIL; a bud-GAL; a vic-BOH

Turkey (Mark E May): a acu-ROIE; F MAP sup a apu-rono; a tri-VEN; F ADR sup a tri-von; a alb-TRI; f con-AEG; f suy-E MID; F ION-tyrr

Standby: Oaklyn

DEADLINE for Fall, 1906 orders is mail delivery of January 30, 1980

Press:

LONDON --On receiving the news that the Polo Captain had set sail for the Mediterranean in search of the Holy Grail, the King ~~xxxxxx~~ retired to his chambers bemoaning the present state of world affairs, longing for the fellowship of his old friend the Czar. As is well known the King cancelled his winter fox hunt because of the local uproar over the killing of innocent animals. (Believed to have been instigated by an underground militant faction). That on top of the "Bannister Affair" has kept the King out of public sight recently. The King is expected to address Parliament concerning foreign policy.

LONDON (PARLIAMENT) THE KING OF ENGLAND. I know that many of you believe the Polo Captain is right about the present conflict, that it must be concluded with bloodshed. However I wish to make peace with both Russia and Turkey. Concerning Russia, we ~~xx~~ will return Swoden (we all consider that to be a rather unfortunate matter) and the present position of all Russian troops will be honored. On top of this I extend an invitation for the Czar to visit England and join me on a fishing expedition. As concerns Turkey, I also extend peace to them on the conditions that they withdraw from all occupied Italian territory, and return the Holy Grail to its rightful owner. I would like to invite the Sultan to Buckingham Palace but I am afraid that he would peen on the carpets.

ENGLISH FLINET (SO WHERE CLOSE TO THE TYRRHENIAN SEA)--Lord Wellington standing upon the deck of his old yacht (his new one which is en route is reported to have a regulation polo field on the fore deck) commented on the Kings address to Parliament. "Bullshit! The Czar of Russia is a pussy, and the only way to handle a Turk is to beat him. I will recover the Holy Grail at any cost and take it with no back to England until the rightful owner can be found." When asked what the foam was that surrounded his mouth the Polo Captain replied, "It is merely the spray of the ocean."

DIPPY Game #16, the Throe Mile Island, 1979AS, Winter, 1904:
(Not every country submitted Spring orders):

Austria-Hungary (Ron Gorski): no change. Has A GAL, A BUD, A BOH

England (Mark E May): no change. Has F MID, F IRI, F ITN, F BEL, A HOL, F KIEL

France (Robert Check): no change. Has F N ATL, A RUHR, A PIC, A PAR, A GAS

Italy (Dwayne Shrove): no change. Has F N AFR, F W IED, A RUM, A TBO, A VEN, F TRI

Russia (Jack Frost): a sov retreats stb... Builds A STP. Also has A NWY, F DEW, A SIL, A BER, A UKR, A WAR

Turkey (Darryl McIver): Builds A COU, F SKY. Also has A SEV, F ELA, A ARM, A PUL, F ION

Standby: Oaklyn

DEADLINE for Spring, 1905 is mail delivery of January 30, 1980

Press: submitted w/upcoming spring season.

G'bye, d1--OT

Jerry Jones
1854 Wagner St.
Pasadena, Calif
91107

PETERS MOVING OUT OF Y

SORTY CICERO PROMOTIONS announces that the time has come for STAR readers to once again lay the groundwork for a sumptuous and exotic feast.

We would like to hear from you, dear readers. What sort of cuisine shall we try this time? French Italian? Greek? How about Chinese? What are you yourself willing to cook? Is there someone out there who would like to plan the menu this time? And when shall we have this extravaganza? We're talking about April, probably, so what weekends are best for you? Would anyone else out there like to host the affair this time? Please, please, please send your comments and suggestions to the STAR so we can get the ball rolling. Thank you.

ALSO, FRED PARTIDO would like the STAR to stage an Old Prague trip on some Friday evening. This would take place sooner than the above feast. Who would like to go to this fine old Bohemian Restaurant in Cicero? Please stand up and be counted!

OVER, UNDER, AND IN BETWEEN, OR LIFE'S RICH, WONDERFUL PAGEANT

MUNCH, MUNCH, MUNCH: went Eduardo Medilsky as he bit off his wife's nose. The police threw him in the slammer. The next thing ~~x~~ they heard, Munch, Munch, Munch. Eduardo Medilsky had bitten off four of his fingertips.

THE PANTY VAN STRIKES AGAIN: Police in Redding, California continue their search for the "Panty Arsonist." This guy gets his jollies by breaking into a home, using a woman's panties for kindling, and sets the place up in flame. Ten homes so far.

OH, MY ACHING FEET: screamed Larry Csonka after scoring 3 touchdowns in one game. The reason his feet hurt? Somebody stepped on his toe and he was developing a blood blister beneath the nail. How to fix it? Easy. The Csonk took an electric drill to it! Argh!

If You Didn't Read it Here,
It Didn't Happen...
GUITARIST GROTS: "In 'Frisco
it's easy for a guy like me"
--Rich King...

DATEBOOK: January 13-19 is Clutch a Friend's Lapels Week, highlighted by Bill Brandt's wedding (19th)...
FIVE YEARS AGO IN THE STAR for the current week was inadvertently highlighted in last week's edition of the STAR. Through some incomprehensible faux pas, we neglected to notice last week that the first edition of 1975 was for the weekend of January 11-12 of that year...

WAS HE KICKED OUT?
RESIDENTS ASK

By Bradford T Condonium, STAR Real Estate Editor

CHICAGO, Jan 8-

-In a move that's sure to send north side property values plummeting, Alan Peters announced today that he's taking an apartment within 10 minutes' walk of beautiful Wrigley Field.

The Wrigley Corporation immediately announced its intention to file suit.

"We have striven since the 1920s to provide residents of this neighborhood with a class sports franchise," declared Thaddeus Guley, a spokesman for the chewing gum empire. "Now this fly-by-night dog-and-pony show (Peters' TBA basketball franchise) threatens to come in and ruin the neighborhood. It's tragic!"

Meanwhile, Peters, nonplussed, continued Tuesday to make plans for the move, scheduled for Friday, Jan 11th.

Although Peters was unavailable for comment, speculation continued that the move may be forced (evicted from the Y?) or that Peters may be laying the groundwork for yet another move by his TBA franchise, complete with gambling casino, to Chicago's north side.

WISCONSIN'S PICKS OF THE RESTAURANTS

By / Penn Jane

BALTIMORE fans, here we are agin, picking up where we left off some issues ago. We rated restaurants in both the TBA's Skyline and Frontier Conferences. Now, let's turn our attention to some in the Valley and Roundtable.

XI Salom--The Loggers' Delight--Sue Fines fries some plate of potatoes! Downstate ham and new beans garnish typical midwest dish.

Hattiesburg--The Cross, Sheet, and Hope--This redneck haven has a menu filled with odd fare, among them the Lynchburger, which is a hot item here. Besting all alcoholic beverages is the Midnight Ride, a concoction distilled from pure ethyl. Rich Nylak has asked other TBA teams visiting his fair burg to boycott this establishment.

Lahaina--The Downwind--Gary Frezck's most talked-about restarurant. This lovely island restaurant has all manner of sea fare, including the Whaler's Platter, a dish which can barely hold the generous portions of cod, tuna and seaweed supreme. Frezck's The Winning Steak is a wine that's catching on out there.

Hawk--The Baby Boo has closed down ~~permanently~~ pending relocation elsewhere. Charleyne McArdle's special Indiana platter will set you right.

Bolingbrook--The Next--This quaint little out-of-the-way eatery features popcorn, cola and other light fare. The madam's donuts, says Commissioner Bones, are heavenly. The chili is divine!

Pooria--The Express Platter is a huge piece of ground burger featuring Kathy's special sauce. Dave Hwing is the janitor, regales young folks about his exploits as a TBA center.

Augusta--Doug and Gail Durham's little place is doing a booming business in chicken. The Rooster's Cluck is the place to be here. Only drawback is that it gets windy ther , and we're not talkin' bout the woather. Proprietor doesn't let you got a word in edgewise, but he allows you to ogle his wife.

While on the subject of restaurants, we'd wholeheartedly recommend GIANNOTTI'S in Forest Park. This is a fine Italian restarurant with a large menu and an exquisite dining room. We very much enjoyed the Veal Piccante during our visit, but it was only one course of several delicious dishes. We'd rate it ~~**~~.

We got LETTERS (this is an old one that we're just getting around to printing)

Dear (Who? If I can't ask Hal)--

Why do fools want all of the Nuclear plants closed immediately? Don't they realize that a great deal of electrical power originates from these plants, and that many people are kept warm, happy, and in continual suspense because of the presence of those plants. Of course Americans, especially those threatened pregnant women, could start lighting farts to keep warm, this is a ~~xxx~~ natural never-ending supply of fuel. But then again, what are the dangers to our air if an unburned leak occurs? Millions of people could die from toxic gassing, much like in W.I.

--J J Burp, president American Bean Association

ED--You, sir, obviously are a bibulous, pseudopigraphous, anruino.

SPORTSFEATURE: A CHANGE COMES OVER AUGUSTA; END WITH TO BEST SEASON EVER

By Baltoe Arona, sportswriter olchopotentiary of the STAR

Three years ago Georgia Eggroll magnate J D Durham purchased in mid-season a TBA franchise known as the Pennsylvania Liberties. He watched it struggle to a 3-13 finish after head coach Ted Schwarzkopf was given (See "AUGUSTA," Page 3)

WESTERN STAR-POST-JOURNAL STAFF
Vol 10, No 2, Page 3, Soratz

ACC STA (continued from page 2)
his walking papers. An unknown coach from Anunoch College, Dicky Clark, replaced Rod and was cast, a babe amongst the wolves, into the turbulent world of professional basketball.

Durham, infatuated with his new toy, decided that he wanted easier access to it and started searching his home state for a new site, ostensibly because Reading, Pa., could not provide sufficient gate receipts to keep the team there. Soon, gentle Augusta, previously known in the sports world only as host city to the PGA Masters Tournament, became the franchise's home. In a fit of self-congratulatory smugness, Durham christened the team "the Winds."

Their first season Clark steered them to an 8-10 finish, generating local interest sufficient to pay the bills, but not quite enough to overcome the conservative city's disdain for such an "ungentlemanly sport."

After launching the team to a 4-0 start last season, Dicky assumed the role of General Manager; Durham's interest having waned enough to warrant such a position. The Winds pushed their record to 6-2 before going on a disastrous 8 game losing streak. They ~~xxxxxx~~ skidded to another 8-10 finish as fans and players alike began to lose interest; 5 Winds retired for various reasons.

Then Clark announced that Augusta had procured the services of one Clyde C Metzley, a TBA legend as pilot of the Waperville Suns. The two of them conspired on so many player trades that local sports-writers, appalled at the wholesale buying and trading of flesh, began referring to RTM Stadium as "The Plantation." Undaunted, Clark continues to trade ~~xx~~ at the "crafty old codger's" direction; he closed two deals Christmas Eve which, ironically, include Hobart Pelhank, the rookie player-coach who replaced Metzley at Waperville.

This latest version of the Winds promptly stormed into Lahaina and blew the Whalers off course 101-79.

They returned home to rudely treat the fledgling Salem Loggers to a 121-76 shellacking, during which the entire bunch played. Seven of the 11 finds were in double figures and three others had 8 apiece. Augusta scarfed up 61 rebounds to Salem's 27. With that effort, however, the Winds' fury seemed spent. When the struggling Whitehorse 98ers arrived to pit their 2-8 record against the Winds' 7-2, they found the Augusta club becalmed. Metzley's charges held a 1 point halftime advantage, and then rode the strength of a 10 point 4th quarter to an 89-83 defeat.

XXX Hardly anyone seems to have noticed, however. Fan enthusiasm remains high. Bolingbrook's Jan 19 arrival is already sold out. Metzley remains unperturbed by the loss and says he'll gladly take two out of 3 for the rest of the season. Rowdy rednecks pack the Plantation and sit in bars speculating on the playoffs. The front office predicts a record gate this season. Suddenly, once-sedate Augusta has become Basketball City, USA.

THE TBA TODAY:

Standing of the Clubs

Team	W	L	Team	W	L
ROUNDTABLE			VALLEY
Bolingbrook	6	1	Lahaina	6	4
Augusta	7	3	Hattiesburg	6	4
Peoria	4	6	Macomb	3	5
Mohawk	1	7	Salem	2	8
SKYLITE			FRO TIER
Roswell	9	1	Nevada	11	0
Waperville	6	6	Jackson Hole	6	5
Hinsdale	3	4	Adak	1	6
Whitehorse	3	9	Lincoln Pk	1	6

RESULTS:

Hattiesburg 112 Peoria 90

Augusta 121 Salem 76

Nevada 106 Salem 89

TWS WEEK: High Scorer: Hattiesburg's Jim Rosinski with 30; Best Boarder: Rosinski, and Peoria's Garland Holmes with 14 apiece; Most Assists: 9 for Salem's Chester Smith vs Augusta, and for Nevada's MilesAhead vs Salem; 3 Pointers: Hattiesburg's Murray Tallchief got a pair; Most Controversial Performance: Rosinski, whose rough style of play resulted in an injury to the opposing center, the 4th time that's happened this season.