OLSEN to GM: What do you mean, my German spelling is bad? How about this: "Ach!"
Sounds right to me! All right, I shall attempt to seek a "final solution" to the question of how to spell Führer.

WICHITA to WRETCHEDVILLE: So what does your calendar say? And, when did it learn to talk? ((Regrets again, I fear. Perhaps next year in Jerusalem?))

ENGLAND to ITALY: Think of it as my way of keeping Turkey out of your dot.

EDINBURGH: The Admiralty offices flew the Union Jack at half-mast upon receipt of the startling news that Lord Hume, MP was on his way to Germany. ((The old dotard never seems to learn...))

LIVERPOOL: Crowds of shipwrights cheered as Lord Hume boarded a packet enroute to the fleet in the English Channel. His Lordship seemed in good spirits, possibly gin.

Dear Rod, Thank for sending some ^(needed) standbys my way. I'm winding down now on the zine, but have also resigned from my current games. Time requirements job plus some outside business interests have precluded more Dip for some time to come.
The last six yrs. have been fun, but it's about time to move on... Best, Dave Marshall

Yes, Dan Palter is back. Apparently the P.O. zapped him last time. AUTUMN & WINTER 1906 and SPRING 1907 orders are due by D/L on page 1. PRESS follows:

MOSCOW to VIENNA: "If you prick us, do we not bleed; if you tickle us, do we not laugh; if you poison us, do we not die; if you wrong us, shall we not revenge?"

MOSCOW to WHAT'S LEFT OF EUROPE: Merry Christmas everybody! (What with the current erratic schedule of Down n' Dirty, I figured the next issue would be mailed sometime around the holidays. Just kidding, Dave. Dave! Put down the gun Dave! AAAGGGGHHHHHHHHH!) ((Harumph. There are no holidays in August, Borschtbreath. So there. Nyaa! Anyway, guns are too tacky a form of retaliation; I've had High-field collate your zine copy instead. Now it's riddled with AIDS. Enjoy!))

FRANCE to RUSSIA & AUSTRIA: OK.

FRANCE to ENGLAND: Do you want the press war that goes with an attack on the Toadfather?

FRANCE to GM: I've been in or am in 82 CA, CH, CP, CV. ((I understand, Terry. Some days I feel like that myself.))

Tal Seaman had notified me in advance that he might miss this time due to sea duty, so no standby will be called. Please submit your WINTER 1904 and SPRING 1905 moves by D/L shown on page 1. PRESS follows:

AUSTRIA: Anyone want to talk??? It may surprise you, but I don't have your addresses. Except you, Russia, I have your number.

AUSTRIA to TURKEY: I don't know what Russia is promising in return for you becoming his lap dog - but, I'll see that you don't get one damn piece of Austria-Hungary. I'd let the Russian and the Germans fight over it before you get it. So change sides now.

GERMANY: Not even enough time to be rude this time.

FRANCE to GERMANY: Thanks for the compliment, but you're mistaken. I probably just got sucked into something I should have stayed out of. That still qualifies me to be the next Jim Wall, though, doesn't it?

FRANCE to ENGLAND: Me and Highfield were really whipping up on Germany. Want to keep the momentum going?
