By recent standards this is a rather small issue of EFGIART. However, some oldtimer readers (Sergeant, Baumeister, etc) can probably remember back to when EFGIART really was a one-page zine. So don't complain about the small size of this issue. Remember this isn't VOD.

Writing of VOD, if you saw the last issue you probably learned the true identity of Judy Winsome. She is Jerry Lucas of Redwood City (just north of Menlo Park). Brenton Ver Floeg and I discovered that Judy was Jerry last fall after we visited her Mountain View mail drop. I hope to have more on the Winsome story next issue.

Have you sent your North American Zine and GM Poll ballots to Randolph Smyth yet? If not, do it now! The deadline is 4 July 1983. Send your ballots to Randolph Smyth, 212 Aberdeen St SE, Medicine Hat, Alberta, CANADA T1A 0R1. Remember: it is important for me and other gms and publishers to get feedback on what you think of our efforts. Help us out. Thanks.

On the subject of exercise I competed in my first triathlon a few weeks back. The triathlon included relay teams and I put together one with me doing the bicycling leg (7.4 miles) and friends doing the running (4.0 miles) and swimming (0.75 mile). We finished fifth overall and first in our category. It was a lot of fun and it was nice to compete against some novice racers instead of the usual semi-pros and pros who I have to race against every weekend.
