Volume 1. Number 7 MINITA GILDE HIJE is a newsletter of postal Diplomacy news. August 28, 1977FGB games and reviews. This issue is dedicated to Robert Bryan Lipton. who contrary to popular opinion (mine) is neither vain nor ignorant, I came to this conclusion after getting a good chance to talk to him at Diccon. EIECTHA GUIDE HUE is published by BLECTHA INTERNATIONAL and edited by Cal White I Tumberry Ave Toronto, Ontario MSN 1P6 Phone 416 654 3072 (after 6:PM anyder) Subscriptions to BUB are 8/42 Northin and 6/42 overseas. Canadian who writes he a chaque must add the huge sum of 50¢ to cover CIEC rip off sharges. Money orders are exempt as is cash and are thus preferred but cash by mail is not recommended. Samules of BIB are available to request but 25¢ would be appreciated, Use coins and not stamps because I use a postage meter to speed up the mail: (But | Pat Chance) Back issues are not generally available but if you sleet an Lague off year sub I will try to get you one. Care Communes i Recular Diplomacy open to anabody who wants in Signed up are Mike Diminsky, and Ron Milleen. My third novice game has Philip Jurgens, Steve Karlovics and Oreg Jensen signed up, 4 needed, Mestermind has Randolph Smyth and Julian Presber signed up so far. One or two more and I'll start. Campfee for lastermind is one issue off your sab or 254. Camefee for Diplomacy is $2 plus $3 refundable deposit plus maintainance of a sub or trade in good standing. NIB is published with swesome regularity every two weeks without fail stell mis e Cual Gene deadlines fall on Fridays and the zine is mailed out Sunday night. If you haven't received your issue within 10 days, false hell. I will trade Hill for just about any Diplomacy related sine. If its not worth one of our whiles to trade due to quality or publing frequency or whatever we'll try a reciprocating sub. Anybody who receives RIB is encouraged to write articles for me. Resor is preferred but all is paid for at the rate of 90¢ per full page. This is also the rate for illos but since I can reproduce any pix I and (wildin reason) you better be good. If you do send something then black an white is preferred. (preferredly pencil) I haven't received any submissions for the Draw Brokets contest yet. Burry up! I still 19. 李红子松红色 AN INSTA reserve the right to dealars No winner, All material in WH is written by Cal White unless otherwise specified and is converget by Min under Catadian Law. If you wish to repreduce the state pages you must doubt the authors permission and you must send him and/or me a copy of the publication it appears in. I am the Canadian Regional Coordinator for the International Diplomacy Association and wadly support that organization when it works. You can join that organization by sending $2 ($1 if you're running an orphan game) to: Isn Lakofic 644 M Briar Pl Chipago Il 60657 All games in RMS are insured by the Capadian Diplomany Organization For more information write Doug Romson Sol Ingersoll Ct Mississauga, Ontario L50 261 or John Leeder 1211 58t M Calgary, Alta T2M 3B6 BUB will shortly become an affiliate of the National Games Club of Britain, I will be running postal Emstermind open to NGC members only (That doesn't apply to the one currently filling) No Diplomacy will be available. For that go to Fol Si Fie a/o Randolph Smyth 249 First Av Ottama, Ontario Kis 205 For more into on the MC in general write the Camadian Director Ralph Forton 173 Irsing Av Ottawa, Ontario KIY 125 these colphons are getting progressively aborter. Aren't you glad?

ELECTRA GLIDE BLUE #7. Volume 1. August 28, 1977. Page 62.

Rumour Has It....

- 1. This whole ish will be typed on this typer. The letter "a" on my other electric gave out, get this, while I was at DipCon and with nobody in the house. As I am starting this on the Friday before the ish is due, I won't have time to get the other one fixed. Not too much problem really since this is the superior machine, but it only uses carbon ribbons and I feel so guilty about using them on a ditto master. Conrad knows...
- 2. And now the one you've all been waiting for ...

MY DIP TO TRIPCON (you know what I mean...)

There I was, all set for the hig trip to lake Geneva. Gonna stay at the Playboy Club, yessir, gonna really have fun, maybe even get ignorant, as Doug McLauchlan says. Had no trouble getting a large bundle of that monotoget American "funny munny". Had it all set up with George Parkanyi to drive down. Things had seemed even better when Hymas decided not to go. Yessir, great trip.

Of course, George couldn't go. Phones my place, I'm not home, leaves message. I get shock of my life (well...) when I see note on telephone table. "That da hell is this" I asks my ol'lady. "Oh," she says, George phones you. He can't make it to the Con." "Thy that... Thy not??" "He's moving out of his parents place in the Fall and getting his own place, so he has to save his money." That was the final straw! I hate people who have perfect excuses and I can't even get mad at them without feeling guilty. Sigh. [George, you do realize I'm kidding. I know that most things have to come first before Diplomacy. No hard feelings, ok, clown?]

The trip down.

I made arrangements via Grey Coach Bus Lines for a ticket down to Indianapolis via Detroit. The nice type lady on the phone said that I would leave 6:30PM Tuesday night, getting into Detroit about midnight. I would then catch a Grey Hound bus to Indy half an hour later. I phoned Walt Buchanon's place and had a long talk with Carol where I discovered that Walt was coming into Indy Mednesday morning to pick up Rod Walker and Conrad von Metzke so why didn't he pick me up? I had originally figured on walking or hitching into Lebanon but this was a welcome change in plans. Things are working out great I'm thinking.

Comes the big day, two hours before I'm to leave for the bus station. My brand spanking new back pack is all leaded with such essentials to the bus station. My brand spanking new back pack is all leaded with such essentials to the bus station. Industry the bus times wouldn't hurt. Prong. Stupid bitch on the phone says that the bus gets into Detroit at 12:30 making a transfer to an Indy bound bus touch and go at best. Pissed off I figure that if it's the only chance take it. I leave. The bitch was wrong. I had no trouble.

The actual bus ride would have been rather boring except for Cathy, but this is a family zine so I'll not get into that.

I got into Indy at about 6:00AM; I waited until 7:00 to phone Walt (as per instructions) Everything's fine; he'll be in at ca 9:00AM. What do I do for two hours. I commence my assault on the much vaunted American pinball machines. It cost me exactly 25¢ and two hours later I sold seven games for 50¢. So much for pinball.
I saw Walt coming down the corridor and went to hail him. Who's that little kid with him? Walt introduces him as Billy. Billy who? I think. It didn't hit me until a few minutes later. Prince William! We go to Walt's bus and he opens it. At first I thought we had gotten into the wrong bus. This must be the Indy Pacers basketball team. But no, it's only Conrad, all 6'7 shoe size 17 of him. Warm handshake; three broken bones in hand and strained wrist. Turn around, who's this hippy? He's introduced as Rod Malker. Beard, sunglasses, couldn't find any love beads though. Both turned out to fabulous people as you will see...

ŕ

Had great drive back to Lebanon, getting to know each other, talking about various projects that LVA has going, Costaguana [One of the better zines around] and various things that are of absolutely no interest to anybody except us which is why you're not hearing it. snick. Driving along I-65 Malt pointed out some of the more interesting things that the NY Conspiracy did trying to find Malt's house before Citex 75. double snick. We turned onto Hazelrigg road and pulled off into a nice secluded driveway and got out (or rather my, Conrad and Rod having been there before, I think) first look at the famed house by the lake/pond. Going inside I met Malt's wife Carol Ann (pretty Lady) and John Douglas, second heir apparent. If I haven't before I want to thank Walt and Carol for their tremendous example of Mid Mestern hospitality. If you're ever up here I only hope I can do the same for you.

Nost of my stay at Malt's house was mostly shouting the breeze and en joying the company of all the fine people. Malt. Rod and Comrad had a long conversation with Nicky Ulanov on the phone. I didn't know with so I just laughed at the hamour which became apparent.

Then came the moment. We were escourted down a long winding stairway. We then entered a large room where we stripped, showered and were given lab coats to put on. Escourted by 8' tall guards all with two Doberman's on a lead we took the elevator down 200' more (By the way, please note that I have left out all mention of the machine gun emplacements and minefields because I have been sword to secrecy. Security, you know.)

After the 15' thick solid titanium door was hydraulically opened we came to a door marked with one word- "Archives". This is where we spent the rest of our visit to Malt's place.

(Security, you know).

The next day we arose bright and early having spent the night at Mait's parents place which was about 100 metres away. Mait, Rod, Conrad and I all piled into the VM Bus and we were on our way. We wasted about 30 minutes by going to a Maffie House instead of a MacDonalds, but the "hearty Hoosier breakfa at was worth it. (I promised I'd refer to the "HHB") the stopped at O'Hare Airport in Chi town to pick up Jeff Key who had flown in from I don't where. Mait went to look for Jeff while we stayed in the car. Rod got bored and went to look for him also. Jeff and Walt then return. Conrad goes to look for Rod who returns causing Walt to go look for Conrad. Conrad returns and says he'll look for Walt. We do not permit this of course. Then Conrad says "Look, I've got to mail a letter, I'll go to the mailbox and then come right back." Okay, "we say. Eventually they all got back and we were off. After about two hours and a half dozen missed turn off which I won't tell you about because I don't want to remember we were there.

The lake Geneva Playboy Resort has to be experienced to be appreciated. I shall try to describe it, however. The actual building is one long, huge dungeon. This is not deregatory, but with it's aloping passages, stairs, corridors and the like, well I heard fifteen different people comment separately that it would make a perfect place for live D&D The building is three floors and is about I kilometer long. It's only about fifty metres wide so it resembles a snake when about two miles from lake Geneva. You don't care about the distance from the lake because besides the two submaing pools (one inside, one sutside) there is a private, man made lake just in back of the building. All around the grounds is an eighteen hole golf course which unfortunately, I never got totry. There are termis courts (hig deal) backetball courts (yeah!) skeet shooting facilities, mini golf, rent a bike place, rent a peddle boat place (for can land on the island in the middle of the samples lake, althought the sole structure is an outhouse). The most impressive feature, to me, appear, is the private airfield and the fleet of about a dozen small planes which you can charter for a short spin or to some nearby city.

The main building itself has a lot as well. There are four restaurants. One is a buffet that was too damn fancy for me to try. Another is a discotherms which I am still kicking myself for missing. By the time I got around to deciding that I was going to go, they closed it for that night. They have another restaurant which is set up like a sidewalk case, with tables, potted trees and of course burnies for waitresses. This place served the most absolutely fantastic hamburgers that I have ever tasted. Half a pound of lean ground beef perfectly charcoaled broiled. Unum! The other restaurant I didn't get a chance to go to until Monday night. It was a regular night club with excellent live entertainment.

ELECTRA CHIDE BLUE #7, Volume 1. August 28, 1977. Page 64

Even with these excellent gournet delights there for the asking (?) I'd say that I spent nost of my non-Con time in the flay orm. This is quite simply a pinball arcade. I have been playing pinball for 15 years (I'm 19 now) and I can never resist a pinball joint. I must have spent more time in the Play Room than I did sleeping. (At least one entire night was spent in there) One thing that bothered me though was that you could not win free games. Caining a certain score gave you an extra ball but that's not much. I mentioned that to somebody (Bab Hartwig, maybe?) and he didn't seem surprised. Up here in Toronto (and even in Indy, now that I thin' of it) you can win free games. Cheap.

Con

Of the actual convention I can't really say too much. I was much too busy enjoying the club. (The first day Bob Hartwig and I went up for our first airplane rides. We'd both been in large jumbo planes and I'd been in a helichopper but neither of us had been in the small Cessna type jobs. I enjoyed the ride but Bob fell in love with it. Half an hour later he was talking about getting his pilots license.) I had been undecided as to whether I was going to play in the Dip tourney or not and as it was I just delayed the decision until it was too late and I had slept in. Anyway I enjoyed the leisure of being able to drift around and talk to people I'd just met.

Back to as much chronology as I can remember having forgotten to take notes (egain)

We arrive: at the Resort about 1:00PM and I had to start looking for Bob Hartwig. The room was listed in his name and he had my Con Mame Tag which was my pass to get in. I had instructions to look for a tall guy wearing a Stetson. I had visions of missing him in the crowd and having to re-register for the Con and get my own room, etd. I went with Walt to the front desk where I was going to ask if anybody named Hartwig had claimed a room. Coincidentally enough he has pened to be standing at the front desk so I had no trouble there. After we became acquanted I was introduced to my roommates. One Mr. Devid Bunke, esteemed publisher of the Math Circle and the Introduced to me as anything but Wayne. I only have a vague idea of his last name from glimpses at his name tag.) Both turned out to be pretty decent guys and they turn out a fine magazine. Write for a sample D Bünke 5512 Julmar Dr., Cincinnati, OH 45238. The fifth member of our quad (I know, but it's fun to beat the Establishment) was likel John Baker, erstwhile IDANA Ombudskan who was not getting in until that evening.

The first day was spent mostly getting to know each other and the club. I don't think I met anybody else the first day. Maybe nobody else planned to get in until Friday.

The second day was much better in terms of meeting people. I was walking down the hall with Wayne on the way back to the room and I saw this bunch of people obviously deranged gimping down the hall. There was this somewhat miniscule (sorry about that) person in front who looked amazingly like a teddy bear. I seemed to remember the face from a picture in one of Walt's albums. There was also this hulking figure who I seemed to remember from last years convention. I walked past them probably looking uzzled. Then it hit me: Teddy bear/Rosenberg; the Hulk/Tihor. Egads. I turned around and say, "Are you guys from New York. They all immediately ducked into doorways and pulled out knives. "What's it to ya?" the one with the beard and the cruzed look in his eye said.

I introduced myself to them and and a general conversation ensued with the usual meaningless rhetoric. The have you seen. Did you have much trouble retting here. (That a story in itself. The Conspiracy was supposed to meet us at Malt's place the night before. They were to return to the scene of so much confusion two years before and in the dark ever. Anyway, semewhere M Pennsylvania their car broke down causing them so much delay that they couldn't make it to Malt's. They did make it to the Con after resting a car.) Let me try to remember the names now (I'm great at faces but names...) There was Scott Rosenberg, Dan Groseman, like Rosemera, Greg Gostikyan, "teven Tihor, and Tom Gould (the afore mentioned crused beared one.)

We were talking about the uncoming open season on Laborkolds with water pistols and it was decided that we needed to know Lek's room number. Greg picks up the phone (we were in their room by this time.) and disks the front deak. (In a drunk voice) Rurro? Thish ish Lennie Lakobfka. Cou' you place tell Me my room number? Thangyou." To us "2110"

The next day the Con really started

The next day the Con really started because of the Diplomacy Hospitality meeting. That the hell that was supposed to mean nobody knew. We need it mostly as a place to meet everybody who had done and to check out the trophies. (By the way, before the tourney had been completed the trophies for Best Germany and Best Russia had been stolen. There is no need for me to try and convey my contempt for the person(s) who did this. If you see these trophies in the house of samebody you know kindly strangle him, please) This day Im met Doug Beyerlein and had a long talk with him, ctually I had not him the year before but we had not really talked to each other. This was also the case with Len and Bob Lipton and a ccuple of others.

The general resting

I had not had supper before the general meeting and I guess this was the case with a lot of people because Bin Grossman and I were delegated to go into town to pick up some stuff Not that there was anything wrong with the food at the Club but rather that Ion has a thing about Kentucky Fried Chicket. (There was a notion before Council to impeach Len because of the way he cate chicken.) We got back about half an hour later and the meeting had more or less begun. I had wanted to tape the meeting but my room was at the far of the blub and I didn't want begun anything. About belt way through I did go and get it, at the firging of Dave Madresak, will I have about half of the meeting on tape. The whole thing was so completely boring that about half way through Bob Hartwig got up ... site selection Doug Beyerlein and Control von 'etake for GLASC in Los Angeles. Len also made a half hearted effort for GenCon next year but as he wanted it at GLASC he wasn't intending to be too impressive. It was decided that it would be at Greater les Angeles Simulations Convention (GIASC) by a score of 14-6. It was generally felt that the Michicon bid was better, but since it hadn't been out on the West Coast for a dog's age MichiCon lost. Paul Wood was very graceful in effect and we asked him to try and get a rep out to GIASC for the 79 bid. He said held try and Conrad offered to be the Rep if needed. Once everybody became bored with proposals of different methods the conversation went like this: "Notion to adjourn. Is there anyone opposed. I second it. Meeting adjourned." CPEN FIRE! Get Lakofka! After this I went out the door along with about five others. We chased Len through about half the building, knocking people ever before we finally ren out of water. During this time Robert Bryan Lipton had had a showdown with Walt Buchanen. It should have been rether one sided as Bob's equirt gen didn't work but Walt had decided to wait for Bob to fire. Mexican standoff. Greg tried to intervene by telling l'alt that Howard had killed him with his sword. (All this is on tape so I know)

HIECTRA CLIDE BLUE #7, Volume 1. August 28, 1977, Page 66

On the final day of the Con

On the final day of the Con the second round of the tourney was played. I don't exactly have the final results but I do know that Mike Rocamora won the whole thing capturing two "Best Country" trophies in the process. He's lucky I didn't play...

I did not really have my plans for returning to Toronto finalized even right up to the final day. I hadmade a tentative arrangement with Konrad Baumeister to drive to Milwaukee where I was going to come home through Sault Ste Harie stopping in at my parents cottage in Muskoka. I changed that when John Beker and I decided to stay an extra night after which we would impose on Walt once more. After that John would drive me to Indy where I would bus home. This is what I eventually did.

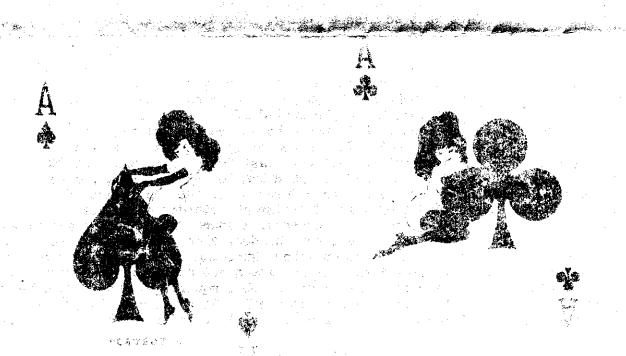

Last night

After John and I said goodbye to everybody. (I never did get to say goodbye to Bob, Dave and Wayne. Sorry about that guys) we settled down to enjoying the club. That night we checked out the night club and had a hell of a time. I got quite enjoyably drunk on a bunch of Vodka & Orange juices (Wilk of Kings) (Tsars?) We were about to now in on two nice young nymphs having valued for them to finish their supper so they would have no objections to dancing when a third quite abominable bag moved in. Plan ruined. Sigh. ((Jimmy)-Ich- der olt bag! Si?))

The next morning we enjoyed a room serviced breakfast which cost a ridiculous amount for what it was worth (and I never did get my gracefruit)

A night in the Archives - almost

We left next morning and I got to Indy about 12:30, played pinball until 2:15 and left for homeon the bus. Had a nice ride and took transit homeo. See you nextyear in LA!

ELECTRA GLIDE BLUE #7, Volume 1. August 28, 1977. Page 67

What? This issue has games in it? Harm?

1975CF Fall 1909 GERMANS DRAW BACK INTO TIGHT DEFENSIVE SHELL! TURKS BUILD!

Austria (Bill Pike) f con-ank; f smy-con; a rum h, s by a ser; a buri-gal; a tyo h, s by a's vie & ven; a rom-nap

England (Dieter Loerick) a ruh-bur I eng-bel; f kie-ber; f hol-kie; a bre-per, s by a gas; f lyo-mar; f ska-swe, s by f den; f bar-my; f lon-tun;

Germany (Mike Davison) f bal-ber; a bur-ruh, s by a mam; a pie-tyo; s by a boh; f swe-may, s by a stp; a gal-bud; a ukin-rum, s by a sev;

Turkey (Walter Blank) a bur-con; f gre-bulsc

*English a ruh is annihilated. Deadline is September 23, 1977. linter only, I think, sh?

Supply Centres after 1909

A: (10) home, ser, rum, ven, nap, rom, smy, bill, ank. Build one.

B: (14) home; bre, par, mar, por, spa, tun, bel, hol, den, swe, kie. Build four. (3)

G: (4) rum, ber, stp, war, mes, sev, may, par, sys, kie. Remove three.

T: (3) eon, gre, spk, std. Build one.

England will obviously be one short for the next year. And we have a wee spot of press:

Constantinople: I find it hard to believe that Germany has never written me! I should pay 134 to help you!? The same of the same

Toura thavenotic put hat thave switched tipers again ican't use the thesa thorkanticrep crawhil panymat

1976A Winter 1908/Spring 1909

England built flon france built a mar, f bes

Italy retreated f gre oth and removed f apu. The spills a con-

terms one of against (to trans) sections

England (Acheson) a stp h; f may s a stp; f was mid f lon-eng; a kie-hel, s by f hel & f nth; f bal-ber;

Prence (Norm Weinstock) a hol-class a by a ber; [bel-eng; [bre-mid; f spass-wes, by f lyo; a mar tie, a by a tro; a num a a tye;

Italy (Randolph Smyth) a ven-tyo, a by a till a tue-pie; f tyn-tus; f lon-tyn; a by f tun;

Turkey (Walter Hlank) a con-sev, c by f blo; a pos-war; a gal-boh; a bud-gal; a bul-run; f deg-gre; f cas-seg; a lyn-pru;

* Biglish ! West-mar, oth:  French a hol-ruh, otb.

I did not get anything from Jan Jensen for this season. This is precably my fault as I don't believe I noted his takeover on his issue. Like ily I found some orders that Bob had sent in for this season. Jan will assume play from now until Bob gets back. And once again note that Tandol h is now playing Italy, Faul Clement having fucked off.

Deadline for Pall 1909 is September 23, long and in the art and are

ELECTRA GLIDE BLUE #7, Volume 1. August 28, 1977. Page 68.

1976CX Spring 1905. .

The doncession was defeated 4 Yes, 1 No, 1 No vote.

Austria (CD) a tri h*

England (Walter Blank) NMR! a fin. f's ska, bel, nth, eng, kie all hold

France (Norm Weinstock) a bre-bel; a bur s German a ruh-mun; a naf-spa, c by f wes; f mar-lyo

Germany (Bob Acheson) f den s English f ska-sve /nsc/ a ruh-mun;

Italy (Ren Kelly) a tus-ven; a pie-tyo; f tyn-nap; f tun-ion;

Russia (Ron Killeen) a nwy s f swe; f swe s a nwy; a stp s a nwy; a war-sil; a mun s

German a ruh-kie/nso/ a vie-tri, s by a ser; a sev-arm; f bla-ank;
a mos-lvn; a bul s a con; a con s a bul;

Turkey (Jan Jensen) a smy-con; f aeg s f gre; a gre h;

* Austrian a tri is annihilated.  Russian a mun- ber, boh, otb.

Deedline for Fall 1905 is September 23, 1977.

Jan: Realistic, yes. Reliable, yes. Quitter, no. CW.

Moscow: All Russia is ecstatic over her recent gains of territory. Throughout the streetsx one can see parades and people singing. Everywhere people are cheering. Various comments were made, some of which will be printed in this various magazine ((Sigh))

"What are we having for dinner tonight, dear?"

"Why, Turkey, of course!"

"Morway are we going to give back Scandinavia to those English swines!" (That is, if I have any choice in the matter.)

"The czar says that we soon will rule the world!"

"No. you can't be Syria !

"I wonder what it's like to eathvales meat?"

"The crar says our secret is that his generals spray negative ions on the armies before matter."

"I see. And where does he get all those ions from." ((You wouldn't))

"The Ionian Sea, of course!" ((You did! Aargh!))

"The strength of the English fleete forced the Germans to move to the Ruhr of the line."

"Because the English, who have evil intentions of trying to Rome around Italy."

Because this is a family zine it was decided not to print any of the comments on

Brest or Naples. But to show that we Russians are not above a little humour ((very little)) ourselves (sort of) there is one more:

"The Polish version of the Warhamer or battle axe is (are you ready for this?)((No))

the Warsawis ((Pretend you didn't hear that, Tadek))

The czar, in a rare appearance spoke to a crowd of over 12, ((12 what?)) cautioning that the Russian Empire cannot realistically yet maintain control over its colonies. Thus, following the example of Hadrian 1750 years ago all annies have been ordered to halt further campaigns and to consolidate present positions. ((Remember Anxio!)) Czar Killeenski has also stressed the importance of allies and has confidence that England and Russia will be the best of friends and that he had visions (hely, of course) of him and King Walter walking arm in arm.

ELECTRA GLIDE BLUE #7, Volume 1. August 28, 1977. Page 69.

Well, that's all from Russia this month. Next wonth we'll be coming to you direct from Queen's University ((appropriate)) in fascinating Kingston. So if any of you change your mind and decide to write to me then... Lastly, isn't it lucky my hand healed otherwise this press wouldn't whave existed? ((Sigh)

Ron will be in Eingston starting next month. He doesn't yet know his address but tells me that anything sent to his Delisis address will casch up with him eventually.

1977AF Mot quite Fall 02.

Remember last issue I made a few corrections to my previous adjustions? I said that if Applicy each me necessaries have the previous assess. Landel delay this season. Well, apparently Fets Wynnyesuk didn't have time to mail in corrected moves so we have to delay the whole thing.

Here are the correct units positionings:

Austria (Aulian Presber) wis tri, gal, but f gre

England (Tom Somplitus) a lon f's new, nth, edi

Frence (Mario Caus) a's gas, bur, pic, par f por

Germany (Mark Fecenco) ats belt mm, den fis bal, hel

Italy (Duane Skuce) a's apu, tus I's tyn,ion

Bussia (Pete Mynryesuk) a's mos, ukr, war, I's sev, run, swe.

Purkey (Jan Jenson) a's arm, bul f's smy, bla,

Note that Ameria retreated a gal-war and that the factor with the Last.

The description for Fall 1902 is September 9/7 at which time we will go no methors what. Orders based on the corrected positions from everyone the positions from everyone the positions had be taking his position had as he was expected back on Aug 28, but as he hasn't written yet I would be taking with both. Claude's orders will, of course, take precedence but if I don't get aug. Indian's will be dissil.

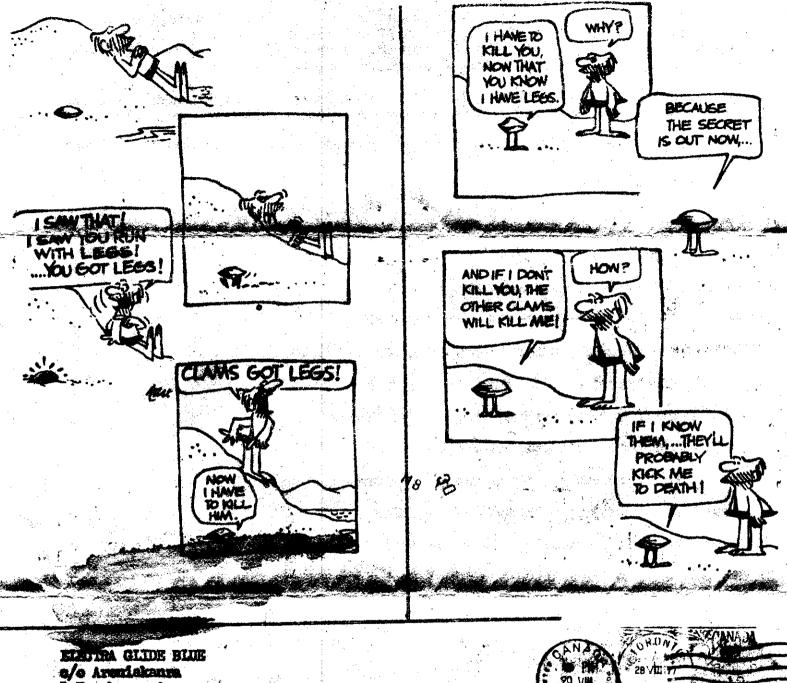

MEN NE

1977AG WHOOPS 1

Last issue I printed orders on file and I included Germany on that list. Now when I come to check I find no German orders. So, this means one of several things. 1. George sent them in and I've last them. 2. George didn't send them in but I made the mistake of including them in the "on file" list, The second one could make that George sent the list and assumed I had orders from him and therefore didn't submit any for this season.

whatever the reason there is no way I can go ahead and with this seems as I will set the deadline for September 9/77 and hope George is fast enough to make the deadline. If not I will delay until issue 9, I. Please hurry GP.

Orders on file from (careful now): A/F/F/F/F

south GLIDE BLUE o/o Areniakanna 1 Turnbosry Ave Toronto, Ontario Mil 176

Sub Credit

Standay Request, page

Ton are mentioned on page
because I am you at Discon

I'D BE HONOURED

YOU'D SUBSCRIBE

ROP WALKER
1273 CREST DR
ENCINITAS, CA
92024