

This is Everything You Always Wanted to Know About Diplomacy*, the official journal of the Boardman Numbers Custodian. The Boardman Numbers Custodian and editor of EVERYTHING is Doug Beyerlein, 330 Curtner Ave., Apt. #8, Palo Alto, California, 94306, U.S.A. My phone number is (415) 493-3891. The publisher of EVERYTHING is John Weswig, 2115 N.W. Elder St., Corvallis, Oregon, 97330, U.S.A. The associate custodian for the U.K. is Richard Walkerdine, "Cheriton", 15 Crouch Oak Lane, Addlestone, Surrey, KT15 2AN, U.K. Marie Cockrell is the fourth member of the staff and will become co-custodian in April.

In the future the schedule for publication of EVERYTHING will be approximately every two months. This will vary somewhat depending on the material available for print and the personal schedules of John Weswig and myself. Issue #20 should be out by 1 March.

I, as custodian, wish to trade with all other postal Diplomacy zines which conduct regular games of Diplomacy. In addition, I will trade with all publishers of Diplomacy-oriented material who do not carry regular games in their zines. Send all zines to me, Doug Beyerlein, and not to John Weswig.

Subscriptions to EVERYTHING run for the modest price of $4.00 (U.S. funds) for ten issues for first class to all North American subscribers and surface rate to the rest of the world. Overseas airmail is $8.00 for ten issues. For overseas trades it is half.

The transfer of the custodianship from Conrad to me was not the best organized. When I was in San Diego on October 14 Conrad and I published a joint communique to all publishers announcing the transfer. At that time he gave me the three notebooks which contain the game reports for all currently active games. Then in the following days as I slowly figured out how to handle this enormous job I sent out a circular letter of 8 November to all publishers. I started establishing trades and looking for a publisher. A number of people volunteered to act as publisher (and I wish to thank you all) and after much thought I selected John Weswig as the best choice.

In late November Conrad finally sent me the list of subscribers to EVERYTHING. Many of those people have not heard a thing about all of this until now. This was unavoidable. The situation with your subscription money that you paid to Conrad for EVERYTHING is as follows. Conrad still has your money. He has decided to transfer these subs to his current zines, Costaguana et al. Thus you should contact him directly regarding this matter.

All past subscribers, assuming that their name was on Conrad's list, are being sent this issue of EVERYTHING free of charge. However, to continue receiving EVERYTHING you must resubscribe, unless you are now trading. If you decide to resubscribe, please send all subscription money to John Weswig, and not to me.

As of 24 December my current list of trades is as follows: Conrad von Metzke, John Boardman, Rod Walker, Hal Naus, Len Lakofka, Greg Warden, Walt Buchanan, Herb Barents, Tom Leahey, Burt Labelle, John Boyer, Paul Wood, Edi Birsan, Joseph Antosiak, Richard Walkerdine, Jim Benes, John Leeder, Mike Bartnikowski, Don Horton, Duane Linstrom, Steve Nozik, Don Pitsch, Robert Lipton, George Wallace, Dan Gallagher, John Hulland, John Mirassou, Robert Correll, Anthony Kniaz, Frank McIlvaine, Douglas Reif, Len Scensny, Don Efron, Raymond Heuer, Richard Loomis, Gil Neiger, Doug Ronson, Scott Rosenberg, Dave Kadlecek, Bruce Schlickbernd, Harry Drews, Peter Berggren, Tony Watson, Ed Kollmer, David Gladstein, Al & Tom Burkacki, Dave Head, Don Miller, Chris Schleicher, Andrew Phillips, Lew Pulsipher, Bernie Ackerman, Fred Davis, Michael Rocamora, Michael Lind, Joel Klein, Steve Solomon, David Truman, Michael Homeier, Robert Sacks, Jim Bumpas, Ron Melton, and Randolph Smyth. Anyone who is trading, but I omitting by mistake from the above list please contact me.

People who I believe are running zines with regular games but are not currently trading are: Charles Reinsel, Bob Ward, Larry Peery, Jeff Key, Michel Fern, Stephen Marsland, Stan Wrobel, James Massar, John Biehl, Mike Worthington, Howard Johnson, John Coleman, John Morgan, Gordon Anderson, Larry Zehnder, Randy Christopher, Dan Gorham, Roland Prevot, Kevin Slimak, Ernie Melchior, and the Lilliput gang. Unless the people in this group establish a trade or sub to EVERYTHING this is the last issue that they will be seeing. Also, if anyone can inform me of the status of the publishers in this list and of their games I would be very grateful.

The requirements for receiving a Boardman Number for a regular game of postal Diplomacy are as follows: (1) the name of the zine in which the game is conducted, (2) the name of the gamesmaster for the game, (3) the player country assignments (I need both first and last names), and (4) the addresses of the players. Once I receive this information by mail or phone I will try to assign a Number within 48 hours. However, at times there will be unavoidable delays.

There are a number of things that you, the publishers, can do to make my job a bit easier. As this hobby continues to expand we get more and more players with the same last names. If you could also include the players' first names with their orders each season it would help me sort out the possible conflicts. Each fall when the list of supply centers owned is given for a game I would prefer them in the following form:

A: 6 centers - Tri, Vie, Bud, Ser, Gre, Rum

where the number of centers owned is given first. This makes it easier for me to record these numbers on my game sheets. And a handy check to see that all centers are accounted for is to make sure that each year's total adds up to 34, including neutral centers not yet captured. It is surprising how easy errors can be made without this check. And please try to use the listing order of Austria-England-France-Germany-Italy-Russia-Turkey. Most of you do, but some old-timers use E-F-G-I-A-R-T (one was even crazy enough to name a zine that anagram) and some use what appear to be completely random order. All of the custodian's game records are set-up in A-E-F-G-I-R-T order and copying errors are minimized if you do the same. Thanks. Last, at a game's conclusion please publish as much information as you have on the game's statistics (i.e., player names and no. of supply centers owned by year by country). This makes for a double check of my records or, at times, fills in vital missing information in my records.

To conclude my part of this issue, let me note that there are still Terminus Listings (game reports for most games from 1963-1970) available from me for $5.00 a set. See you in March.
