

July 23/78

This somewhat belated meagliness of numerals is Everything You Had Always Wanted to Know About Postal Diplomacy*, the official journal of the Boardman Number Custodian. The Boardman Number Custodian is Cal White of 1 Turnberry Ave, Toronto, Ontario M6N 1P6 (but see below). Phone 416 654 3072. The editor and publisher of Everything is Cal White. Associate BNC's are: For the UK Mick Bullock 36 Greenroyd Greetland, Halifax, W. Yorkshire HX4 6DT England For Europe- Roland Prevot 16 rue Descombes 75017 Paris France. Director of info retrieval is Walt Buchanan RR#3, Box 324, Lebanon, IN 46052. The Dippy record compiler (he said tongue in cheek) is Russell Fox 5160 Donna Ave, Tarzana, CA 91356. Digital quality control officer is Ronald M Kelly 6038 Richmond Hwy #314, Alexandria, VA 22302.

Random Ramblings and some actually important stuff.

Effective 8/15, 1978, I am resigning as Boardman Number Custodian. This is due to several reasons, but the major one and the one I wish made public is the awesome workload. When I took this job from Doug Beyerlein, Doug tried to stress the incredible workload. I listened to him and when I realized I wasn't taking him seriously enough I tried to envision double what I expected as work. Armed with this attitude I felt I could handle the Numbers. Little did I expect that what I was getting into was quadruple what I expected.

Effective 8/15, 1978 the new Boardman Number Custodian is Dennis Agosta 14 Shadyside Avenue, Dumont, New Jersey 07628 (201) 384 5930. Send any zines which will arrive after 8/15 to Dennis.

This issue will contain number assignments over the last few months. One of the problems I had with the system of assigning numbers in the zine itself was the fact that I was unable to keep pubbing Everything regularly. With two zines only one could come out perfectly on schedule and I chsse to keep my record for never being late with Electra Glide Blue intact. While I feel that it makes more sense to assign numbers in Everything, Dennis will be making his own decisions on that.

I received a phone call from Clifford Mann about five or six weeks ago regarding the mysterious issue #34. He promised to send me 100 copies immediately for distribution. I don't have them yet but I will send them out upon receipt. If Cliff reneges again, I will reproduce them myself. I'd like to publicly thank Elmer Hinton for his extremely generous offer to do the printing and mailing. I apologise for not being able to reply.

I'm sorry about missing DipCon and not seeing all of you people out there. I had arranged with a girlfriend of mine to get a free trip out to LA via her travel agency (she works there, it's not actually hers). Anyway, she had everything arranged and I had my seat on the plane and was all set to go. The day before I'm to leave, her employers tell her that she hasn't worked long enough there to wrangle that sort of deal. Even if I had offered to pay for the flight I couldn't have gone because they cancelled my flight. So I guess I'll have to wait until next year. Can anybody tell me where its gonna be?

Due to the long hiatus between the time I started to type the game starts this and the time when I will finish them, the order of the numbers, while not completely random, are pretty close. ((alright, already--IS pretty close.))

A few closing words:

Apologies to quite a few of you who have written me in the last few months and were totally ignored due to my totally spaced out apathy. This includes people like Craig Reges, Lee Kendter Sr, Elmer Hinton Jr, Ben Schilling, Chris Tringham and others. And especially John Leeder and Randolph Smyth for not keeping up my games properly.

Thanks: to the many people who have helped me while BNC. people who star out in my mind are Gene Boggess (for many new zine referrals) John Michalski Mick Bullock, Roland Prevot, all the people who sent in letters for publicati (this was really a great readers zine for a while, huh?) Doug Beyerlein and lotsa others. (with a special ta to Walt and Ron)

Future: I am not dropping out of the hobby. Publishing EGB ceased to be work a year ago so that'll continue and will, hopefully, be even better since I can spend my hobby time on it. Now that I know exactly how much work I can handle I will proceed along in the hobby working on a few projects I have in mind.

A large number of you will be receiving an issue of EGB soon in the future
I have enjoyed your zines and hope you will deem EGB worthy of trade.
I suppose reciprocal subs are okay if that's your bag, but you do the bookkee ing.

Just a reminder, I will put out one more issue of EVR, probably after Dennis assumes the BNCship. I will be handling the rogue issue #34. Send all zines dated after August 15 to Dennis. All zines dated before, to me.

AN OPEN LETTER TO ALL PUBLISHERS, AND TO THE TRADERS AND SUBSCRIBERS OF EVERYTHING:

As of 10/14/78, we have assumed the Custodianship of the Boardman Numbers from Cal White. Along with the numbers came this issue of Everything which contains all the numbers assigned by Cal White that have not previously been published. Please disregard his comments as most are out of date. We ask that each publisher review these numbers completely, checking all games for which a number had been requested from Cal but never received. Also please check to see if the names published in your games are accurate. One already noted error is that 1978FJ is a duplicate of 1978FB; therefore, 1978FJ has been reassigned and will be published next issue.

That brings us to the next two items: the first is the publishing of Everything. Tentatively, Everything will be published at least quarterly. You will notice that there are no game finishes reported this issue. At the bottom of this letter we will list those games for which we have the end game statistics. Publishers, please check this list carefully. If you have had a game end in 1978 or even prior that has not been published thus far and is not listed below, please forward a copy of the page in your zine that has the end game statistics and we will process it.

The second item is an important one right now. We have the Numbers, but NO Treasury. This issue is being sent out with the money received from you publishers who sent $1 for a number. Although this fee is strictly voluntary, it is greatly appreciated at this time. Thanks again to those of you who contributed. We will be in touch with the IDA and the GPA concerning existing subsidies for the Boardman numbers. We have heard nothing about the proceeds from the Diplomacy tournament at Origins IV. Anyone familiar with the procedure for receiving these funds is asked to contact us.

We are awaiting from Cal White a list of current subscribers and their credit. All we have is a bunch of mailing labels. How complete and how up-to-date it is may be determined by this mailing. If your address has changed, please send us a change of address.

Concerning Everything #34: We do know that issues were sent out by Clifford Mann since we received one month ago. We don't know who did or didn't get one. Elmer Hinton and the GPA have offered to reproduce #34 for those who need it. If you didn't receive the reduced digest edition of #34, let us know and we will see if the GPA offer is still open. We cannot undertake that task at this time.

Lastly, anyone still having games without assigned numbers, please send player list with addresses and a SSAB or postcard, and we will forward a number to you.

Dennis and Bernadette Agosto
