From Don Ditter:

Welcome, this is the first issue that is primarily game starts and finishes collected by me. I have the job down to a fairly routine, but I still have a few inefficiencies that I will eliminate with time. Inside you'll find the information I promised in EVERYTHING #49. I'd like to make some general comments.

- 1) ALL PUBLISHERS: A look at the subs and trade listing is virtually a who's who in Diplomacy publishing. EVERYTHING has always been a publisher-oriented zine. The subs just cover their cost and the trades must be financed by donations. Before Robert Sacks came along, EVERYTHING was a real money loser. I realize that most of you take a loss on the EVERYTHING trade, but I think it is important that I get as many zines as possible so that I can keep track of games that are being played in them. This serves two functions- I hope to be able to assist the Orphan Game Project leaders and if an issue doesn't carry a game I have it recorded for, either something's wrong or I missed a game finish. I encourage all trades. Those of you who prefer to sub, be sure to send me game finish stats and I would appreciate an occasional issue for my records. One more point- I mentioned last issue that it is a GREAT help to me to have the games that are contained in a zine listed on the front cover or a table of contents. I got one response (thanks John Daly) though there are many who were doing this previous to my remarks. Please help me out here.
- 2) FINANCIAL: The current balance is very healthy, but take away Robert Sacks GenCon donation and Lee would have forwarded me $0 and that balance would have been -$29. I hope this balance can get me through to the next con, but I encourage all to donate $1 when requesting a BN. Additionally Elmer Hinton and Randolph Smythe should be recognized for their generous contributions. Thanks all.
- 3) SUBS: For purposes of sub balance (since I make the mailing label for Bern) I assumed the issue cost 48¢. If that's not the case ((and it's not, it cost 66¢-Bern)), I will adjust it next issue.
- 4) THE CLOSE: We seem to be becoming more and more separate from the European Diplomacy hobby. I would like some feedback as to whether this is good or bad. Also, how about a few EVERYTHING plugs? See you in January.

CORRECTIONS TO PAST ISSUES:

- 2) 1978IT was reported in E#46 and E#49.
- 3) 1980KR and 1980KS are irregular because they are local games. No zine-xerox internet.

- 5) In 1979HQ, reported in E#49, John Michalski should have been listed as "res", not "dro".
- 6) In 1978FK, reported this issue, please correct the Austrian players of record as follows:
