From Don Ditter:

- I hope everyone had an enjoyable holiday--I sure did. Thanks to those who sent cards and best wishes. Now down to business:
- 1) ALL PUBLISHERS: Next issue EVERYTHING is pleased to have within its pages DOG HOUSE, the official publication of the orphan project leaders John Daly and Kathy Byrne. John and Kathy have been doing a fabulous job with the orphans, which is vital to the hobby and to my job as BNC. As mentioned last issue, EVERYTHING is received by virtually all publishers. Since this is the same group DOG HOUSE reaches, the combination is a natural. I'd like to think of EVERYTHING as a publishers zine, as you are the readers and data suppliers.
  - 2) I will be open to including anything within these pages that should be of interest to all publishers, but I would like to avoid topics of general interest to Diplomacy players. Thus I will not plug zines, tournaments, organizations, etc. as some have suggested.
  - 3) Thanks for the great response about listing games on the cover on in the index. Again, this is a great help to me.
  - 4) WIVES AT ORIGINS- My wife to be (I'm being married in March) would like to know if there are other wives out there who would like to get together at Origins--to do something--but definately not play Diplomacy. There must be something they could enjoy while we're all wargaming. Let me know from you guys and gals if interested. Debbie would like to be there, but won't if she's bored to death while I'm playing Diplomacy.
  - 5) Responsibilities: Once again, please send all trades and sub monies to me, not Bern. That means you Mark Berch.
  - 6) Financial: I will update my financial status next issue. All GMs have been exceptionally generous about donating $1 when requesting BNs. Thanks for your support.
  - 7) Subs: I have assumed this issue cost 66¢ ((wrong again, it's 50¢ -Bern)) for purposes of sub balance. Remember, I make out the mailing labels for Bern.
  - 8) Until next time, Adios, amigos
