This is the official publication of the Boardman Number Custodian,

Associate Custodians:

 Roland Prevot, 57 Rue de l'Orme-Creux, Corbreuse - 91410
 Dourden, FRANCE

We're back again. First some administrative news. I have selected a new publisher for EVERYTHING. He is: Bill Quinn, 1225 Ridgecrest, Orlando, FL 32806. Bill has some very ambitious ideas about creating a computer data base with Diplomacy stats and publishing EVERYTHING should fit in well with those plans. I met Bill at Origins and look forward to working with him. Thanks to all you pubbers who plugged this vacancy. I had 6-10 interested people.

ALL PUBLISHERS - Please continue to send all trades, game start requests and game finish stats to me. I will forward material to Bill at appropriate intervals. Everyone has been very generous with the $1.00 donation when requesting a new Boardman Number - an indication of the hobby-wide support the BN's are receiving. I encourage all to continue this practice, especially since Dipcon funds have not been distributed as of 8/15/82.

ALL SUBBERS - the cost of this issue is:  $0.97  the mailing label on the envelope states your sub balance. Quite a few expire with this issue, so if you'd like to continue receiving this zine please send $'s to me. Remember subs are 3 cents per page plus postage.

ALL PUBLISHERS - be sure and read DOORHOUSE #5. John Daly explains some of the Orphan Service's procedures. Kathy Byrne has resigned as Orphan Game Coordinator, after doing a fantastic job. If there's anyone out there that would like to give John a hand with orphans, drop him a line. An occasional plug for the Orphan Service is very helpful in keeping the players aware of this service.

COMMENTS ON GAME REGULARITY

I have had much correspondence of late about irregular games. Additionally at Origins this year I had a chance to talk about the subject with some players. As a result of this correspondence, I have made some changes in my irregular game policies.

In the past when I labeled a game irregular I was expressing my opinion that the game should not be used in a play-by-mail non-variant Diplomacy rating system. This was my interpretation of the role past BNCs played regarding irregular games. However, I have learned that some rating systems use games declared irregular, while others devise other rules that results in an unrated game. I have therefore decided that the ratability of any game is properly determined by the ratingmasters.

Henceforth I will not use the name IRREGULAR in end game summaries, but will identify games that might not be rateable with a # sign before the Boardman Number. That is, #1982AA would have a comment after the player listing, while 1982AA would not. All ratingmasters should use their own judgement about which games should be included in their rating systems.

The following is a list of circumstances that I would include the # sign before the Boardman Number in the endgame stats:

- 1) LOCAL GAME -- Three or more players have the same telephone area code. Computer network games also noted as local.
- 2) FAMILY MEMBERS IN GAME -- Two of the eight people involved in the game (7 players and 1 GM) are related. Relationships I would flag are: brothers, sisters, mother, father, aunts, uncles, spouses and other blood relationships that may prejudice a game.
- 3) GROSS GM VIOLATIONS -- The GM's methods discriminated against one or more players. The player claiming the violation must show inconsistent GM treatment with all players or a house rule or rulebook violation. A game where a GM ignored an agreed upon ombudsman's ruling would be labeled gross GM violation.
- 4) ILLEGAL PLAYER REMOVAL -- A GM removes a player for strictly personal reasons assuming the player hasn't been overly obnoxious to the GM.
- 5) INCONSISTENT STANDBY POLICY -- A GM decides whether or not to use standbys. However, whatever decision is made must be used consistently throughout the game. If a GM assigns standbys to a 3+ power, all 3+ powers should have appointed standbys.
- 6) A PLAYER HAS PLAYED TWO POSITIONS IN GAME -- The same player plays two different countries in the life of a game either as a standby or as a standby. The stand-by nature of the player will be taken into account if the same player is a standby twice in the same game.
- 7) GM IS A PLAYER IN THE GAME -- The GM is also a player in the game.
- 8) Other circumstances that may affect the game's ratability.

As a that's it. If anyone out there can think of a circumstance that I have not covered in the above, please drop me a line. The subject of game regularity is the toughest subject on the BNC faces. Many times fair feelings are created that make this job the cross. I hope the above will help clarify my vote. Suggest any?

This is the newsletter of the U.S. Orphan Service, published to keep the postal Diplomacy hobby informed of zine foldings and game transfers. DOGHOUSE appears as part of EVERYTHING courtesy of Don Ditter.

JOHN'S NOTES

Kathy has resigned as Co-Director of the USOS. She was doing most of the work around here and we all owe her a big "Thanks!" Kathy's extensive hobby involvement was the main source of information for the USOS. Without her, I'll need alot of help from you folks if I am to find out about orphan happenings.

When I started working with orphan games a couple of years ago I thought it would be a simple matter: zines would fold and the publishers would ask me to help place their games; or zines would disappear and the players would ask me to find new gamemasters for their games. Then the USOS ran into the problem where a zine would be months late, yet the publisher insisted he would continue so the Service shouldn't move his games. That brought about the Ten Week Rule, which the USOS uses as a guideline in this way: a zine with monthly deadlines is considered folded if it fails to appear within ten weeks of its last deadline. Of course, many other things will be taken into consideration, but that's a good place to start. Lately, the USOS is running into another problem: zines that are continually a month or two late and the publishers don't seem to care about it. Players complain to the USOS about this and ask the Service to move their games from what is an active (though late) zine. I'm suggesting to these people that they write to everyone else in the game to see if they can all agree to move it, then I'll provide the name of a new gamemaster willing to pick up the game. This way, the USOS can help the players without siezing a game from a running zine.

One of the biggest headaches for the USOS and the hobby as a whole is a publisher who disappears with his players' money without transferring his games or game records. Somebody came up with a serious way to handle this problem: file a complaint of mail fraud. Despite the fact that this is "only a hobby," publishers and gamemasters do collect money in return for a promise of services to be performed through the mail and, according to a postal inspector I spoke to, failure to perform these services constitutes mail fraud. The inspector was quick to point out, however, that the Post Office wouldn't assign a high priority to a matter as small as a zine folding. But he said if business was slow and enough people were affected with enough money involved, the Post Office may investigate. That's something to think about. Not only does a disappearing publisher have the obvious moral and ethical problems, he may run into legal trouble as well. I bring this up as a matter of interest only; I don't expect to see a bunch of folding publishers thrown in jail. But perhaps those of us who publish a zine and run postal games should take our responsibilities seriously when it comes time to close down shop. With the USOS around there's no excuse not to fold neatly.

FOLDING ZINES

JIHAD (Glenn Overby): Glenn has decided to officially fold JIHAD and has turned most of his records over to me. For various reasons he will attempt to continue three of his variants himself: 1981Ff02 (Song of the Night); 1981Erm22 (Woolworth Dip I); and 1981Igp09 (Mercator III). All of his other games have been placed except for two variants for which I need gamemasters. Anybody want to run a game of Youngstown IV (1981Icv) or North America 2020 (1981Cna02)?

GAMES TRANSFERRED

This is a listing of all the transferred games that the USOS knows about; not all necessarily were moved by the USOS.

CLOSING NOTES

As usual, I'd like to remind publishers to let their players know that the USOS exists and what it does. The Service compiles information and coordinates activities for game transfers. But without help from the entire hobby, nothing can get accomplished. The USOS needs people to publicize it, people to keep it informed and people to pick up games. All correspondence should be directed to John Daly at Rt. 2, Box 136-M5, Rockwell, NC 28138.

Many thanks to those who helped the USOS this time around. See you next issue.
