BNC Chatter

I am very happy to announce that Steve Malinowski (12034 Pyle, Berlin OH 44074) is now the apprentice BNC and heir apparent. Steve brings many years of hobby experience to this office. In order to get things started in an organized manner, he and Graphic Service Director Jim Burgess (100 Holden Street, Providence, RI 02908) are undertaking a survey of all zines and BH's to discover lost or abandoned games and to locate where games may be found. Publishers please reprint and pass the word around that Steve or Jim should be in contact with you if you are a BH or publisher. Please give them all the help you can since this is a large undertaking.

Thank You to all those who volunteered to take over the BNC.

Volunteers Needed to be replacement players in orphan games. Please inform Jim Burgess if you can help and any restrictions on your participation.

Notice to Canadian Subscribers: For some unknown reason to me, the banks in my provincial town don't know what to do with checks drawn on Canadian banks. One offered to cash a $5.00 check for a $5.00 service charge. Somehow that didn't strike me as being a very good bargain. However, I have had no problem with Canadian Postal Money Orders made out for U.S. funds. This seems to be the safest way to send funds. U.S. currency is also acceptable (but more risky).

After some time, I have been contacted by the E-Mail portion of the hobby and learned that their banner zine The Armchair Diplomat is now edited by Ken Hill. E-mail games are run via CompuServe on the games SIG. For more information, contact Ken Hill, 3092 Sandlot Lane, Dublin OH 43017. These games tend to run much faster due to the speed of transmission of messages and orders. Ken assures me that this new aspect of the hobby is growing and has a stable corps of BH's.

Reminder - The office of the Boardman Number Custodian is a hobby service with is dependent on your donations for financial support. It is customary to send a $1 donation with your request for a number.

Your subscription has been charged 50 cents for this issue. If your subscription has expired, please return the enclosed post card.
