JOURNAL OF THE BOARDMAN NUMBER CUSTODIAN

JANUARY - MAY 1993

ISSUE #87

EVERYTHING... is the Journal of the Boardman Number Custodian and was founded in October 1972 to promote and record the postal play of the game, DIPLOMACY. This issue of EVERYTHING... was compiled and edited by Vincent Lutterbie, 1021 Stonehaven, Marshall MO 65340 (USA). It is currently published by Melinda Ann Holley, PO Box 2793, Huntington, WV 25727 (USA). Subscription fees of $4.00 domestic mail (or Canada) or $5.00 (US) international mail for 4 issues should be sent to Vincent Lutterbie. All-for-all trades with any DIPLOMACY related zine are accepted and are solicited. DIPLOMACY is the trademark name of the boardgame designed by Allan Calhamer and is published in the USA by the Avalon Hill Game Co. EVERYTHING... is the official record of the BNC. Contents may be reprinted with appropriate attribution.

BNC COMMENTS - Well, I've taken over as BNC for the time being. This job seems to cause burnout in 2 years or so, but I think it is going to be different in this case. We'll see. And just to be sure, I've already picked a successor, Andy York. So, if you are having trouble getting hold for me or I've slowed down appreciably, just let Andy know. He'll kick me a little.

PUBLICATIONS AVAILABLE FROM BNC - EVERYTHING... back issues available at the rate of $2.00/issue plus $0.50 postage per issue. Currently, there is one complete set of back issues ready to ship (E1-E85) at a bargain rate of $150.00, post paid! If you're a ratings master of just a numbers kinda' guy/gal, this is available for a limited time, first come first served.

GM HELPER SHEET is available free for the asking. Please note, each new gamestart is recorded on this form and is the vehicle that the Boardman number is assigned and sent to the GM. This is abaldface attempt to help standardize the recording and reporting of each game.

UPDATES, CORRECTIONS, ETC.

871C - Both Steve Smith and Robert Bartles resigned their position after the W'02 transfer.

88AY - The original zine was THE SCRIBBLERIST and the original GM was Mark Lilleleht through F'03 when it was transferred to DOWN AT THE MOUTH.

88CH - The GM was Pete Gaughan

88HR - The GM was John Barnes on an unnamed flyer.

89AD - The first GM was Audrey Jaxon, NOT Audrew.

89IE - The English player was Steve Nicewarner; NOT Nicewarmer. However, he was still eliminated in F'09. Sorry, Steve...NOT!

90A - The GM was Andrew York.

92T - The German player was Donna Higgins, not Dennis Higgins as listed.

92Y - This is actually 87JE.

Mark Fassio was incorrectly named Mark Passion in THE WINNERS' CIRCLE for 91AQ.

I was informed that 92W was started in 1988. I can find no record of a Boardman number. If anyone has that number, I can change the records.

Remember - If you send me a crappy endgame report, it's gonna be crappy in EVERYTHING. I'll print it as I receive it, after making corrections where possible.

TRADES - Melinda and I are in the process of updating our Trades. If you want off the list, or if you know someone who wants to trade, let us know; and it shall be done.

BNC HISTORY - I thought you would like to know who previous BNCs were. I've got some archives here at the house and this is one of the items of interest. BNC stands for Boardman Numbers Custodian and was named after John Boardman who began the service. It is intended to aid in any research that numbers crunchers may wish to do as well as give a bit of stability to the postal hobby.

I realize things may have been confusing lately, but you've got plenty of time to let me know if you want on or off.

GAME STARTS - There were 29 game starts through May 10, 1993!!! This is a significant increase, and we may do a lot better than the past few years. Some of this is due to the re-emergence of THE ARMCHAIR DIPLOMAT. If we can get the other E-mail participants to report games, I promise to get the numbers to you right away!!

GAME FINISHES - Only 4 countries made it to the Winners' Circle this report.

Austria - 3
Italy - 3
Russia - 2
Germany - 2

Down with the wicked witches and frogs!!! Unless I win one of them, of course.

THE WINNERS' CIRCLE

The big new is Gary Behnen is shut out! There...the numbers crunchers should have a field day with that!!

Larry Botimer	Italy	88CS
Jim Grose	Austria	89KH
Kevin Kinsel	Italy	90AB
Thomas Thornsen	Austria	90AY
David McCrumb	Italy	90IF
Tony Strong	Germany	91C
Nelson Heintzman	Russia	91AY
Andrew Pendleton	Russia	91HA
Dan Perry	Germany	91IK
Roger Johnson	Austria	92HA

Congratulations to all these fine players.

THE NEXT ISSUE OF EVERYTHING... SHOULD BE OUT IN THE FALL. IF FUNDS BECOME A PROBLEM, I WILL REVERT TO A 2-ISSUE-A-YEAR FOMAT. I'LL LET YOU KNOW NEXT ISSUE. CONTRIBUTIONS ARE WELCOME, AND INDEED, NECESSARY.

In order to maximize turnout at these events, I hope that players will set up carpools and such. The tournament director himself will be driving a van full of CADs to AvalonCon in August, so let him know if you want a ride. And, of course, don't forget the rocking housecon, HickCon, that David Hood throws in October.

North American Team Tournament

This year, there is a new way to take part in the face-to-face Diplomacy circuit. The North American Team Tournament (NATT) pits teams of Diplomacy players against each other over the course of a year to determine a team champion. Every Diplomacy event with 21 or more participants will be included. A team of up to three players per tournament to represent say a zine/club/region, with all points earned by team players to be added to the overall team's total for the year. The team with the most points at the end of the year wins the championship. The system is two points per center, plus the following bonus points for finishes: win - 63, 2-way - 31, 3-way 15, 4-way 7, 5-way 3, 6-way 1. Team member's names and team affiliations should be sent to the tournament organizer before the event, or to David Hood. No person may play for more than one team in the same year. DixieCon is the first NATT event - send in team rosters to David Hood ASAP!

UPDATE

Three month Preview for "93"

The first in the new "Folio" series, Storm Over Arnhem, is the WWII game that re-creates the opening days of Operation Market Garden. Gloriously illustrated, the articles contained in the 48 page booklet touch upon many facets of the battle, the combatants and their weaponry.

To further enlighten the reader, the innovative two player game re-creates the four days of the British First Airborne Division's struggle for the Arnhem bridgehead. Includes full-color maps, counters, rules and historical booklet in a heavy stock folder.

#8361 Storm over Arnhem For 2 players March '93
(Approx. $15.95) Suggested Retail

IDF "Israeli Defense Force" takes our proven MBT game system to the shifting sands of the Middle East for scenarios from both the 1967 and 1973 Arab-Israeli Wars. The game is loaded with information on the military hardware — Centurions, T-62s, M-48s, M-60s, M3 halftracks, BMP infantry fighting vehicles, etc.; the organizational data for Israeli, Egyptian, Syrian, Iraqi, and Jordanian combat units; and the soldier's training, doctrine and morale — these wars provided classic confrontations between quality and quantity. Loaded with dash and flavor!

#891 IDF For 2 to 6 players April 1993 ($35.00)

For the Smithsonian Institution American History Series

Mustangs re-creates an era (1944-1945) when propeller-driven fighter planes fought for control of the air above both Europe and the Pacific. The game includes, among others, the legendary P-51 "Mustangs", the rugged P-47 "Thunderbolts", the versatile F4U "Corsair", the deadly F6F "Hellcat", the agile Japanese "Zero", the heavily-armed FW-190, and the futuristic German jet, the Me-262. Easy to learn, but a challenge to master.

#736 Mustangs For 2 to 4 players May 1993 ($25.00)

"Gold in the Yukon!" How those words fired the imagination of a generation in 1897. Now, with Claim Jumper, the gamer can recapture that fever. This newest offering from Avalon Hill is a deceptively simple family game for two to four players. Using a unique play system, the players stake claims on a map showing the territory around infamous Dawson City in an effort to amass the largest amount of gold at the end of the game. But, as one might expect with fortunes to be made, claim-jumping, speculation, bluff and greed just might take center stage. Claim Jumper will be the second offering in Avalon Hill's folio line, and will include a 48-page booklet richly detailing the history of North America's last gold rush, which lured ambitious young men like Jack London north, a full-color map, and counters for the likes of "Cannibal Ike" and the "Lucky Swede". For the discriminating reader seeking something "a little different", this one just might be the "Mother Lode".

Claim Jumper For Multi players May 1993
(Approx. $15.95) Suggested Retail

Wack slacks, sin hound, raincoat, heavy cream, road pizza, the show, an Amy... just a few of a thousand slang Expressions that make up the Game of Slang. Based on the "Random House Thesaurus of Slang", the game includes key words— each with up to 10 common slang expressions. The object is to match a slang expression to the proper key word. For example, wack slacks is slang for old ripped jeans. These, and thousands more like the one's above, are included in the Game of Slang, a great social party game for any number age 10 years old and up. Can you guess the word for this card?
