BNC Comments

When I took this job from Conrad, little did I dream that it would be 20 years before I produced my first Everything... I received little from Conrad; just a handwritten list of the Boardman Numbers he'd issued and no monies. I'm sending this as a PDF document, despite the fact that the PDF is two and a half times the size of the Open Office's Open Document Format file that I put it together in. If you prefer the smaller size, let me know and I'll send along the .odt version.

All you get herein is Diplomacy games from the rump of what we used to call "the postal Diplomacy Hobby." Most Diplomacy play has moved to the automated Judges. While most of the few remaining Diplomacy 'zines are distributed as this document is, via e-mail, a few are still available via the post on paper: Northern Flame, Cheesecake from North America; and a few more, most of which I am not familiar with, from the UK and Australia.

I decided to populate this issue with about the number of game starts that were in the average issue of previous *Everything...*s. The cut-off was easy: previously unreported game starts up to and including through 2000 gave me about three more than that average. That constituted about a third of the game starts since E...97. Then I put in the end game reports which I'd previously entered through the same cut off date. The next third of the game starts gets us through 2005, so that's what I'm looking at for E...99, to be published later this year, hopefully. I'll need to chase down some finished games for that five year period. After 2005, the 'postal' game starts drop to one or two most years, with a couple of years actually having 5 game starts. Therefore, I'm expecting E...100 should bring us up to date.

GAME STATS

This issue of Everything... reports 38 Boardman Numbers issued including orphans and past games first submitted and one abandoned game. 39 endgames are reported.

Everything... is the Journal and official record of the Boardman Number Custodian. It was founded in October 1972 to promote and record the postal play of the game Diplomacy. This issue of Everything... was compiled and edited by the BNC Tom Howell. Subscription fees are currently $0.00 as this issue will be distributed via the Internet as a PDF file. Printed copies are available; contact the BNC for printing and postage costs. Diplomacy is the trademark name of the boardgame designed by Allan Calhamer and published by Hasbro. Contents may be reprinted with appropriate attribution.
