Contest Puzzle

Response to the contests has been very disappointing lately. Once again, only one entry was received by the deadline. So, Mark Harris is the winner of the three-issue prize, though he clearly didn't understand the instructions. Since interest in the puzzles seems to have waned, I have decided to discontinue them.

The Bulletin Board

Once again, it's time for the Runestone Poll. This year, the poll is being conducted by Bruce Linsey. Here is the information on it that Bruce provided:

THE NINTH ANNUAL NORTH AMERICAN ZINE POLL: You may rate any publication substantially devoted to Diplomacy of which you have seen more than two issues since April 1, 1984. Rate the series, not individual issues. Rate each zine on a scale of zero to ten (0 being the lowest possible rating, 10 the highest). No fractions please. Specify subzines and rate them separately from the parent zine; subzines will be listed separately. Publishers may not rate their own zines or subzines. Sign your ballot and indicate one way in which you participate in the hobby (e.g., "I sub to zine XXX", "I play in game 1984YY", "I publish zine ZZZ", etc.). All votes will be kept confidential (but please note that Pat Conlon will see all of them). Please list the zines alphabetically to make tabulation of the results easier. I reserve the right to tabulate or ignore ballots which do not follow the format outlined above.

THE EIGHTH ANNUAL NORTH AMERICAN GAMESMASTER POLL: You may rate any GM in whose postal game or games you were a player during the year beginning April 1, 1984, and under whom you played for long enough to gain an objective assessment of his competence as a GM. Rate each GM on a scale of zero to ten (0 being the lowest possible rating, 10 the highest). No fractions, please. Gamesmasters may not rate themselves. Others may not rate GMs in whose games they were not active players during the poll period. Rate each GM by name, not zine. Votes which do not use the GM's name will not be tabulated. Please list the GMs in alphabetical order by surname. Distinguish between Ron Brown of California and Ron Brown of Canada if you vote for either or both.

The deadline for both polls is June 29, 1985. The deadline for ballots sent to Pat Conlon is June 22, 1985. Results will be tabulated as soon after the poll deadline as possible, and will be released as they become available to anyone wishing to phone. Please rate only North American zines, subzines, and GMs; though any readers or players living outside North America are welcome to participate. Send all ballots to Bruce Linsey, 73 Ashuelot St. #3, Dalton, MA 01226 or Pat Conlon, Box 17014, LSU, Baton Rouge, LA 70893.

CHANGES AND OTHER NOTES PERTAINING TO THIS YEAR'S ANNOUNCEMENT: There is no "official" proclamation against grudge votes this year. As a voter, you may vote using any criteria that you deem fair and reasonable. Some people tend to ignore such a restriction anyway, as Randolph Smyth mournfully pointed out after last year's poll. So, the restriction was unenforceable -- and in my opinion, unrealistic as well. Vote as you see fit.

Anyone who has participated in the Diplomacy hobby since April 1, 1984 is eligible to vote.

A few clarifications regarding specific publications and GMs: As mentioned in the GM poll announcement, be sure to distinguish between the two Ron Browns if you vote for either or both. Treat Whitestonia as a zine, Kathy's Korner as a subzine (to keep the status quo from years past). The editor of Bad Doggie treats that product as a subzine even though it sometimes appears separately from the parent zine; therefore the poll will tabulate BD as a subzine. Ditto for Orphan City, treat it as a subzine.

A clarification to the rule that you must have seen more than two issues of a zine in order to vote for it: If you were supposed to see more than two issues of a zine but did not (i.e., because the publisher has not published regularly), then you may still vote for that zine. I can think of one or two "active" publications that fall into this category. Sorry, guys, but being grossly irregular ain't gonna get you off the hook around here if the voters wish to send you a message...

THE CONLON ARRANGEMENT: Voters who for any reason do not wish to send their ballots to me (Bruce Linsey) may send them instead to Pat Conlon, whose address appears above. Please note that the deadline for ballots going to Pat is a week before my deadline. This is so that Pat will have time to transcribe the ballots and send them to me by the poll deadline. I will not know who voted how among those ballots received by Pat -- he will be copying them onto blank, unsigned ballots which will then be sent on to me. However, he will be providing me with a list of names so that I can 1) check to make sure no one voted twice, and 2) publish a list of all people who voted. After the poll results are tabulated, I will be sending all of the ballots (or copies thereof) to Pat, who will verify the results, if necessary.

For ease of voting, I suggest that voters use the official ballots (You will find one on the next page - JR), but of course this is not required. Any questions on the voting procedure should be directed to me.

The Runestone Poll is the oldest and most highly regarded of the Diplomacy hobby's polls. It is my intention to maintain this status by publishing the results accurately, impartially, promptly, and in a (hopefully) interesting manner. I ask each and every member of the hobby to do his part by getting out there and voting. May the best publications -- and GMs -- win!

This is Jeff speaking again. Many of you are aware of the controversy surrounding Bruce and this year's Runestone Poll. I'm not going to rehash the details in this zine, but I will say that I do not support the attempt to undermine the Poll. I urge you all to vote.

PRESS - France to London/Berlin: You have to gain my centers the hard way. This frog is still hopping.

Mr. Spock to Rome: Your moves are highly illogical. You are going to lose Venice whether you like it or not. I must suggest that you surrender and cease resisting. However, I find your will to survive fascinating.

Brest to Russia: We play softball in the fall instead of the spring.

Paris to world (French press): The new government in Paris was immediately attacked by German forces. The Prime Minister and his cabinet, on the verge of being destroyed, said, "Beam me up, Scotty." Amazingly, while the Kaiser's hordes burst through the doors and were about to make the entire cabinet work in Belgium as short order cooks, they began to materialize away. They appeared on the Enterprise and attempted to make an hour-long episode, but failed to do so. All were beamed down to a French fleet in the Gulf of Lyon, except for Pierre the Treasurer, who was detained for something he should not have done in the elevator.

Adm. Kirk to Berlin: Three things: 1) I am not leaving Tyrolia for the sole purpose of leaving Trieste open for another fleet. 2) Thank you for the support into Moscow (if you gave it). 3) If you moved into Vienna, be ready for a fight!

Deadline for Fall, 1905 is 9PM EST Friday, April 5, 1985. The proposals were defeated. Last time, I capitalized the wrong half of the Turkish order, F Con-Smy. However, it was (correctly) not underlined. One of you mentioned this just before the deadline. I'm sorry if this was a bit confusing, but I think everyone figured it out. So, it would be pointless to delay the game. A concession to Austria is now proposed. Will Lu Henry, 6056 Waverly, Dearborn Heights, MI 48127 please standby for Germany.

PRESS - Italy to London: Smile when you say "Doctor", pilgrim.

Queen Toots to France: A thousand pardons, mon ami, but I'm afraid that my minions couldn't get used to the company of syphilitic frogs after all. C'es la guerre...

Redondo to Arbor: I've heard of NMRs, NBRs, and even NRRs, but what do you do about an NPR?!

AA to RB: Nothing, probably. But then, I'm only guessing, as I have no idea what you're talking about.

Espresso Federali to the Queen of Toots: I understand your concern about the Frenchie being unreliable, but I don't agree with the way you're planning your stab.

Queen Toots to Roman Courier: My suspicions have been confirmed by your latest communique: All Italians are fronicators and adutlerers. There are wores things in life, I guess...

England to Russia: Your unique winning strategy is slowly becoming clear to me now. Kudos, tavarish, kudos.

Vatican to the Papal Naval: The only way you can win this battle is to go for the gusto.

England to Ankara: You've taken all your cues from your professors at the Russian War College, haven't you, you sly dog...
