

FROBOZZ

Issue #14

April 6, 1985

Greetings. Welcome to the first anniversary issue of Frobozz. Yes, that's right. An entire year has passed since this zine first made its way across North America. It doesn't seem nearly that long to me. It's a real pleasure helping all of you enjoy the hobby we all share, postal Diplomacy. I hope the last year has been as much fun for you as it has for me. And I hope we'll be sharing the Frobozz experience for many years to come. Thank you one and all for your patronage.

Standby pool for regular Diplomacy: Jensen, Kendter, Petersen, Christie, Plummer, Milewski. For WWIIb: Riley, Kay.

PRESS - Germany: The German government announced today that Berlin will be vacated in favor of Livonia. The Livonian peasants, with fond remembrances of their liberation from the cruel Czar, have agreed to this move. The German government has also announced that, because the formal treaty with Austria was never actually dissolved, it will continue to fight Russia, and Austrian troops have been invited to Germany for beer and schnitzel parties. The Czar should recognize the strategy as it was originally his idea.

Germany to England: Your non-committal attitude in the beginning hurt. Your stab in the middle (of the back) hurt even more. But last season hurt the most.

Deadline for Spring, 2001 is 9PM EDT Friday, May 3, 1985. Pat Jensen is the new player for the Warsaw Pact. Last month, I listed Russ Rusnak as the player for both Australia and USSR. Of course, we all know that it's really Russ MacKechnie who is playing USSR. At least I got the address correct. An Australia-Brazil-UofSA-WAF draw is proposed. All seven of you must vote "yes" for the draw to pass.

COA: Russ MacKechnie, 89-70th St., Brooklyn, NY 11209.

PRESS - South Africa to world: The only right and just ending to this game is a 4-way draw between Brazil, Australia, West Africa, and myself. The African alliance now proposes same.

Failure to negotiate a peace now would incur the risk that the African alliance will merge into one superpower, thereby winning the game. (Translation: Either Neil or I will throw the game to the other).

This would be a real sad ending to a well-played game, but I am fully prepared to follow through, or the threat wouldn't be made.

To play this any farther, Russ -- Paul -- would take another year, mundane time.

South Africa to Australia: Russ, I'm sorry about the moves towards you, and I know that it was me that made the first move. But it seemed to me that you had (and may still have) a tremendous chance to win this game. I know you've been all I could ask of an ally, but I also know that you are too damn good a player to pass up an opportunity for a win. My preemptive occupation of neutral areas was defensive. I will not attack you, nor am I trying to cut you out of a finish in the game (not that I could). Please vote for the 4-way.

Russ- My house rules state that I will declare on draw if the supply center holdings do not change for 3 years - unless a player can show me that he can break the stalemate. I will accept ~~perpetual~~ perpetual orders, if you decide to submit them.

I would be happy to house your games here as a 1-2 page subzine (or GGM arrangement). I'm starting to get a bit low on standbys, but that probably won't matter. Let me know when you want to begin, who the new subbers are, + how much sub credit each one has. About the only other thing I can think of at the moment is that, your subzine should be typed on 8 1/2 x 11 paper. If you can think of anything else we need to discuss, let me know.
