

FROBOZZ

Issue #54

May 21, 1988

Two games end this issue. David Hood, playing Germany, wins 1987F by obtaining eighteen centers in 1908. Steve Heinowski, as Turkey, is declared the winner of 1987CA by unanimous consent of the players. Congratulations to you both.

This means that I'm down to just three games, which is just the thing I need to deal with my burnout problem. I'll see how I feel about pubbing after a few months of having a light workload. By then I should know if I'm ready to open any more games or just call it quits.

The standby pool for Diplomacy consists of: Geryk, Gibson, Hood, Zarse, Lilleleht, Lange, Townsend, Vaporis, Holley, Nelson, Heinowski, Barents, Kurucz. Does anyone want on or off the list?

* If the Russian army retreats to Vienna, Russia will have 2 centers, and Austria will be at 3, even. Conditional orders are recommended.

PRESS — England to Russia: I see by your retreats you got that lobotomy you always wanted.

Buda and Pest — Danube AP, Dec. 14: Today the Congress of the Intellectual Meritocracy took three important roll-call votes:

1) Whether the great European War is to end in a 4-power peace pact, or include France in a 5-power pact. Vote of 48/48 means decision remains to be decided by Fate.

2) Whether we should first eliminate the treacherous Italy or the terrible Turk first. Vote was 88/8 for bumping off Rome first.

3) Since Pres. Gibby says his native America will be ruined by a Hollywood glamor boy's pro-Fascist policies in the 1980s, with Irish blarney that bamboozled 150 million supposedly literate people of normal IQ, shall we promise the Swiss possession of both Ireland and California, should we ever become powerful enough to get control? Vote was 93/3, and all three nays from the Tyrol, afraid Swiss would get mad at us after finding what lemons Ireland and California are!
