

FROBOZZ

Issue #59

October 22, 1988

No one was rude enough to inquire just what it was I was doing last week that made it impossible for me to publish the zine on schedule. Nevertheless, I'll tell you:

1986CG

The Eye of Agamotto

Endgame statements

Bruce Geryk (England): For about the last three or four game-years, my interest level had dropped so low that Jeff Zarse would get the zeen, figure out a good set of moves, and call me so all I would have to do was write them down and mail them.

Pat O'Brien (Germany): I feel fortunate to have escaped this game with a draw and thank Pete for carrying me through. Back in the beginning when I allied with England, I knew that it was only a matter of time before he'd stab me due to my bumbling mistakes and NMRs. Nonetheless, I was able to establish a base of power in Austria without angering Turkey to the point that he lost sight of the fact that Bruce in England was rapidly closing in on a victory. Jeff, your GMing was excellent and so were the stamps.

FROBOZZ is published at four week intervals by Jeff Richmond, 2742 Glenbridge Court, Ann Arbor, MI 48104; phone number 313-971-7793. Subscription rate is $0.35 per issue. No game openings.

The standby pool for the last game in Frobozz is: Lange, Townsend, Vaporis, Holley, Nelson, Heinowski, Barents, Kurucz, Milewski, Gibson, and Acheson. Gee, I hope I don't run out. My thanks to you all. Does anyone want on or off the list?

Dear Russ,

No, I won't be at Peters'. Arn and Tully, as you may know by now, jumped to the WWF. I'm not exactly sure why, but I think it had to do with what Crockett was paying them.

Best,
Jeff
