

THE GLORY GAZETTE #2

This is a PAB Publication especially designed to carry the TURNABOUT games while that zine is not being published. And, as you can see, TBT is very late and in fact will not see print again until this summer, as per the enclosed Special Notice. The games, however, should enjoy even speedier adjudication now that they are not being encumbered by the main zine.

I have no idea of what the early history of this game was supply center wise, so it would be impossible for me to print a final listing at this time. However, if any of you players have accurate end-game information as to the players and number of centers for each country in the early and mid game, and you would be willing to take the time to type it out in a letter to me, I will print the listing next issue. I will also print any game analysis that I receive.

Congratulations to Blair Cusack on a game well and honorably fought and a victory well-deserved. Sieg Heil!

June 2075

THE CRISIS

Wayne Santos has not sent in his moves. Ray Heuer has not sent in his moves. Steve Peluso has resigned. Player interest is obviously on the wane, and I realize that this is partly my fault for being so slow in adjudicating the game. So it's time to get tough; if I don't get four sets of orders next turn this game will be declared a draw among all survivors. And, if any time in the future I get just two sets of orders out of either five or four players, then the game will be declared a draw. I can't get standbys for a game like (cont.)

this very easily, either. So, I will run this game with four players if I have to, but no fewer. Anyone interested in playing this variant (and I consider a quite interesting variant) contact me immediately and I will send you a copy of the map and rules free.

DEADLINE for June, 2075 orders is on the last page.

Steve Peluso has resigned, and so I call Richard Kovlick, Room 101, Bexley Hall, 52 Mass. Ave., Cambridge, MA 02139 to take over for the Dwarves. Rules, map, and player addresses should be enclosed with this, Richard. I also call Robin Smith, 29 Bruen Cr., Rensselaer, NY, 12144, to standby for Men of the North, please. You also should be getting rules, map, and player addresses, Robin.

Press Releases:

Minas Tirith: Elves, I warned you ahead of time what and when I would be able to move against the hordes of Mordor. I have kept my word to you and have not attacked you. The move last time to Celebrant was a move I had not time to send other orders to. You invited it away by not writing. I hope we can still work together, however if not, it will not be my fault. The anti-Elvish moves this time is in response to the occupation of the Dwarvish home center. Our agreement states this is Gondorian. I hope your wish for our continued alliance is as strong as my own.

Minas Tirith: Our alliance with Mordor is ended. It was an alliance that had to be made at the time so that the White Tree would not be overcome. We offer alliance to any free people who also wish to oppose the foul hordes of Mordor.

Men of the North: Hey gang! Logical choice is kill Angmar! Not me!!

The reason that John Strain actually submitted press but no moves was this; in his letter, he only listed the locations of his units and not the spaces they were supposed to move to - this was a serious oversight, to say the least. Oh well.

DEADLINE for W1 '2752 and Sp' 2753 orders is on the last page.

1976?? (Game #8)

Spring, 1901

ROLL BABY ROLL!

ENGLAND (John Strain): F Lon - Eng, F Edi - Nth, A Liv - Yor.

FRANCE (Jack Kerins): A Par - Pic, A Mar - Spa, F Bre - Mid.

GERMANY (Paul Evans): F Kie - Den, A Ber - Kie, A Mun - Ruh.

ITALY (Greg Vensteel): A Rom - Ven, A Ven - Pie, F Nap - Tyr.

AUSTRIA (Benjamin Laves): A Bud - Ser, A Vie - Tri, F Tri - Alb.

RUSSIA (Jim Diehl): F Sev - Bla, A War - Ukr, A Mos H, F StP(sc) - Fin.

TURKEY (Zane Parks): F Ank - Bla, A Con - Bul, A Smy - Con.

Jack Kerins asked for a deadline extension, and though it is normally my policy to grant them on the Spring 1901 move, I denied it this time for the following reasons: First, the deadline was met by all 7 players, indicating that there was sufficient time for some correspondence. Second, these adjudications are so late that plenty of time has been present since you players received the game start for you to negotiate and change your orders if you so desired. You may change your orders anytime before I have typed up your game, and I am typing this on May 18. That's plenty of time.

To answer a question, no, I do not use phantom players nor will I. However if someone was to send in a list of 1901 orders for each country in a given game, I would use those as neutral orders should any player NMR. Otherwise, if you want to get a standby position, you have to get on my standby list. Bill Young, you are now on my standby list. Thanks also to Ron Kelly for neutral moves.

DEADLINE for Fall, 1901 orders is on the last page.

Press Releases:

London (OPISH): Ominous rumblings boil of Europe recently (I ought to fire my printer!). War fleets set sail at London Port today. Sea Lord Timbukto says, "For defense only". We wonder from whom? (More next season.)

SPECIAL NOTICE TO ALL "TURNABOUT" SUBSCRIBERS -- May 16, 1976

My parents have decided to move to Florida effectively on May 29.

This means a change of employment for my father, and for this and other reasons TURNABOUT will be delayed. Please see this special notice.

I will be leaving Concord, NH on May 22, however on May 29 I will undergo a change of address. From May 29 thru June 22 I can be reached at this address: Peter A. Berggren, 100 The Village, Concord, NH, 03777. The phone number is (603) 251-5000, but by no means call any later than 10 PM. Then on June 22 I will be moving to 100 St. Apt. 1, 1st. Box 22, Bristol, NH. I'll be there from June 23 thru August 1st.

On September 1st of next month, I will return to Concord and will be reached at the above address. For all of the 1976-77 school year I will be at the above address. I'm sure that you will find this information helpful and will be able to contact me with the above information at any time.

BUT the question remains, where is TURNABOUT and how will it be affected by my temporary absence. I know you have asked me how much work I'll do, and you know I've been busy. This has drained my weekend time. So much for where is TURNABOUT. I have to get in one set of letters before I move south.

The big thing in writing is reproduction. While at school I have this thing reproduced. Over the summer in Florida I don't know what I'll have. But I'll do my best to get something, and will keep you informed. Most likely I will not have a new typeface until after I go to college.

Please read carefully this notice, and if there are any changes, please let me know. It is as important to me as they are to you.

So hang in there!

Yours truly,

Peter A. Berggren
President, PAB Publications

Some press for 1975JK:

ROME: Fra. Neppo Monko offers apologies to Austria for the actions of a group of fascist rebels led by some crank poet. Promises Austria that the rebels will be punished severely.

"We will eat them!"

We spoke with Sig. D'Amico, proclaimed governor of the new republic of the Adriatic.

"Sig. D., what is the situation regarding fascism in Italy, today?"

"Ahhh! Ha! But Rome has been like slugs in a sewer."

"Not cabals, cannibals!"

"No thanks, I don't smoke."

"Whatsa matter, you hard of hearing?"

"What?"

"HARD OF HEARING!"

"Oh, yes, it comes from reading fanzines..."

"You don't believe that?"

"It's true. I sent for some of those Ethiopian silver ear phones, they advertise, and one day my staff and I had a jammed basket of them with my hand maids when the basket broke and shattered both ear drums..."

"Thank you."

DEADLINE for all games is June 17, 1976. That is, if you are not c/o the Bakers, Orford, NH. June 19 may never see my eyes, as I will be in Florida before I get summer mail.

God only knows (that is). There is a good possibility of offset reproduction (much cheering) meaning I will be able to print my Origins II photos over the summer. I have no fear, the games will go on!
