

GRAUSTARK

April 1961 (1965J)

Volume 1565

TONY POWERS INVAILS AUSTRIA, FRANCE

San Diego Magazine

Georgetown Times

ENGLAND: A Mid-Evening F Newsnight Box
 F A Mid-Evening F World Box
FRANCE: A Mid-Evening

GERMANY: A Mid-Evening A Mid-Evening
 F Mid-Evening

FRANCE: A Mid-Evening A Mid-Evening F Mid-Evening

IRELAND: F Mid-Evening A Mid-Evening A Mid-Evening
 A Mid-Evening

AUSTRIA-BERLIN: A Mid-Evening A Mid-Evening
 F Mid-Evening

RUSSIA: A Mid-Evening F Mid-Evening
 A Mid-Evening F Mid-Evening

Unpublished news are not possible. The High Command covers now control the following supply numbers:

San Diego Magazine (12)

Georgetown Times (15)

ENGLAND: Mid-Evening, Mid-Evening, Mid-Evening, Mid-Evening (8)
FRANCE: Mid-Evening, Mid-Evening, Mid-Evening, Mid-Evening, Mid-Evening, Mid-Evening (6)
AUSTRIA-BERLIN: Mid-Evening, Mid-Evening,
Mid-Evening (3)

GERMANY: Mid-Evening, Mid-Evening, Mid-Evening, Mid-Evening,
Mid-Evening (5)
IRELAND: Mid-Evening, Mid-Evening, Mid-Evening, Mid-Evening,
Mid-Evening (6)
RUSSIA: Mid-Evening, Mid-Evening, Mid-Evening, Mid-Evening, Mid-Evening, Mid-Evening (6)

France may establish 3 new units, and Germany, Italy, and Russia may establish 2 new units each. The deadline for these "Winter 1961" moves is originally 31 AUGUST 1962. The deadline for the above moves has been extended from the originally announced date of 31 July until to the deadline period of 31 August, which has now been notified.

GRAUSTARK is published by John B. ...

CHRISTEN DE GUNNA: ...

MADRID: ...

on villas for governments in exile as I fear we may soon have need of a place to stitch General von Helldorf. The admiral also announced that he would meet in Marsara with the Mattell Toy Company of New York who have agreed to act as weapons counsellors to the Pact. To return the Pact has dispatched a yacht to New York to shoal the home of noted political scientist and trouble-maker John Boardman, currently feuding with the company over some kind of slight peace armada. Mattel will also release a new game "Victory over Fascism" as soon as the new plant is in operation.

THE DIPLOMACY POUCH

JOHN KONIG, 318 S. Belle Vista, Youngstown, Ohio 44509: GRANTLARK gets more interesting each issue. I see you've switched to the even more popular system of unlimited games, each starting with 7 players have resuscitated. ((That's right. Resus-citations are now being accepted for individual entrants at $8.00 each, or for team entries in team games at $5.00 per team of three.)) I'm discouraged to note that both your new game ((1965)) and Brennan's new game feature new players. I'd begun to worry about the "Face Blind" problem for a while there.

By the way - all the team game, Kim Fetter is a man, not a woman, and his actual address is 871 Bryson St. ((See GRANTLARK #57, p. 3)) I couldn't locate it when I last wrote, and gave Sylvia's because he spends most of his time there anyway (she's his fiancée). ((I'm sorry. Knowing that this team entry was from the Youngstown University Diplomacy Club, I'd assumed that the other address was that of a woman's dorm, and that both names were female.))

I assume that Eric Hinko was turning you on in his letter in GRANTLARK #57.
There could be no other logical or sane reason for indulging in such fallacious reasoning as that evidenced by his remarks in regard to Earl Robinson. I was delighted when you failed to bite the bait.

(Mr. Hinko is, alas, quite serious. And I have an alliance going with him in 1964.)

DAN BRANNAN, Apt. #5, 106 S. Sycamore, Los Angeles, Calif. 90001: I think John Smith's idea for a Diplomacy convention is great but I'd like to be assured that he doesn't want a war.

CHARLES N. REINOLD, 120 8th Ave., Clarion, Penn. 16814; About page #2 (Resigns):
((See GRANTLARK #57, p. 3)) I've discussed this with others and would like to have it read: "Each player resigning loses one point unless Grandmaster requests the change because of circumstances." Do you agree that this is (more) fair?

((I'm not certain. I'd just as soon have a uniform policy for resignations.
But I'd like to penalize players who don't send in moves - say, one point off for each consecutive three moves missed.))

JOHN A. McKEITH, 4th Class, S. E. S., Halston, Alberta; Doris is likely an NIPER ((socialist)). Records are far as far between in Toronto... It was probably Doris's error. I imagine he regards anything other than Tory or Grit ((Liberal)) as beyond the pale. ((May not let us know yourself, John?))

ALAN B. CHILBERT, 17 Adams St., Boston, Mass. 02172: Judging from the proliferation of Diplomacy newsletters, you really started something! Last year was our best year in sales of sets, too. ((I'm happy to hear it. I've seen Diplomacy sets on sale at several department stores in New York City. And for those readers who can't find a set at a local store, they can be ordered @ $7.50 from Games Research Inc., 25 Marchant St., Boston, Mass. 02114.))

Other postal Diplomacy bulletins (10 issues for $1 unless otherwise stated) are:
BIRMINGHAM, John Boardman, 504 16th St., Brooklyn, N. Y. 11218
BRONXVILLE, Jack Schuritz, 18150 Helen, Detroit, Mich. 48234
DUNSTON & MASSIE, John Konig, 318 S. Belle Vista, Youngstown, Ohio 44509
LOS ANGELES, Dan Brannan, Apt. #5, 106 S. Sycamore, Los Angeles, Calif. 90001 (20 for $1.00)
OAKLAND, Conrad von Helldorf, 5527 Hilltop Dr., San Diego, Calif. 92114 (2 for $1.00)
TULSA, Bernard King, 267 S. Howe Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. (for $1.00)