

The Great War in Modern Memory

Warehouse Issue Number Seven
North America's only European 'Zine

CRUSHING DÉFEAT: March 23, 1982

The Iron Dream is Under Way!

Thanks players for getting all of your orders in on time; even the two who called the night before deadline - your orders arrived in the mail the next day. The usual publishing schedule of GWMM is: The 30-day deadline game has a deadline 2 to 3 days before the 15-day game. The night of the 15 day game the game's results are added to the already pasted & prepared 'zine and dropped off at the printer the next morning who takes 48 hours to reproduce it. 48 hours gives the cheapest rates! The zine is mailed the same morning I pick it up.

Phone orders: Except for last night (and I hope I did not error) players who phone in orders must have a codeword on file with us before we will accept those orders. This is to prevent your orders from being changed anonymously.

Why isn't this issue our First Anniversary issue? According to my doctor I have traumatic arthritis in my left index finger and I am not to type (this is being done two-fingered) and it has not yet healed enough to type a whole issue. Not to worry, warehouse issues do not count towards subs, for those of you who have subs.

Now that the Iron Dream is under way I will request a boardman number from Don Ditter, custodian of the Numbers, and I am sure it will arrive shortly.

The Blood-Stained Stagger to Victory (1981 IG) is still in the hands of the ombudsman. Sorry. I will notify players as soon as I can of the results of Smyth's decision and the season and deadline when the game restarts.

More blank space. Sorry, I couldn't think of anything to put here.

Oops: If you like you may phone in to get the results of the game, but do not phone in between the day of the 15-day game deadline and the day I pick up the 'zine at the printers. While GWMM is at the printers I have no copy of the judgement at home to refer to.

SPRING 1901

General European War
Commences: Austria crushes Serbia. Belgium is still neutral, but Holland? Invaded? French land attracts many tourists. BEF to land
in Erest? Or Calais?

Deadline for Fall 1901
only is 26 April 1982.
