Please also note that you should not try and get me before 6PM on weekdays - I'll be at work.

Mun-Ven: "Touchette"? Hey, that's not fair; I never even got a chance to say "en garde"! Oh, you pronounce the "t"s, eh? Well, there goes a perfectly good pun.

Kie-Lon: You're doing awfully well after NLRing your first turn. I'll have to remember that strategy.

Mun-Par: As for you, you don't get any press, cause I don't even know who you are yet.

CZAR MIKHAIL-SULKIN' SULTAN: Sorry, but you're usefulness to me has just run out.

Tur-Bourse: Count one master plan down the drain.

Tur-Rus: Tell me again. When does this get interesting?

Austria-Russia/Turkey: But our fall moves were pretty fair too!

New Germany to Board: Boy, are you guys lucky I happened into this game! After a somewhat respectable start, the press for this game has slipped to the totally unacceptable level. Have none of you any pride?!? C'mon, let's get those pens ascribblin and the typewriters atappin. Fourteen releases over the last three seasons? How pathetic!!

Ber-Smy: Hiya, Evans. Now, don't be that way! I'm not even near you, so you've nothing to fear from me.

Ber-Mos: Sorry, Mike--nothing personal, but you have to die so that I can get next to Evans!

Mun-Ank: Hey, it could have been worse--Italy could have NR'd and I could have taken his place. Wouldn't you just love to go through another I/T alliance with me?

BTMF: A survey shows that most teen-ager's career goal is to become a receiver of a bankrupt railroad. This requires legal training. Invest in BTMF so your children can afford this training.

Stimmel-GM: #103 should be Ball State - not Balt. State. There is a Towson State near Baltimore, Md. I had never heard of Towson until I started my railroad game. It's an important rail center in the game - but not as important as Los Lunas, N. Mex.

GMS-France: You can see the amount of faith I have in you, but if you NMR again your legs will never be the same.

SSS-GMS: Oh, you already know the dance, don't you?

THE 1984 DON MILLER MEMORIAL AWARD NOMINEES

Each year the Diplomacy hobby selects a recipient for its outstanding service award, the Don Miller Memorial Award; named for the late hobby pioneer, Miller Numbers founder, and outstanding publisher. A distinguished committee of Kathy Byrne, John Kador, Brux Linsey, and Fred Davis, Jr., screened the list of those names nominated this year: Ron "Snafu" Brown, Kathy Byrne, Gary Coughlan, Roy Henricks, Lee Kendter, Sr., Mike Mills, and Bill Quinn. The committee selected five of the seven as official nominees for this year's Award. Nominated for outstanding service to the Diplomacy community during 1983 are:

RONALD "SNAFU" BROWN: For maintaining the operation of the Canadian Diplomacy Organization almost single-handed when several publishers dropped out; for drafting most of the text of the amended CDO constitution and getting it approved by the membership; and for publication of SNAFU, the premier Canadian Diplomacy zine.

GARY COUGHLAN: For tireless, selfless dedication to excellence as a publisher, writer, and gamesmaster; and for his role in promoting communication among Diplomacy fans all over the world.

ROY HENRICKS: For publication & services associated with the ZINE REGISTER, the guide to Diplomacy publications.

LEE KENDTER, SR.: For taking over the Miller Number Custodianship in late 1982, at which time there had been no official publication of the MNC journal for nearly a year---and things were in somewhat of a disarray. He published the first issue of the new MNC journal, ALPHA & OMEGA, in May 1983. By the time the next issue came out, he had caught up on the backlog of games to report, and all known games in North America had been issued Miller Numbers.

MIKE MILLS: For providing the Peoples' Diplomacy Organization, a refreshing bit of humor in the hobby, and the idea and accomplishment of a fund raising auction to benefit the hobby's custodians.

Any of these five individuals would be a worthy recipient of the second Don Miller Memorial Award and each has provided an invaluable service to the hobby in the past year. Fortunately; you, not I, have to decide which is the most deserving by voting on the attached ballot. The hobby's publishers are encouraged to reprint this information in their own zines. The recipient of the 1984 DMMA will be announced at DIPCON in Dallas in June at the Diplomacy Society meeting. He will be presented with custody of the perpetual DMMA plaque and a personal award.

Donations to the DMMA trophy fund are encouraged and should be sent to Fred Davis, Jr., 1427 Clairidge Rd., Baltimore, MD 21207

Volunteers to serve on the DMMA Nominations Committee are also needed; particularly from Canada, West, Coast, Mid West, and South. For information on that contact: LARRY PEERY, Box 8416, San Diego, CA 92102. My thanks to the members of the Nominations Committee for their help this year. I know it was a difficult job narrowing the seven down to five.

1984 DON MILLER MEMORIAL AWARD BALLOT

Return by 2 June, 1984 to: DMMA, c/o Larry Peery, Administrative Secretary, Box 8416, San Diego, CA 92102. Ballot, or facsimile, must be signed (write it so I can read it, please!) and return address provided. Vote for one:
