Journal

Feb.

Sorry that this issue is a little late after I promised to be on time last time, but a funny thing happened on the way to the ditto machine, Bruce Gleety's stuff didn't come. Anyway Bruce's stuff finally did arrive today and so I will try to get everything done so I can also mail it out today (Fri.). People in Bob Evans's game will have to hurry with their builds and retreats, but if you can mail them right off they get this thing, they should get to him on time, so don't delay.

I would like to thank all those people who sent in their money last month. It was a welcome change. A lot of people must have been beating on Stanford in the Rose Bowl. There is one poor Polish Editor who didn't. I also receive a few complaints about moves from time to time. Please send them to the US's not me I can do nothing about that. I have forwarded the ones I have received.

We have two new games opening this month and so people in these as in others remember to get moves in on time as there are strict due dates now being enforced. Bruce's game will be number V, and John's number is VII. John's will have a later due date than the others since he doesn't have to send his stuff to me.

Bruce starting next month will have a Cyclopaedia in the middle of the month, so he doesn't have to have conditional builds. People in his game must send builds in right away as he must send it back here (Modesto) to be printed. And with today's mail service that could take a while.

Also I forgot to mention Bruce's and John's are game numbers VI and VIII. They are already being filled so if you want to get in them you had better hurry.

John can be reached at 1320 Magnolia Ave., Modesto, Ca. 95350

Bruce is kept in 910 W. Calif., Urbana, Ill. 61801

Should any one wish to contact me, 2904 Hamming Way, Modesto Calif. 95350

Games are 75c for a lot and 50c after that. There are a few mistakes in a page or two, I forget to correct them before I ran them off.

For those of you who still owe money or are about to run out on your subscription I will let you know on the back page. Please accept my apologies for being late.

Kobeldomichtenstein-Here we are in a new year and there seems a revitalization of interest in the two dippy games as many more players have sent in their moves this month. For those of you who have been lost in the shuffle of different guys moving in and out of the countries like South American generals, here's a review of who's who in Games I & II: Austria-Mike Byrne, France-John Mensinger, England-Stuart Trembly, Russia-Mike Wright, Italy-Ben Goss, Turkey-Dale (Boso) Bosowski, Germany-Ware Martin, that's it for Game I, if you're not on it your out! Game II-Italy-Mike Byrne, Austria-Bill Roche, France-John Mensinger, Turkey-Ben Goss, Russia-Mike Wright, England-Dale Bosowski, and there is no more Germany.

After our prolonged vacation we (meaning me and Dale) are caught up pretty well on our deadlines. I must now ask that player's be prompt with their moves in the future. Moves will be cut off at the deadline date without exception. No excuses!

Press Releases (Game I)

Mancera De Vaca, Argentina

Mancera De Vaca, Argentina-Kaiser Ware I, in Argentina visiting friends and relatives, explained the reasons behind his disappearance over the last year and a half. "My hosts in this beautiful country like seclusion and they live so far out in the boondocks that there was no mail service." When asked about the apparent rift between Germany and France, the Kaiser expressed his confidence in the intentions of the Frogs. "Both of us are just carrying out maneuvers."

An Excerpt from Moskvaskaya Izvestia, Nov. 20, 1906-Thanks to the efforts of German and French troops, our gallant allies in the struggle against the scaly English curse, the slimy limies are down to their last army and their last crumplet. Soon, they will have none, as our slavie Superman will recapture our beloved capital, St. Petersburg. On to the Nevsky!

Paris, Oct. 26, 1906-The French Premier was shocked at the angry world reaction of the movement of our troops into Italy. He is also sorry he didn't tell the world thereason why. The moronic premier gave this explanation of France's overt act of aggression: "You see, back in May, the Arrohant Austriand claimed that their troops were the best in the world. They claimed that they would take over the world. Well, we the peace loving people of the French Republic, not to mention the enslaved, er, loyal subjects of our puppets, er, provinces, do not wish to see one power take over the world. So we have declared war on Austria. 'On to Vienna' is the cry of our troops. Unfortunately, France does not border Austria. However, our valiant and loyal allies, Germany and Italy have allowed us free passage through their countries so we can wage war on the decadent Austrians. So, as soon as we move on through Italy and Germany, we shall crush Austria. So, people of the world, do not fear, Big brother is watching out for you.

Milan, Oct. 30, 1906-Today Italian troops fired on the French Troops moving through their country. They wily Gossini apparently has made an alliance with Germany. Their plan was simply. They knew Austria and France were at war. So they secretly allowed both Austria and France to move through their countries. They would then ambush the troop trains. But unfortunately, M. Pierre Du Gross, a loyal Frenchman, and employee of Rotar-rooter happened to be fixing a leaking boiler (they call them Zaccets in Italy) and he heard the unholy pact between Italy and Germany. Now France and Austria know who our real enemies are. In fact, we've come to realize that the sins of Austria and France are remarkably similar. Why we are both peace-loving countries who have taken under our wings poor, underdeveloped, heretofore defenseless countries, such as Portugal, Serbia, etc. And yet of the graciousness of our hearts we have made them part of our country. We both have fought the imperialistic, decadent, and downright mean countries of the world such as England and Turkey. Yes, Austria and France are two of a kind. So, people of the world, do not fear. Two Big Brothers are watching over you.

Game II, Fall 1905 (1970s)

Vienna, Oct. 10, 1905—Von Reeb welcomed the new Italian government, "Welcome, new Italian government", said main his speech. Thus, he concluded the ceremony and the crowd went wild with excitement.

Budapest, Oct. 17, 1905—Von Reeb welcomed the deposed Kaiser Douglas of Germany to Austria, "Welcome deposed Kaiser Douglas to Austria", Thus, he concluded the ceremony and the crowd went wild with excitement.

Paris, December 22, 1905—Today the French Premier gave the following ultimatum to the imperialistic dogs at his throat. "If Italy and England do not immediately cease hostilities and pull back to their borders, then it is war." After the English and Italians ignored this order, angry Parisians hung the idiot Premier. They were tired of the Premier, or rather the ex-Premier, or rather the ex-premiers incompetent diplomacy which got France into this mess. After the late ex-Premier Gletty's neck was stretched, they cut off his head and stuffed it with soap. It seems that was the only way they could kill it. Well, fortunately France now has a new leader to replace the imbecile Gletty. He is John Mensinger, a small, brilliant general from the island of Corsica who has a funny little habit of sticking his hand in his uniform. Anyway, Mensinger says it looks like an impossible situation but he'll try anything once. Judging from the situation, and the probable results he won't try again. The new Premier promises only one thing, "We'll go down fighting."

To the noble, loyal subjects of Luigi, the short, and to the far more numerous ignoble subjects, and to a few selected short subjects:

His majesty, (who is the first recipient of the newly created order of the order), due to inclement weather, has begun to fear for his health and has undertaken to repair his government to the sunnier climate of Tunisia.

To celebrate this, a holiday has been declared and his majesty invites his loyal garrison in Rome to go on Rand R in Napoli, he knows of the army's preferences for the three flavors of ice cream which are served there. While the field army in Tuscany is being allowed to go on leave in Rome. Press releases:

Tulliers Palace Paris:

Following in the steps of Napoleon I, his dutiful nephew is now turning his wrath on the omnipotent German Armies. It was announced that all Germans who had seen the light could be enlisted into the French ranks after submitting to voluntary emasculation to protect the young flowers of France.

His imperial highness, Napoléon IV, was reported to be traveling north to Germany, where he will take over personal command of the Northern Front. In view of the brilliant victories in Italy, Germany doesn't stand a chance.

Vienna:

Emperor William I today issued this comment directed to the ruler of England in response to his Spring press release. ("Mr. Arnold has a point. Perhaps if he wore a hat, it wouldn't show. Again, my phone number is 217-344-0360. I keep real odd hours, being a college senior and working midnight to 8:00 AM 4 days a week and being an avid wargamer, all lead to a messed up schedule. If I am not home, leave your message and or instruction with whoever answers, they are dependable.

Having this game filled, I am opening another one. Anyone may enter, 50c for second games. If you wish to play, please send money soon, so we can get going next month.

Again, my apologies for the lateness of this issue, and I'll try to do better next time.

The Kobeldomichtenstein Free Press

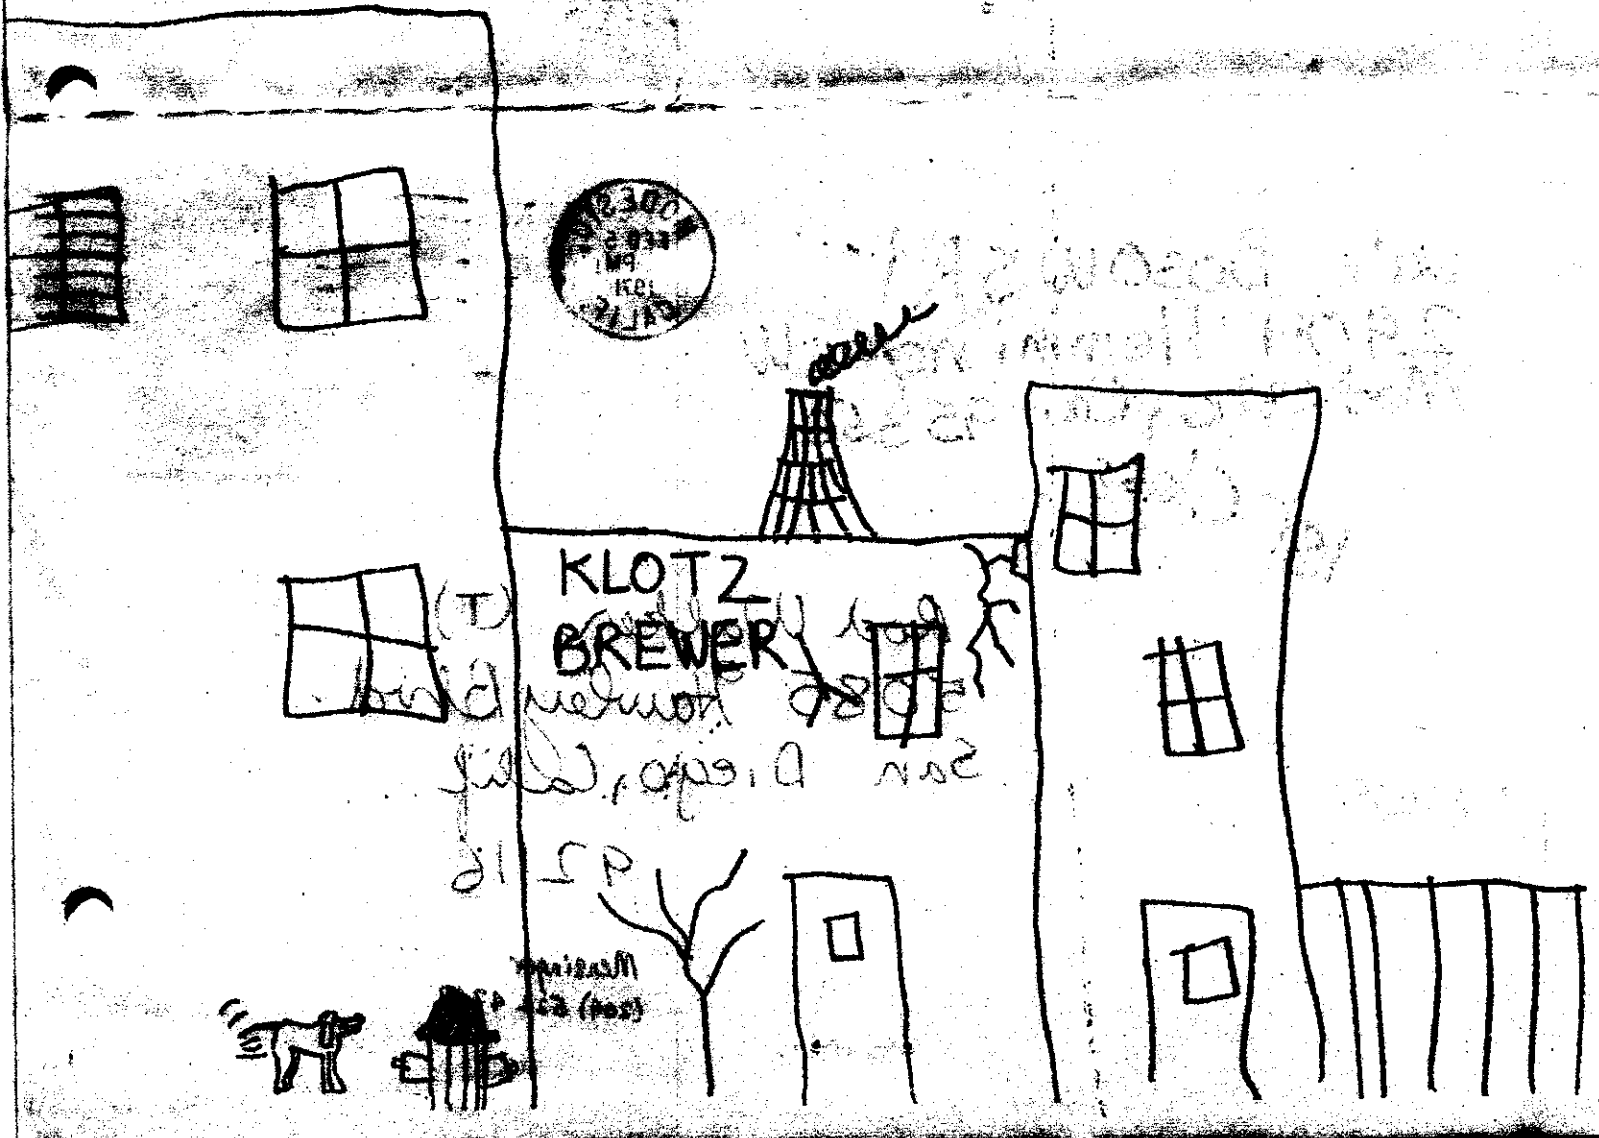

Kobeldomichtenstein, Jan. 1, 1900—Due to the strangling censorship regulations laid down by Grand Duke Otto XVI and enforced by his imbecile lackey Bob "Fromo" Framo, we have been forced to go underground. This author will not be censored. So, say anything you want; knowing the readership of this publication I doubt very much anyone would be offended. And if you will be offended well you'd better crawl back into your mother's lap and forget about playing diplomacy. Yes, Diplomacy is a man's game (no woman's lib freaks, please) and one who is a good guy is very good; good and dead.

This gathering of cutthroats and rogues, er diplomats if the Seven Great Powers is to be known as Game VII. As far as rule interpretations, I suggest you read the Diplomacy rule book as it answers almost any questions you may have. However, in case you can't figure out something yourself, feel free to write me. Deadlines will be longer than those of the "Establishment Press" as I have all my messages smuggled into my HQ, here in a musty cellar of the Klotz Brewery. I don't have to rely on the tired jackasses which carry the mail of Strassman-houffalisheim. Bull, er press releases are encouraged. Please do send them in, as they make for a much better game. (Due to the content of these press releases my underground newspaper is banned in all countries except those sexually liberated nordic ones and those bans are the greatest thing ever! Why, all the perverted clods in those tight societies think just because its banned it's dirty; why you'd get more porno out of McCall's than you do after this:

Now for the news you've all been waiting for. The names and addresses of all those incompetent career diplomats sent to this backwash of European Politics. Representing the Drunken Czar, that Vodka Hound (back for his third time), originally from the cotton fields of the now defunct Missssissippi (who longs for the day when he can go home and sip mint juleps' on the Veranda) is none other than comrad Mike Wright, 316 Fleetwood Ave., Modesto Ca., 95350. And representing the dominating power in the world of Posts, is none other than that ex-private of the Egyptian Army, who upon coming to Italy was commissioned as a Field Marshall in the Italian Army, the incomperably, incredible Doug Schaefer, 84 Farm View Dr., Gilford Conn. 06473. The envoy from the bastion of conservatism, the home of the famed 'General Staff', the birthplace of those people who invented the Christmas Tree, and Cuckoo clocks, is the erratic Bruce Gletty, 910 West California, Room 10, Urbana, Ill. 61801. Yes, now we know what the Prussians do with their mental defectives. And from the place where ast meets West, where Asia meets Europe, and where the worst facets of the two combine to form one helluva mess (Poland?) it is not surprising that Turkey should be forced to send someone who even his mother (if he knew who she was or what it was) couldn't love, Tim Tilson, 1117 Tweed Street., Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, 49783. From the land of John Bull, we are graced with a former chimney sweep who is full of it, from Great Britain, cradle of imperialism, er Democracy, Pat Kitano, 2825 Westcheaster Lane, Modesto, Ca. 95350. To cover up for the Blatant aggresion and expansionism of the land of wine and grapes, is that Polish Frog, Dale Bosowski, 2904 Hemminger Way, Modesto, Ca. 95350. Last, and most definately least is Mike Byrne, a drunken Irishman that somehow stumbled into a Danube steamer to sleep it off, and lo and behold he found himself in Austria. Unable to get a job as a janitor, he was forced to accept the position of imbecile, er Ambassador of Austria to Game VII, Just send his mail to Flip's Bar and Tavern, 2402 Ridgewood Ct., Modesto, Ca. 95350. and you can be sure he'll get it.

The first backstabs, I mean moves are due on Feb. 28. Absolutely no moves will be accepted on March 1 or after as my smuggler takes time off to visit his friends at the state hospital. So you must get your moves and ball in by the 28th. Just send them to Cobble the Wonder Turkey c/o John Manning, 1320 Magnolia Ave., Modesto, Ca. 95350. Ah, well, that is all for this month (thank God). I wish you all good luck and hope you have a happy Valentine's day (shoot someone thru the heart) spreading love and peace through the 7 major powers and the civilized world. Fat chance. Oh well, I'm safe, Rio, and warm, gassie, here in the basement of the Klotz Brewery. TILL next time, Good (Surp) Bye.
