

The Journal

July #9

Hope you are all having a nice summer so far. I was until this thing came down. ~~It's been a lot of trouble this month, just a lot of little trivial stuff with the printer.~~

Finished printing a little late this month as usual. Nothing big, just a bunch of little problems have slowed it up this month. For example headliner, bleers, and a complete mental breakup. My ~~printer~~ has hurt ~~me~~ I have to change typewriters to one which prints twice the size of the other.

I asked for articles last month and got none so I'll ask one more time. If anyone wants to send in an article or anything for that matter get it to me and I will print it. Anything, political opinion, letter to the Editor, or a good argument to support legalized prostitution.

No new games are opening this month.

Bruce Gletty has changed his address (see his section) and so has Mike Wright. I can't find Mike's address but, you can get it by looking up Bill Roche's section in last month's Journal.

Although we have no game openings, one of our GM's, John Mensinger, has his own 'zine, The World News and War Report, which does have openings in regular, napoleonic, and Youngstown Variant games. Rates are about what ours are. For more info, write John, 120 Magnolia Ave., Modesto, Ca., 95350.

Polack Predicts

~~As the All-Star break my predictions in baseball are looking very good. The Giants have a 6 game lead, Pitt. has about an 8 game lead with the Mets almost out of it, Oakland has already got their division won. The only problem is the Detroit Tigers who I said would be on top in the American East. They are only 7 out though and ready to make their move. With a healthy pitching staff they just have to get better. You just can't keep the best team down.~~

I also predicted horse racing right if you remember last month. I predicted that I would put my foot in my mouth. Which I did. Chalk another one up for the Polack. I said Cananaro II would take the Belmont Stakes, at the wire he didn't even place. I will make one more prediction on horse racing. I won't predict horse races anymore.

The All-Star game was played today as the American knocked off the National. Played in beautiful Tiger Stadium, Detroit the home to pla yers were just to much to stop. Also the fact a few Mets got to play helped the American League out a great deal. But it was mainly those four Tigers which spurred the American League on to its victory.

Game I (1970 Y) Press Releases

Ankara, Feb. 22, 1909-The Sultan today asked the Commissioner of U.S. Baseball if the team called the New York Mets could be switched to Ankara. He was quoted "a falling apart team like the Mets deserve to go down with a falling apart country like Turkey." The Commissioner has reportedly refused to grant the Sultan's request on the grounds that a new franchise in Ankara would steal attendance from the Smyrna Giant. The Commissioner did send the Sultan a "Primer in English Grammar" as a token gift.

Berlin, Feb. 29, 1909-In the latest development concerning the publication of classified documents belonging to the Ministry of War by the Berlin Times, the government suit was settled out of court. At a meeting between the editorial staff of the Times and representatives of the armed forces behind the Martinsollern Palace, Kaiser War I delivered the following statement which, for the benefit of the public, is reproduced in its entirety:
"Ready, aim, fire."

Game II (1970 2) Press Releases

Bosowski, March 18, 1908-Emperor Bosowski I today made a speech squelching the rumors of war with Russia. He explained that it is all part of a new exchange program. The Emperor stated: "We give Russia our government, leaders, troops and guidance in exchange for her territory. We are also hoping that Czar Wrightsky will soon be making a long term tour of English jails."

The Emperor also expressed grief at the announcement of the loss of Kaiser Douglas. He said "I am deeply grieved." The Emperor also said that the Kaiser was a man among men, corrections pigs, the Emperor almost forgetting that the Kaiser was in Austria. The Emperor then expressed the wish that he find the ballerina that loaned the Kaiser her tu-tu, seeing things have been pretty dull around the palace lately.

Vienna, April 12, 1908-Von Roche made a speech to clarify certain points of darkness that have arisen. "Many of you, my loyal fans (Otis Dypwick, Alvin Gumbuddy and Doug Schaefer, just to name the few) have asked me what fate has come to the infamous Ben Goss, Ruler of Turkey, and the more passive John Mensinger of France. Well, do not despair for point of darkness #1, Ben Goss. He is now the King of Syria which has been made a dominion of the mighty Austrian Empire. He was offered a high government position, Secretary of the Department of Offence, but he turned it down. Too bad, he would have best for the job. Now to point of darkness #2, John Mensinger. At this moment, I cannot fully account for him. He was last reported touring the mountains of Central Albania in the guise of a Holy mystic, which scares the hell out of the peasants. Ghastly fellow!"

At the conclusion of the speech, his select crowd of loyal fans, Otis Dypwick, Alvin Gumbuddy, and Doug Schaefer, all went wild with excitement. The situation got out of hand and the Vienna Vice Squad was called in to subdue them.

Rome, May 21, 1908-Benito the Yellow stayed true to his color as Italy changed sides for the second straight season. Benito claimed it was a clever Astro-Italian trick to fool the imbecile Emperor Bozo. He was further stated that the Austro-Italian alliance would never be broken.

Vienna, May 27, 1908-Von Roche held a top secret meeting with his military advisors: General Situation, Colonel O³Corn and Major Problem. They devised a plan that will ensure Russia's demise within a matter of months. Also on hand were Corporal Punishment and Private Property who went wild with excitement when the plan was completed.

NOTE: After reading this article, the Editor of the JOURNAL had to be taken forcibly to the punny farm.

Press release 1971I
 London:

Due to the Message recieved from the Russian Ambassador, stating a desire for peace, this government has suspended all hostilities against the Russian nation. We shall continue to hold our present position until it has been established that the Moscow Government desires a just peace. Should events prove to be contrary to such a peace, a state of total war must follow. I call once more on the French to honor their word, for what its worth.

Press release 1971AM
 Moscow:

The Russian War office here today confirmed the rumor that the country was at war with Austria. When pressed for an explanation for this Imperial activity, General Styebzia stated the King of Austria had stood the Czars daughter up on an engagement that she had been counting on for weeks. The only way the Czar could console the heartbroken girl was to promise her the Austrian Royal palace for her summer home. The people of Russia will suffer immeasurable amounts of grief rather than have their princess unhappy. Hence th Wzr with Austria.

News of the World

Spring 1902

London, March 10, 1902-Our Bureau in London sent the following clipping from the Morning Times: "Today the Prime Minister said that military action will be taken against the Russians in Sweden, after our spy in Moscow, John All Bais, an Indian whose family joined British Forces during the French and Indian War, reported activity in the St. Petersburg area." The head of our London bureau commented that having a spy was unnecessary, since the stupid Russians reported all their movements in their local press. In fact, it seems the Russian Newspapers know before the Generals do.

Constantinople, March 31, 1902-Due to the unfortunate disappearance of our man in Turkey (Rumor has it that his gas mask fell off, and he disintegrated, we must rely on the (ugh) Turkish Press for news. The following is a dispatch from the Constantinople Bee: "Suleiman requests that Dictator Ben Goss guarantee through public press release that the borders of the Aegean Sea, Bulgaria, Rumania, Galicia, Bohemia, Tyrolia, and Venetia shall not be attacked or advanced upon by his or his allies forces. Should this request be refused, Suleiman requests, no, demanding aid from all countries threatened, to unite and destroy this tyrannical aggressor." According to the Bee, Suleiman then went to a public execution, where 476 people were being coiled in oil for looking cross eyed at Suleiman during a recent rally.

Rome, January 30, 1902-Today, the FF correspondent in Italy learned that the Italian fleet has left its home waters to fish in the Waters off North America. He immediately flew out to the Italian Fleet, and asked Captain von Ludendorf of the Italian flagship what was behind the move. He was told, "With all the shells falling in the water, and the mines in the water, we feel it is advisable to change our fishing sites to safer waters."

Constantinople, January 15, 1902 (Taken from the Constantinople Anti-Catholic.)
"Today the last surviving scattered remnants of the Greek Army reached Bulgaria,
"There were just too many of them and Italy would not give aid," The Greeks said. The Austrian Dictator must be stopped. Suleiman requests aid from all countries." According to reliable sources, Suleiman then had the surviving members of the Greek army slaughtered, and feed to his horses.

Anzio, March 18, 1902 (UPI)-Documents which had been marked top secret were released today through the town newspaper, "The Daily Klotz." The documents contained information that they are (the Italians) sending their fleet to Americanto recover the pope who fled the country when war was declared on themselves. While this might have been good for the pope's health (fleeing), it is felt it isn't good for the Italian morale.

General Note to all Outthroats engaged in Diplomatic Manueverings

Due date for moves in both Game VII and Game VIII is July 30, 1971. Please be on time, so far your record has been good. I would like to encourage you people to keep sending in press releases, they are a lot of fun.

Well, that is about it for now. See you all next month.

(Official state newspaper of the People's Republic of Rabbleasian, the Far East's answer to the Autonomous Grand Duchy of Strassmanhouffalitzheim, under the authority and complete scrutiny of Governor-General "Ewana" Bill Roche, as authorized by the powers vested to him from His Majesty, Hello the Wonderful.)

Jubbulpore, rabbleasian-Your wispy-wespy Game Master is changing the format from the method I previously said I would use that of John Mensinger and Bruce Gletty type notation. This is mainly because the map doesn't abbreviate. But, where the map doesn't abbreviate, I won't either. In case you are interested, I've done some research as to the origin of the abbreviated PBM method. It was founded by the Peltung-anese natives who called it "Ooo Habediao" or, liberally translated, damned confusing.

Anyone trying to contact me from June 26 through July 9 will be unable to do so as I'll be assignment in the southeastern sector, putting down the new civil uprising there.

To those of you who are new to THE JOURNAL, General Orders aren't allowed. Sorry.

Press Rules, Game IX

London, March 3, 1901-The new Prime Minister Michael Byrne announced the Royal Marines were sent to Belfast again. (Were they sent there before?) The Catholics and Protestants were killing each other off. It is the Prime Minister's sincere hope that the Irish would quit fighting without the use of force by the government.

Berlin, April 10, 1901-"It may be noticed," stated Papa Doc Fromenhoff, President for Life, "that Germany is one of the few colonies amongst the Almighty Ten which does not have any colonies. This is a very serious situation in today's competitive imperialistic world. Not to let the Fatherland fall behind other nations of the world, we will now seize some colonies that are rightfully ours. Holland has already welcomed becoming a protectorate of our benevolent nation with others to follow. In this way the balance of power will not sway against the Prussian Knights." Papa Doc, the friendly and kind leader of Germany, concluded his speech by pulling the gallows rope thus sending 20 fiendish enemies of the Fatherland to their untimely end. (One can only imagine what Bob was smoking when he wrote this.)

Gorki, April 11, 1901-The Government of Russia wishes to announce that anyone found in the Gulf of Bothnia will be taken into custody and sent to one of our "Rehabilitation Centers" located throughout Russia. It seems that once these people are cured they will want to go back to their homes. This is why you people of the west never see your love ones again. Signed: Czar Raymond the Lenient.

Trieste, May 3, 1901-AUSTRIA-HUNGARY DECLARES WAR ON ITALY was the headline that was seen on trian papers today. Here is an account of a press conference held with this sick and perverted ruler.

Today Austria-Hungary's new ruler, Lord Smedly Dimple declared war on Italy. He was asked a few questions and some of the answers were "Why did I declare war with Italy? What would you do with three Armies and a Fleet that are tired of apple strudle?!" "What made me choose Italy? I hate pizza what other reason could there be?!" We later found out that Lord Smedly Dimple had worked in a pizza parlor for two years and completely destroyed the parlor one day while cutting up peperonni. This may give us some insight into why the war.

The reason England's Fleet Joh-Tha doesn't work is because he didn't specify East or West coast, and could have moved to both. Unfortunately, I am powerless to change such picky rules, and am their slave. No mercy was given to late moves as I'm leaving for vacation the morning of 6/26. (Late moves should never come more than one day after they are due, and should include a handsome bribe to ensure publication.)

I would like to thank all of you who put your intellect aside and wrote press releases. You guys who missed their moves; get on the stick! to all: Watch the wine, women, and song. That music will kill ya.

Editor's Note: As you can see everyone moved in Bill's game. The reason for this is because I allowed the people who missed their moves to get them in late to me. I felt that although it was unfair to players who got their moves in on time it would hurt the game if I didn't allow them. However, I would like to be known that this is not a Journal policy and this will not be done in the future. For those of you who missed your moves, as Bill Sied, get on the stick. If you want to be in a game you should at least care enough to get your moves in so as not to wreck it for other players.

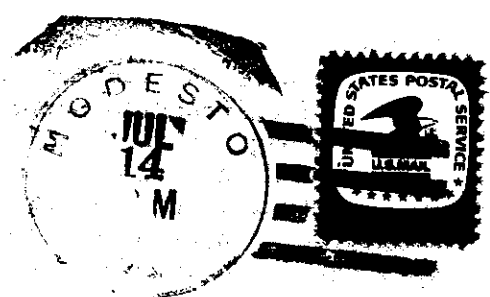

For all of you who got maps from me for the IV game there was an error. Japan should appear as it is to the right. Honshu and Osaka should be below Kyoto and Fuji with Osaka a supply province not Fuji. Please take a pen or in the case of some of our Conn. friends a crayon and correct it. Sorry for the mix up.
