PRESS RELEASES

Venice, June 29, 1902

The Italian War Office said today in a press release that the Italian government is not going to run from a war if one comes. Although as of Today, Italy is not at war with another country. It does look like this peace will not last for long. Italy is a peaceful nation, but the French are trying to start a war with this peaceful nation.

The statement by Pierre Phidious Albion (Former Ambassador to England) is calling for war between the people of France and Italy.

Berlin, Germany Sept, 9th.

Today the Kaiser lashed out against recent remarks made about him originating from the United States, "I don't know what impressions that Prithurd fellow has been spreading around since he got home," the Kaiser said, "but such derogatory remarks are typical of the inept Americans." The Kaiser then went on to state that Franz Joseph "had better watch his ASS or he may find it lost somewhere in the..."

Heidelberg University, Germany Oct. 13th.

Reporters were finally allowed in the heretofore secret convention of the League for Student Democracy, president Harry Rubin stated "IN Spite of the Kaiser's warnings, Professor Timmey Queerie was invited to speak at the next convention, on Dec. 11, and excited by the prospect of a trip, had accepted the offer." When asked about future programs, Rubin said "We asked his Impotence Omar II to speak along with Queerie, seeing as they make such a lovely couple, but he had to decline because, as he said, "One trip at a time, please!"

Amsterdam, Holland Nov. 29th.

Herr Cote, spokesman for the German Foreign Service announced yesterday, "I have been assigned to the Iceland Branch to study their Zeppelin building techniques," When asked, Aren't you worried about danger to your person from the English fleets, Herr Cote replied, "What do you mean by that?" After the exact meaning of the question was cleared, he replied "Oh no, I'm taking the German High Seas Fleet with me just to be sure I'll make it." When the reporter further inquired "are you sorry to have left France?" Herr Cote replied "not at all things were getting pretty hot down there in Paris and Iceland is just the place to cool off. I just hope I don't freeze it."

Vienna, Sept. 3, 1902

Noted Moralist Sigmund Prude has been discovered to be a Russian spy. This was reported by the ASS after he was painfully tortured by the ASS. Secret Service Director Alfred Von Butt described the torture process used to gain the information from Prude. "After confining him to a bedroom, one of our enticing female agents, Fraulein Guta Flicker, threatened to commit various acts which I cannot mention. Prude, who could not morally allow this to take place, avoided her advances by turning his other cheeks. When this proved to be futile, he surrendered all information he had rather than be subjected to Miss Flicker and her, uh, facilities. The information he revealed that he had close connections with a Russian spy ring in Vienna. A raid on their headquarters caught them having an orgy, but there were no girls in the entire building. Queerest thing we've ever seen, Athens, Sept 29--Due to problems with the Orange Lynx terrorist group, the Austrian Navy has evacuated to Bulgaria, and units of the Italian fleet are moving in to catch the guerillas.

London-Oct 1st--No. 10 Downing Street was shocked at the news that the newly arrived ambassador to Austria had been executed. It seems the reason was that he took the Emperor's mistress. When London reciprocated and murdered the Austrian ambassador, Franz Joseph promptly signed an alliance with the PM. When asked why, he said, "That's the kind of diplomacy I understand,"

Vienna-Nov. 4th--All of Austria is rejoicing at the end of the war with Turkey. Negotiations are presently going on and military plans are being made for the Southern Europe power block to conquer the rest of the Europeans barbarians.

Vladivostok, Russia Aug. + $\frac{1}{2}$  of Sept. Cackle
After fierce fighting, in which two sprained ankles, one chipped tooth and eight-six broken eardrums were the total Russian casualties, the Czar's great cossacks succeeded in eradicating this city of the hordes of the fat little Japanese mothers-in-law who composed the enemy occupation force. The high number of Russian broken eardrums was attributed to the fact that our boys just weren't used to hearing such swearing. The japs suffered 99.6% casualties when the Cossacks charged through the "Dear Abby" section of town, they were all knocked over onto their ponderous midriffs, and since they could not regain their feet, starved to death. The Japanese army, however, is still at large.

Krlinknovorstysic, Rumania Next 3/4 of Sept. CHIRP

Noting that their bosem buddy and life-long pal, Barney-er-Turkey- is now involved in a war with Austria, the Rumanians have now decided that they had better do something to appease the Mongrels-er-Mongols- from the west. It is hoped that the peaceful withdrawal from Galicia will convince them of Russia's kind intentions.

Sparta, Greece (oh about Oct.) (GOBBLE)

Well, all of the populace is out for the great festivities tomorrow at dawn. The great fighting spirit of everyone should be well satisfied when, as the sun slowly peaks out of the east, three great powers collide here. Turkish and Italian fleets plus either as Austrian army or Fleet are expected to clash in the big, mad, free-for-all. Ah, if only, they all knew that whoever wins, gets the hand of the beautiful (and very substantial) Princess Ignacious in marriage. ((Ed. note--congratulations, Mike!!!))

Burbank, Calif. (dead of winter) (SQUAWK)

Is that another chicken joke? Huh? Is it? Is it? ((Ed. Note--I sure as hell hope not.))

CONSTANTINOPLE, TURKEY (23 Sept, 1902) (TPI) Turkish minister of defence Mustapha Bey, announced the execution of all current army and fleet commanders. This action came in the wake of sharp reverses on the western front where invading Austrian-Hungarian mercenaries pushed back the Turkish 1st Army. There is speculation that one-eyed Levantine General Genghis Cohen will be given supreme command of all land and sea forces. Those who wish to view the late military leaders may do so merely by passing the main gate of this city where their heads will be on display for some time.

BERLIN, GERMANY: Once again, Volks, it is time to wander up Unter der Linden and into the Kaiserhof to pay another visit to the lovable KAT ZENJAMMER KIDS! As we step in good old Willie is booting BOTH Hans und Fritz (and who doesn't like to boot Krauts!/) out of a third floor window for spilling the beans about Willie's stash of juice to the Kaiserin. She is standing in the background, foot tapping, and a large rolling pin firmly in her grasp bodes ill for someone... the Kaiserin shouts: Villie! Why iss it dat you iss half-schtone!?

Der Kaiser replies: "Bud, Mama, Ich run outd of Schnapps." Stay tuned for the next exciting installment where we find out just what the relationship IS between Willie and the upstairs maid.

CABAL BREWS IN WEST

Somewhere in France (4 Oct. 1902): Cloaked figures were seen crossing both the German and French borders into Luxembourg. Although the secret police of both countries have been cracking down on any transformation of information, we managed to smuggle this report out in a case of liverwurst being exported to America. The meeting in Luxembourg between French and German top officials can mean nothing less than a conference to settle spheres of influence once all other nations have been brought low under the Franco-German heel. Already, England is reeling under the combined might of their assault. Who the next victim of this plan of global conquest will be is a matter of speculation, but Italy and Russia are the obvious choices. Unless the other powers of Eurpoe soon band together in a crusade against the agressors there can be little hope for them.

CAMPUS MELEE!!

Berleley, Calif. (17 Oct. 1902) (ROOTERS): A general free-for-all ensued here last night when demonstrators from several opposing factions collided in front of the University Administrarion Building. The trouble began when supporters of AHISM met in a head-on clash with a band of WALKERS(both factions from VCL Game 1968BK). They were soon joined by Boardmen, AHists supposing themselves to be intellectual lions (thus the expression, "I'll ((sic)) my Boardmen on you if you don't agree with my views!") Small groups of followers of Pope Pussell Rowell and Guru Geergee Fillies feeling inadequate to join in the larger fray attempted to molest certain officials of the University. Police quickly arrested them, however, and transported them to the local drunk tank. Bail was sent at 11¢ each, but it is expected they will have to serve their time. Meanwhile, visitin Austrian Dignitary, Sigmund Prude, was assaulted by U.S.Ambassador Plll Prithurd when Prude criticized the lack of moral fibre evidenced by the frecas. Fighting on all fronts is expected to continue.

Somewhere in Wales Aug, 13th, 1902

The Neo-Balkan wars were disrupted todäy when the French fleet gave their sailors shore leave in Wales, and were promptly thrown out of the province. It seems that some French sailors had stumbled across the Bulgarian favorite brothel(in exile) and therefore succeeded in incurring their wrath. Being chased down the street in the buff the French ran into a Rumanian embassy(they didn't know it was an embassy after all how many cow barns are here?) for shelter. Since the scene theyfound resembled the"house" they just left they planned to settle in for a peaceful repose. Als the Bulgarians broke in and the scene of the wars was suddenly shifted to that location. Beaten and bloody the French had all they could do to get back to their ships and escape the pack of frothing Bulgarians chasing them. Their flight sent them north to Liverpool where they seek to rest after their untimely exit from Wales((Ed. note--well, almost))

Sept, 17, 1902 Andorra-Andorra: Guru Geeroge Fillies presented a lecture at the Andorrian school of fine arts today. In attendance were envoy Plll Prithurd, KKK Dragon Pussell Rowell, Ambassador Rosmenko, Franz of Austria(or Big Joe as his friends call him) and

Phoney Moraley, the new Italian Ambassador. The Guru delivered an attack on French Cabinet member Leo La Cupcake who had evoked the Guru's wrath by washing off the Guru's sacred cow dung before allowing him entrance to the French assembly. The Guru ranted and raved for two hours using what he believed to be clever innuendo but what was in fact little more than bellicose banterings, and bovine bavardage. The Guru touched on many points but succeeded, in his rather lethargic rhetorical style, in not making one. After his speech only the Dragon applauded wildly-but then not having any orange lynx to chase, why shouldn't he?

Nov. 3rd, 1902 Sparta, Greece: Pussell Rowell was depretd today as an even less desirable alien than beofre he ascended to the papacy. The boat that took him away ran up an orange flag and haunts of "ORANGE IS WONDERFUL" were heard among the screams of Puss the first.

Dec. 7th, 1902 Ankara, Turkey: A temporary lull in hostilities were called for today when French leader, the Duc de Canard, visited the Pleasure Dome and his imperial majesty Sultan Omar II. They discussed the recent events in Europe and the aggitators that were causing it. Notable were Guru Geeorge Fillies, KKK Dragon Pussell Rowell, Swiss mountain climber Willey Douglas Voyeur, and on occasion Envoy Pill Prithurd. It was sad that events and turmoil were caused by these gentlemen but now that the old lard was in the Hooka and we all had to bear up under it! The duc left under a 15 gun salute but all were aimed at his head, thank the lord it was Turkish artillerists that were manning the guns the duc was heard to say!

Berkeley, Balif. June 30th, 1902: The new enterprise of his eminence Pussell Rowell was opend for business in Berkeley today. The Pleasure Dome # 2, as Pusty calls it, is a first in California, a state known for many firsts. When interviewed, Puss I said, "Yes friends, with th the invention and increased use of the motor car many new industries and services will build up around the automobile. My establishment is the first in a new chain of "drive-in service companies."

Later that afternoon after the Police raid, Cheif of Police Big Bull Conroy was asked about what he thought of the "Pleasure Dome # 2." "Never having been to his Omnipotence' Pleasure dome in Turkey, I have no standard of comparison, but I'd call it a drive in brothel and juice house" (He didn't elaborate as to whether he was referring to liquid from the orange groves, the poppy fields or something mixed in Pusty's bathub.) Cheif Conroy went on; "When we booked the clients of the establishment it read like an international who's who'. Under proding($20) Cheif Conroy gave up a list: "Let's see there was Herr Cote from Germany, the famed Austrian Moralst Sigmund Prude, Guru Geeorge Fillies, Envoy Pill Prithurd, Harvard professor Timmy Queerie and his impotence himself, Omar II."

"We had reports of a Russian ambassador pulling up his trousers and running out the back. Oneof my men who attended the first grand ball of the Comptess de Caquet in Paris a few years ago commented, We are getting to see more and more of the ambassador here lately..."

When asked if the man had been caught the Cheif had to admit he escaped into the sunrise nudist colony another of Pusty's new business. Guru Geeorge Fillies later said: "Puss is still number one with me!!"

Sparta, Greece May 7th, 1902: Pope Pussell Rowell climbed Mt. Olympus today for his annual attempt at an ascension. His efforts were blessed by an altitude of 6,451 feet. At this point the earth began to tremble and a large chasm opened in the plain below. When Puss I floated over the gaping hole his rise became a rapid descent and he disappeared into the fiery depths below. Two days later he was seen climbing out of the crevass, more dead than alive, and saying "I've been identifying with the wrong free spirits I'm afraid." He immediately threw off his vestments and ran to his local house of ill repute to begin his alter ego identification.

Sofia, Bulgaria May 21, 1901: The liberation of Bulgaria was completed today as Turkish troops marched into the streets of Sofia to the cheering of the inhabitants. The only resistance came from King Alexander's elite guard who hurled stones and shouted obscenities at the invaders. The king( now residing at the local dungeon) was asked to comment on the poor showing of the army. "I can't understand it" replied the king, "all tax money not used on myself and my harem went directly on military training." A further investigation showed a grand total of $6.78 U.S allocated to the military in the last five years.

GERMANY; BERLIN-- The German Government proudly announced it;s manned rocket has landed on the moon and a man, a German has walked on the moon. Germany now claims the moon. This is a first for Germany! Samples have been brought back. Allies may rent space on the moon for peaceful purposes. All of those who want to go to the moon must pay a fee, and can't see certain places. The first man to walk on the moon is Dr. Arm Schultz.

PARIS feb. 11, 1901

It was announced today that the Grand Imperial Wizard of Spain died today at a local Howard Johnson's while waiting for his favorite ice cream, pickled peppermint pistaccio with bat'swing. Cause of death was listed as starvation. The French High Command suspects that there was foul play involved and have ordered our forces into Spain to maintain peace. The French Navy was ordered to Portugal because it is suspected the Portugese were involved in the plot to overthrow the beloved Wizard.

Piedmont was invaded as a protective measure against the infidel Italians. IF there was no hostile move by the Italians we regret the move and are ready to evacuate the area immediately.

LONDON Dec. 7, 1900

Prime Minister Alfred Lord Duddly presented himself to the King today after George V opened the new seession of Parliament. The cabinet, all aristocrats, earls, dukes, knights of the realm, etc. presented a truely Patrician background as Lord Duddly explained England's continued policy of splendid isolationism. The calm, arrogant manner of Lord Duddly's opening address was accepted with the nonchalance to which Britain has so long been heir. A few cries of protest arose from Labor and Home Rule MP's but being less than gentlemen their cries were dismissed as casually as one brushes away a fly. Whn their protest reached a new high the Prime Minister dismissed parliament, for, after all, there was a hunt at Balmoral that afternoon and unless these currs planned to run it in the house of commons no interest by the cabinet could be achieved.

BALMORAL Dec 7, 1900 (later that afternoon)

After a smashing hunt witnessing only three felled horsemen and four trampled hounds the King and Lord Duddly entertained guests from the continent. In attendance for tea were; Count Hahnenbergelli of Italy, King Louis LXIX of France, Baron Kurt Lockjaw of Dusseldorf, Czarsess Conlonoffski of Russia, His Impotence Hakbar Ahmed Pulp from Turkeyand Willey von Fluffy from Austria.

The King and Lord Duddly felt very ill at ease with this group, fearing politics on the continent would be brought up, and no one in the cabinet wished to hear of this. Von Fluffy was the first to be noticed(the stench could hardly be overlooked) but Baron Lockjaw was the first to speak. With all the tact and charm at his disposal he blurted, "What does England plan to do in the upcoming war?" Horrified by the question the King begged his pardon and retreated closely followed by the Count and King Louie.

WHITEHALL March, 17, 1901

Reports were pouring in concerning movement of arms, men and ships all over the continent. The First Sea Lord, Duke Nathan Prickingham, gave the order to ready the British fleet in case such action became necessary for England too.

LONDON June 23, 1901

After a long talk with King Louis LXIX, England issued the news their fleets must protect home waters but that they would not move to the continent.

LONDON June 27, 1901

New Ambassadors were greeted today by the Prime Minister. Presenting their papers were: Ambassador Polyp N, Chardprit of the United Spates, Spanish Ambassador D'n Fellacio de Carnalinguas, Ambassador at large Moshia Dion, and Greek Patriot Ssellur Wellop.

POLICIES OF LIASONS DANGEREUSES, MISCELLANEOUS RULES

1. Sealed orderes are due for all games that have reached the SPRING 1902 move. If not received, a player missing a deadline will stand. If he misses two deadlines he will be struck form the game. Extensions can be gotten by petition to the appropriate gamemaster. Prior to Spring 1902 the Gamemaster shall select a neutral player to move the pieces of any player not submitting moves. This occu red in LD # 2 and # 3 this issue. Both Bill Mc Duffie and Sam Ferris did not meet their deadlines. If they miss one more time they will be removed from the game!!! Please note that!!
2. The last set of DATED AND SIGNED orders sent by a palyer will be used, however, moves dated after the deadline (postmarked) will not be accepted.
3. In all LIASONS DANGEREUSES GAMES "Costal creep" and "Changing of the guard" are legal moves. Convoying can be accomplished only a a sea based fleet, costal provences MAY NOT convoy armies.
4. Nomenclature; The 3 letter abbrevations of provences is suffic-ient in most cases except for those areas starting with NOR, here the entire word should be written out. Abbrevations A and F must be affixed to all moves. Abbrevations S and C and H mean Support Convoy and Hold respectively. They should be used. When support- ing a piece of another nation that other nations MUST be specified in the order or thw move will be void.
Many of the players in LD now are new to postal diplomacy so we have been very fair thus far in allowing small errors. STARTING WITH LD # 5 ALL MOVES MUST BE CORRECT, all orders MUST be clearly written or they will fail!!! there will be NO EXCEPTIONS!!!
5. A full set of houserules will be presented in the next Liasons Dangereuses, be sure to read it carefully

TO SUBSCRIBERS OR PERSONS NAMED HEREIN (all resemblances between persons living and dead are intentional) press releases of non- European nations will be accepted if space permits.

Press release (my you guys talk a lot)

PARIS January 18, 1902

All Paris is in uproar over the sneak attack by Italy. Italy is the second country to openly invade France. Germany's attack had been launched, but France was unprepared for the sab-in-the-back by the coniving Italian. The feeling here against the lying Italian are much grater than they are against Germany. Every Italian found is lynched on the streets by the angry mob, and pizzas have been boycotted. The French legislature has given President Pierre Bonaparte almost dictatorial powers, ind in a speech today, the Presidnet called on all peace-loving nations to band together and halt the menace to the free world.

MOVES for Fall 1902 are due on August 19, at 6P.M CDT. Sealed orders should be submitted at this time also. If not received your peices will stand if you miss a deadline, there will be no exceptions.

We didn't know at all, we didn't see a thing you can't hold US to blame,-- What could we do?
 It was a terrible shame--but we can't bear the blame.
 Oh no, not US, we didn't know.

We didn't know said the Bergmeister, about that camp on the edge of town
 It was Hitler and his crew who tore the German nation down.

We saw the cattle cars--its true, and maybe they carried a Jew or two
 They woke us up as they rattled through.

But what do you expect Me to do?

 non-European Press releases

WASHINGTON D.C. Envoy Pill Prithurd held a new conference today for reporters on his recent trips abroad for the United States. Mr. Prithurd was adamant about his recent press abroad. "It's mostly lies designed by foreign powers to embroil the United States in the silly war in Europe." He mentioned a few incidents:
 "Take the incident in Oh Phouque French Indo-China last November" the envoy expounded. "That incident was entirely blown out of proportion by the French press. Pussell did not ask for all of California, only southern California, and as for the meeting with the Comptess....." (a pause) "At no time did I mention Tibet or even infer that I'd take her to a cheap hotel. The American government has plenty of maney..... Anyway the Comptess wasn't that good of a piece.....er....conversationalist anyway!"
 "Next there was that other infamous rumor about the orgy....I mean party at the comptess' home this April" The envoy continued. "Let me say once and for all that I don't take sloppy seconds after anyone!"
 Cambridge Mass: Guru Geeorgee Files could not be reached for comment on recent press releases involving his relations with Pussell and the French. A zinger is expected soon.
 Long Beach California Pussell Rowell, lately descended from the Papacy and now active in the KKK was another of the silent types who could not be cajoled into commenting. After reading some of the latest press dribble we are sure Mr Rowell may be a bit more talkative.
 Washington D.C. Ambassador Polyp N. Chardprit, now in the service of the United States in London, promised comment in a few weeks concerning current activiteis in that nation and abroad.

LAISONS DANGEREUSES hopes to see more releases from non-European powers, especially from those being mentioned in the zine. At no time are releases ment in any serious manner, they are all in jest and we hope everyone will take tham that way, You hear that you big dummies?

To the genius of the Scientists, the labor of millinns, and the hopes of the countless generations APOLLO 11 has been a tribute. To laud those involved would beyond the ability of this poor soul -- let me say that they have achieved some of man's most profound hopes and have pointed him toward fullfilment of many more.
