

MARSOVIA RETURNS

First off, my apologies to the players and gamesmasters to whom this magazine is sent. The original stencils for this issue were sent to San Diego in early November. I have delayed this issue to allow them every chance to appear. The division of editorial and publishing functions has not been successful so with this issue I am fully responsible for both. When possible issues will be duplicated. However all future issues will appear on time no matter what method must be used to insure this.

LONDON: In a twelve second speech to a chamber filled with panitors Prime Minister Krajewski revoked the citizenship of Dame, H. Princetonia Garrigus and ordered her to report for duty to a penal colony on the island of Nauru, a desolate phosphorous deposit in the Pacific.

Puddleby-on-the-Marsh: The Peoples Empire Expansionist Party today named its candidate to oppose Dame, Garrigus. He is Hugh "Gub Gub" Lofting well known propagandist and political satirist who dubbed his opponent "The California Colossus". He was immediately endorsed by the Conservative, Liberal, Labour, Communist, and Fascist party conventions.

LONDON: Final returns show that Dame H. Princetonia Garrigus was defeated in Puddelby. Final vote Lofting 17,250, Garrigus 3,489. This has occasioned some comment as the district is known to have fewer than 7000 voters. In a major upset the students of Oxford have woutten Dame Garrigus into one of their two seats in a campaign led by philosophy major "Birdie" Russell.

BERLIN: The German Nation, besieged on all sides, announced a major reorganization of the government. Her majesty E. Barabara Phillips appointed Al Williams comptroller of the currency and Gary O Duhn as Minister of State. Mr. Duhn, of British ancestry, hopes to establish better rapport with the British government. Her majesty ended the press conference with an invocation for peace.

VIENNA: His Imperial Majesty dressed the following note to the Government of Russia: Sorry, Hell. You did it with glee in your malicious back-stabbing black heart. Austria declares war on Russia.
