MARSOVIA (MPC) - The fourth year of the recent war ended with the Axis powers, who have never formally allied being defeated on all fronts. France has shifted to the Anglo-Russian alliance, though its full energies are still directed in the Mediterranean Conflict. Communist state of confusion has been unable to leave the masses while the Italians have been valiant but futile in their efforts.

The Austrians party in Wien (we mean Muhammadsburg of course - in case) still the Turks advance northwest and the Russians continue to govern with Budapest. It is a season of joy for the oppressed but hardly that for the middle class.

Wien (25 Sept. 1904) To the SM: The hell you say about these bitter ahead cocktails! What other nation of our size would take on two nations (Sovly and Germany) at one swift sweep (honest that last is not my mistake - you have had too many of those cocktails yourself too). Yes 'd better watch the pretenders to the throne won't be the only ones in danger. (I've 'se not married, you guys couldn't even defeat Grand Katschikan)

Wien (3 Oct. 1904) Her Imperial Majesty, the Empress Lucretia, today issued official invitations to her birthday party, to be held the last day of this month. Among those invited it is rumored, was Tsar Wapstongue of Russia (whose perfidious attack on Budapest is remembered with cordial hatred by all red-blooded true-believing citizens of the Austroman Empire). It is expected that the celebration will be the social highlight of the year, at which the Empress, naturally, will outshine even her normally magnificent self. It is also reported that the Emperor's policies have led the city of Vienna to adopt a new city slogan: "Don't drink the wine".

Muhammadschir (15 Oct 1904) His Imperial Majesty, Emperor Ladislas II in an impressive ceremony today renamed the capital of the Austroman Empire after the holy prophet Muhammad, standing in the courtyard of the Mosque of Selim the Sincere. His Majesty made the proclamation. The mosque, formerly St. Stephens cathedral, is named after the saint Selim, who died of gout, apoplexy, overindulgence, varicose veins, and a surfeit of opium at the age of 11.

((you just renamed the city last year, You must have an unemployment problem among street sign painters or something. You haven't tried Muhammad -a_ bad, Muhamedsk, Muhammado, etc yet.))

Muhhamadsehir (17 Oct 1904) The sale of the Collected Works of Henry Krajewski today caused a large scale riot in the capitol of the Austroman Empire today. It was quickly learned that the poems, which were largely about pigs, insulted the faithful Moslem population. Several mullahs and muzzein threw most of the copies of the work into the flames, together with their publisher Ali Abd-ar-Rahman Hearst.

Salona (23 Oct 1904) Speaking from her autumn retreat and the second city of the Austroman Empire, the Empress Ludovika today reiterated her husband's stand that the foreign policy of the Empire shall be dedicated to one aim, that of securing a victory for Turkey in the current war. We ask only survival under the protective wing of our Moslem brethren.

Salona (31 Oct. 1904) The birthday celebrations of Her Majesty the Empress went into full swing today at the Imperial Palace. His Holiness, Pope Innocent XIX, Her Majesty's father-in-law, came to bless and participate in the proceedings, having been invited in the company of several young dancers. His Holiness bore them away to teach them the avoidance of the flesh and the virtues of sin. The young ladies seemed delighted with the prospect of becoming religion in such a firm hand manner. Accompanying the group was the French Ambassador, the Marquis de Sade, a noted philosopher gourmet, and author, also present were President Robert E. Lee of the Confederate States of America, Prime Minister Bismarck of England, several members of the British House of Lords, and other nice people. The presence of Tsar Nicholas of Russia has neither been confirmed nor denied by the Ministry of the Sultan's private secretary, Dr. (All) Wellington Keopohine private audience with her Majesty of (some time ago).

Salona (1 Nov. 1904) Queen Victoria's report last (10 Nov. 1904) with Maria Theresa's representative minister that he had the honor to brief appearance last night in the Imperial Palace. He said the only thing that was worth mentioning was Her Majesty's speech. It was very good, but it was not as good as the speech of the Emperor of the Austroman Empire. It is expected that the celebration in London will be a great success. The Emperor of Austria possessed a fine sense of humor and a good deal of common sense. He said that Queen Victoria, that noblest of empresses of Austria, also said she found it difficult to maintain the dignity of the British Minister of England, even when he is (sniff) a pig farmer." If he can not have the dignity of a prince, he might at least pretend to observe the dignity of a pig farmer. In the question how long Garrigue possessed the British minister on the continent, her protest were directed against the British minister. The sailors in the home fleet were attacked by the British minister.

Salona (1 Nov. 1904) The city of London has just received the news that the British minister on the continent, Garrigue, has been arrested. The British minister on the continent, Garrigue, has been arrested. The British minister on the continent, Garrigue, has been arrested.

Autumn: The Garman A. Kiel was ~~not~~ retreated ^{TO Ruhr} and removed.

A WORD OF EXPLANATION:

AFTER TYPING UP THE MOVES I CALLED ANDY SWENSON AND FOUND OUT THAT ROLAND TZUDIKER HAD SENT HIS MOVES THERE. SINCE THEY ARRIVED BEFORE THE DEADLINE I COUNTED THEM RESULTING IN THE CHANGES IN PEN ON THE MOVES SHEET. IN CASE IT IS UNCLEAR THE NET EFFECT OF THE CHANGE IS THE FRENCH ENTRY INTO MUNICH, ADDING ONE MORE SUPPLY CENTER ((build 2, not one)). GERMANY HAS NONE. NO OTHER MOVES WERE CHANGED SINCE THE RUSSIAN AND ENGLISH MOVES HAD SUPPORT.

NO WAIT. SINCE HOLLAND-KIEL IS SUPPORTED IT WORKS AND GERMANY IS IN KIEL, ALSO THIS CUTS THE BALTIC SUPPORT AND RUSSIA THIS WAY DOES NOT TAKE BERLIN. RUSSIA THEN STILL DOES NOT HAVE KIEL OR BERLIN AND REMAINS EVEN, GERMANY HAS TWO CENTERS, KIEL AND BERLIN AND REMOVES ONE.
