STUFF

MURD'RING MINISTERS is published by Ron Brown, 1528 El Sereno Pl., Bakersfield, CA 93304. Phone: (805) 834-8409. MM is published monthly featuring games of postal DIPLOMACY and MACHIAVELLI. There are no current game openings. Subscriptions cost: $5.50 for 12 issues.

Well, there was a strong response in favor of the decision to separate the games issues from the reading issues. A lot of letters have been coming in so I'll start the next issue of all-reading stuff pretty soon and when it's all typed up, you'll see it! Could use an article or three submitted. Anyone interested in writing an article for publication here? Two issues per typed page of article is the payment rate; so why don't some of you extend your subs a bit? Now for this month's Zodiac Description . . .

(( This series was first published in BLACK FROG #29, Jan. '81 ))

LIBRA

(The Scales, 24 September to 23 October)

Libra is the marriage sign. Librans possess cheerful dispositions, generally attracting members of the opposite sex, and, occasionally, some of the same sex. But no matter. Librans tend to remarry often, with or without legal sanction. Life is one big tacit wedding vow after another. If your wife is a Libran, it is suggested that you buy your milk at the store, burn wood (so no one will come to read the gas meter), and, if you have a best friend, shoot him since it's a cinch something is going on.

Librans play DIPLOMACY because it is relaxing to them and provides an opportunity to have a few pen-pals and to exchange a few letters. Librans do not have a strong desire to win, although they are capable, self-assured and composed at all times as players. They make ideal allies because of this and their obvious desire for fairness and honesty. If a Libran tells you he is going to use his army in Ruhr to support you into Belgium, you can believe him -- and quickly rip-off both Munich and Belgium for big fall gains!

1981CT Press-

AUSTRIA-TURKEY: The sins of the Father are often visited upon the son!

LONDON-FRANCE: OK, bud, I see the light and will move (or not move) as you mentioned in your letter. You know, we're starting to look like a bunch of planes stacked up over a busy airport, what with all these pieces and so little room to maneuver. I always liked the Chinese human wave assaults, though, didn't you? England stands firmly committed to E/F alliance victory--let us keep our builds away from each other, to lessen paranoia, and keep pressing eastward. Good luck on your "southern venture", if you went through with it.

LONDON-ITALY: Jim, are you still there? Is Italy functioning? Best of luck to you, old sot; if you've lost heart for this one, no biggie, and if you decided to become a roaming berserker, even more power to you! Thanks again for your letter to me, and the best to you always, both in gaming and in real life, buddy.

LONDON-AUSTRIA: Stan, Archduke Maximus! Bully for you, striking out for Rum (if you did)! That move may have indirectly helped me destroy Sev this turn, aiding us both; the English people were fortunate indeed to have such a helpful Austrian ally. Notice that I also didn't move to Gal, as you requested.

ITALY: Mmphht! Blorp! Greeph!

LONDON-TURKEY: The guessing game against you went well last turn; perhaps I can keep up my streak of luck, you non-communicative scourge of the east! You have inherited a bad position, so just lean back, and let Drs. Hanson and Fassio go to work . . .

OLSEN-WOODHEAD : What did I ever do to offend you? Graciously ignore your "accidental" stab in 1982AB? Nobly remain your ally in 1981KD? valiantly let you and your toady Pearson crush me like an insect in Tempest? no Wood, you have no reason to complain about my honesty.. Yours on the other hand....

ENG-FRA: I see right through your shabby, pathetic scams. It's really getting to be kind of a drag.... (drag--get it, Judy?).

FRA-ENG: What stab? So I sail to the English Channel? What right do you have to mimic my order?

FRA-ITA? Fear not the Southern fleet. It will sail in English waters soon.

GER-ITA: ---"Uncle Dan insisted on this opening!" What kind of club did Uncle Dan 'insist' with? You sound much like Flip "Geraldine" Wilson, "the Devil made me do it!" ENJOY the fruits of your opening.

GER-ENG: Thanks so much for your help.

GER-FRA: Thanks so much for your help.

MOSCOW-VIENNA: If only you could have trusted me in Spr. 01 we wouldn't be in this adventure--especially as we'll probably both get creamed. Of course a few letters from you might have changed things....

MM GAME OPENINGS. . .

NONE! I don't have anyone waiting to see their game begin so this looks like a good place to to close down the game openings. When the next DIP game (maybe two) concludes, I will certainly have another regl DIP game opening. Until then . . .

WRAP-UP . . . . .

Last issue I commented that LONE STAR DIPLOMAT had folded; something I had read in another zine. Come to find out, Mike is still publishing and even has game openings, I believe. I stand corrected . . . If you noticed, the STAR FLEET BATTLES game opening has been withdrawn. Although it got a couple of nibbles it didn't catch any bites . . . The latest EVERYTHING is just out. MM player and subber Dan Stafford won two games within! Congratulations, Dan. By the way, Kathy, I'm the Ron Brown listed in 1980HY in that issue. I'm surprised you didn't know; I thought you followed that game a bit in RETALIATION. Dick Martin, who publishes RET has put out his second issue of HOUSE OF LORDS, a publisher-only zine. It contained many interesting letters from various zine publishers. . . . You are urged to vote in the Caruso Player Poll and the Larzelere Zine Poll!! Lots of interesting letters have floated in recently. Will probably have another all-reading issue out in a couple of months . . . Later! - RB.
