MURD'RING-MINISTERS is a gamezine dedicated to the play of postal DIPLOMACY, MACHIAVELLI, and other multi-player wargames. MM is published by Ron Brown, 1528 El Sereno Pl., Bakersfield, CA 93304. Phone- (805) 834-8409. Subscriptions cost $5.50/12 issues. See GAME OPENINGS section for specific game availability, fees, etc.

ASTROLOGICAL GUIDE TO DIPLOMACY

(This series is taken from the Jan. 1st, 1981 issue of BLACK FROG, published by Jack Masters.)

TAURUS

(The Bull, 21 April to 21 May)

Men and women born under this sign are known in Zodiacal circles as "The Silent Ones". No loud talkers here. No orators. No loud-mouths. But it's mainly because they have nothing to say. In spite of this, they usually manage to destroy an interesting conversation.

As a rule, Taureans don't make great DIPLOMACY players. They play a safe, solid game, but they lack the flair and daring of winners. The famous Taurean obstinacy means, however, that they are determined players. In a postal DIPLOMACY game, it is easy to recognize the Taurean. He seldom writes or negotiates over the phone. He never provides press releases. But he also never NMR's. If he is your foe, he will never forget the minor slight of three or more seasons ago and will carry this grudge to the bitter end. The best way to deal with the Taurean in your game is to eliminate him quickly and expediently.

BERLIN: Does anyone know the name of the best hotel in Vienna? It looks like the crowned heads of state are planning to hold a convention there!

ANKARA-KIEL: This "Porte bit" is the Sublime Porte, of course, you Arian! What makes you think I need a place to tie up my boat?

BERLIN-THE PORTE: Now why is a Russian fleet doing in Rumania; it isn't on its way to Vienna!?

POPE MICHALANGELO-THE SULTAN: Boy, you don't know how much I hated to do this. I mean, I really did. But I have this thing about infidels; I'm sorry.

TURKEY-ITALY & RUSSIA: Hey, I like strudel too! Please save a couple of pieces for me!

BERLIN: The German Foreign Office hates to point out the obvious, but duty is duty.

SWITZERLAND: The International League of Anti-Expansionists urges the leaders of England, Germany, and Turkey to take steppes now before it is too late!

BERLIN-THE AUSTRIANS: I think the Italians have declared war on you, and you will of course counter-attack with your Armies in Vienna, Budapest, and Serbia!

POPE MICHALANGELO-THE MAD CZAR: Your proposals had one serious flaw. After dispatching Austria, your proposed split of centers left nowhere for the Sultan to go except through you or me. I guess you didn't expect him to go through you . . .

CONSTANTINOPLE-LONDON: And a peachy Atlanta salute to the heroic lads and lassies of England! We both seem to be cornered.

BERLIN-THE FROGS: That raid on London will, of course, bring about the building of an English fleet in London, so you will need a fleet in Brest! I guess you could call it an arms race!

BERLIN-OUR WOP FRIENDS IN ROME: You will need an army in Vienna to withstand the coming Austrian counter-attack and also another fleet, as I don't see how anyone is going to keep you out of Spain for long.

TURKEY-AUSTRIA: The Porte has decided that its elite corps of educators should begin by teaching The Truth to recalcitrant Greeks. We understand that this effort has your full approval...

BERLIN-THE ENGLISH TEA DRINKERS: A fleet in London is in the works, ol' boy, and then where oh where will you go?

POPE MICHALANGELO-FRENCH PERSON? F Mar? Don't you trust lil' ol' me?

BERLIN-THE IMPERIAL RUSSIANS: I have a group of your exiles I'm sending back to you, one has the odd name of Lenin, which is actually a good German name. Oh well, I'm sure you will know what to do with them.

LONDON-RUSSIA: You are beginning to look thinly stretched my Fiend.
 TURKEY-WORLD: The invasion of Rumania by the Austrian hordes in violation of our non-aggression pact is an unconscionable act. Turkey declares war on Austria, and vows to sacrifice all its subjects to protect its benevolent emperor if necessary.
 SWITZERLAND: The Swiss watch tower service has noticed a number of French troops invading Italy! Looks like another one of those un-declared wars, and with the Italian army so far away in Ukrainia. It is also noticed that a French fleet will soon be steaming into Italian waters!
 LONDON-GERMANY: You have made a series of exceedingly bad decisions to bring yourself to such a state.
 ST.PETERSBURG: Interesting how Pitas can think that where a person lives determines an alliance! Now if this is true, why don't I have an alliance with Baldwin who lives in Bakersfield, CA???

Never Never Land: Resigning himself to not being able to trust his magic wand again, Tinker Belle decided to lay it aside and try to cope without it. So far, even his closest compatriots hadn't noticed that he'd lost his magic. At least, that was what Rinker Thought.

Tinker had no one to confide with since Peter left. Peter just couldn't take the pressures that came with running a country. He would never settle down long enough to take on that kind of responsibility. Not even to help a friend. His mind was always elsewhere, as was his body. Where was he now? Probably in some jungle fighting wild animals or fighting Indians. Peter always did love to fight Indians.

Not that tinker didn't like a fight now and then. But in previous fights he'd always had his magic wand to fall back on when he needed it. Now it wasn't dependable. "I'll guess I'd better start figuring out how to be a leader", said Tinker as he picked up his copy of "The One Minute Manager" and started to read. A minute later he set it down and picked up "Murdering Ministers # 67/68 to see if he could finally get through it. "This Ron Brown is getting more like Bruce Linsey every day" he thought.

A question about rules has been raised: Dan Palter asked why his orders failed last time; i.e. - why his "support into Messina" didn't succeed. Please remember that to write your support order correctly, you must order the support into the proper province; NOT the unit that is moving into the attacked province. Example: if you want to support the move "F2 Palermo-A-Messina" you must write, "F1 Ionian-S-Messina", not "-S-Palermo" OK??
