

Published by Stephen Marsland, 78 Genesee, Greens, NY 13778.
 Gamesmaster for 1971V is Lewis Pulsipher, 321A Twin Towers, Albion, Michigan 49224. Subscription price is 10/$1.50; game fee $1.00, free to members of the American Designer's Association.

Todd Dutton has resigned as Germany, so the game is held up again. This issue will be sent to some people who may be interested in taking over Germany. Anyone who is should contact me (Pulsipher);
 I will then notify the players of the new deadline, along with the address of the new player. Also, anyone who wishes to be placed on the replacement player list should contact me. There is currently no one on the list, which is why I have to resort to these methods.

Next move due is Spring 1903. Moves already in way be changed.
 Positions after Winter 1902 are:
 Austria: A's Gal, Vie, Rum, Ser, F Ion (Ed Wiest)
 England: F's Bar, Swe, Nth, Lon, A Hwy (Steve Langs)
 France: F's Glys, Wes, EngC, A's Bur, Bel, Par (Steve Marsland)
 Germany: F Den, A's Holl, Mun, Ruh, Kie (vacant)
 Italy: F's Naples, Tun, A's Apu, Ven (Andy Phillips)
 Russia: F's Bal, Arm, A's War, Sev (Robert Hagelshaw)
 Turkey: F's Blk, Aeg, A's Bul, Con, Gre (Carl Adamec)

NEW GAME !

There is one game open, to be gamesmastered by th publisher.
 Fee is $1.00 or membership in ADA. There are two or three positions left.

Anyone interested in playing postal Origins of World War II should contact me. For those who haven't heard, this is Avalon Hill's new game, a recreation of political conflict in Europe in the years before WW II.

Forgot to specify: in order to be a replacement you must trade or subscribe to Mars Vigila, or be a member of ADA.